They made several bids for refill without success—until they pulled into an orchard where a Negro medic outfit was dug in for the night. Piled in a neat stack under a tree were about 30 cans—all empty. Empty, that is, except for the few drops that always stick inside the neck of a GI can.

Well, those Negro GI's came out of their holes, and tilted the empties into the one can. By the time the 30 cans were wrung dry, there was enough gas in the jeep to get to the next dump.

"Don't mention it," was what the Negro sergeant said as the GI's pulled out.

The decent things Joes do for each other should be mentioned. They ought to make things a little easier when we go back home.

READY

By BILLY McCLAIN

For 50 of my 89 years in this turbulent world, I have been trying to get ready. That is one of the things wrong with the world today—the people aren't ready. I've trekked around the world three times—registered in every country and clime, civilized and uncivilized, trying to find a haven of rest; trying to get ready for the crisis. What do I find? Sadness! Worry! Sorrow! Discontent! Unpleasant situations brought on one's self by taking the wrong attitude.

You have to spread your own sunshine and carry your own joy before you can make others see that happiness lies within yourself. It's you standing on your own feet. With your eyes wide open you are fast asleep.

You come home complaining about what someone has done or said. You're all upset—frustrated, squabbling with everybody who listens to your tale of woe. If they don't agree with you, there's another argument. If you'd just stop and think that you are the cause of it all!

Check Yourself

When it was thrown back in your lap you just couldn't take it—hence the squawk. Check up on yourself. See if you're ready. If you are a square shooter, you will acknowledge that you were wrong and too hasty. But the damage is done—the word "sorry" won't repair the injuries.

Again, I ask are you ready? There is no use in mentioning the assault on Pearl Harbor, because you know the good old U. S. A. was not ready, so I go back to myself. When I broke my leg last March 21, I prayed after it was broken. Had I been ready, I would have prayed before, so you see how significant it is to be ready?—The Old Philosopher.

Shoots At Cops

Hosea Mullins came up for preliminary hearing on September 26, 1944 in Division 3 of the Municipal Court, charged with Assault with a Deadly Weapon with Intention to Commit Murder.

Mullins, while going south on Central Avenue, stopped at Slauson and Central waiting for a freight train to pass. He commenced blowing his horn and continued to do so unnecessarily. Officers Jarvis Reeves and C. B. Barnes went up to the car and asked him what it was all about. Mullins got out of the car and told the officers to come and get him. He then went back to the car, got a gun and fired three times at the officers and then proceeded to run. The officers finally overtook him.

The date of his arraignment has been set for Friday, October 13th, 1944.

According to a statement from Walter L. Gordon, Jr., Mullin's attorney, after he had talked to the man and many of his relatives, he was compelled to enter a plea of "Not guilty" by reason of Insanity on behalf of Mullins and also not guilty in his next appearance. He resides at 761 East 41st Street.

Dinner Party Given by Jacksons for Visitors

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jackson at 4048 Woodlawn Avenue, was the scene of an elaborate dinner party Sunday, honoring the very popular young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Bill S. Gordon, who just arrived from Yuma's Gretna Green.

The table was tastefully arrayed with sparkling crystal, gleaming silver, and very fine old China. The guests dined by candlelight. Mrs. Jackson chose an exclusive model of a flowered crepe hostess gown to greet the arrival of her guests.

Mrs. Gordon is the former Lillian Belle Alex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Alex of West 28th Street, and is a member of several leading clubs. Mr. Gordon is well known in Los Angeles' younger set as a swimming star, having attended L. A. and Polytechnic High Schools. He is the son of Mrs. Louise LaVigne Anderson, popular social leader.

During the evening, friends of the bride and groom assembled in the beautiful garden of Mrs. Jackson for refreshments and to wish the pair every happiness.

Mr. Gordon leaves shortly for the United States Navy and will journey to Great Lakes for his training. Many social events are planned for the young pair before his leaving.

Kingsley-Franklin Romance Bears Fruit

A Fisk romance culminated in the marriage at Dallas, September 20, of Pfc. Roy E. Kingsley, son of Rev. and Mrs. Harold Kingsley, and Miss Bobbie L. Franklin, daughter of principal and Mrs. J. L. Patton, Jr., of the Booker T. Washington high school.

The groom's parents were present from Los Angeles and his father, the Rev. Kingsley, performed the ceremony at Bethel A.M.E. Church.

Mr. Hubbard Thomas, godfather, gave the bride away. The reception followed at the family residence, 2106 Cochran Street, and throngs reviewed the many beautiful presents. Mrs. Kingsley will join her husband at an early date at Nashville, when he completes his medical course at Meharry, in December. He will intern at Provident Hospital and the couple will reside in Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. Kingsley returned to Los Angeles last Tuesday.

The Gay Side

By Bernice Cook

So long as there are homes to which men turn
At the close of day,
So long as there are homes where children are—
Where women stay,
If love and loyalty and faith be found
Across these sills,
A stricken nation can recover from
Its gravest ills.

—Grace Noll Crowell

STARS THAT SHINE!

That khaki-clad lad, Pfc. Bobby Davis, professionally known as "Tables" Davis, literally had the crowd standing on its head at the Club Alabam Sunday night, when he went through his breath-taking tapdance routine. Davis, as many of you can testify, is not an ordinary tap dancer. Oh no! He only dances around the room picking up the tables, glasses and all, as he goes, and lifts them, by his teeth onto the stage. Not being satisfied with that, he grasps the table in his teeth and makes a dozen or more twirls on his toes while the table, still held in his teeth, is at least three feet above the level of the floor. This wonder-boy, before going into the service, was a headliner at Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe in New York. He is now stationed at the Ontario Air Base, a few miles outside of San Bernardino. All we have to say is that nothing short of the army could stop this young man from reaching the very pinnacle of success.

Another great surprise at the Alabam Sunday night was the personal appearance of Cecil Grant, another soldier boy, who wrote that popular song all the kids are raving over, "I Wonder." Grant is a very talented young man and after playing his own original song hit, broke out into a real "Count Basie" style number which thrilled his listeners. The Grant boy has loads of personality which makes him much more appreciable when he is seen and heard in person, than when one listens to his voice on recording.

AUTOGRAPHING PARTY

We are looking forward to the autographing party in honor of the author of "The Cross and the Arrow," Mr. Albert Maltz, which will be held Sunday, October 1, at 2414 Fourth avenue. The affair is sponsored by the Progressive Book Shop. An interesting evening of entertainment and cocktails is assured, highlighted of course, by a personal introduction to the famous author, Mr. Maltz.

CONGRATULATIONS!

It's a beautiful baby girl for the Nelson Greenwoods, and her name is Edith Gayella.

Mrs. Marian Thomas, secretary to Walter Gordon, Jr., attorney, is the proud mother of a fine baby boy. My congratulations!

SOCIAL... AND OTHERWISE

When the Allegria Girls met with Mamie (Mrs. Rochester) Anderson, recently, they were royally entertained in the Anderson's rumpus room, partaking of every imaginable delicacy which the hostess, Mrs. Anderson, is noted for serving.

A lovely baby shower was given by Mrs. Alpharetta Parker of 622 East 51st street, Sunday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. Fay McGriff whose "bundle from heaven" should arrive in November. Many useful gifts for the little one were received.

Attorney Walter Gordon's secretaries are mighty proud these days of the beautifully appointed new offices in which they work. Attorney Gordon truly has one of the most modernly equipped business establishments in the city.

Floyd Covington, executive secretary of the Los Angeles Urban League, left the city Tuesday to attend the National Urban League meet in Ohio.

Newly appointed executive field director of the Interracial Film and Radio Guild, Caleb Peterson, Jr., entrained for New York Wednesday morning. While in the East he will contact prospective members of the organization's national advisory board, as well as visit with his parents in Peekskill, N. Y.

Bill Williams of the cast of "Porgy and Bess" was a visitor at the Eagle offices this week.

Likeable War Perkins is acting as host at the swank new night club, Shepp's Playhouse, which is becoming the rave of the Coast.

IN THE MAIL...

Always glad to hear from the men in the service, I wish to acknowledge receipt of nice letters from Pvt. Louise Amory, somewhere in Italy, Sgt. William W. Robinson, located in the China-Burma-India theatre of operation, S 1/c Jackie Bauchmann, Honolulu, and my own favorite serviceman, my brother, Sgt. Virgil Mann, somewhere in France. Thanks, fellows, and this is to say that your little Christmas boxes from me are on the way. My warmest "Alphas" to you all. 'Bye.

MEMBERS PLAN PROGRAM

The program year at 28th Street Y.M.C.A. was launched Thursday evening at an Assembly of members and committeemen under the leadership of Norman O. Houston, Vice-Chairman of the Board of Managers. An appetizing buffet supper was followed by group singing keyed by Walter Worrill, Young Men's secretary after which Emory L. Cain of the Boy's Work staff cast a playlet entitled "The first YMCA Meeting." Associate general secretary Leslie E. Etchelburger described the place and character of committeemen in the Association in a brief address. The Rev. Hamilton Boswell closed the preliminary meeting with a brief service in which he challenged the men present to undertake the "Kingdom" building tasks that face the Branch.

Groups concerned with Boy's Program, Young Men's activities, and Adult program met under the leadership of Dr. H. C. Hudson, Rev. J. L. Caston, and Rev. F. D. Jordan respectively. These groups surveyed the activities already offered at the "Y" and suggested others appropriate to the age group to be served. Their recommendations give assurance of an expanding Boy's program, the development of a full schedule in the gymnasium and pool under a physical director, the initiation of educational and religious forums and classes and other programming that will give 28th Street Branch an aggressive, busy season.

Ladies, they used to say: "That's TABOO!" Now read these facts
Not long ago, many a woman would prefer to suffer in silence from periodic, functional pain rather than talk about this subject.
Nowadays, women and girls openly praise CARDUI's 2-way help. Taken as a tonic, it usually peps up the appetite and aids digestion by stimulating the flow of gastric juices; thus it often helps build up resistance for the trying days to come. Or taken as directed 3 days before the time, CARDIU may help relieve pain due only to periodic, functional causes.
Try CARDIU. For 62 years thousands of women have said they believed it helped them.

What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

Jessie Mae Brown

The aftermath of Saturday's football tift that left the Bruins gloating over their tie score with S. C. has served as a stimulator for the returning University students. For the past semester or two there has been a large increase in the colored enrollment. So happens that the aloof manner in which some of the older students carry themselves has caused the new freshmen to have it hard. Being the select few at a University is nothing to be proud of, for the larger the enrollment, the better progress it shows for the race. So when enrollment takes place a few weeks from now, try being friendly by giving the new "greenhorn" and "out-of-stater" a fair chance. Including them into the different organizations will aid in every way. Jumping "hinkty" is a thing of the past, so let's leave it there.

FUN GALORE...

The music was a bit off the beam, but the gang was on hand and the Arlington Villa really jumped at Saturday night's Football Prom. Kids we haven't seen in ages were on hand tripping to the light fantastics. Of course, the terrific ending of the game was the topic of discussion throughout the evening. A fleeting glimpse of Bea Smith, Gloria Ford, Audrey Covington, Arthur Lewis, Jo Spearman, Corinne Jones, Charlesetta Strange, Marcelin Cobbs, Jimmy Robinson, Ernie Mae Maxey, Harlan Leonard Jr., Oscar Little furloughing just in time, Sam Marlowe, Edgar Bishop, Josephine Jordan, and Chick the sailor.

PLEASANT FAREWELL

Added to the memories of Douglas Van Vactor's recent furlough is the farewell social given in his honor at the lovely home of Mrs. Margaret Moore, B.T.U. president, by his Second Baptist pals. Many were on hand to bid their buddy farewell....

Y-WORKERS... College coeds serving as Girl Reserve advisors will be continued this year. Keep up the good work, girls....

WELL! WELL! WELL!

Ouida Pruitt returns to L. A. from Berkeley the latter part of October, planning to take up where she left off at U.C.L.A.... Bride-elect, Barbara Frazier, is being thoroughly feted with showers galore and then some... Hair styles worn by Phylippa Jones and Faye Hopkins are sure eye-catchers.... Feeling fit and looking likewise is Emma Manuel, just out of the hospital and on the road to recovery....

Gracing the Seventh street division of the Post Office is winsome Charlotte Hartsfield Nicholas, back from Seattle permanently.... Since Vivian Statun has been seen 'round town recently without the one and only Arthur Trent, rumor has it that 'tis all over.... Sgt. George Harpole left L. A. Sunday for camp after enjoying furlough time.... Dorothy Red has given up ties in Missouri since the family pulled stakes and placed them on the west side of town.

Odessa James is back from K.C. Says she only had a ball with her many friends in that part of the country.... Frances Williams is quite serious about entering University of Cal upon graduation from L. A. High. Plans to stay on campus.... Virginia Prince, Gloria Roberts, Marion and Alfleda Jackson and the rest of the S. C. coeds who went through the AKA sorority last semester are proudly sporting their pearl-studded sorority pins.... Jessie McDaniels is up and on the moving ball again after her recent illness.... Paulette DeJoie left for Howard U. Monday....

G. I. INFO...

Interesting letter hails from the Southland with info that Tuskegee is just running over with L. A. people.... Opal Sims Bryant seems to be in the midst of all doings down that way. Bill Terry and Al Duvall are enjoying the fun. Stanley Loupe and Luther Goodwin seem to be taking life in its stride.... Jean Solders is back in town after spending several months with hubby LeRoy, who is now a Cadet....

Quite surprised to hear from Sgt. Chester Parks who is somewhere in the South Pacific—wonders if things in L. A. are as they used to be.... Also a clever little V-Mail from John "Jitterbuggin'" Taylor who caught a glimpse of the Eagle news somewhere in the Central Pacific... still blowing his sax and enjoying life.... Master Sgt. Artis Grant in the Operations Office somewhere in the South Pacific writes that he has been in the hospital on a strict juice diet. However, he is now back on duty.... From somewhere in France Lt. Woody Brown writes that Paris is a wonderful place with champagne flowing like water. He seems to be enjoying himself in a big way so I take it for granted that wherever he is, danger has ceased.... Back in town, honorably discharged and bringing back a certain bit of gayety to the "Brown" household is Seaman First Class Wendell Brown. The future holds back to school and re-entry to 'round town doings.... A few extra congrats go out to Edward Toppins who is now a captain... understand that he has had over 120 missions serving overseas duty for a year and two months.... By the way, the distinguished gent is Naomi Davis' brother from San Francisco....

TILL NEXT WEEK...

NEGROES IN THE LABOR MOVEMENT

By Ferdie A. Finch
UAW-CIO No. 148

The first Negro National Labor Union was formed in 1869 as a federation of Colored Labor Union patterned after the National Labor Union (white).

Isaac Meyers, president of the Colored National Labor Union, was the first Negro labor leader to attend the National Labor Union's Convention as delegate in 1869, and expressed these aspirations when he said:

"The white men of this country have nothing to fear from the colored laboring men. We desire to see labor elevated and made respectable. We desire to have the hours of labor regulated... and you can rely upon the support of the colored labor of this country in bringing this result. If they haven't observed these principals it was because the doors of workshops in North, East, and West were bolted against them. American citizenship with the black man is a complete failure if he is proscribed from the workshops of this country... If American citizenship means anything at all, it means the freedom of labor, as broad and universal as the freedom of the ballot."

The National Labor Union then adopted a resolution which urged Negroes to form organizations in all legitimate ways and to send delegates from every state in the Union to the next Convention for—"the National Labor Union knows no North, no South no East, no West, neither color nor sex on the question of the rights of labor."

Adams Blvd. Day Nursery Opens

The Adams Boulevard Day Nursery had its formal opening on a recent Sunday afternoon, from 4:00 to 7:00.

Amidst a beautiful and colorful setting, artistically arranged and well equipped for some two dozen tots between the ages of 2½ to 6 years, the nursery is equipped with chairs, tables, cots, toys, instruments for educational play and a spacious playground. It all reveals the capability of the well trained teacher, Mrs. Bernice Smith, who has had several years of training and experience in the city of New York and comes well recommended from her former work in the East.

The opening was a complete success from the point of attendance, and liberal contributions were made by the public.

Doll League Charity Club Gives Big Cabaret Dance

The Doll League Charity Club sincerely thanks each and everyone of you who helped make the Cabaret Dance such a tremendous success when they acted as hostesses for Joe Morris at the Club Plantation. Needless to say that everyone is still agog over the Number 1 affair of the season. Scores and scores of the elite of the "Angel City" swarmed in to dance to the gay tunes of the famed Count Basie.

Heading the dance committee as general chairman was Mrs. Marion B. Jackson, and working diligently with her as co-chairmen were the following: Mmes. Fannie DeMan and Lola Griffin, responsible for the publicity, and Mrs. Hazel Moreland, tickets. Under the watchful eye of Mrs. Nellie Brown the lovely blue pinafores worn were the handiwork of the club members. Mrs. Lottie Martin was the artist who made the colorful pink and blue boxes for the cigarettes and flowers. Of course the entire club cooperated beautifully in helping to make this the gigantic success which it was, together with the likeable host, Mr. Joseph Morris. A cash prize was awarded Marion Jackson for selling the most tickets.

Remember seven years ago when the Doll League Charity Club banded themselves together under the careful guidance of Miss Laura Slayton to make dolls for the underprivileged children and to make their Xmas a happy one? Watch closely to see what they plan to do this year, as you have made it possible for them to do bigger and better things for those less fortunate. President of this worthwhile organization is Martha Florita Ware, and adviser, charming Louise Beavers.

Women Fought for Right to Vote

The election of the next President of the United States will fall heavily upon the shoulders of the women of the nation, for they constitute sixty per cent of the voting strength of the electorate this year due to the millions of men overseas and confined to camps far from their home states. The election of the next chief of this great nation will be the responsibility of the women, whether they exercise their voting rights or not, for staying away from the polls on election day may enable the candidates NOT of their choosing to carry the election because of the absence of their ballots.

Women fought hard to obtain the right to vote. They were persecuted, prosecuted, scorned, libeled, and generally kicked around in their attempt to win the ballot, some of them serving jail terms for the cause. Any woman who does not take advantage of this hard-won victory by her predecessors is indeed a traitor to her sex and not worth the toil, sweat and tears that her sisters have suffered for her.

Suffrage in the hands of women has meant invaluable gains for them, as well as for men. It has meant better working conditions, shorter working hours, better pay, a better chance for a career for those desiring one, a wiser and more healthy treatment of mothers and prospective mothers, and a lower infant mortality rate.

While their men are giving that last full measure of devotion on the battlefields around the globe, they expect them to be worthy of the respect and confidence they have gained by keeping the home fires burning socially, economically and politically. For a woman to say that she is not interested in politics is no longer considered a cut feminine foible, but downright silly. In a democracy like ours the home, the school, the factory, the field—all depend upon the wise use of the ballot.

We are interested in women voting. We are especially interested in Negro women voting. We want to see our women taking their place in the life of the country that progressive women of all racial groups are taking. We believe that the women will not be fooled by the loud-mouthed mutterings of selfish politicians. We believe that they will not be bunkoed by such smelly campaign tactics as accusing Mrs. Roosevelt of being a hypocrite in her words and actions concerning racial equality.

For our women, more than our men, have experienced the many social gatherings at the White House in which the First Lady cordially welcomed them along with women of other racial groups. Our women are fully conscious of the good that the First Lady has tried to do in visiting and reporting upon our poor housing conditions and the many hardships our women and children must suffer in this country due to the political chicanery of those who are afraid to give us our rightful place in this democracy.

We therefore urge all women to make it a part of the program in their church groups, their social clubs, their sororities, their charity clubs, their parents' and teachers' groups, and all of their organizations, to get their sisters out to the polls, to see that they register and vote, and to aid them in thinking straight and voting right.

Women, no matter what your club's purpose is, whether civic, religious, or simply social, now is the time for you to devote this period to the most important factor in your lives—your government—in which you are not only a part, but an essential part, and upon which you and your family must depend for the comforts of life, for progress or retrogression.

Negroes Ten Per Cent Movie Goers

Hollywood is beginning to study motion pictures from the point of view of its Negro fans. Negroes comprise about ten per cent of movie goers, and the motion pictures producers feel it would be a part of "good business" to find out the kind of picture Negroes most enjoy.

There are always two outstanding pictures mentioned when discussing favorites among Negroes. They are "In This Our Life," which starred Bette Davis with Ernest Anderson as a young Negro law student; and "Casablanca" to whose winning of last year's Academy award Dooley Wilson as the friend of Humphrey Bogart contributed such a large part.

Both Miss Davis and Mr. Bogart have been the favorites beyond dispute among Negroes not only because of their portrayals on the screen, but also because of their attitude in private life which affects the Negro people. Miss Davis as the organizer and director of the Hollywood Canteen took a firm stand against any discrimination among either hostesses or servicemen. Her stand in this matter was vigorously supported by John Garfield, her co-organizer at the Canteen.

As for Henry Bogart, Rex Ingram is doubtless the one who can tell best the kind of man Bogart is like. The two worked together in the desert for several weeks where they were on location for the filming of "Sahara." Rex says that on many nights after the day's shooting was finished, Bogart would come to his bungalow and have dinner with him. There they would work out the next day's lines, and often Bogart suggested changes in the dialogue to make it better.

Both Bette Davis and Humphrey Bogart are stars of Warner Bros. Some explanation of the Warner philosophy which produces such favorites is found in a recent comment of the "New York Times" which referred to their "enviable record for combining good citizenship with good picture making." The standards of good citizenship of such studios as Warner Bros. will show the way in establishing the industry as a power in world unity and brotherhood.

The Passing of Harry Chandler

Last Tuesday, Harry Chandler, veteran editor of the Los Angeles Times, walked into his office, discharged his routine duties, and whether he knew it or not, closed down his desk for the last time.

We were not wholly in accord with Mr. Chandler's newspaper policy, but we do agree with his many friends and admirers, that over a long period of years, this editor of the Times worked hard and faithfully discharged his duty to the public in the matter of news gathering, from all parts of the world, dispensing it to the people of this community.

We can't say that Harry Chandler's Times was the voice of the people, but in the new world order, which is the inevitable, after this war, no doubt the Los Angeles Times will become an instrument for the good of all humanity, and so as has been said, "no history of Los Angeles can be complete without mentioning the name of Harry Chandler."

There Must Be No Inferior Race Says Vice President Wallace

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Vice President Henry A. Wallace, speaking at a rally sponsored by the Independent Voters Committee of the Arts and Sciences for Roosevelt here Friday night, declared that, economically, educationally and politically, "there must be no inferior' races. Asserting that the Negro and every minority group must be included in plans for economic, educational and political progress, Wallace said, "if that means a permanent Fair Employment Practice Committee patterned after the Committee already established by the President, then we must have it. If that means Federal aid to education such as was killed in this Congress by the Republicans, then we must provide it. If that means abolition of the Poll Tax, then the Poll Tax must go."

Wallace told the throng of 20,000 that packed Madison Square Garden that the campaign issue is not "indispensability," but "who can better provide for permanent peace and full employment — Dewey or Roosevelt?" When he asked the crowd, "Who do you say?" the response was a thundering "Roosevelt."

He said that President Roosevelt is the best qualified to direct "the most exciting battle of modern times — the battle against depression, against panic, against defeatism; the battle for full employment, national health and permanent peace."

In a strong call for political action, Wallace stated, "the more potential voters who register and vote, the more democracy." He said, 'Since he who does not register does not vote. I urge all Americans to register so that the largest number of Americans in history may reach the polls on November 7th."

GOP Objects

Despite the efforts of Senate Republicans, the appointment of the Reverend Marshall Shepard as Recorder of Deeds was confirmed by the Senate Wednesday by a rousing voice vote.

The smear attacks of Senator Bridges of New Hampshire, Senator White of Maine, both Republicans, failed to influence the Democrats who rallied to the support of Reverend Shepard.

Hal Styles Platform

Hal Styles presents the following for his political platform:

1) JOBS FOR ALL. Full employment, and nothing less, during the postwar, based on an economy producing as much as it can of the things needed by the people of our nation and other nations. Government action both to keep the industries producing and selling their goods, at a profit, and to supply decent, useful jobs for any men and women who may not be employed by private industry.

2) ASSURED EMPLOYMENT FOR VETERANS. Not as a matter of sentiment or philanthropy, but as their indisputed right. Protection and extension of the present GI Bill of Rights. Unstinting rehabilitation programs for veterans returning ill or handicapped, physically or psychologically.

3) DECENT HOUSING. A large-scale problem of replacing slums, both urban and rural, with liveable, comfortable, healthful homes that sell or rent within the pocketbook range of the men and women who need them. Protection of home owners. Increasing the number of owners of homes worth living in.

4) PROTECTION OF TENANTS. Maintenance of rent ceilings so long as shortage of decent housing lasts and wherever it lasts. No let-up in guarding the rent rights of war workers and the families of our fighters.

5) CONTINUING FIGHT AGAINST INFLATION. Control of prices toward lower living costs. Roll back to bring cost of living to lower levels.

6) FULL LIBERTIES TO ALL CITIZENS REGARDLESS OF RACE, COLOR, OR CREED. Full and effective backing of the Constitution's bill of rights. Legislative action to ban incitement and hate-mongering directed against any group on grounds of race or religion. A permanent Fair Employment Practices Committee to perpetuate in peacetime the fine work done by the President's toward eliminating discrimination in hiring and firing. Basic American freedom must be assured all regardless of complexion, profiles, or church attendance — including freedom from want and freedom from fear, two of the famed Four Freedoms enunciated by our great leader, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

7) PASSAGE OF THE ANTI-POLL TAX BILL. An end to the vicious practice which robs millions of men and women, white as well as Negroes of their votes and citizenship rights in some of the Southern States. Democratize the elections of the entire nation. Assure a really representative Congress.

8) PASSAGE OF THE ANTI-LYNCH LAW. Federal punishment for perpetrators or instigators of mob violence. Federal protection to prevent lynching. Rid the nation of the rope, stake and faggot. No Hitler violence here. Federal backing to the law-abiding elements and responsible law-enforcement agencies in every community in the land.

9) CHILD WELFARE. Federal legislation to prevent any child from growing up sickly, undernourished, illiterate, or delinquent because of the accident of having been born into impoverished homes. Establishment of care for children in homes without breadwinners. School lunch program. Federal aid to equalize educational opportunities. Build up the greatest national asset—the health and vigor of the people—by preventing diseases of malnutrition and untreated handicaps among the youth of the land. This is no coddling; this is plain, hard-boiled horse-sense. The United States must never again have a population with so large a proportion of physically inferiors as were discovered by selective service examinations during the past several years.

10) MEDICAL CARE. In line with economic bill of rights set forth by President Rooseveit in his message to Congress, January, 1944, Congress must assure every American of "the right to adequate medical care and the opportunity to achieve and enjoy good health." Passage of the some equally good legislation is imperative.

11) SOCIAL SECURITY. Other than the urgent need for making medical care available to those who require it and haven't the means to get it, Congress must legislate to "assure the right to adequate protection from the economic fears of old age, sickness, accident and unemployment." Protection from these fears is not sufficiently strong to meet the post-war needs.

12) FULL PROTECTION OF THE RIGHTS OF LABOR. These rights include the right to organize and join unions of their own choosing to bargain collectively through freely chosen agents, the right not to be spied on, discriminated against in the exercise of organizational and bargaining rights. Legislation to prevent child labor, exploitation of women, and sweat shop conditions.

13) FREEDOM OF BUSINESS TO PRODUCE AND PROSPER. Every business man, small as well as large, independent as well as great corporations, must be assured the "right to trade in an atmosphere of freedom from unfair competition and dmination by monopolies at home and abroad." Break the stranglehold that cartels have had on production of many vital industrial needs in the USA.

14) ENDURING PEACE BASED ON AN ENDURING COOPERATION OF PEACEFUL PEOPLES. United Nations together are winning the greatest war against the most vicious foe in history. Together, in an atmosphere of positive friendship and understanding, they can build the structure that will mean lasting peace. Congress must give full backing to the blue prints that the President has helped to draw at the great international conferences and the special conferences. Isolationism must be abolished in national legislation as well as in foreign policy. We can prosper domestically only if the other United Nations are helped to prosper and buy our products.

Words Without Music...

Dear Mom:

I know that you are lonely,
But there's nothing I can do,
'Til this troubled world is peaceful
And I'm home again with you.
I can't send you flowers
To express my love in part;
But a carload of flowers
Couldn't ease an aching heart:
Now, Mom, you keep on smiling,
And at times if you feel blue,
Remember others are fighting,
And their mothers miss them too!
So you mothers stick together,
Please don't worry about us men—
And before you even know it,
We'll be coming home again.

Letters To The Editor

September 26, 1944

Mrs. Charlotta Bass,
Publisher of The California
Eagle, Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Bass:

It has just been brought to my attention, your editorial concerning the Honorable Frederick M. Roberts in the Republican Party.

Since I am free, Mrs. Bass and can choose what I wish to say, I think you are definitely right. The greatest mistake we, Republicans could have made was to overlook Fred. We all love him. He is one of the most lovable characters we have known. Something will be done about Fred.

You proved at least your sincere interest in your race when you called the attention of the American public to a great mistake of the Republican Party in overlooking Fred Roberts in the California set-up. We differ, Mrs. Bass, politically, but I like a "guy" who hits hard the way they believe. Why can't we be friends, since you like the same things I like.

Incidentally, Fred Roberts shall occupy the spot he should occupy regardless of what anybody thinks, because our race depends on leadership: you in your line—Fred Roberts in his line.

Assuring you, Mrs. Bass, of my personal friendship and my heartiest and warmest congratulations to you, I am

Very truly yours,
SIDNEY P. DONES.

Dear Mrs. Bass:

This is just to let you know we here at Hampton Institute read your paper every week. By saying we, I mean the fellows who are here in the Navy from good ol' L. A. My name is Marlin D. Thomas. I was born and reared in Los Angeles, in Watts, rather. I've been in the Navy four months.

I finished my boots at Great Lake in June. I'm here at Hampton to be a coxswain, which is a third class boatswains' mate They say only the top 10 per cent of the Negro race come here, and I can assure you Los Angeles is well represented.

I look for the Eagle just like I look for a letter from home, it keeps me up with everything. There isn't any other place like Los Angeles—it's fine.

This course is 16 weeks and plenty tough. It consists of four types of signalling (semaphore, blinker, morse and glaf), navigation, chart and bouy readings, knots and splices, and just about everything a top class seaman should know. I went to Jordan Hi in Watts and finished in 1938. I miss the old town greatly. A few of the boys here are Palmer Lampkin, motor machinist; John Lark, John Saulsberry, and William Branch. Also James Ellison of Riverside J. C. Keep them rolling so we can keep reading them. I'm taking my training dead on the water—I'm assigned to a UP boat (small craft). She's mighty sleek. Thanks a lot for listening.

Sincerely, a fellow Californian,
MARLIN THOMAS, S 2/c,

AS I SEE IT!

By Jeanette Cohen

There is nothing like a "pep talk" from a soldier overseas to straighten us out on a thing or two. Jim is a Negro soldier and has been in the South Pacific for almost two years. The morale of this soldier is inspiration to those of us at home who know him.

I had written to my friend Jim about my trip and some of the experiences I had with our Southern neighbors. I had wondered in my letter whether some of the people I met who called me "Jew Yankee" and had race prejudice written all over them, would ever learn better.

In Jim's last letter to me he wrote: "I want now to deal with that part of your letter where you wonder if even this war will teach 'those people' anything. Of course I know what 'people' you mean. You remember my experience in Honolulu?" (Jim had been insulted in a restaurant in Honolulu and some Southern soldiers came to his defense). "Well I thought that incident significant, but now I have another equally as significant, if not so dramatic.

"It seems our Post Exchange has a better break on the amount of beer we can use. So, the Navy and Marine personnel, mostly white, visit our area in large numbers. This means a very free mixing of the races.

"The first few times there was an individual here and there who started to go into the old routine of back slapping and head-rubbing, etc., which was very quickly and firmly corrected. Now—and here's the real punch to the whole thing—when and if anyone of their (the whites) number start getting out of line, some one of their own will very quickly set him right. And, on the rare occasions when it's necessary for one of us to straighten him out, he takes it in the spirit given and comes back for more.

"Now don't think we have all the beer by any means—the Navy has all the beer it can use and more. There is however, the best feeling among all the men. If you walk among them, you see mixed groups talking about everything imaginable. These men, both Negro and white, are from all over the States. Living out here as we do, you will find that the feeling between Yank and Rebel is not too marked.

"So again Jeanette, it depends largely on you who are at home, to keep the touch of how to fight and to keep fighting 'those people' who would keep that thing going at all costs. You know that the Bilbo's, the Rankin's, etc. are ready to fight to the last drop of OUR blood to keep it alive.

"Incidentally, I see that Westbrook Pegler has been 'released' to go to Hearst. I wonder if his mouthings have gotten too bad even for Scripts-Howard. Mr. Howard seemed a wee bit anxious to dis-associate Pegler from his paper's policy. I have had some fun trying to explain Pegler's stand to some of the fellows here, but Pegler himself made that very easy for me the other day when we got his column treating the Philadelphia Transit strike. I was a little sick when I saw what methods the man used and a little startled on realizing just how dangerous he really is.

"Jeanette, just by lucky chance I happened to get one copy of the California Eagle, the paper you write for. I had not seen it, for about five months. It was nice to read your column again. That was a good job done by those people in the Pacific Sound Equipment Company when they fought the case against discrimination. Yes Jeanette, gains are there, we just have to see and count them.

"You on the home front must increase your efforts to counteract 'those people' because we out here are finding out more and more every day that this 'race supremacy' is the bunk. And, when we get home we will tell them so—and GLADLY!

THE PULPIT VOICE

Conducted by Hamilton T. Boswell, minister, Bowen Memorial Methodist Church.

(The following paragraphs are excerpts from an article written by W. E. Garrison, literary editor of the "Christian Century," published in the Sept. 20, 1944, issue of that weekly magazine.)

TOM CHAN'S BODY

Tom Chan was Chinese. He was an American citizen, born in Hawaii sixty-three years ago; and he was a Christian, a member of the Chinese Christian Church, just across the street from his place of business. But Tom Chan was not "white"; so Rosehill cemetery, in which his first wife was buried twenty-four years ago, would not receive him, because it had adopted a "white only" rule about that time.

NOT WHITE ENOUGH

It has made a sensation among the Chinese of this city and throughout the country, because he was one of their most honored leaders. It is said that he was considered the "president" of all the Chinese in America. His leadership was also recognized in China; he had been honored by the generalissimo, chiefly for his work in promoting China relief, and the Chinese government is sending two representatives to his funeral. They will be surprised to learn how hard it was to have one.

The incident also shocked Americans when they learned how zealous and how successful had been his activity in the sale of war bonds. Tom Chan was chairman of the Chinese committee which is one of the thirty committees in the National Groups Division of the Illinois War Finance Committee. The Chinese are one of the smallest of these groups of diverse national origins—Polish, Italian, Czechoslovakian, Greek, and so on. But under the leadership of Tom Chan, the Chinese community in Chicago sold bonds to the amount of $4,238,000 in the Fifth War Loan, during June and July, out of the $82,271,731 sold by the National Groups Division. Tom was tremendously and contagiously enthusiastic about it. By the test of patriotic action, there was not a better American in Chicago than Tom Chan. But he was not "white" enough to be buried in an American cemetery. The character and prominence of this man call special attention to the discrimination on racial grounds, but it would be no less shameful if the person concerned were an unknown laundryman.

THE CEMETERY'S EXPLANATION

Two reasons were advanced. The first was an appeal to what was presumed to be the general aversion of "white" people to the proximity of non-whites, in life or in death. The second was a reference of the bizarre features of a Chinese funeral which are odious to others. The rule was adopted by many cemeteries in Chicago at a time when racial antipathies were especially acute, shortly after the first World War. The Klan was going strong, the "Dearborn Independent's "anti-semitic fever was burning it up, and white resentment at the continued presence of the tens of thousands of Negroes who had come from the South to do war work in the city and had then stayed on was bitter. We should not be asked to believe anything so preposterous as that a "Caucasians only" rule would be adopted at a time like that with no thought of anything but keeping out Chinese funerals. It is more reasonable to suppose that the exclusion of Chinese from the cemeteries was only an incidental consequence of a general racial rule adopted in deference to what seemed to be the dominant; and certainly was the noisiest and most violent section of public opinion.

A REFLECTION OF THE PUBLIC MIND

The plain fruth is that the cemetery's rule is a response to a state of the public mind as understood by the management. There are facts enough in the economic life, the social habits and the political processes of this nation to render plausible the opinion that the "white" public, in general, wants to be separated from non-Caucasians by the widest possible distance, whether in life or death.

The indignation aroused by the exclusion of the Christian Tom Chan from a cemetery in a Christian land was stirred too much by the special circumstances of his character, patriotism and prominence, and too little by considerations which would be applicable to non-Caucasions generally. It will be most fruitful of good results if we do not take it out on the cemetery—that would be attacking the thermometer if the weather is too hot or cold, or treating a symptom rather than the disease—and if we will let this particularly odious illustration of racial prejudice reveal to us the essential outrageousness and un-Christianness and, in the present state of the world, the absurdity and danger, of racial discrimination against non-Caucasians who like Tom Chan, are neither eminent nor dead.

Rev. Chas. Toney Back From Nat. Baptist Meet

The Rev. Charles M. Toney, Field Secretary of the Los Angeles District Association of the Western Baptist Convention, has returned from the National Baptist Convention, which was held at Dallas, Texas. Rev. Toney attended the convention as a delegate and the representative of his pastor, the Rev. H. C. Cappers, formerly of Louisiana and Texas, who is noted as a preacher and a scholar, and a teacher of no mean ability. Rev. Cappers is pastor of the Faithful Central Baptist Church, E. 40th Pl. and Paloma St. The convention met in its 64th annual session at the Fair Grounds and Good Street Baptist Church, the Rev. D. V. Jemison, pastor.

The pastor and members of Faithful Central were thrilled by Rev. Toney's report on convention activities which began on pre-convention night, Sept. 3, with the Good Spirit present. The theme was, A "Repentant Church, a Stricken World, a Healing Christ." Rev. Toney said it was the greatest assemblage of Christian intelligence he has ever witnessed, 14,000 delegates being present.

Rev. Toney was part of the program at the 1923, 1935 and 1937 sessions of the National Baptist Conventions in Los Angeles, Calif. In 1935 he went on a good-will tour under the late Rev. L. K. Williams. He traveled with the Rev. G. A. Miller, moderator of the Los Angeles District Association, and his family. The Rev. F. L. Taylor is the treasurer of the association.

It made Rev. Toney very happy to see the California delegations present. He roomed at a good Christian home in Dallas, the home of Mrs. Early B. Jones, 409 Bourbon St. He left Dallas at 11 a. m. on the Saturday following the convention in the company of Moderator Rev. G. A. Miller, whom he accompanied to San Antonio, Texas, to visit friends and relatives. They were royally received and entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis for five days. Mr. Lewis is a leading undertaker of San Antonio. Rev. Toney roomed at a Christian home with Sister Anna Nannie Evans, 234 North Center St. He attended Friendship Baptist Church to hear his moderator, Rev. G. A. Miller, preach. The Rev. I. G. Green is pastor of the church.

At the invitation of Mrs. Alice Marshell, missionary of the Second Baptist Church, Rev. Toney witnessed a musicale at the church of which the Rev. James is the pastor. He is thankful to God for Rev. Cappers, the members of Faithful Baptist Church and will remember them all in his prayers.

Pilgrim Baptist Church Presents Fine Program

The Rev. B. W. Wade, moderator of Providence Baptist Association and pastor of Pilgrim Baptist Church, 45th and Wadsworth ,officiated in the organizing, Sunday, of a New Hope 10th Street Baptist Church in Long Beach, California, of which Rev. Nathaniel Kirkpatrick is pastor.

Rev. Wade's sermon subject, Sunday morning, was "The Lonely Wonder." Text, Genesis 28:16. Seven were added to the church. Prof. I. B. McCutcheon of Atoka, Oklahoma, was introduced.

Words are inadequate to convey to our beloved chorister, Sister Emma Alley, our appreciation and thanks. No pains have been spared in the Senior Choir musical recital which she presented, and four of the senior choir members in A. and B. selections, Rozena Roan, Elease Perry, Roxy Mewborn and Cleo Perry, Sunday evening at 7:30. We wish to thank all members and visitors who witnessed our successful presentation. Sister Maggie Wade was mistress of ceremony.

A moment of silence was observed for our departed Brother Clem Wright and Mother Dainer Kerine. While they are gone, their memory serves to remind us that now is the time to prepare for that final day.

Pilgrim welcomes Brother and Sister Luther Graham back to church. Brother Graham has been ill for six weeks, and now his wife, sister Lucille Graham will take over her work as church clerk and reporter.

Services begin at 10:45. Come and hear our pastor sing, "He is going to preach 'till the day is done, then we will cease from sorrow, for there will be no tomorrow."

Rowena Lawrence, reporter.

Spiritual Revival Services at Independent During October

EAGLE ....church ....must go ....Spiritual Revival 34erbdc

The People's Independent Church of Christ, 18th and Paloma, of which the Rev. Clayton D. Russell is pastor, will devote the entire month of October to the celebration of a Spiritual Revival in observation of the 29th anniversary of the Church's founding. During the entire month, Rev. Russell will deliver an inspired sermon at each Sunday morning and evening service, and at a special Thursday evening service.

It will be the purpose of the pastor to increase the spiritual wealth of the church, and to increase its strength for useful service to the people.

Last Sunday, Rev. Russell and several members of the congregation visited the General Hospital between the broadcast of 'The Visitors,' over KFOX at 10:15 and morning worship. The members wheeled the bed-ridden patients to the hospital auditorium where Rev. Russell delivered a warming sermon to the patients who were men and women of all races. Last Sunday's visit marks the beginning of a newly inaugurated program to take the word of God into any of the hospitals and jails where the spiritual help of Independent church is needed.

Twenty-eight persons united with the People's Church at last Sunday morning's services marking the end of the twenty-eight year of the Church's birth. The Boy's Home received a check for $100 from Seaman William March of the U. S. Navy as a contribution to help some boys life to be less beset with difficulties such as he experienced.

The EAGLE BIBLE QUESTION CORNER

Los Angeles, Calif.

The CALIFORNIA EAGLE offers all its readers the choice of two Free Correspondence Courses of study in the Bible, with no fees collected and no postage charges made. The new introductory Course of 20 lessons, divided into two sections of 10 lessons each, has been prepared especially to meet the needs of those beginning for the first time the systematic study of the Bible. Also there is the standard course of 30 lessons which many of our readers have taken or are taking. The only text book needed for either of these courses is the Holy Bible. A Certificate is issued upon completion of either of these courses. When you write be sure to state which course you desire. Address a card or letter to the California Eagle.

In Revelation the sixteenth chapter I read about a battle called in the Hebrew, Armageddon. Where is the location of this battleground. The Bible seems to teach that this will be the last great battle in this Fresno, California.

Armageddon, which means "hill of Megiddo," is situated on the south side of the Plain of Esdraelon. This plain is also called the "Field of Megiddo. It is located at the entrance to a pass across the Carmel mountain range, on the main highway between Asia and Africa, which in ancient times was the principal cross-roads of the ancient world. If you refer to your map of Palestine you will find that it, is located about ten miles southwest of Nazareth where Jesus lived in his boyhood days.

This area was the battlefield of the ages. Thothmes III, who made Egypt a world-empire, said, "Megiddo is worth a thousand cities." General Allenby, in 1918, during World War I, broke the power of the Turkish army at Megiddo. It is said that more blood has been shed around this hill than any other spot on earth.

It is in this area that the Bible indicates the Battle of Armageddon will be fought. This battle is the last great battle of the world, and will bring to an end the present civilization.

Note: If you desire further information on this subject, just write for the book, "Armageddon," and enclose 25c, the price of the book, and it will be mailed to you. This book very thoroughly covers the various phases of this topic. Address your letter to the Eagle Bible Question Corner as given at the head of this column.

Sometimes I hear and read that Jesus was crucified at Calvary. At other times the place is called Golgotha. Which is correct?—M. O., Los Angeles.

In John 19:17, 20 and Hebrews 13:12, we read that Jesus was crucified "outside the city." The place was called the "skull," Matthew 27:33, Mark 15:22, etc. Now "Calvary" is the Latin for "skull." "Golgotha" is the Hebrew word for "skull."

There is only one place around Jerusalem which has borne, and still bears, the name "Skull Hill." It is a rock ledge, some 30 feet high. It has the striking resemblance to a human skull.

Victory Tea Given

A clever fall event was the Victory Tea given by the Good Samaritan Benevolent Society recently at the Sojourner Truth Home, which was beautifully decorated. The table with its gorgeous center piece of flowers was most attractive. Guests began to arrive early and continued to come throughout the afternoon in large numbers. Music was rendered while friends visited with each other. Delicious refreshments were served by charming hostesses.

The added attraction of the Tea was the $25 war bond that was given away. The winning number was 288. The price of this bond was given to the society by Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Johnson. The Benevolent Society is indeed grateful to these friends who are also members of the society. Mr. Johnson is president of the Conner-Johnson Mortuary Co., and is well known in church, fraternal and civic activities. It is only like Mr. Johnson to assist any organization when it is necessary. Mrs. Johnson was presented a beautiful corsage, which was Hollywood's latest design. Mrs. Vassie D. Reese, Chm. of the Tea, and who is known throughout the city for her success in finance in connection with Teas, reported that the Victory Tea was a financial success. Mr. E. W. Fisher, President of the Society has added much to the society during his administration, and put forth much effort in making the tea a success.

The Building drive is on at Universal, and all interested in helping this worthy cause are asked to attend the inspiring services now being conducted on Wednesday and Friday nights of each week, and four times on Sundays. A Correction

In reporting the 64th annual session of the National Baptist Convention last week, we mistakenly attributed words and action to the Rev. J. Raymond Henderson, pastor of the 2nd Baptist Church, that rightfully should have been credited to the Rev. A. Wendell Ross, pastor of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. We regret the error and take this occasion to congratulate Rev. Ross for his forthright stand.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"The things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." Paul's words to the Corinthians will be the Golden Text in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

In a Bible selection the prophet Isaiah implores, "Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. . . . For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts."

"God's thoughts are perfect and eternal, are substance and Life," writes Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." She also says, "The temporal and material are not then creations of Spirit. They are but counterfeits of the spiritual and eternal." "The temporal and unreal never touch the eternal and real."

Rev. Hayden Is Guest Speaker at St. Paul Baptist

Rev. Hayden, one of the outstanding gospel preachers, coming to Los Angeles recently from the south, was the speaker at both the morning and evening services at St. Paul Baptist Church Sunday, September 24. During the past few months Rev. Hayden has been working earnestly, endeavoring to secure a suitable edifice in which to hold services for the many friends who are helping him establish a church here. Recently his wife's health failed, and the doctors advised him to take her to a higher climate, therefore, about a fortnight ago they went to Las Vegas, Nev. There the doctors advised an operation, the cost of which would be more than $300. Pastor Williams heard of their predicament, and realizing the great struggle this man of God was having in trying to establish a church, immediately, "true to form, always thinking of others aside from himself," sent a special message to him inviting him to come to St. Paul and preach on the fourth Sunday. To my mind, this act on the part of Pastor Williams was very unusual and worthy of emulation.

The congregation enjoyed and were greatly blessed by the inspiring messages delivered, and responded generously with a special contribution of $152.40; this was done because Pastor Williams stresses helping those who are less fortunate than we.

Smear Attempt Against Styles Refuted By His Public Record

With respect to the smear charges in the anti-administration newspapers that many years ago I was a member of the Ku Klux Klan and therefore am intolerant, the untruth of these charges will be conclusively shown in due time through the medium of the Los Angeles Daily News, this newspaper, and my radio programs. This documentary proof, which completely refutes all attempts to smear me and destroy my character, will conclusively show that I have been fighting intolerance since boyhood, wherever and whenever it reared its ugly head., Moreover this evidence will not be given to the anti-administration papers, but solely to those newspapers representing minority groups, to wit: Labor, Catholics, Jews, Negroes, et al.

The Republicans have set the pattern for smearing all Roosevelt-pledged candidates, and since I defeated the reactionary Costello (a ranking member of the Dies Committee), I seem to be the principal target for attack.

FALSE CHARGES

My record in California since 1932, I submit has been one of equitable consideration of all so-called common people and their human needs. As one who has consistently and notably championed the cause of all people, without regard to race, creed or color, it should be self-evident that the charge I am intolerant is utterly false.

Many years ago I exposed the Ku Klux Klan as the intolerant, hate-breeding organization that it was, and is, if it even exists. prior to my expose, I prevented two members of the Jewish race from being sent to prison because of an attempted persecution by a Klansman.

I have documentary evidence in support of this. The attempt by the reactionary press to destroy me, and paint me a bigot, is unwarranted injection of racial and religious prejudice, a thing the Republican party said it would not do.

As everything steeped in lies and hatred boomerangs, I confidently predict, that this and all other smear charges will boomerang with telling effect, by electing me to Congress with an overhelming majority, thus enabling me to support President Roosevelt, by working for equality of peoples as well as a lasting peace among United Nations!

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By John M. Lee

One Man's Opinion

The Hearst press has never been friendly to the Negro. That's the way it is in New York —that's the way it is in Los Angeles. During the last war, the Hearst press was often under suspicion. While the editors of Hearst papers practiced the divide and conquer technique before Hitler mentioned it in his Mein Kampf, they do not claim credit for originating it; but since even the devil deserves his due. they should be given that doubtful distinction. Throughout the entire period of this war, the Hearst press has sought to incite public feeling against the Negro, the Mexican, and the members of organized labor. It has hammered away, hell-bent for destruction, on every incident that could, by exaggeration and distortion, be used to create disunity.

John M. Lee

Deceit

Sometimes, in the course of its operations, the Hearst press finds it expedient to embrace those whom they seek to destroy. Last week it fizzled in an attempt to represent itself as the saviour of tolerance. Imagine, if you can, Hitler trying to create a stir by dramatically accusing Churchill of being a fascist, and you've got the idea.

Amusing

To date, Dewey and his spokesmen have confined themselves to promising that if he is elected, he will administer the laws and the measures which the New Deal has brought into being over the determined opposition of members of Dewey's party. It was approximately at this point in the 1940 campaign that Willkie, recognizing that he had nothing better to offer, did precisely the same thing.

Can He?

Can the Governor of New York carry the state of California? seems to be a very pertinent question. If Cecil B. DeMille's elephants and a three-ring circus are the things that are to be voted for on November 7, he has already done so; but if the issues are full employment and security in a world at peace, he hasn't got a chance. Thousands of us who went to the Coliseum last Friday night, went to see Captain Clark Gable lead the salute to the flag, and we were disappointed when he didn't show.

Dewey-Eyed Story

Have you heard the one the "moustache" tells about the Indian woman in Wyoming who, wrapped in a blanket on which a gold star was pinned, begged him to "stop them from making more wars?" The governor uses poor strategy. If he really wanted to make a bid for the Indian vote, he should have promised that gold-star mother equality of opportunity in the post-war planning of the country which her ancestors once owned. The governor seems to miss the point every time he opens his mouth. He is spending too much time trying to blame President Roosevelt for the depression which Herbie Hoover, his senior adviser, created. The people haven't forgotten the headlines of '29 and '30. Somebody ought to tell him.

One Pint

They only take one pint of blood when you go to the blood bank. The boys who are wounded at the battle front often lose more than that before aid arrives. That's where your pint comes in handy. Sometimes it can be the balance between life and death. While we talk of the promise of the post-war world, let's do something to insure the return of many of the boys who are fighting for that world. Give a pint of blood to the Red Cross.

Health Foundation Manager Grateful

The Central Agency Health Foundation manager, Mr. Harrison Roher, is indeed grateful to the pastors of the community who opened the doors of their churches for the message he brought to their respective congregations.

The good work of the Foundation could not have been done without their gracious aid. The hundreds of families who joined the Foundation, of which many have been restored to good health at such slight cost, are also indebted to these far-seeing ministers.

Mr. Roher stated that invariably the preachers, after due investigation, realized that the Health Foundation filled a much-needed want caused by overcrowding and the scarcity of doctors. That its principle was to prevent illness by urging the members to submit to regular physical examinations, to cure patients as rapidly as possible and to keep them well as long as possible.

Mr. Roher explained to the congregations the Foundation's methods as follows:

Over 5,000 patients have been treated, and have learned to their benefit that the Medical Center is striving to live up to its motto of curing them as rapidly as possible and keeping them well as long as possible.

The Health Foundation is six months old.

More than 1,000 families have joined.

1. Any family may join whether sick or well.
2. All doctor bills are paid for the whole family for just $3.00 per month.
3. All examinations, all blood, urine and over 30 tests are free.
4. No disease is barred — no medical examination — no age limit—no discrimination. Service begins from the first day.
5. He asked all to try it for just one month and be convinced.

The Medical Center is at 1805 South Central Avenue, one of the finest in the city. Everyone is cordially invited to inspect it.

Mr. Roher publicly wishes to thank the following ministers for their co-operation:

NEW YORK—Vice President Henry A. Wallace receives congratulations from Dorothy Maynor, soprano, and Helen Keller, outstanding liberal, following his address at the Rally for Roosevelt sponsored by the Independent Voters Committee of the Arts and Sciences for Roosevelt.

Wallace reiterated his stand for economic, educational and political equality for all Americans and declared that "only a full registration and a maximum vote will guarantee the hope of this world for a permanent peace and maximum jobs."

★★ CANDID COMMENTS ★★

SCANNIN' THE NEWS TICKER TAPE . . .

Her mother was reprimanding debutante Gloria Johnson for not keeping saner hours. "Twenty years ago," scolded the mater, "we girls never thought of doing the things you girls do nowadays." . . . "Uh-huh," dorothy parker'd the debbie, "That's why you didn't do 'em—you didn't think about 'em!" . . . Sign in the Leonard McClain Bail Bond Agency: "If you spit on the floor at home, go home and spit!" . . . Sudden Thawt: How come no one's bothered to give a mention to the Post Office employees, who always work at a sizzling pace? . . . Ork Leader Gene Krupa and his charming wife (divorced a coupla years ago) are so in love they prob'ly will re-wed when he returns to the coast . . . A Broadway columnist back-patted this newsboy through his col'm for "discovering" Timmie Rogers and Dorothy Donegan, both of whom are now flushed with moola. "The discoverer," tee-hee's the item, "hasn't received one hundred dollars between the two since they've been on top!" Morale of the story is, I guess, don't discover people! . . . Overheard In The Memo: "But in the first place she's fat." . . . "Yeah, she's fat in the second place, too!" . . . Memo from Girl Friday: "The Manager of The Lincoln Theatre wants your okay and support for a JT GIPSON GUEST NIGHT at that show. It'll be the same as the Monday night shows at the Orpheum, with big time stars participating. You're wanted as M.C. Are you interested?" . . . Avery Parrish (he auth'd "After Hours") is recuping at his Birmingham (Ala.) home. He'll resume his piano playing in the New York nite spots around Xmas time . . . I have met three great men in my life. Dr. C. W. Hill is one of them. No smile more honest-to-goodness wins your confidence than the popular Real Estatesman-about town's . . . The reporter who reported last week that Dorothy Larkin was "discovered" by Ork leader Sammie Franklin, apparently doesn't read this col'm. Candid Comments was the first to column-praise her torchantings. That was three months ago. (Oh, Gypson, go on to the head of the class, and shaddup!) . . . Paragraphical Pat On The Back: He is one of the greatest men I have ever met. A gentleman in every sense of the word. His friendliness and sincere heart-warming smile has put him in solid with everyone he has come in contact with. He's tough and hard as nails, but with a nice easy-going disposition. The men who work under him admire, love and respect him. They "admire" his cool handling of any situation which seems difficult. They "love" him because he's honest, fearless and on the level. They "respect" him because he knows his job. He wisely listens to the suggestions of others. Gradually he has built a force as great as New York's finest. He is just a minor cog in California's law-enforcing machine. But he has made Our Side Of The Tracks a safe place to live. Since he has been commanding, crime has hit an all-time low. His name? H. A. Walter, Captain, Commanding Newton St. Division . . . Betty Farley (Jim's dolling dghtr) has several talent scouts running over each other for an intro. Her loveliness is as refreshing as a Cole Porter tune . . . To the rumor that Lena Horne is Mrs. Charley Barnet, phooey . . . The Ellis Hotel, they say, charges as much as twenty dollars per week for a room. How about that, Mr. O.P.A? . . Ha! The other afternoon, clerk Georgia Meyer answered the telephone at Carver Jr. Hi School. It was publisher Leon Washington calling for a kid to clean up the Sentinel office on days after school. Georgia, who has a terrific sensayuma, started yelling to a group of kids: "Who wants a job after school? The Sentinel needs cleaning up. Go over and sweep it out!" . . . Ida Hereford, the doll, is responsible for the shape a certain man-about-town's heart is in. He's got it ba-a-a-a-d . . . The bible says a man who is diligent in business shall stand before Kings. "That's aw-right," nittied sportsman Sammie Montgomery, "provided he's got Aces!" . . . A local glam-gal is doing okay for herself. Her sunset years, thanks to three businessmen who can afford to be suckers, are insured. She owns three apartment houses, and twenty-thousand dollars in defense bonds. She wants us to ghost-write a book she's contemplating. The title: "Men are such Fools!" . . . Item listed in the so what category: There are 67 reporters and photographers travelin' in the Dewey Party . . . Producer Patsy Hunter happens to be in Harlem, which is where her soldier-boy friend happens to be . . . Aside to W. Winchell (our adopted Dad): Wish you could hear singer Virginia Parris, Loretta Young's domenticutie. Her Marian Anderson-like thrushing is something to enjoy. Wish you (or someone at the Met) could hear her. She's singsational . . . There is something, tho at the moment it is beyond my powers to tell what, very rotten in California boxing circles. The Turkey Thompson-Al Hart fight was the scene of the worst bit of refereeing since Indrisano refereed his last fight . . . Lena Horne's face adorns the cover of Motion Picture mag this edition. First time any Sepia star has been so honored . . . The Johnny Thomas' (he's the dancer) have decided it's no use. He'll get his papers sometime next month . . . Shep Fields reminds us that changing Donkeys in the middle of a stream is oka, but not in the middle of a War! . . . Newcomer Doris Harris' singing was sneak-previewed the other night by a few of us, with a columnist cheering it. She has a lot on the ball. Was prob'ly born with a silver tune in her mouth! . . .

Roena Savage Sings Before Large Audience

Roena Savage, soprano, sang a brilliant recital in the San Bernardino Senior High School auditorium last weekend before a large and appreciative audience.

Daughter of one of the city's foremost Negro families Mme. Savage has studied and sung extensively in the middle west and east but her program on this occasion was the first she has presented in her home town in a number of years.

She displayed throughout her concert a high clear lyrico-Spinto voice of warmth and richness and exceptional range.

Perhaps the most effective groups of songs offered by Mme. Savage were her German leider and her Negro spirituals. Her diction was excellent in Italian, German, Spanish and English and her musicianship was impeccable

Her accompanist was James Lightner.

Anne Brown to Appear in Film

Anne Brown, whose sensational success in "Porgy and Bess" is now newspaper history, will be seen shortly in Warner Brothers' film, "Rhapsody in Blue," based on the story of George Gershwin's life. Miss Brown is at the present moment in Hollywood and both Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and Warner Brothers are interested in securing the talents of this great singing actress for one of their scheduled productions. The Warner Brothers' studios are particularly anxious to have her for the new Cole Porter opus. She is slated to sing in Los Angeles in the fall.

Recently off the press is a text entitled "Practical Farming for the South," written by Benjamin F. Bullock, professor of rural education in the Atlanta University System.

The Jump King of Swing Played To Capacity Crowds Every Nite

By J. T. Gipson, Theatrical Editor

The name-band policy is still paying dividends for Joe Morris. Count Basie is the current attraction, and he's playing to capacity crowds nitely. He's terrific with his piano pounding in the boogie woogie tempo that Angel City nitelifers relish. And the club is drawing terrific crowds even during early week nights.

This week marks the close of the Count Basie engagement. Don't tell anyone you haven't already caught the Count Basie band, or you'll be listed as a boob. But for the benefit of the few boobs in the audience, this communique is coming at you to hep you that it's the Count of Basis's last week at Joe Morris' beautiful Club Plantation.

The Basie band has gone a long way since caught by this reviewer some two years ago. Still top man on swingdom's totem pole, the Count and his band are rated by critics as "the best in the biz." And they definitely live up to their billing all the way.

Successfully operated for more than a year, the Plantation attracts the average wage earner. Its entertainment is definitely the tops at all times.

At the Plantation it's good food, the finest in mixed drinks, and air conditioning for your comfort. All that, and Count Basie, too!

Next attraction is Earl "Fathaw" Hines, who comes in next week.

Breakfast Foods to Satisfy the Appetite

APPEARING TOMORROW—Everybody is talking about the fine little Hawaiian Chick who is scheduled to appear at the Elks Friday, September 29th. After making several personal appearances at the different night spots, Ella has gained in her popularity to the extent that the promoter, Bill Ivory, is already predicting the dance to be a sell-out. The popular Sammy Franklin and his groovy band will hold down the band stand for this sensational rug-cutting affair. As an added attraction there will be a big jitterbug contest, so all of you cats can do some fancy rug cutting. The little beauty will come on with some of her fine dancing during the intermission, and believe me Jack, she only can shake a mean—MY-My-My—if you dig me mike.

W. Biscailuz, president of the Sheriff's Relief Association. The show opens an eight-night engagement at the Shrine Auditorium on October 4.

Tickets can be purchased at any Sheriff's Station or Main Office, Hall of Justice; City Marshal's Office, 330 N. Broadway; the Southern California Music Co., 737 S. Broadway, L.A., or at the Shrine Auditorium box office.

Earl Hines Termed as At Height of Career

Earl Hines, one of the most famous names in the annals of popular American music, whose orchestra opened at the Orpheum Theatre for a week's engagement

Earl Hines

Tuesday, currently is at the height of his career, according to critics and showmen throughout the country.

Hines' personal appearances in theatres, ballrooms and college proms during the last year have broken long-standing records for the last nine years at Hines orchestra broke all records for th elast nine years at the Howard Theatre in Washington, D. C. At the famous Paramount Theatre, New York, Hines duplicated his feat by breaking all single-week records.

At the Savoy Ballroom, New York; the Greystone, Detroit; the Greystone, Cincinnati, and the Castle, St. Louis, the band hung up additional box office grosses during the last year that exceeded all previous totals.

Sammie Franklin's Band Is Available For Your Next Dance

Sammie Franklin, leader and manager of your favorite and well-known orchestra, wishes to announce that he is available to play for your club parties and dances, as well as your public affairs. Franklin has spent a good deal of time during the past weeks to prepare his boys for engagements for the holiday season.

The success of an affair depends largely on the music you have and the kind of cooperation you get from the band. Sammie Franklin has made it a point not only to play the best music, but he also takes into consideration the likes and dislikes of the dancers so that he can give them an enjoyable evening.

To make your next affair a decided success, call Sammie Franklin at ADams 0580 or write him at 187 E. 48th St. He'll be glad to help you plan it.

School Days Perilous; Kids, Beware Traffic!

Despite lessening of wartime traffic, due to gasoline and vehicle limitations, school days are likely to be dangerous days for young folk and the time-tried railroad crossing warning, "Stop, Look and Listen," still is a good one for young and old, alike, to heed.

With schools now open, L. A. Reeves, director of the Bureau of Public Service of the Los Angeles railway, calls attention to the following safety essentials:

"Children, don't start for school so late you have to run to catch your trolley or bus. Wash your face and eat your breakfast a few minutes early. Stop at street corners and look in all directions before crossing an intersection."

"Everyone, help the children help themselves. Their lives are the most valuable and young minds filled with thoughts of play, don't always remember."

LeROI ANTOINE, Latin American baritone, well versed in Haitian folk song expression, who will be presented in recital at Wilshire Ebell Theatre Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29, by the Little Theatre Guild of Los Angeles. He will be assisted by Olivette Miller, internationally known harpist.

Louis Armstrong Spotlight Band

TUSKEGEE ARMY AIR FIELD, ALA.—Louis Armstrong, his hot trumpet, and his world-famed band will appear from Hangar No. 3 of the flight line at Tuskegee Army Air Field on the weekly Coca Cola Parade of Spotlight Bands on October 6, from 9:30 to 9:55 p.m. (EWT) on the NBC Coast-to-Coast hookup.

STUDENT PENS NOVEL ON DISCRIMINATION

NEW YORK (Calvin's News Service)—Lofton Mitchell, a native New Yorker, and a divinity student at Union Theological Seminary, has just completed his manuscript for an interesting novel entitled "And There Was Light." His story tells of color discrimination within the Negro group. According to Lofton's opinion "the cause of the whole business (prejudice within the group), is due to a reflection of the white society at large." Stimulating and vital points regarding the dark Negro and his struggle against the snobbery of his fairer brother within the race make for some rather intriguing situations.

SNOOKUM RUSSELL

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—Snookum Russell, the brown bombshell of swing, and his great band literally took Knoxville at Payne Avenue Center. Russell has the finest band of his career.

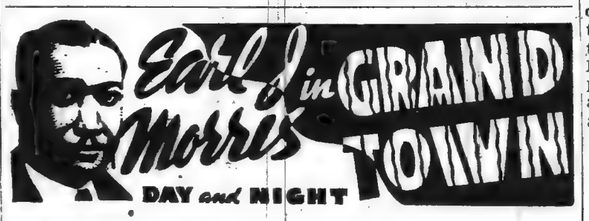
Prison Song Best World War Chant



Probably the best song to come out of World war No 2 was written by an Officer and two inmates of Jackson, Michigan penitentiary. The song is called "Count The Stars In The Window," and should really march straight to the hit parade.

Theatrical Editor JT Gipson, upon receiving a copy of the song, played it over on his piano and commented: "This song tugs at your heart. Fred Waring should hear it. It's made to order for his (or any other) choir!"

Collaborators on the soon-to-be-published chant are: H. A. Spry, E. Bishop and T. D. McGee.

It's a story about a War Mother who patiently sits by the fireside smiling through tears.

The song will cause tears to blind your sight. It's that soul-

DON'T FAIL TO SEE THE SHERIFF'S SHOW

Biscailuz' Big Show . . . Almost each week, we have urged you to buy a flock of tickets to the Sheriff's Annual Relief Show to be held at the Shrine Auditorium beginning Oct. 4th to 11th incluive.

You will see a grand show, produced by Abbott and Costello. The top Comedy team of today. Trey will appear in the first two shows. After that they will prove that they have hearts as big as "Mr. Five by Five" of the comedy duo of Abbott and Costello, and let other entertainers have a chance on the bill. In the paralance of the theatre this is called "being professional."

Aside from getting your money's worth in seeing a grand show, you will be aiding the men who are soldiers on the home front—the men who protect your life and property—men who do not get the purple heart for valorous service when wounded.

A great many have complained that they have never seen any colored deputy-sheriffs. Come out to the show and you will see handsome black officers of the Sheriff's department, garbed in natty forest-green uniforms. They will make you feel proud and glad to support a man like Eugene Biscailuz and Arthur C. Jewel, Sheriff and Under-Sheriff respectively, of this County.

MEET ROBERT POPE

Which brings to my mind that I met the affable Officer Robert Pope, who has been a deputy Sheriff for the past 24 years. When Pope went on the force, there was only Major Lovett and another colored deputy-sheriff or two.

Pope is assigned to the jail division. The story this old law man could tell would fill a book or two. This soft-spoken man has done more than his share to keep law and order in Los Angeles County.

We visited Officer Wilmer M. Bratton in the General Hospital by official orders of the Honorable Georgia P. Bullock, Judge of the Superior Court. It was a most pleasant assignment. We found Bratton doing okay and itching to get back to his beat in Juvenile Court and Juvenile Hall. We are substituting for the copper-colored cop.

We were introduced to the modest, but dignified efficient Fay Wilson. You could have knocked me over with a feather when I learned that this most modest young woman was the head nurse. The mellow brown and pert Marian Flack is her capable assistant.

As a matter of fact, I have found the whole County set-up most democratic. If you have been a regular reader of this column; you will recall that I have told you about such people as Robert Hardon, Reginald Harangue, and Charles Matthews who draw county checks in positions previously held only by whites.

So, remember, that you have a great many friends here. Your leaders such as Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, of this newspaper, Thomas Griffith of the N.A.A.C.P., Floyd Covington, of the Urban League, the Reverend Clayton Russell and Raymond Henderson and William Pollard know how to make your pursuit of life, liberty and happiness be most pleasant. Be courteous to everyone.

RESULT OF POLL

DENVER, Colol. — (Calvin's News Service) — According to a nation-wide survey taken by the National Opinion Research Center, 60 whites out of every 100 interviewed believe the Negro is being treated all right in this country. However, only 25 think the race is satisfied with the treatment. As to the reasons why Negroes aren't satisfied, race prejudice rate first, employment and wage discrimination second and segregation, third.

HEADS FOR FAME

CHICAGO, Ill.—(By Ollie Terry)—Floyd Ray has made his promise good that he would have one of the finest orchestras in the country after being released from the Army. Ray spent two years in the Army as a band leader.

The New Century By George Jefferson

It is really touching to see the deep concern and sympathy the Republicans are displaying over the support Sidney Hillman is organizing for the Democrats. They are trying to make the public believe that Hillman has wrapped the beloved opponent they knew in a bag and taken it home. Governor Bricker has even gone so far as to infer that the only way in which a person can vote the true Democratic ticket is to vote for him and Dewey.

It seems that the government we have now is not American, but—well, neither Dewey nor Bricker are certain just what nationality our government is, but they assure you it isn't American.

They call Sidney Hillman an alien-born, Russian-born, foreign-born, naturalized citizen, and no doubt, in the hush of the darkness, other names more descriptive. They are trying to prove that our American civilization has progressed to the point where it is a crime not to be a native American. Their hearts grieve for the beloved Democratic party they once knew, the party of the men they can play politics with in Congress to defeat the Poll Tax bill, an devery progressive measure offered in the interest of the people.

PEOPLE'S PARTY

Despite southern bourbons like Bilbo, Rankin and Talmadge, the Democratic party has become the party of the people. It has become the symbol of hope and the promise of America. It is the beacon which will guide the way to a lasting peace, and an escape from the periodic suffering and misery we have known.

The leaders of the Republican party refuse to heed the history of the last twenty years; to hear the cry for changes to fit the needs of the people. They stumble blindly on, never learning, never changing. It is unthinkable that the American people will follow them to ruin. Even those of us who are wealthy, the millionaires, have they forgotten so soon the dark days of 1929 when so many of their brothers jumped out of windows and dashed their brains against the sidewalks? Do they also want a return to the good old days?

Henry Keyes Dies

A long illness of several years culminated Thursday morning in the death of Henry Keyes at 5001 Compton Avenue. For thirty years, Mr. Keyes was a resident of this city and had been active in civic and religious movements until his health failed. He was a member of 8th and Towne Church.

Funeral services were held at Roberts Mortuary at 2:00 o'clock Saturday. Rev. Isaacs officiated, and Lillian Bremond sang a solo "Free As A Bird," which was very impressive.

Mrs. Nancy Keyes, wife, Elias Mitchell, son-in-law, Mrs. Florence Raymond of Santa Barbara, sister, wish to express their appreciation and thanks to the neighbors and friends. The James family, Rev. Prentice, Rev. Jordan, Rev. and Mrs. Saunders of Santa Barbara, and others, and we especially wish to thank Mr. Roberts for the grand services which were so beautifully carried out. May God bless you all.

Cooperative Farming Planned By Relief Association

Organizations working to meet the needs of the people must broaden their scope and vision if they hope to keep abreast of the times.

CO-OPERATIVE FARMING

Already aware of this all-important factor, the Economic Relief Association, located at 2712 Compton Avenue, which has served its immediate community for many years past, is making ready to meet the urgent needs of the future. Plans are now under consideration for the perfecting of a cooperative farm set-up which will offer employment and important training to our men who will soon be returning from the battlefronts. And to those who have filled vital jobs and will have to vacate them when the former employee returns, this project will offer a new field of endeavor.

Looking forward to this new service, which is destined to prove of invaluable help to hundreds of people, H. A. Reeves, the owner and manager of the Economic Relief Association, is purchasing certain suitable land sites for the launching of this new post-war project.

Councilman Allen In Introduction Of New Resolution

The following resolution was introduced by Councilman Charles A. Allen on September 25, 1944:

"WHEREAS the practice of dumping grass cuttings and cuttings and other rubbish in the streets, alleys and vacant lots, in violation of Sections 57.43 and 62.130 of Ordinance No. 77,770 is becoming more and more prevalent; and

WHEREAS the said practice has resulted in an unsightly and filthy condition reflecting unfavorably on the residents of neighborhoods so affected and adding to the danger of fire and disease; and

WHEREAS due to manpower shortages, very little street cleaning is being done;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this City Council request, by all available means, all citizens of Los Anegeles to refrain from depositing debris in places where it will detract from the neat appearance of surrounding homes or become a menace to life and property."

Ever since man first sharpened his sword to a hair cutting edge and went forth against a common foe, in company with other warriors, drums have been beaten to keep time for marching feet.

War drums must roll, as never before, in this global war. Instead of leather, stretched on wood, the drums of today are built of tightly welded steel.

Oil—black gold, liquid hell for our enemies on land or sea—rolls from the fields of Southern California to every part of the globe.

Transportation is linked to the oil industry as closely as his greasy glove to the gnarled fist of a driller. Our trolleys and coaches serve the office and field workers day and night and we pledge these oil workers to let nothing hinder the roll of drums.

BASEBALL NOTES

Jose Mendez was the famous Cuban Negro pitcher who called the turn on the immortal Ty Cobb 'way back in 1910. Mendez, one of the finest beisbolistas (baseball players) ever produced by the sport of the common man, kept the crack Detroit nine from making a single hit in a game that has since become baseball history.

There's an inscription, giving the high spots of Jose's career, on the Havana Tropical Stadium. But the game had become an institution in Cuba 50 years ago before a great Negro pitcher showed a great white player some new tricks in baseball.

A magazine article said: "The Latin Americans first met baseball about 1880 when a returning exile took the game back with him to Cuba," Mr. Jones wrote. "He organized two tenman teams, the Blues and the Reds."

People never improve unless they look to some standard or example higher and better than themselves.—Tryon Edwards.

OPA Negro Employees Show Rise of 12%

Negro employment in the national office of the Office of Price Administration has risen to 12 per cent of the total force, from 1½ per cent in January 1943, when the agency was awarded a plaque by the United Federal Workers of America for having the best race relations policy among Government agencies, OPA revealed this week.

Campbell Will Speak Thursday

William D. Campbell, Republican nominee for Congress in the fourteenth district will address the Southern California Republican Women and other voters in that district on Thursday, September 28th, in the Embassy Auditorium at 843 South Grand avenue in Los Angeles, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

POST-WAR TRENDS

Mr. Campbell will speak on "Postwar trends in government—national issues."

Geraldine Hadsell, president of Southern California Republican Women, has announced that in addition to Mr. Campbell's address, there will be several brief talks by members of the Hollywood-for-Dewey Committee and other Southern California notables. The public is invited.

For and Against

NEW YORK—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and the Republican National Committee still aren't straight on whether or not the GOP nominee is "for" a permanent Fair Employment Practice Committee.

According to James Wechsler, PM correspondent aboard the Dewey campaign train, the GOP nominee's press representatives made changes in the original version of the Seattle speech just before Dewey's delivery of it. They eliminated FEPC from the list of agencies attacked and added the sentence asking that the committee be placed on a permanent basis.

ON FURLOUGH

Corp. Curtis A. Polk, husband of Mrs. C. A. Polk, 3773 Ruthellen St., Los Angeles, Calif., is due to arrive in the United States soon on furlough from the Asiatic Pacific theater of operations where he served 19 months with the Quartermaster Corps.

FIGHTERS END TRAINING FOR OUTDOOR SHOW

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

WE AGREE!—This week we reprint from Al Wolf's SPORTRAITS in last Thursday's L. A. TIMES his views on the now famous "short count" put over on the unsuspecting Turkey Thompson last week when Al Hart gained a one-round fluke kayo verdict over the local boy due to the bungling of the referee. It corresponds so much with our views on the matter that we'll let Al do the spieling. Here it is:—

REF LAYS EGG

"If Johnny Indrisano never works another fight in Southern California, it'll be quite all right with us.

His officiating reached a new low at the Olympic Tuesday evening when he short-changed Turkey Thompson and some 7000 cash customers by awarding a sepia superman named Al Hart a nine-count "knockout" in the first round.

The boys were just beginning to get warmed up and the fans were still exclaiming over Hart's "body building ad" physique (which made heavily upholstered Thompson look fatter than ever) when the easterner connected smartly with a short, jolting right to the whiskers that put Turkey on his knees and the crowd on is feet.

The Los Angeles Negro obviously was in no distress, but he elected to play 'er safe and waited on one knee until the count reached nine, whereupon he arose to continue the battle, only to have Indrisano wave him away, raise Hart's paw and leave the ring.

Then Indrisano not only got "nine" and "ten" mixed up, or something, but also handicapped Thompson during the count by starting it on one side of the crouching clouter, then moving around BEHIND him to the other side, meanwhile continuing to toll the seconds. With all the racket going on, it's doubtful whether Turkey heard much of the count.

FANS BILKED

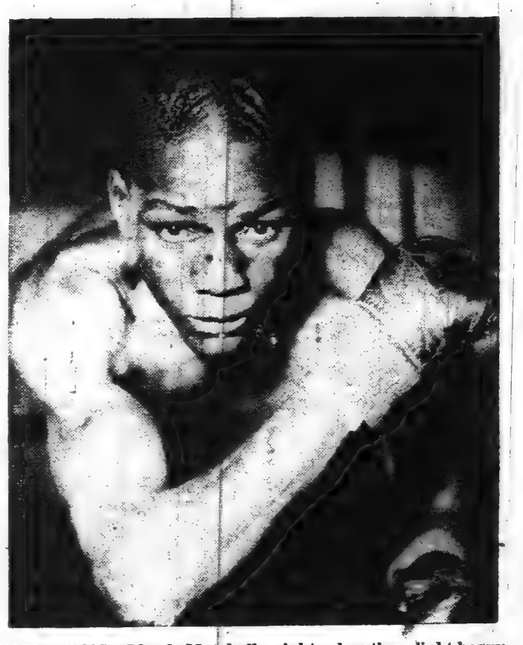
Now Johnny Jump-the-Gun's silly procedure may have cost Turkey Thompson the fight and again it may not have. That we'll never know.

What we do know is that the 7000 kibitzers didn't get a fair run for their money.

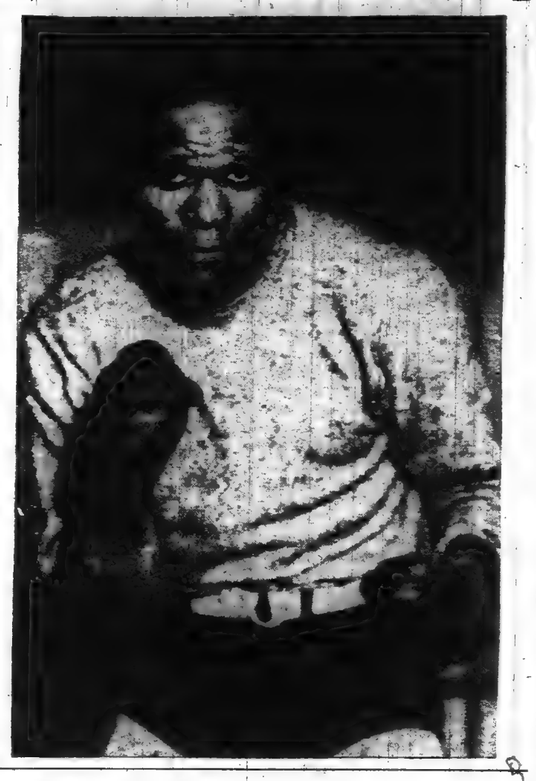
Here was Thompson, a heavy favorite, glowering on the deck in the first round. Would he come roaring back to cut down his gigantic opponent? Was it just a lucky punch or was he destined to go down again and possibly suffer the first knockout in his five years of professional boxing? Or would it resolve itself into a full-distance duel? The place was in an uproar of speculation.

If anything, a referee should lean the other way in a case like this, where a main event is just starting, where the principals are sturdy heavyweights, where neither is in distress, where the house is a bedlam.

What next, we wonder?"



Monster Crowd to See Chase-Marshall, Ortiz-Chavez Bouts at Hollywood Sat.



The fighters are winding up their training chores, the weather outlook is good, and Hollywood Baseball Park all dolled up with a ring awaits a monster crowd slated to sit in on the classy outdoor card of boxing at 8:30 Saturday night. Two ten-round main events will feature the card. Matchmaker Al Lang has booked Jack Chase, former middleweight champion of the state of California, versus Lloyd Marshall, duration light-heavyweight champ, in one ten, and Manuel Ortiz, world's bantamweight titleholder, versus Carlos Chavez, California state featherweight champ, in the other. Excellent preliminaries have been arranged.

The promoters, Sgt. Barney Ross and Harry Hall, are expecting a gate of $40,000.

The Ortiz-Cravez battle will be non-title but Chavez is pointing for a victory over the champion and a bristling scrap is expected. Chase, likewise, hopes to gain added prestige with a victory over Champion Marshall. (See ad at bottom of page for details.)

To Meet At Hollywood Baseball Park Saturday

AWAIT GONG—Lloyd Marshall, right, duration light-heavyweight champion, and Jack Chase, former California State middleweight champ, (above) are all set for their 10-round outdoor bout at Hollywood Baseball Park Saturday night. The other ten-rounder on the card will feature Manuel Ortiz, world's bantamweight king, vs. Carlos Chavez, state featherweight champ.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico. — With the new surfacing on the Caliente oval, horses are running faster and more of the former claimers are improving so fast that the former handicap horses must now show their real class. Barging Lady is the latest addition to the handicap division. Making her field look foolish in the feature event of the day, Barging Lady ran one of the fastest six furlongs of the season. Her time was 1:12 2-5. At 6 to 1 she won by six lengths paying $14.60. My Universe was the odds-on favorite, disappointing the form players. The three-horse race was won by that good two-year-old, Man o' Glory, the favorite, who ran the 5½ furloongs in 1:06 1-5, paying $2.60. Old Bulwark finally caught a field he could beat and won by a half length, paying $3.60. The daily double paid $56.60, while The Quiniela gave her backers $108.40. Generalissimo Eddie Nealis reported that his father is showing improvement. Every track employee is pulling for his father's recovery. Andy and Johnnie Brothers are staying at the hospital with their father. Director of personnel Armando E. Verdugo, in Mexico City for five weeks, is due back Sunday. He probably has good news for the horsemen. Ruben Verdugo, on the sick list at Scripps Hospital in La Jolla, is said to be improving. Judge Joe Walter has arranged another great card of races for this Sunday. Popular Judge George Shilling, known as the flying official and one of the greatest presiding stewards on the American turf, played host to some of the big shots from Hollywood. The judge is a real actor himself. Many Negro race fans from Los Angeles attended the races. Well I guess that's it, folks, for this week. So keep smiling, buy more bonds. So long.

GEORGE.

FRITZIE ZIVIC, former world's welterweight champ, will meet Freddy Dixon at the Olympic sometime in October.

Rangers To Play Mustangs Sunday

Hollywood Rangers, highest-scoring team in the American Pro Football League, winners of four in a row, will face their most dangerous foe at Gilmore Stadium, Sunday afternoon, when they take the field against the vastly-improved Los Angeles Mustangs.

The Rangers are first in league standings; Mustangs are second. Both are star-studded outfits, packing plenty of power.

With the passing combination of Bob Winslow and Bill Fisk, the open-field running of Merle Hapes, and general all-around strength in the line, the Rangers will be hard to beat.

But the Mustangs have a mighty asset in Ezzrett "Sugarfoot" Anderson, India-rubber, swivel-hipped, loose-jointed Negro end.

Olivera Decisions Hernandez

Tony Olivera, 122, San Francisco, scored a popular ten-round decision at Hollywood Legion Stadium last Friday night over Pedro Hernandez, 125 Cuba. Hernandez took an early lead with vicious body punches which Olivera overcame in the late rounds to gain a unanimous decision.

In the semi-final Fred Taylor, 133, scored a fifth round TKO over Harry Cole, 131. Another six found Mickey Romo, 119, and Augie Rodriquez, 115, battling to a draw verdict when both sustained cuts and the bout was stopped. In the fours, Larry Martin, 165, nodded Jack McBride, 162, and Fidel Aguilar, 130, beat Roosevelt Dancer, 129.

Playground Notes

Some of the interesting activities for women and girls are mothers' clubs, girls' clubs, women's gym classes, girls' gym classes, handicraft, puppetry, tap and folk dancing. For further information contact the play ground directors at Pr. 69204, Ad 9323, Ad 9750 or Ad 9606.

The Modernistic house wife club is urging all interested mothers to enter their children in the contest which will be held at the Ross Snyder play ground club house 5:45 Friday evening, September 29. Contact the play ground directors or Mrs. Hazel Anderson, club president, at CE. 25330.

All adults and youths are urged to come to the play grounds and participate in the activities.

SAMARA IN DRAW

Seelie Samara, Negro wrestler, and the "Mighty" Jim Casey, wrestled to an hour draw in the main mat event at Pasadena Arena Monday night.

Greatest danger of bites now comes from the city's stray dog population, Dr. George M. Uhl, city health officer, said last week in disclosing that the two-week old 90-day leash law had cut the daily average of bites 38% from pre-law rates.

The following policies were outlined; (1) To enter into the field of organizing tennis clubs especially for our youth. (2) To hold sufficient meetings to keep unity and interest in the clubs already organized.

Dixon Halts Moore

Freddy Dixon, 145, scored a t.k.o. victory in the seventh round of the scheduled ten-round main event at the Olympic Tuesday night over Jerry Moore, 145. After Moore had been bloodied up considerably, had gone down for a nine count in the fifth and was in a bad way in the seventh, Referee Bill Kershner stopped the battle.

In the six-round semi-windup Roy Miller, 162, and Ray Acosta, 165, fought six rounds to a draw.

Julio Franco, 135, former Times Golden Gloves champion, repeated his win of two weeks ago over Sonny Hill, 135, and Bill Reed, 187-pound protege of George Latka, scored a two-round t.k.o. over Artis Mack, 190.

In the other preliminary Gilbert Whiteside, 152, registered a three-round knockout of Jimmie Williams, 147.

MYSTERIES OF LIFE

What a strange fascination there is in that thing called "Life." While creation itself is a mystery and we cannot find any real satisfactory definition for it—it can be fully enjoyed and delightfully experienced nevertheless.

One day of experience in living is worth more than a whole volume of definitions to the uninitiated. It is something that we will defend and make every effort to prolong. If death, the enemy of life, threatens, we will do all in our power to resist it.

When life ceases, all our powers, gifts and capabilities cease with it. Life is essential to a full realization of our adulthood, therefore, it behooves us to take full advantage of all opportunities to make ourselves better men and women.

Dear Prof. Herman: It has been some time since I wrote you, but I am still wearing your famous Hindu Charm Bag. I wouldn't part with it for the world. I am however interested in your Prayer and Mediation Combination and would like to know more about it. Will you please write me concerning this Prayer circle as well. Thanks for all past favors, I am very truly yours, E. N.

V.D. How long will I have to wait until I get my heart's desire?

Ans. It seems that your luck is going to change and you will be able to obtain that which you so justly deserve. I am sure I can help you if you write in for a private reply.

W.S. Is my husband still in love with me?

Ans. According to your Zodiacal sign, you are destined to have many interesting events in your life. Your husband is indeed in love with you and will prove it as time goes on. Dismiss any doubts you may have.

S.M.S. Did he go there to see me?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that a friend of yours went to a party, but did not remain. You wish to know whether he went there expecting to see you and when you did not appear, he left. That is true, he hoped to see you there and was quite disappointed because he didn't.

R.L.C. Dear Prof. Herman: I read so much about you in the paper that I thought I would ask you a question. Will I get to teach in my home-town?

Ans. Your Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet indicate your being offered a position near your hometown, so that you could live at home if you desired.

E.L.H. What should I do?

Ans. Probing into the matter I find that you have been keeping company with a married man and you wonder whether you should discontinue this friendship. You are only 19 years old with a brilliant future ahead of you, why spoil many of your chances by continuing this association with this married man. I am sure you will find a young man that you will love and he will be in a position to offer marriage to you, if you both so desire.

N.M.W. Should I continue my schooling?

Ans. If it is possible for you to continue studying, by all means do so. There will be plenty of time to work in your particular field when you have completed the course.

M.C.S. Am I worrying unnecessarily?

Ans. Yes, my friend, you are placing entirely too much emphasis on this little misunderstanding. Everyone makes mistakes and that is one way we have of learning so just profit by your past experience, and be more careful in the future.

Madam, here's one TABOO you can forget when you want relief

You can thank your lucky stars that women are no longer squeamish about discussing their troubles. Otherwise you might never know of the 2-way help that CARDUI may bring when nervousness, headaches and cramp-like pain are due only to periodic functional causes.

Many women find that, started three days before the time and taken as directed, CARDUI aids in relieving functional periodic discomforts. Used as a tonic, CARDUI often wakes up sleepy appetites, aides digestion by increasing the flow of gastric juices, and thus helps to build up resistance against the days it's needed most. Try it!

A FAIR QUESTION
HOW MUCH FURNITURE WILL $6.50 BUY?

Well, see here, just suppose you should put $6.50 in a fire insurance policy, and that too, this policy is good for $1,000 in real money; if you should have a fire and also it would run in full force for three long years. If you have a fire in that time, you would collect $1,000. And too, if you should pay $13.00 to me, you then could collect $2,000—in good hard cash—money to replace the furniture, draperies, floor coverings and other household good—all brand new and still be out of debt. This is wisely placing your war money. Buy this insurance and buy War Bonds.

AL JARVIS of 'Make-Believe Ballroom' fame,

TWENTIETH CENTURY COMMENTS

By CALVIN JACKSON

I would like to air a few views that have disturbed the serenity of most of our compatriots. The first of these cover "War, Reflected, in Popular Songs."

I believe that the "Air Corps March," "The Marine Hymn," and "Anchors Aweigh" are much more stirring to the men of our armed forces and the public that the general run-of-the-mill war song. There is more majesty and grandeur in "The Star-Spangled Banner" than in most of the poorly constructed and ill-thought-out war song of today. This has been proven by the fact that songs of World War 2 are quite dim in our memories. Let us concentrate on songs that convey a meaning such as "Ballad for Americans," a song of social implications, or one of levity—"Don't Sit Under the Appletree."

I have been requested to write on Jazz, Swing and the Popular Song. Mr. Carmichael has covered this subject very ably, but not enough has been said about the men responsible for the popularity of our modern jazz orchestras and their leaders.

Let us consider the Arranger and his place in Jazz Orchestration. We hear, year in and year out the names of leaders but rarely do we know the names of the contributors to the distinctive orchestral styles of the various bands.

I wish to mention a few cases where credit so richly deserved has been given to the arranger. Tommy Dorsey has honored Sy Oliver and Axel Stordahl whenever their arrangements were presented on his radio programs.

In the case of Dave Rose we find that he gained his popularity chiefly by forming a combination that fitted the quality of his arrangements plus a great deal of intestinal fortitude and musicianship. It was necessary for him to branch out by himself to gain recognition. A great deal of the popularity of Frank Sinatra has been, as Frank will agree, laid at the doorstep of Axel Stordahl, late of Tommy Dorsey.

Duke Ellington, himself an arranger of prodigious, has been giving wide publicity to Billy Strayhorn, his chief arranger. Needless to say, it is very heartening for an arranger to be given the credit of being a composer as well as being an orchestrator. Largely in this respect, there has been a great lack of fairness to arrangers among orchestra leaders and publicity men. May we all look forward to the day when the stylists of modern jazz orchestration are as well known as those who perform.

On the Sidewalk

c.a.b.

EVERY DAY WE hear about the things that have not been done under the Roosevelt administration, but seldom do we hear of the gains that have been made, especially those gains that have been made toward freedom for the Negro people. In order to keep the record straight, let's name the supporters of Thomas E. Dewey and examine their accomplishments to date:

There is the old guard—the Hoovers, Tafts, and Vandenbergs, who are the big wigs out to sell Mr. Dewey as the Republican Kite and his very soiled tail, consisting of such potentates of evil as one John Foster Dulles, whose reputation as a swindler smells to high heaven.

Gerald L. K. Smith, who has publicly announced his support of Governor Thomas E. Dewey's candidacy while underscoring the fact that the Fascists are unanimous in their backing of the Republican ticket.

Harry Romer, running mate of Smith on the America First Ticket, who with Smith announced at a mass rally at St. Henry, Ohio, last Sunday that they were scrapping their own party in favor of the Dewey-Bricker slate. Smith told the rally that the main campaign issue, as far as he was concerned, was "the defense of the people indicted or convicted of treason and sedition." Mr. Smith could have easily added the Ku Klux Klan, for the Negro people and others are acquainted with his connection with those hooded sons of hate.

Mr. Westbrook Pegler, whose poison pen is ever busy stirring up strife and promoting race friction.

The old guard is keeping close watch on their little boy Dewey, who is doing the running, and these, summed up, are "President-Elect" Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's tail.

What about Mr. Dewey's platform? Well, he is first an advocate of the States' Rights doctrine, and any Negro who knows what States' Rights mean to Negroes in the deep South and calls for the support of Negroes for Dewey could easily be considered as a traitor to his race.

TELEPHONE EMPLOYEE—Douglas D. Perry is shown bidding goodbye to Mrs. Perry as he leaves home to begin his duties as a coin box collector for the Southern California Telephone Co. Mr. Perry is one of the appointments which the Telephone Company has made in recent years as the result of the campaign started by the California Eagle to gain job opportunities for Negroes with corporations with which they regularly spend their money.

Campaign In 1933 Gets Jobs in 1943

Back in 1933, during the period when employment opportunities were being sought by Negroes in the industries and enterprises with which they spent much of their earnings, the California Eagle started a campaign to secure employment for Negroes in the telephone company.

It was a difficult struggle, but the California Eagle's editor-publisher, Charlotta A. Bass, stuck to her guns until, in 1935, when nine Negroes were hired as janitors. It was a partial victory, and the campaign continued.

Early this week, Mrs. Bass was working in one of the outer offices at the California Eagle when a man came in to collect the coins from the public telephone. When she looked up, she saw that he was a Negro, Douglas D. Perry, 2712 Hyans St.

His employment, and the hiring of others, are the fruits of that campaign started in 1933.

Justice Is Denied 3 Boys In Florida

Governor Spessard Holland of Florida was reported today to have refused to grant a stay of execution pending appeal in the case of three Negro boys sentenced to die Monday, September 18, following a conviction of "rape."

The three boys who were tried in a lynch atmosphere, without a jury, in a proceeding which took only eighty minutes, are James Davis, 16, Fred Lane, 19, and James Williams, 26.

If a stay is not granted by the Governor or the Supreme Court of the State, it will be the first time on record in Florida that any person sentenced to execution has been denied a sixty-day stay after filing of an appeal.

Investigate Plan for Separate Schools for Negroes In Fresno

An investigation of the possibilities of instituting separate instruction for Negro children of Fresno as part of the regular school program was instituted last week as a result of the sale of the Parental School at 1707 B Street by the Fresno City Board of Education for $18,000 for use as a Negro religious center. The property was purchased by the St. John Missionary Baptist Association, whose representative, Rev. Charles H. Byrd, said the organization would agree to dispose of some of the land involved for such a school, although his group was not involved in the segregated school proposal.

The suggestion for the establishment of a Negro school under a Negro principal was presented to the Board of Education by J. E. Cooley, West Fresno undertaker, who viewed such a plan as the possible solution to a problem which exists because of the handicap of white teachers in disciplining Negro children through a fear of a charge of favoritism.

Cooley was supported in this position by Ray Hunter, who, however, disagreed with the idea of separate schools because, as he stated, "Our people all over the country are up in arms over segregatio "

Chairman George W. Turner of the board said they would not be in a position to make any decisions either in regard to a Negro school or a principal or teachers until an investigation is made. Meanwhile, the families of the 50 students affected are concerned on this issue; and the majority of them, it is estimated, will not entertain the idea of their children attending a segregated school.

Fight Against Jim Crow A-35 Continues With NAACP Support

The local N.A.A.C.P. is continuing its fight for 5000 Negro Boilermakers to become members of the regular Boilermakers Union No. 92. "It is our right, as American citizens," declared Walter Williams, member of the Jim Crow Union, No. A-35, "to decide for ourselves to what union we shall belong. Under the Roosevelt administration all working men have been granted the privilege of organizing, and under the FEPC there shall be no discrimination so far as securing a job is concerned, regarding race, color, creed, or previous nationality.

"Then why, when our government grants us these privileges, should a mere handful of selfish, bigoted men fly in the face of our commander-in-chief and flaunt the law of the land? By doing this they are violating the law as surely as the worst criminal."

Boilermakers Union No. 92 is one of the very few unions in our country who are deliberately violating the letter as well as the spirit of the law which permits all working men to organize and which

Unanimous Decision Says Judge Fricke Showed Bias

Sleepy Lagoon, the most notorious frame-up of the last decade, and a blot for almost two years on the record of justice in this city, was reversed late yesterday by unanimous decision of the Second District Court of Appeals, Judges York, Doran and White sitting. All three charges, two of assault and one of murder on which the boys were tried and sentenced, were declared unsubstantiated by the evidence. The case grew out of a fight between rival groups of Mexican youth near an unromantic puddle called Sleep Lagoon. A fatality, the cause of which was never established, was discovered after the boys had dispersed, and the police rounded up groups of Mexican boys and girls for questioning.

Twelve youths were finally charged with murder, and during a period of anti-Negro and intense anti-Mexican feeling which was whipped up by the Hearst press, the boys were brought to trial before Judge Charles E. Fricke. Prejudice and a denial of equal right and opportunity before the law marked the proceedings. The boys were convicted.

PREJUDICE

The Court of Appeals decision stated that Judge Fricke's conduct of the trial was prejudicial and damaged the case of the boys; that evidence considered in the case was legally not admissible, and that the constitutional rights of the boys was violated.

The Sleep Lagoon Defense Committee, which is headed by Carey McWilliams, and which fought the conviction of the boys, will now work to secure the immediate and unconditional release of all of the boys, some of whom have been pardoned in recent weeks. The court decision will give them a clean bill of health and restore their citizenship right.

Woman Held For Fatal Shooting

Summoned by neighbors who reported hearing a shot, police of the University Station arrived at 3607 Budlong last Friday at approximately 5:30, and found the nude body of Abraham McDonald in the doorway between his bedroom and the living room. In the kitchen, ironing, they found Amanda V. May, the dead man's girl friend with whom he lived. She admitted having shot McDonald.

According to her version, the shooting resulted after McDonald, who she claimed had become overbearing, demanded that she fix his dinner. Having prepared the dinner she went

President of NAACP Here Reported Ill

Attorney Thomas L. Griffith, president of the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, is reported ill at home as the CALIFORNIA EAGLE goes to press. This publication joins with his host of friends in wishing him a speedy recovery.

New Members to Be Inducted Into N. A. A. C. P. Sunday, Oct. 8

On Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8, at 3:30 at the Hamilton M. E. Church on 18th and Naomi Sts., the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will hold its first meeting of the fall season.

As an induction of new members into the full meaning of the N. A. A. C. P., Miss Nita Blackwell, field secretary, will give a brief sketch of the origin and national growth of the organization, and Mrs. Zella Taylor, secretary of the branch, will paint the local picture.

Mr. Leon Steward, well-known Y.M.C.A. executive, founder of the "Guide Right Movement" of the Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity, and a veteran of World War I, will be the principal speaker. He will speak on the subject "For What Are They Fighting?"

QUARTERLY BULLETIN

The first issue of the quarterly bulletin published by the Los Angeles branch will be off the press about the middle of October.

The bulletin, to be called "Action," will keep members up to date on what is happening locally and nationally in the N. A. A. C. P.'s fight for democracy on the home front.

CONTINUES FIGHT

In order to further the fight for the upgrading and proper integration of Negro deputies in Los Angeles County, the association has asked the Los Angeles County Commission for inter-racial unity to lend their efforts.

A letter written by the N. A. A. C. P. on Sept. 9 to Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz asking for a conference has not been answered to date.

NAACP Pledges Financial and Moral Help In "Lower 13" Case

SEATTLE, Wash.—News this week of the death of Lt. Richard F. James in a plane crash near Pasco, Wash., coincided with the announcement that the Superior Court of Oregon heard the appeal on Tuesday of Robert E. Folkes who was convicted of murder in connection with the death of James' wife on a Southern Pacific passenger train last year. Known as the "lower 13 murder," the case has attracted nation-wide attention because of the circumstantial nature of the evidence upon which Folkes was convicted.

At a regular meeting Monday night, the Los Angeles branch of the NAACP voted to give its moral and financial support to the fight to free Folkes, after hearing his mother, and listening to a report of the case from William Pollard of local 582 of the Dining Car Cooks and Waiters Association, who as chairman of the Robert Folkes Defense Committee, has waged almost singlehandedly, a campaign to get justice for the youth.

A letter written by Folkes to his mother was read by her at the meeting. One paragraph which reiterates the boy's consistent assertion of his innocence, reads as follows:

"...as I have said, I was convicted of this heinous crime. I was not convicted with evidence, I was convicted through prejudice. I truly believe that I could take any one of those jurymen that convicted me, or even the judge who heard the case, and on the same grounds, either one of those people could be placed in front of a Negro

Detroit Mayor Follows Dewey In Extraditing Negro Youths

DETROIT.—Sharp condemnation of Republican Governor Harry F. Kelly, of Michigan, for following the pattern of Governor Dewey of New York in ordering the extradition of two Negro youths to the South, was voiced here this week by Ferdinand C. Smith, Secretary of the National Maritime Union, and Captain Hugh Mulzac, of the Booker T. Washington. The noted Negro leaders, who addressed a meeting here at the Ebenezer AME Church on Sunday, where the cases of Bonney Morrow and Huddie Allen were dwelt on, tried to reach Governor Kelly by long-distance telephone to demand revocation of the extradition order. The call was made from the Hotel Statler, in the presence of a large group of reporters. Governor Kelly's office in Lansing, however, claimed they could not locate hime.

Young Morrow has been living quietly in Grand Rapids for five years, since his escape from a Mississippi lynch mob led by the local sheriff. Despite widespread protests, including an appeal last week by 39 outstanding civic, church, labor, professional and community leaders, Governor Kelly has refused to recall the extradition warrant.

Smith charged that "Governor Dewey exposed the tie-up between Republicans and ranking Democrats last year when he delivered George Burrows to Mississippi over the protests of Negroes and liberal whites. Section 850 of the Criminal Court procedure provides that governors may refuse to extradite where local prejudice makes fair trial improbable. Dewey knew the law. He took his stand on the side of Southern reaction."

Captain Mulzac, comparing the Michigan and New York parallel, said: "From the record

Jim Crow policies in a semi-public housing project, the bill was blocked by the Legislature. Mr. Dewey had, in this instance, an opportunity to prove his attitude towards discrimination, but instead, he hoodwinked the issue by calling for other bills, thus automatically forcing the Committee to resign. The governor then appointed another committee to study anti-racial discrimination laws.

The Negroes, who are Dewey advocates, are telling us about the high salaried jobs Dewey has given Negroes, especially the one given our good friend, Francis Rivers. Well, that matter of giving a few big Negroes fat jobs while the multitude of little fellows starve is the time worn practice of the Republican Party and the thing that we, the Republicans of long standing, resent.

And as the world fights to destroy Fascism in its environs, Hitler's agents in the Smiths, Dulles, America First and the Ku Klux Klan organizations fight to preserve it, especially in the United States of America.

Mr. Roosevelt has given this nation the means to fight such would-be undoers of America's security through his strengthening of the machinery of the Federal government by cooperation with state governments. Such all-important matters as housing, education, employment, and social security have not been left entirely up to the whims of the various state legislatures, "to do or not to do," but a standard—the American standard*—has been developed for the entire nation, and with the continuance of the present administration and the cooperation of the states, this standard will be attained throughout the nation.

When we see Negroes operating streetcars on the streets of Los Angeles and read about a like accomplishment in the city of Philadelphia, we can think, "That's the Roosevelt administration," and cast our vote so that such advances will continue. That same vote which we cast for Roosevelt will give support to those of liberal mind in the South, those legislators through whom the over-all program for the war and for the peace set forth by the present government will be carried out.

It is not enough for us to vote for and elect Roosevelt, we must send from California, also, those men and women who will give him their wholehearted cooperation, so that in the next four years we will not be faced with a "house divided against itself." From California, together with Sheridan Downey, must go Hal Styles and Helen Gahagen Douglas, George Outland and Jerry Voorhis, Ned Healy and Ellis Patterson, Cecil R. King, and Clyde G. Doyle, Hollifield, Young, Sheppard, and Izac—people who will not turn a deaf ear to the demands and needs of their constituents, people who will not turn a deaf ear to our demands, the ever increasing population of Negro residents in California.

ity on the home front. When it is broken, the consequences are sometimes very painful.

Take the case of the Bronsons, f'rinstance. Last Saturday, Edward Bronson arrived at the domicile at 4068½ S. Central loaded down with folding money. His wife, Barbara, awaited him and her pro-rata share of the cash, but Edward was not of a mind to part with his hard-earned gold, and he said so. Naturally, words followed, sharp and fast.

In most circumstances, men are not equal to the sharpness of an angry woman's tongue. It was decidedly so in this case. Edward Bronson, finding himself on the losing end of the verbal battle, seized a coffee pot and applied it effectively to his wife's head. Having thus asserted himself, he departed hastily for parts unknown.

When the police and an ambulance arrived on the scene, Mrs. Bronson was holding her head and moaning incessantly. Edward, as we hinted before, had left. After treatment, Mrs. Bronson was permitted to remain at home to bemuse, perhaps, over the eventful turn which changed Saturday from its traditional moaning to become one big headache.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE

NEEDLES BRANCH
NEEDLES, CALIFORNIA

THE HONORABLE FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT,
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WHITE HOUSE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Due to the fact that for the past three years the flood waters of the Colorado river, constantly rising behind a huge deposit of silt being created at the headwaters of Lake Havasu behind Parker Dam, have inundated a large section of the City of Needles and forced over 200 families to abandon their homes, or to live in homes completely surrounded by from a few inches to two feet of water, the undersigned residents of the City of Needles respectfully petition the President of the United States to take such steps as seem necessary to afford relief to these flood-stricken people.

The Federal Bureau of Reclamation, the agency we believe to be directly responsible for the inundation of the city, has until recently refused to acknowledge any responsibility for the damage suffered by Needles citizens, and while this agency is now preparing to carry out some protective measures along the river, we understand that little or no benefit will accrue to the sections where these 200 families have lost their homes, but will, afford at least some protection to some other sections of the city.

Several months ago Congress added to a bill pending before the United States Senate an additional sum of $300,000 for this protection work, with the provision that up to $180,000 could be used as compensation to those families whose homes and other property had been made uninhabitable due the rising waters of the Colorado river.

In discussing the matter of payment for this property with Commissioner Harry W. Bashore of the Bureau of Reclamation recently, we were informed that it would be a long time, at least a year, before we could expect any of these funds. The Commissioner also stated that if these people were anticipating these funds for rehabilitation that they would be disappointed.

It seems that the method of appealing to the President is about the only source of help that we have left and we sincerely urge that the matter be given fair and early consideration.

Respectfully yours,
JAY A. GREGORY.

forbids discrimination. Local Union A-35 is a dependent Union which the white members of No. 92 have organized for the Negro boilermakers. No. 92 exercises complete control over all money handled by Local A-35, but denies the 5000 Negroes who are forced to join this Union, or be in fear of losing their jobs, any vote or any right to bargain.

Said the Rev. J. Lyle Caston, pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church, in speaking of the fight the 500 Negro boilermakers are making to join the regular Union: "These men are not fighting to join a Union simply. And they are not fighting only for themselves. They are fighting for the American way of life for all those who are denied the rights of an American citizen.

It is part o fthe win-the-war fight of our great commander-in-chief. It is part, a very part, of the war against fascism. We must not let these boys down. We must fight, and continue to fight, until not only they but until every American citizen, black and white, enjoys the blessings intended for them by our Constitution and our present government."

FURLOUGH REUNION—Alex Smith, Official Chief Calculator, who has been in the U. S. Navy for 28 years, sprang a pleasant surprise on his sister, Alberta C. Harrison, who is prominent in social, civic and religious circles here, during his recent furlough. Mrs. Harrison was visiting Dr. and Hrs. L. S. Smith in Houston, Texas, when she received a long distance call informing her that her brother wished to speak to her. Immediately after the conversation she made reservations for a whirlwind trip home. They spent the 15 days of his leave visiting, sight-seeing, and reviewing his experiences in the service.

Edgar G. Brown, director of the National Negro Council, and an active supporter of the candidacy of Thomas E. Dewey in the presidential campaign, devoting his efforts to attack on President Roosevelt through the army segregation issue, is in Los Angeles where he has spoken in several of the churches.

Brown who visited the California Eagle offices this week, is seeking 1,000,000 signatures for a petition demanding that Negro soldiers, home on furlough, be housed in centers equal to those provided for white soldiers.

Henry Keyes Dies

A long illness of several years culminated Thursday morning in the death of Henry Keyes at 5001 Compton. Avenue. For thirty years, Mr. Keyes was a resident of this city and had been active in civic and religious movements until his health failed. He was a member of 8th and Towne Church.

Funeral services were held at Roberts Mortuary at 2:00 o'clock last Saturday. Rev. Frederick D. Jordan officiated.

BURMA FRONT

British West and East African troops have seen several months of hard jungle fighting against the Japanese. They formed part of the Chindit forces landed by air behind the enemy lines. Also on duty in this area is a large, mechanized Belgian ambulance unit, staffed mainly by Congolese, veterans of the African campaign.

jury and convicted. Of course, this incident will never happen, but I assure you it is amazing what prejudice can do."

The NAACP will enlist the aid of America's 15,000,000 Negroes and of hundreds of thousands of its white supporters to aid in this case by contributing one dollar for an appeal fund. Leroy L. Lomax is the Attorney for Folkes.

Murder Strikes In Little Town of San Bernardino

By Z. WEBB
(Special to the Eagle)

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif.—The worst horror to hit this little city in a decade came recently when Mary Grayson, 205 Rialto Ave., was allegedly stabbed to death at the hands of Arthur Mackey, known as "N. C. Zeblin." Both victim and Mackey are from this city.

The attack was made in early morning and was reported by Miss Susie Richardson. It is said that the victim and Mackey left the living room of Miss Richardson and went into a bedroom where they stayed about 15 minutes when the woman came out screaming, "He is going to kill me, Help me." In the struggle that followed seven cuts to the left and above the shoulder caused the death of Mary Grayson, a well-liked Negro citizen of this fine city.

Officers who made arrest and who are now on the case are Strobrige and Didelow.

ACCUSED — Arthur Mackey, above, has been arrested and lodged in jail at San Bernardino, California, on the charge of having stabbed to death Mary Grayson, well-liked resident of that city.

Maintain Our Unity Says Perry

The first annual convention of the Communist Political Association which concluded recently, dedicated itself to full service to the people, with particular emphasis on a campaign of education designed to support the re-election of President Roosevelt. Pettis Perry, state and county vice president of the CPA announced this week that the party is concerned with a Pettis Perry to strengthen the unity of America as a nation, with victory.

Pettis Perry

"We must plan to maintain and extend the unity of our people into the post war period. I cannot share the viewpoint of those who predict chaos after the war. California being a state situated on the Pacific with vast industries, can, if facilities are utilized, be a big factor in the development of post-war trade with Latin America," he said this week.

Dismiss Assault Case Against Man

An "assault with a deadly weapon" case against Burgess Fackler, of 1627 East 42nd Street, was discharged this week in Department 40 of the Superior Court.

Fackler had been previously charged with assault upon Augustine Bazan on August 20, 1944. Dismissal was achieved by motion of Fackler's attorney, Vince Monroe Townsend, Jr., who represented him in the action.

Motion was granted by Judge Clement D. Nye.

Perry Howard Visits Coast

Perry Howard, member of the Republican National Committee arrived here Tuesday morning from Washington, D. C. for a series of conferences with Coast G.O.P. leaders. Mr. Howard, former Mississippi Republican big wig was accompanied here by Mrs. Howard.

Upon arrival, Mr. Howard was met by scheen actor Jesse Graves and went immediately into conference with Attorney Ivan J. Johnson III, Chairman of the California Negro Voters League for Dewey-Bricker at campaign headquarters, 1063 E. 55 St. Mr. Howard is expected to meet with other leaders here before going to San Diego and Northern California.

Relief Council Has Future Plan

The Economic Relief Council, one of the city's oldest institutions, is making great strides in its plan to meet the postwar needs of the returning war veterans, and many families which will be destitute on account of war reverses.

The Council, which is owned and operated by H. A. Reed, located at 2710 Compton Avenue, is purchasing many acres of fertile land which will be converted into large production areas for the purpose of flooding the markets with much needed vegetables, fruits and flowers.

In establishing this production for use program, Mr. Reeves forsees that many men returning from the war fronts will not only find a lucrative employment, but one which, by the very nature of its locale, will furnish the outdoor exercise, fresh air and relaxation which will go a long way toward rehabilitating those men whose nerves have been shattered by the guns of war. The project, incidentally, will also serve to ease the housing stortage, as there will be certain buildings available, in close proximity to the land to be tilled, for the occupancy of the workers.

FRENCH FRONT

French Colonial troops of the 2nd Armored Division, under General Le-Clerc, were the first to enter Paris when that city was liberated on August 25. Other French African troops made up the main forces which successfully stormed Toulon, Marseilles, and other cities in Southern France.

Approves Sewer Site

Official approval was given last week by the Los Angeles City Council of the site selected by the Board of Public Works as the proper location of the proposed sewage disposal plant to serve the Los Angeles area. The plant is to be erected as soon as the program for financing is adopted.

The Gay Side

By Bernice Cook

I forget your name, maybe Leontine,
Suezette, Yvonne, Cheri;
But one thing sure, I shall always know
What meeting you did to me
Down the bayou road with a heavy pack,
Lost, thirsty and hot, dogtired,
You stood framed in the door of that vine-clad shack,
While I rested, my soul inspired.

HARRY LEVETTE.

This week we enjoy another poem by Harry Levette, taken from his verse entitled "A Lost Doughboy Finds Love." Incidentally, the movie studios seem to be keeping Harry pretty busy these days, and we are glad. He is a great guy.

PAGING RAE PEARL . . .

Dropped in at Shepp's Playhouse the other evening and was thrilled beyond words at what I saw and heard. The place itself is a dream place; a pleasanter atmosphere in which to be, one can find nowhere in L. A. Then, marvel of marvels — the place really has the kind of entertainment that goes with it.

Leonard Reed, the genial M.C. has a real headliner of a show. I was greatly impressed by that little personality girl, Rae Pearl by name, who posseses a wonderful voice and dances equally well. Miss Pearl, singing Leonard Reed's own fine composition "Another Day," with the chorines and the orchestra forming a choral background, is something for the books. Of course the other principals in the show, Marie Bryant, Pha Terrell, et al., come on in their own inimitable style.

The hosts are courteous and solicitous of your every want and need. Bardu Ali's band can be classed among the better bands. For an evening of unforgettable pleasure, I strongly recommend Shepp's Playhouse. (And believe it or not, folks, I am not being paid for this advertisement.)

The celebs are out en masse and among those noted were Bill Smith and Avon Long, of "Porgy and Bess," the Boogie-Woogie piano stylist, Maurice Rocco, and party, and others too numerous to mention.

RETURNS FROM IOWA

I was glad to see the smiling face of likeable Jesse Graves, Hollywood character actor for many years, and my personal friend, who has returned from a long visit to his home town, Des Moines, Iowa. (Incidentally, this is the home town of Yours Truly, also.) While visiting in Des Moines, Mr. Graves was the recipient of many social courtesies from relatives and friends.

BENEFIT GOES OVER BIG

The benefit affair given by the Eleven and One Club, a group of very attractive young women, at the Plantation last Wednesday night, was a grand success. The entertainment world was well represented as we spotted, at various tables, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Muse, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Fayard Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. Nicodemus Stewart, Miss Lillian Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Amato and daughter, Miss Norma Ann Amato, Mr. Eddie Green, and Count Basie.

Another very popular figure, not an entertainer, but a good friend of the profession, Dr. C. W. Hill, was also present and having the time of his life. The floor show was emceed by our own columnist, J. T. Gipson, and he did a mighty fine job. Cameras were clicking throughout the evening as the various newspaper photographers got their lenses full of the gayety and fun.

RED LETTER DAY

The visit to Los Angeles of Captain Hugh Mulzac and Ferdinand C. Smith, in the interest of the Roosevelt-Truman campaign, will be a red-letter day. They are slated to speak here on October 6th. This will be the first furlough, in two years, for Capt. Hugh Mulzac, who went to sea on the S. S. Booker T. Washington, and he proposes to use his vacation time to campaign for our President and his supporters.

Ferdinand C. Smith, secretary of the National Maritime Union, is well known for his progressive action. We welcome these two leaders to our fair city.

EXPECTING

We believe this to be the month when we may expect to greet the arrival of an heir in the household of the James Lloyd Crawfords, (nee Hattie McDaniel). Our best wishes to the happy parents-to-be, and "here's hoping" it will be a girl. Somehow, we think a Hattie McDaniel, Jr., would just naturally grow into her place in the motion picture world, and if she happens to be anything like her mother, she should succeed.

Until next week, my readers, may I wish you all the best of everything. 'Bye.

Shaping Our Future Baha'i Topic Sunday

"It is hopeful to learn," she says, "in these days of post war planning and peace conferences, with nations turning hopefully toward the future and seeking some light in the present chaos, that there is a workable plan, which was given to the world over one hundred years ago, and which millions of people are following today, all over the world, with great success.

What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

Jessie Mae Brown

A whirlwind of social events is bringing the Fall season to an exciting climax. T'was Alpha and Delta in the spotlight last Sunday afternoon from four until seven o'clock when past Alpha Kappa Alpha Basiliens, Effie Tucker honored her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wm. McClendon popular Delta figure visiting here from East, with a reception at the platial Tucker home, located in the Santa Monica Beach area. Mrs. McClendon a member of General Davis' immediate family, received leading members of the two sororities and prominant figures of the city in a very gracious manner. Benzell Graham assisted as one of the hostesses.

MRS. CLIFTON RUSSELL HONORED

Mrs. Clifton (Sis Taylor) Russell greeted some twenty-three debs and young matrons at lunchon last Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The affair was given in her honor, by Mrs. Stewart, Sis' mother-in-law. The young matron was cleverly garbed in a striking black side drape skirt, topped by a white blouse with an American beauty red rose print. The rose print of the blouse was carried out on the little white place cards, adding that certain touch to the affair. The whole afternoon was chuck full of fun. A genunie hen party, with plenty good games and prizes, as well as the usual chatter.

Took note of the Monroe sisters, Connie sporting her engagement ring and receiving the usual compliments, Corinne Jones and Melonne Temple long with Marilyn Williams and Jessel Reid laughing over the fact that they know most of the answers to all the games. Liz and Jean Garrots, complete black outfits, Jane Hampton in a gray drape dress, I could go on and on, but I shall bring it to a close by mentioning that fashion setters Leontyne King and Mrs. Clayton Russell made entrances and stayed a brief spell.

MIDDLE AISLE

Next Sunday afternoon at three thrity sharp, popular Barbara Frazier and Coleman Freemont will say their I'do's. Barbara, who is being showered and reshowered, is all nerves over the coming event. So happens that the young couple is buying a new home in Belview, and plan to do a bit of house keeping on the pre-war order. Vows are being taken at Wards Chapel.

Under Roosevelt Negroes Get Union Benefit

It just seems that the presidential campaign is developing faster than we can keep pace.

This campaign is important to all, but it is more important to minority groups such as the Jewish, Mexican and Negro people.

We, the minorities, have our joint and distinctive separate problems.

In this campaign we must concern ourselves with the relation of the Negro people to the re-election of President Roosevelt. Before we go into why we should keep Mr. Roosevelt in the White House, consider this: we have no time for petty "Who is who" and "What about your political affiliation?" etc.

In our particular case we know what has happened under the Roosevelt regime that has been beneficial to us as a racial minority—not Democrats, not Republicans, but the thirteen million Negroes in the U. S. A.

George Morris, noted author, in an article titled, "Under FDR: Negroes Get Union Benefit," describes these benefits so graphically that The California Eagle is passing this article on to its readers intact:

The three Roosevelt administrations correspond, roughly, to a period in which Negro workers and with them, the Negro people as a whole, have made the greatest progress since the Civil War.

This is evident in the tremendous upsurge of trade union organization among Negroes and in the still lagging, but appreciably advanced, role of the Negro within organized labor. This progress came along with the rise of organized labor's strength from some 2,000,000 members, largely of skilled workers in tightly controlled narrow organizations, to over 13,000,000 embracing in the main, ALL workers of large mass production industries. When administration friendship, the Wagner and other such laws, opened the floodgates of organization, many hundreds of thousands of Negroes, too, received the benefits of union organization for the first time. With the white unionists, they, too, shared in the great advance in stature and influence that organized labor has achieved.

But the advance of the Negro within the labor movement did not follow automatically. It took struggle against prejudice, outworn practices and white supremacists and this struggle still has far to go. Success came to the degree that white workers took up the fight jointly with the Negroes.

The battering down of racial discrimination by employers developed out of the labor sweep that smashed the principal open shop citadels of the country. We have seen this most clearly in the sweep that brought the CIO to its present strength. The hundreds of thousands of Negro members in its ranks is testimony to that.

This dramatic rise of unionism in the Negro community has still further spurred to white workers to join in the fight for "full citizenship" for the Negro trade unionist. The fight went on for equal membership rights, full opportunity for Negroes to run for union office and be fairly judged on their merits.

The union picture as a whole is not ideal. But a comparison to the situation a decade back, shows tremendous progress. Some unions in the AFL and on the railroads today give us an idea what things were like in former days. A number of them unceremoniously exclude Negroes. Others do so indirectly. Still others are so "liberal" as to provide jim crow "auxiliaries" for them. Then there are some unions that give Negroes full membership but hardly a chance in the leadership or even minor parts. And the picture in the AFL is an improvement over the past.

It is not an accident that those leaders in the AFL and railroad brotherhoods most hostile to the President rest on organizations that still retain post-Civil War anti-Negro bars. Dewey's "labor" man Czar William Hutcheson heads the Carpenters. Republican David Robertson heads the "lily white Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

The CIO was born without the handicap of the 19th Century prejudice. All its affiliates adhere to a program of full equality. But even in the CIO the fight goes on to make this principle a reality in every detail of an organization's life. There are some who give only lip service to it. Others shut their eyes to the problem by claiming that recognizing it is "jim crowism in reverse." They would just do nothing about it.

Progressives of labor say that the problem must be faced frankly and dealt with directly. It is only along such lines that white unionists have been won to a progressive policy. We already have thousands of Negroes in local, state and national union posts. Ferdinand Smith is secretary of the National Maritime Union and its members on the CIO's Executive Board V. Richard Carter is a board member of the CIO's Shipbuilders Union. Shelton Tappes is secretary of the River Rouge Ford local of 90,000 members. So it goes with union after union, where as those named, the membership is predominantly white. Those are men who have been advanced to leadership and they have become outstanding spokesmen in their Negro communities as well. This is a process that is only getting into stride. It will continue if the country generally follows a progressive trend. But it will receive a setback if reaction scores a victory on Nov. 7.

"STOP ACCIDENTS—SAVE MANPOWER!"

W. J. Wheaton Says . . .

TRIBUTE TO FERDINAND SMITH: Recently re-elected as National Secretary of the NMU, the high officials of the organization among, if not the largest of the worlds labor groups, tendered a testimonial dinner in his honor. The affair was held in the main ball room of the Hotel Commodore, New York city, and the date was September the 20th. The list of sponsors was headed by Basil Harris, president of the U.S. Lines, and included such notables as Marshall Field, Senator James Mead, CIO President Phil Murray, D. Stuart Iglehart, president of the Grace Lines; Paul Robeson, and many other nationally known notables. The dinner was given in recognition of Smith's services to the labor movement, the Negro people and the nation. Congratulatory messages were received from national and international notables, men and women prominent in all walks of life. Business, literature, and art paid their tribute to one, who through sheer ability, coupled with honesty, and sincerity of purpose, is acclaimed as one of the leading characters of the nation. Smith stands out as the most outstanding leader of a minority group. His election to the position of secretary of the nation's largest labor group is, in itself, evidence of his capability. President Joseph Curran, chairman of the dinner committee, spoke in high praise of Smith's loyalty and ability. President Murray, CIO, praised Smith's record in the field of organized labor. Basil Harris, was honorary chairman at the dinner and among other things said "I believe that when a man who has done such a splendid job as Mr. Smith has, some recognition of his achievements should be recorded. Among the two thousand who attended the dinner were Negro leaders from every section. They vied with each other in their praise of Smith and his contribution to the progress of the Negro in America. Just a few men of Smith's calibre and the Negro need have no fear of discrimination because of race or color. Ability is what counts in the long run.

THE ROORBACK: In every presidential campaign the word "roorback" has frequently appeared. The word has been used so frequently and in so many ways, we determined to find out just what it meant, and, from what source it had sprung. American dictionaries define the word as a "political lie" or a "defamatory falsehood" published for political effect. Having found the definition, we looked for the source. During the presidential campaign between James K. Polk, whom we believe to have been Speaker of the House at that time, 1844, and Henry Clay, a story was published in a New York paper that included a quotation from an author named Roorback. The story was that Polk purchased forty-three slaves and branded them with his initials. The charge was proven false. In the search we found that no president, including the Father of our Country, was exempt from charges such as sex scandals, religion, "tainted blood," drunkeness, business dishonesty, and so many other things they would exhaust the list of moral charges. Among the most foolish of "Roorbacks" was that made by the Minnesota congressman about the Hawaiian trip of the President, with his Fleet escort, and the sending of the destroyer for his dog, Falla. The health of the President has also been one of the chief false propaganda items of the GOP. Even candidate Dewey cannot refrain from the frequent mentioning of "The Tired Old Man," or the "Tired and wan administration in the White House." Aside from that, the speeches are as meaningless as the chatter of a three-year-old child. Nothing constructive—that is not already encouched in the acts of the present administration . . . has been mentioned in any of the speeches. The "Indispensible Man" is a creature of their own imagination. The phraseology is their own. The "Roorbacks" will have no bearing with the intelligent voter, and all voters are intelligent enough to detect the true from the false. The "Roorback" they attempt to frame on Frank R. Havenner, candidate for congress, Fourth Congressional District, is that he has communistic tendencies—whatever that is. But we do say that if intense interest in the welfare of the "common man" and the laborer is communistic tendency, then Franck Havenner stands convicted, because he is a HUMANITARIAN first, last and all the time.

THE CARPE DIEM TOWNHALL: At its meeting Sunday, Sept. 24th, the Forum presented as its speaker the Rev. G. Linwood Fountleroy, recently arrived from Philadelphia to pastor the Cooper Zion A.M.E. church at Oakland. His subject was "The Religious, Social and Economic Adjustment of the Negro in the new World Order." The programme was preceded by the rendition of a musical number, "Where Ever You Are," by Mrs. Fountleroy, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Fountleroy. The Reverend is dynamic and forceful in his delivery and was received with rapt attention throughout his speech. Several statements made by the speaker were questioned for further clarification. There was one statement made during the speech that we wished to have had answered, but the Reverend pleaded a previous engagement which precluded our presenting th question. The statement made by the speaker was, "That a certain Minister of an Oakland church, who had previously boasted of his loyalty to the Democratic Party had been called in by the Political Committee of the Republican party and for a sum of $1500, had changed his allegiance." It is our opinion that any man who claims leadership—no matter what his calling, and sells his own birthright and that of his followers for the "Mess of Pottage"—well, the best that we can say is that there are better

The Right Move On the Political Checker Board

Upon every occasion when President Roosevelt suggested any bit of legislation for the welfare of the American people, it was shunted back and forth by irresponsible members in Congress, like the men on a checkerboard.

We must say that the shrewdness of President Roosevelt kept him out of many a tight place, and helped him win when his opponents were gleefully shouting that they had him—and the legislation he wished to have adopted—completely cornered.

These opponents are the reactionary Democrats of the South and—supposedly the friends of the Negro—the Republicans of the North.

President Roosevelt did not win in every case, as those of us in the minority groups and in the lower wage brackets know only too well. But in every move he made he had the welfare of the people of the United States at heart. Individuals sometimes had their toes stepped upon, but always the welfare of all was the goal in view.

This is surely true in the case of the resignation of Donald Nelson as head of the War Production Board. President Roosevelt accepted Mr. Nelson's resignation, appointed Lt. Comdr. J. A. Krug head of the W.P.B., and asked Mr. Nelson to accept an economic mission to China.

Some moving about on the checkerboard of national affairs, truly.

But these moves, we believe, will rebound not only to the welfare of the country. They will also grant greater benefits to each individual as well.

President Roosevelt, in accepting the resignation of Mr. Nelson, suggested that he might be asked to take a "high post of major proportions" during the postwar period. Could anything prepare Mr. Nelson better for this high post of honor and responsibility than a mission to China, to study the economic conditions of one of our allies, to make friends with her, to decide with her what each should do to create that new world of freedom from fear and from want?

But the opponents of President Roosevelt are trying to belittle this move of his, and are intimating that the Nelson resignation was caused by "internal controversy over reconversion!"

Yet the Los Angeles Times, although commenting unavorably upon it, was forced to admit nevertheless that as Mr. Nelson plans to complete his mission to China before considering any further activity, public or private, should he later accept the post of major importance and responsibility in the postwar world with his greater experience he would show a high sense of patriotism.

Truly, we agree with the Times in that. A high sense of patriotism, and a greater ability because of experience to perform tasks of greater responsibility.

Judge Palmer Makes Bad Decision

The right of private property owners to restrict use of their land to members of the Caucasian race has been upheld by one Superior Judge William J. Palmer, who states that this right is a civil liberty as important to the concept of democracy as freedom of speech, religion, and other privileges guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment.

Such a decision, which is a shameful slap in the face of those progressive-minded citizens who believe in equal rights and look to the dispensers of law and order to uphold such rights. The decision of Judge Palmer, given at the instance of the dispute arising among property owners in the vicinity of Fiftieth Street between Main and Broadway, and granting an injunction to prevent one Bryant Allen, and other Negroes, from living on property in this locality, has encouraged the insistence of yet other white property owners that Negroes shall not be allowed to move in their neighborhoods. In this regard, another group of Southwest property owners have called a meeting this week for the purpose of restricting all property bounded by Slauson Avenue, Sixtieth Street, Hoover Street and Menlo Avenue, to members of the Caucasian race, only.

With all this ballyhoo about differences of race and color, and quibbling about "who shall and who shall not," out fighting men on the war fronts find that when you come right up against the proposition, there is no difference—and they are not afraid to say so. Cpl. Leo Marvin Lamb, white, veteran of action on Kwajalein atoll, Saipan, and Tinian, in a letter to some friends on West Eighty-fourth place, speaks his mind thusly: "One subject you brought out in your letter concerning race discrimination was of particular interest to me. I believe if people would worry less about who is operating their street cars and be a little more thankful they have someone to operate them, they would feel a little less inclined to criticize. Colored people are doing a swell job out here. I saw one colored soldier on Saipan knock a Jap bomber out of the sky with two rounds. This is an example of what they are doing out here." We say "bravo" Cpl. Lamb. You have the right idea. It wouldn't be a bad idea for some of us Americans to be thankful that we have homes in which to live—and to think little or nothing about the color of the neighbor next door, so long as he behaves like a decent American citizen.

AS I SEE IT!

By Jeanette Cohen

I hope Dan Burley of the Amsterdam News listened to the informal speech made by President Roosevelt before the Teamsters Union recently. It was a good speech. Good, not because he used a lot of big words, like some other man I have heard, but because those big word swere down to earth, and clearly outlined a course for winning the war—so unlike that other man.

Dan Burley tried to convince me one evening on 7th Avenue that I am on the wrong side of the road. I wasn't convinced. And the more I listen to Roosevelt and watch his actions, the more I am convinced that Burley is wrong.

During this discussion with Burley, Louis Martin of the Michigan Chronicle (a strong Roosevelt man), a Mr. Butler and Dr. Ervin, I was told that Roosevelt has done nothing for the Negro. I remember Mr. A. Philip Randolph said the same thing at the Second Baptist Church in Los Angeles. He said that to an audience made up of war workers—men and women who had never had the opportunities in industry before.

"That doesn't mean a thing," I was told "it's because of the war."

Okay, so necessity opened up these opportunities. But this is what our Commander-in-Chief has to say about that: "This is not the time in which men can be forgotten as they were in the Republican catastrophe that we inherited. The returning soldiers, the workers by their machines, the farmers in the field, the miners, the men and women in offices and shops, DO NOT INTEND TO BE FORGOTTEN. No, they konw that they are not surplus. Because they know that they are America."

When Roosevelt said that he did not speak only for white America—or only for the Americans with Mayflower ancestry. He meant the Jews, Negroes, Italians, Mexicans and every other national minority that makes up America. He proved that time and again.

On the subject of jobs, Burley felt that Dewey had contributed a great deal to the Negro people—because he placed "fourteen Negroes" in "important" positions. I'm not good at figures, but even I can tell that "fourteen" out of "12, 14 or 15 million" is an almost insignificant percentage.

On the other hand, Martin related an incident that didn't sound very good for Dewey. It seems that Dewey has a house in Owosso, Michigan. Negroes are not permitted on the streets in that town after dark—so I'm told. It also seems that a floor had to be laid in Dewey's house—the men laying the floors were Negroes. According to Martin, the job was delayed until the next day because the Negro men had to "get out before dark."

Not only does Dewey wait for election time to babble his "admiration" for the Negro people alone, but for labor as a whole. Roosevelt surely hit the nail on the head when he said: "We all know that certain people will make it a practice to depreciate the accomplishments of labor—who even attack labor as unpatriotic.

"They keep this business up usually for three years and six months in a row. But then, for some strange reason, they change their tune—every four years—just before election day. When votes are at stake they suddenly discover that they really love labor, and that they are anxious to protect labor from its old friends."

My mother used to say about women who would want to give up a perfectly good husband who loved and worshiped them all year round, for a guy who whispered sweet nonsense into their ears: "You know what you've got, but you don't know what you're going to get."

The only difference now is that we do know what we are "going to get" if we don't keep Roosevelt in the White House—and that won't be good.

THE PULPIT VOICE

Conducted by

REV. HAMILTON T. BOSWELL

Minister, Bowen Memorial Methodist Church

THE CHURCH, NOT A COMMUNITY TOOL

Remarks are frequent at times as to the Church's lack of cooperation with the many political, social, civic and other community groups which try to build themselves using the Church as the sure foundation. Any minister who will not let his Church serve as a billboard for everything which would be, is considered as anti-social, ignorant and so forth. Whereas, this might be true in a few instances, still it is that resentment by Churchmen to these groups is based on a very sound logical basis.

THE TOOL IDEA OF THE CHURCH

As one keenly interested in my community, I have done my best to keep up with the many movements and causes which have sprung from our needs in today's world. But invariably I have been in few meetings of social planning when the following stereotype was not resorted to in furthering some program. "Let's print leaflets and distribute them around at the Churches, or send out announcements for the ministers to read from their pulpits." Thus it is that every group professing a social interest, immediately learns the value of contacting the Churches. Day after day, Sunday after Sunday our Churches are deluged with leaflets, announcements, speakers and the like of methods to reach our people. Some even have the audacity to try to buy their way in, as though the Church's time could be bought as a commercial on the radio. If this were all, Churchmen would feel them as being good signs of appreciation of the Church and its cause. But such is far from being the truth.

CONTEMPT FOR THE CHURCH AND ITS CLERGY

Many of these Church-users are rabbidly anti-religious and anti-Christian. Yet with soft smiles and pretty words they come usurping, if they could, the organizational feature of Churches. They are never present at worship services for participation in the program of the Church, they only come to make some announcement in interest of their own cause. I said to one woman who was pestering me about sending a representative from my Church to her organization. "How is it that you never attend the Churches for worship?" "Oh," she replied, "Religion is one's own private business." Then said I with more temper than reason: "Why, then, don't you leave us alone." Here was this so-called socially enlightened person who advocates the socializing of all business, health, education, industry and so forth; but would leave the curse of individualism against religion. Perhaps the dear sister doesn't know the difference between religion and superstition. Other instances are equally as bad. An organization, professing to be Christian and in line with the program of the Church, openly approached Churches to solicit members, but when the campaign was over, that same organization announced as part of its program, regular Sunday morning breakfasts which began at 11:00. Ministers are called on morning, noon and night to be a part of community programs and meetings, for this we are glad to serve; but when that same minister who was asked by Mr. X, asks Mr. X to help in some way with the Church program, such a barrage of excuses as is seldom heard from Church members results. Then, too, there are those self-failures who recognize nothing as good or sincere; every minister who succeeds, they say, must be crooked and fooling the people. If they felt motivated by the truth of these actions, they would certainly strive to bring such to light, but instead, in dives and dark places they mouth their antagonisms for the ministry, they express their contempt and jealousy of the personal success of some minister they know before his ministry.

But they do not stop there; wait until a character reference is needed; some one to vouch for their character, then it is the same man whose character they sought to undermine, that they approach to ascertain theirs. A young man I've known all my life came to me for a character reference; but I didn't feel justified in vouching for his good character. He became very angry with me, threatened me, but I was teaching him that the Church and its ministry is not a convenient tool in the hands of the community. He later got one from a bigger preacher than I; he let me know, but at least he had to make two trys.

CHURCHES WILL COOPERATE

There are few institutions that are willing to cooperate with the community as the Churches are, but the Churches are refusing to be mere pawns in the hands of individuals and organizations who expect the Church to do the "Co-ing" while they do all the "Operating." If we are to work together, our cooperation must go two ways. The Church is not ashamed of its Cause, and are not willing to substitute any other cause in its stead. If you would have us assist in your cause, rest assured that we expect yours in ours.

Church Closes 9th Anniversary

The Church of the Living God, C.W.F.F., 4700 Compton Ave., has just closed its ninth anniversary in honor of the pastor and his wife. We are praying for the continued services of the Bishop and his wife, who have served us so faithfully for the past nine years. Our church is growing and has prospered under the leadership of Bishop Warren and his wife. During these years we have bought and paid for our church lot, a place of worship and a parsonage. We hope to erect a real church home on this lot in the near future.

The Bishop and a delegation are leaving on Thursday, October 5th, to attend the 52nd annual convention of the Church of the Living God, which will convene on October 10th, at Indianapolis, Indiana, for a six day session, Chief O. V. Hall acting as presiding officer. We are praying that they may have a glorious trip and a great assembly, and that they will come back to us with a greater vision to inspire us and carry us on to success.

McCoy Memorial Baptist Church Welcomes Pastor and Wife Home

Sunday was a Memorable day at McCoy Memorial Baptist church. The auditorium was a scene of rare beauty with lovely cut flowers. The members and friends turned out en masse to greet the pastor, Rev. E. A. Anderson and wife, who enjoyed an extensive vacation directly following his first anniversary. The work accomplished during the year has been wonderful and far-reaching in its scope.

The pastor spoke from the subject "Victory Through Faith" at the 11 o'clock hour and the spirit of the Lord was present as was evidenced by the display of spiritual fervor on the part of the huge crowd that literally packed and jammed the temporary auditorium. Holy Communion was administered during the evening service at the close of which the right hand of fellowship was given the members joining during the past month.

The pastor reported a very enjoyable and inspiring vacation which included attending the National Baptist Convention which convened in Dallas, Tex. He also visited in Kansas City, Mo., and was the guest of the prominent Rev. E. S. Stamps, who is an outstanding minister of that city. The itinerary also included points east. While in Chicago the pastor spoke in the Pilgrim Baptist church of which the eminent Rev. J. C. Austin is the pastor, and also at the Second Baptist church of Evanston, Ill., of which the Rev. J. Gentry Horrace is the minister.

Rev. and Mrs. Anderson were the house guests of Mrs. Rose D. Brown, who is the sister of Sister Anna Scott, an ardent member of the McCoy Church, while in Chicago.

Everyone is invited to worship at McCoy Sunday, Oct. 8, and enjoy a glorious worship. Rev. D. D. Jones, the father of Sister Anna Scott, will be the speaker for the 11 o'clock hour. Rev. Jones is the president of the Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress of the state of Oklahoma, an ardent worker in the national Baptist Convention and well seasoned in the gospel ministry. We invite you to hear him and also congratulate him on his birthday. Plan to visit the evening service also and hear our pastor speak from the subject, "The Negro in the Post-War World," and echoes from the Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress and the National Baptist Convention.

If I do not keep step with others, it is because I hear a different drummer. Let a man step to the music which he hears, however measured and however far away. —Henry Thoreau.

James Morris, Pioneer Citizen, Passes Here

James William Henry Morris, pioneer citizen, departed this earth on Friday, September 29, at high noon. He came to Los Angeles from Memphis, Tennessee, in 1912. He was joined one year later, August, 1913, by his wife, Emma Morris, and their four children. Four more children were later born to this union.

For the past thirty years Mr. Morris has been a very successful business man. He has owned and operated a chain of gasoline service stations. He built the stations at 16th and Central Avenue, the one at 25th and Hooper, the one at Adams and Compton. He built and owned at the time of his death the station at Adams and Hooper.

James Morris was born in Holly Springs, Mississippi, on December 12, 1880. He was married to Miss Emma McClure in 1906. To this union were born eight children: McClure Morris, musician; Joe Morris, Plantation Club owner; Lorenzo Seth Morris, Air Cadet at Tuskegee, Alabama; Myra Morris Chretien, Los Angeles city school teacher; Peggy Morris Wright and Olett Morris Toomes, wives and mothers; and Mildred Morris, university student.

He leaves six granddaughters and one grandson. Besides seven children and seven grandchildren, he leaves three sons-in-law, Vincent H. Chretien, Rudy Wright and John Toomes, and two daughters-in-law. One brother in Chicago and one sister in New York grieves Mr. Morris' sudden death. Among the many nieces and nephews who are saddened are Mr. and Mrs. Cassell Morris and daughter of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Evelyn Brown and family.

James Morris was an outstanding citizen and a devout Christian. He regularly attended the Emmanuel Church of God in Christ at 33rd and Compton.

The funeral will be held at 1 p. m. at the Church of God in Christ, 33rd and Compton, Monday, Rev. Samuel Crouch officiating.

I have been hearing about a proposed calendar change. Will this new calendar change the days of the week and thereby change the days of worship?—Mrs. B. Y., Los Angeles, Calif.

It is seriously proposed by the World Calendar Association that after the year 1944 there shall be a change in the weekly cycle which we have followed through the centuries. This proposal which is receiving widespread approval would automatically abolish all religious and weekly holy days.

Note how this proposed change would effect those who worship on Sunday. Until the last day of 1944, Sunday would continue to be observed in the usual way. The last day of 1944, which falls on Sunday, would have no weekly value, it would be called no day. Then at the beginning of 1945, an entirely different day would replace Sunday according to this proposed scheme of reckoning. Although this first day of the new year will be called Sunday, it would not be Sunday at all. Actually it would be Monday.

Thus those who now hold Sunday as a day of worship would be asked to accept Monday in its place. It would be called Sunday, and would be expected by the calendar reformers to observe it instead of the real Sunday.

This change is accomplished by taking December 31, 1944, which falls on Sunday, out of the calendar altogether. Although in reality it is Sunday, it will be set aside as an "extra Saturday, December W," and counted a zero, or blank day.

One authority on this subject, C. B. Haynes, in his book, "Calendar Change Threatens Religion," describes the condition which follows if the above plan is adopted.

"Instead of going to church that day Sunday observers would celebrate a holiday, an 'extra Saturday.' They would go to church the next day, Monday, the second day of the week, now rechristened Sunday, and moved up, on paper, to be the first day of the week. They would be asked to keep Monday during all of 1945.

"Then Monday, December 31, 1945, would be lopped off, and Tuesday, January 1, 1946, the third day of the week, would arbitrarily be dubbed Sunday, January 1, and moved up to be the first day of the week. And during 1946 Sunday observers would be asked to keep Tuesday.

"In 1947, by the same process, Wednesday, the fourth day of the week, would be called Sunday, the first day, which it would not be at all, but only called so."

And so on until 1949. Then "in 1949 Saturday, the seventh day, under this arrangement would be called Sunday, and made the first day, and observed by Sunday keepers.

"In this way Sunday keepers, from 1945 to 1949, would play a game with themselves and keep every day in the week except Sunday, while pretnding all the time that Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays they were really keeping were not those days at all, but were actually Sundays.

"Thus the historical Sunday would be detached from its fixed place in the week and set to wandering through the weekly cycle, its own name removed and another name applied. Those who observe it as a religious day would be plunged into hopeless and endless confusion, groping about to discover their lost day of worship.

"But the calendar reformers are attacking not only Catholic and Protestant practice in the observance of Sunday but as well the Jewish and Christian practice of keeping the seventh day—by Orthodox Jews, Seventh-day Adventists, and Seventh Day Baptists. Since this is a world calendar, the Mohammedan observance of Friday is also included, for the disruption of the week involved in this reformed calendar scheme makes impossible the weeping of any fixed day of the true historical week such as Sunday, Saturday, or Friday."

The proponents conceal this meaning with scrupulous care. But their proposition will assuredly produce this effect.

A.M.E. Zion Conference Closes Successful Meet

By Roberta Walkins

A capacity congregation witnessed the closing of the twenty-fourth annual session of the South-West Rocky Mountain Conference, Sunday night at Brown Temple A. M. E. Church, 1201 E. 43rd Street, of which Rev. M. McLaughlin is pastor.

Presided over by Bishop William Cornelius Brown, the conference convened on Wednesday morning, Sept. 27, with a large number of pastors, delegates and officers present.

The opening sermon was preached by Rev. Vernon Rose, pastor at South Los Angeles. The Holy Communion was administered. A fine program of felicitation was arranged and presented by the pastor, choir and members of Brown Temple on Wednesday night. Thursday was Missionary Day and Mrs. Gertrude Brown, wife of Bishop Brown and general supervisor, was in charge. Mrs. Anna Fields, District Superintendent. Presiding Elder L. W. McCoy of the California Conference, preached the Missionary sermon.

"Our Church Responsibility in the Post-War World" was the subject discussed on Friday—Educational Day—and was led by Rev. H. Philbert Lankford and Mrs. Roberta Walkins. The Educational message at the rally for education and home missions was brough by our pastor at Oakland, the Rev. G. Linwood Flountleroy.

A seminar of religion was held Saturday afternoon by the directors of Christian education Mrs. Jessica Marshall and Rev. Roger Willis. Mrs. Terry Jenkins, connected with the Youth Department of the Church Federation, was one of the principal speakers.

Rev. H. B. Gantt of San Francisco preached at 11 a. m. Sunday and the Brown Temple choir furnished music; Rev. G. Mayo Roberts of Sacramento spoke at 3:30 p. m. and the choir of the First A. M. E. Zion Church sang; at 8 p. m. Dr. H. Philbert Lankford brought the closing message and his San Diego choir furnished the music.

This conference was one of the largest and best-attended and all reports were gratifying and showed excellent work on the part of the various pastors both financially and numerically. Few changes in pastorates were made, the only two being Rev. Vernon Rose from South Los Angeles to Prescott, and Rev. Paul M. Marshall from First A. M. E. Zion Church, Pico and Paloma, to transfer to another conference. Many visitors both in and from out of the city were in attendance.

Last Sunday the Sunday School was well attended. Rev. Wade preached on "The Necessity of Spiritual Power." Baptizing followed the sermon. A baby was christened with Brother and Sister B. Lumbard the Godmother and Godfather. Eleven were added to the church, two for baptizing.

Rev. Toney Reports

The Rev. Charles M. Toney, Field Secretary of the Los Angeles District Association of the Western Baptist Convention, at the request of President Rev. J.

Rev. Charles M. Toney

Raymond Henderson of the Baptist Ministers Union of Los Angeles city and county, gave a resume of the recent meeting of the National Baptist Convention, Inc., held at Dallas, Texas, Sept. 5 to 10. Rev. Toney said it was the greatest assemblage of Christian intelligence that he had ever witnessed, 1,400 delegates being present. Another of the high points, remarked by many of the ministers present, was the great number of converts added to the church by the preaching of the gospel.

Rev. Toney attended both the men's and women's sessions. The Rev. T. Chambers, minister of the Good Street Baptist Church, was the entertaining pastor. Rev. Chas. M. Toney said let's continue that brotherly love and prayer that was present at the convention.

The secretary announced the meeting of the Los Angeles District Association, Oct. 11 at 8 p. m. It will be held also on the 12t hand 13th. Please be present. Moderator, Rev. G. A. Mitter. Executive Secretary, Rev. L. D. Stevens.

New Hope Baptist Church

WILMINGTON, Cal. — New Hope Baptist Church, Rev. S. L. Taylor, Pastor, found Sunday School largely attended at 9:30 Sunday morning. Taylor, who had just returned from the Nat'l Baptist Convention at Dallas, and had visitd her brother in Houston on the way back. We were all glad to have her home. Our rally was financially a success. As we are remodeling our church sometime in November, we shall lay our cornerstone.

Thursday, Sept. 28, Inspirational Meeting at Mt. Sianai Church, Rev. Richardson, Pastor, and sponsored by Sister V. V. Taylor of the Independent Missionary Baptist Ass'n, Women's Department. The day long meeting was enjoyed by all Six Churches in attendance. Devotional was led by Sister Butler of Beulah Baptist Church and Sister Henderson of Union Baptist Church. The lesson was taught by Rev. Chairty, our moderator, and Sister Richardson, who is president of the Pastors' and Deacons' Wives. The subject was the high cost of living as a Christian.

A beautiful program was given in the afternoon, The solo was by Mrs. Woods of Union Baptist Church. A paper on the All Seeing Eye was read by Sister King of Union Baptist Church, followed by a solo by Mrs. Humes, the great Gospel singer, paper, Mrs. Hicks, San Pedro, Cal., several others and a beautiful solo by Mrs. Alexander, wife of Rev. Alexander. Lunch was served to all present. Evening services under the auspices of the Deacons. Rev. Alexander delivered the message. Mrs. Pius, one of our state workers, was with us. Her remarks were very inspiring, and enjoyed by all.

Our next Inspirational Meeting will be Thursday after the Third Sunday. It will be conducted by Rev. Neal of So. Los Angeles. You are cordially invited to worship with us.

We were spiritually blessed and also financially. Offering was $17.40.—Sister V. V. Taylor, Pres., Florence Jordan, Reporter.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By John M. Lee

CHANGING STYLES

One of the great faults of the disrupters who seek to befuddle the Negro minority in this campaign is their complete lack of understanding of the mental processes of the people to whom they admit superiority. It seems to me that a man, or a group of men must individually or through their leadership, have the ability to at least know the level of another man or group of men's intelligence if he or they would successfully fool him or them. When the Dies group, acting in conjunction with the Hearst interests, attempted to hang a sheet over Hal Styles recently, they were counting on the old chestnut about the Negro's fear of ghosts. It was symbolic in their minds, and the symbolism was all they needed — they thought. What they didn't take into consideration was the power of reasoning which Negroes have too.

John M. Lee

WRONG SUPPORTERS

Had the smear artists sampled opinion in Negro communities, they would have discovered that following their attack, Hal Styles' candidacy took on new significance. What happened, in essence, is that the Negro people decided they would rather vote for a reformed Klansman who has spent the best years of his life in projects to help his fellow man, than to vote for McDonough, who is supported by all of the reactionary anti-labor, anti-Negro groups that were behind the badly - defeated Congressman Costello.

McDonough did not help his case when he sought to gain comfort from what he hoped was Hal Styles' predicament. He is ambitious to become a Congressman, as he reportedly told Bill Bassett of the United AFL Political Action group when he sought to have the AFL withdraw its endorsement of Styles and give it to him. This despite the fact that he had already been endorsed for the office of supervisor at the same time that Styles had received endorsement for the Congressional post.

REPUBLICAN REACTION

What it adds up to is this: Recognizing that on the issues, any Republican who is not pledged to support the Roosevelt program will not get the support of the Negro voter, many of the Republican office seekers are injecting classism and racism into the campaign. Whether it is openly, or by indirection, as was the case with McDonough when he issued a statement commenting upon the smear against Styles, the people of minority groups are more fearful of Republican reaction than they are of charges referring to the past.

It would be well for McDonough and his fellows to re-examine their "credos," as they say in the Writers Congress, and learn how to win elections and influence Negro voters.

ROCHESTER 0121

Sometimes when you listen to a certain aspirant to high office talk about who started the war and how wantonly our preparedness was neglected, you wonder what country you're in, and what makes that little guy feel so superior to the boys who are fighting for its future existence. Facts and figures can be changed if a politician wants to color things a bit, but you can't use hocus-pocus when a soldier is wounded and is in danger of bleeding to death. Right then, what he needs is blood plasma, and the only way he'll have it is by your making an appointment with the Red Cross and putting it in the bank against the day he'll need it. The number is Rochester 0121.

Dr. Kaufman Is Proud New Dad Of Baby Boy

Mrs. Lauretta Kaufman, wife of Dr. Seymour Kaufman, presented the doctor a six-pound bouncing baby boy on Monday, October 2, 1944, at 2 p. m. The mother is feeling fine and the doctor, who is more than elated over his first child, is a very enthusiastic father and for many more reasons than one:

First—Dr. Kaufman has delivered almost 200 babies for colored families in this district in the past year and now—when he is able to bring into this world a new baby and another soldier to follow in his footsteps, the ovation is much greater.

Congratulations and telephone calls have kept Dr. Kaufman a busy father at his office for the past twenty-four hours.

Mrs. Kaufman is resting at the Wilshire Hospital, where many of our colored friends go.

HISTORY MADE—At 28th Street YMCA, On Friday evening, September 29, Regional Director George Goold and District Governor Art Speer of the International Y's Men's Organization presented the charter, initiated the members and installed the first set of officers of the newly organized 28th Street Branch Y's Men's Service Club. This marks the first time in the history of the International Association that a Negro Club has received a charter.

Gen. Eisenhower Lauds Truckmen of Redball

(Submitted from somewhere in France by John S. Kinloch, Special Correspondent for The California Eagle.)

Twenty-fice thonsand American soldier-truckers and auxiliaries riding the Army's famed Red Ball Highway—400-mile supply lifeline from the ports to the combat areas—were told yesterday in a congratulatory message from Gen. Eisenhower that they were shaping the war's destiny as greatly as any combat troops. Sixty per cent of these troops are Negro.

Later, the Communications Zone chiefs who planned and who control the Highway revealed some of its secrets at a Paris press conference and a 12th Army Group staff officer said that upon it depended how soon came a mass thrust into Germany.

HUGHES SPEAKS FOR GEN. IKE

Eisenhower's tribute to the supply men was paid on his behalf early yesterday morning by Maj. Gen. E. S. Hughes, who drove outside Paris to meet a line of trucks driven by Negro troops of a truck company.

In a field by the roadside, he decorated Cpl. Robert F. Bradley, of Lynchburg, Va., with the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service. None of the men were aware of what was to occur when the convoy was waved to a halt and they were asked to assemble near by.

Hughes told the surprised truckers that would have liked to give all of them a medal. "Bradley was chosen as a representative of the whole Red Ball Highway, including the men who repair the roads and bridges, put up the telephone wires and do all the service work in the rear," he said.

"Gen. Eisenhower realizes that you men seldom get the same recognition as soldiers in the front line and wants you to know that the part you're playing is vital. His message is for every man engaged on this vast project; the troops at the front couldn't do without you."

At the press conference, Maj. Gen. Frank E. Ross, chief of transportation, CZ, said Red Ball Highway - four times as long as the Burma Road—had hauled 150,000 tons up to Sept. 10.

Sixty per cent of the truckers are Negro soldiers, hauling ammunition, gasoline and other supplies from beaches, depots and ports to railheads and dumps. As the front-line goes forward the length of the trip increases. Right around the clock the trucks pound two major highways, one going east, the other west.

Born of necessity after the break-through at St. Lo, Red Ball derived its name from an old railway term (railmen marked priority cars with a red dot) and Red Ball trucks bear a brilliant red disc. Only they may use the two routes.

Transportation Corps experts supervise its operation; Quartermaster Corps soldiers furnish most of the supplies, trucks and drivers; engineers repair roads and bridges; Ordnance men service the vehicles; the Signal Corps maintains communications; MPs direct traffic and clear the roads of "outsiders" and medics operate aid stations along the route. The American Red Cross chipped in with eight clubmobiles to ply the roads.

Red Ball truck-trains usually return from the front loaded with captured enemy goods. Halfway along the eastbound route, drivers are changed. While the fresh men carry on, the others rest, then meet their buddies on the other side of the loop on the return trip.

Brains of the system is centered in Paris. Every midnight supply experts study commanders' requisitions, and distribution directives are drawn up. By 6 a. m. they are on the way to a CZ base section by air courier. The base-section commander tells depots in the area what supplies are needed. Thirty-six hours after the midnight session, the trucks are loaded and on the way.

HOPA Fights Residential Restrictions

More cases of injustice caused by the un-American residential restriction rule now in force were brought to light at the meeting of the Home Owners Protective Association which was held in the California Eagle building last Friday evening.

Every one living in the area extending from Figueroa to Central and from Slauson to Manchester, whether a homeowner or not, should attend these meetings. The attempt to exclude Negroes from this area affects every one, a taxpayer, a home owner, and everyone should be interested. Cases are brought to light at each meeting of attempted evictions of Negroes who own homes in this district—a form of fascism which our troops in Europe are fighting to destroy.

There will be another meeting of the Home Owners Protective Association this Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the California Eagle Building. Mrs. Charlotta Bass, president of the HOPA, will preside.

It is always easy to be generous with somebody else's money.

Enter on 41st St.

The CALIFORNIA EAGLE HAS NOT MOVED. The entrance to the offices and editorial department is on 41st Street just a few steps from Central Avenue. We are at the same location, the only difference is that you enter on 41st Street.

★★ CANDID COMMENTS ★★

A CASE FOR THE F. B. EYES . . .

A reader of the Princeton (Illinois) Republican sent a love-letter to our adopted Dad, Walter Winchell, the theme of which reminds us of A. Phillip Randolph, which is why we're reprinting the article. "Last week the cackling congressman from Michigan, Rep. Clare Hoffman, stood on the floor of the House in Washington and whined that he had been 'smeared' by Walter Winchell, whose daily news and gossip column is syndicated to more than 800 United States newspapers. Hoffman, who we are ashamed to admit was elected on a Republican ticket, is the bird who told an audience in Niles, Michigan, on Jan. 3 that the day is here when the American people, by a march on Washington, by the use of the armed forces which are in this country, must, if either be necessary, put an end to 'playing at war' here at home.

Because Hoffman advocated armed insurrection against the government of the United States, Winchell accused the congressman of conduct tending to treason. Hoffman bawled that he was 'smeared'. . . . He is a disgrace to the House of Representatives, and to his country.

Hoffman has a constitutional right to lambast the New Deal. He does NOT have the right to suggest that the New Deal be ousted by armed force. That is sedition. The Hoffman-Winchell feud is not important because of the individuals concerned. Those two extremists have been feuding for many months, and there is no need of anyone's coming to Winchell's defense—he can take care of himself. There IS a need, however, for someone to come to the aid of the Republican party and kick out the Clare Hoffmans from its ranks.

The Michigan congressman does the Republic party great harm. He openly insults the American people and defames the names of this nation's great statesmen and the founders of the republic. Government officials of the United States are elected by a majority VOTE. They are RETIRED by a majority VOTE. They are not elected by GUNS and ousted by BULLETS and MARCHES on Washington, D. C. There are nations in this world that prefer BULLETS to BALLOTS and our men are dying to whip those nations into submission. There are pipsqueak nations to the south of the United States that overthrow their governments periodically by armed force. We look DOWN upon those nations and treat them as uncivilized children. We look DOWN, too, upon Clare Hoffman. He is a voluntary victim of hate, whose sense of reason has deteriorated beyond all hope of recall."

NOTES FROM A NEWSBOY'S NOTEBOOK

Nina Mae McKinney starts on her third pic next wk. To those who thought she wouldn't make the grade, yak yak yak! . . . The Earl Graves' (he's the asst. mgr. of the Morris Hotel) dining in the Pig 'n' Pit barbecue rotisserie and acting as happy as a coupla school kids. They act more like swoonhearts than just Mr. and Mrs. . . . Virginia Pinkston strollin' down the stem in a smug-tight sweater, stops more thaffic than the corner cop. Her lovely disposition is as sweet as a Wayne King saxophone chorus! . . . Harry Bigelow (together with Apex club co-partner Sonnie Howard) is investing moola in a fighter. The welterweight, Verne Patterson, is a fave of the New England states—having won 23 of his last 24 fites! . . . An attorney invited a 'teen-age tot to his apt. the other two in the morning (supposedly to take dictation) where he behaved like an ordinary wolf. She reported his name and the incident to us. The only thing that stopped us from making his name known here is the fact that at two in the morning, 'teen-age tots ain't got no business taking dictation—even if it's on the level! . . . Most of you can't picture my icy contempt for those uneducated Negroes who think they'd be better off under a Dewey than under a Roosevelt. Roosevelt saved those same so-and-sos from starving during the lean years when a Republican dared stick his head on a street corner because of the Hoover administration. In our trumpet-playing days of 1932-33, we watched many so-called big-time performers and musicians eating more than just hot dogs, thanks to the New Deal administration. Prior to that time most of us shared cans of beans, etc. Okay, maybe it wasn't as bad as it reads—it was bad enough. Then Roosevelt stepped in and made it possible for your children to have shoes; for our families to have bread, etc. So how do we reward him? By voting AGAINST him. The mud-slingers are throwing lies that the New Deal administration, the Communists (and other organizations) are USING the Negro. What do we care whether or not we're being used as long as we, the Negro, benefit out of the deal? If giving my people equal rights in every respect; liberty and justice for all, and creating opportunities for race improvement is what is meant by the term "being used," then Roosevelt, the Communistic party (or any other party) can use this newsboy anytime they want to as long as we get racial results. You can't win the peace unless you first win the war. You can't win the war by changing presidents in the middle of a stream. Now personally, I have nothing against Republicans. Just Negroes who vote for Dewey. Especially those few Negroes who are too blind to see the improvement and progress made during the Roosevelt administration. If it sounds like I'm asking my readers to cast their vote for Roosevelt, then I have definitely managed to achieve my aim! . . . As a result of his splendid showing (the other night at the benefit given by the Eleven and One club) the Ansel Hill orchestra has been swamped with offers. Curtis Mosby is angling for their services at the Club Alabam; Johnny Maloney, manager of the Lincoln, wants them for that show; bandleader Artie Shaw is interested in them as is Plantation club owner Joe Morris. And now, your corpulent and cellapaible correspondent will take credit for discovering a new talent—the greatest eighteen-piece white orchestra to come out of Balboa since the Stan Kenton crew zoomed across the musical horizon in a blaze of glory a coupla years ago. You'll soon be hearing a lot about this Ansel Hill band, they're SWINGSATIONAL! (and we discovered 'em first. Ha, ha, ha!) . . . The Eleven and One club benefit (at the Plantation Sept. 27) was a sell-out. You couldn't get a seat at 9:30! . . . The moom pickcha "Dead End," makes you appreciate the work Offcr. Walter Goodlow (and others) are doing to keep the kiddies on the straight and narrow path. . . . The Archie Savage dancers are the big-timiest act of them all. They oughta be looked over by a talent scout! . . .

Trumpet-Styled Piano Playing Is Tops in Swing

Betty Roche Is Featured Singer With Groovy Ork

His first trip to the coast since 1933, Earl Hines, affectionately known to his many friends and fans as "Fathaw," opens at Joe Morris' Club Plantation for a six-week engagement starting tonight. The rave of swingdom, his piano-pounding rates on a par with swingdom's greats. He's better than Basie (if you like his particular style of playing. I'm a Basie fan—so, naturally I'd be prejudiced), and he has one of the finest bands of his star-studded career. The weakest link in this chain of super-swingsters is a singer named Jesse Perry. Whoever told this well-meaning, good-looking lad that he could sing was trying to get even with Sinatra! But then, you won't go to the Plantation to hear the singer, you'll go to hear the "daddy of 'em all," Earl "Fathaw" Hines, who opens there tonight.

"Y" Men Stage Charter Banquet

On Friday Night, Sept. 29, the Charter Night Banquet of the 28th Street Branch Y's Men's Club was held at the 28th Street Branch YMCA, inaugurating the first Negro unit of the International Y's Men's Clubs organized in the country.

A delicious repast was served by Mrs. Hunt and her co-workers. The new organization was welcomed into the YMCA family group by Rev. J. L. Caston, member of the YMCA Board of Directors. Arthur F. Adams, Jr., was Toastmaster. Guest speaker of the evening was Atty. Walter L. Gordon, Jr.

Highlight of the ritual festivities were the initiation of Charter Members of 28th Street Branch Y's Men by Dan Kelty, President of El Monte Y's Men; the presentation of the Charter by Henry Handy, National Chairman, Boys' Work Committee, to Walter Worrill, President of the 28th Street Branch Y's Men, and the installation of the new club's officers by Art Speers, District Governor. Officers representing Inglewood, San Pedro, East Los Angeles, Pasadena, Monrovia, Alhambra and Pomona 'Y' Clubs were introduced by George Goold, Regional Director.

Officers of 28 Street Branch Y's Men are Walter Worrill, President; Hallie Harding, Vice-president; William M. Jones, Secretary, and Jessie H. Smith, Treasurer. Composing the Board of Directors are Allen C. Woodard, Jimmie DeVoe, James Fowler, Arthur F. Adams, Jr., and Dr. Frank Zetar. Charter members are Arthur F. Adams, Jr., George Bryant, Rudolph Collins, Jimmie DeVoe, Morris M. Ewing, James Fowler, Lloyd Fowler, Rev. Lloyd Galloway, Hallie Harding, Bernard C. Herndon, Wilbert Jackson, Toussaint Jennings, William M. Jones, John Kaufman, Alvin Nicholson, John Redfud, James N. Reese, Edward R. Smith, Lloyd Thomas, Roger Willis, Allen C. Woodard, Brainard Y. Worrill, Dr. Frank Zetar, Levi Johnson, Arthur F. Walker, Gerald Darrow and Philip Dolve.

With songs led by Toussaint Jennings, and a solo by Arthur Walker, the evening was culminated.

"Wilson" Continues To Attract Crowds At United Artists

Darryl F. Zanuck has made a magnificent production in "Wilson," which is a truly historical document and is a picture the entire family will want to see.

The performances of the cast are uniformly excellent. Alexande Knox, as Wilson, gives a skillful and distinguished performance, portraying the President as a stubborn idealist. Charles Coburn, as Professor Henry Holmes, Wilson's trusting friend; Geraldine Fitzgerald, as the second Mrs. Wilson; Thomas Mitchell, as Joseph Tumulty, Wilson's secretary; Sir Cedric Hardwick, as Senator Henry Cabot Lodge; Vincent Price, as William McAdoo; Ruth Nelson as the first Mrs. Wilson; and many others in the large cast, which includes thousands of extras, do exceptionally well in supporting roles.

"Wilson," has now been moved to the Four Star Theatre, Wilshire near La Brea.

Lora Pierre, comedienne, dancer and singer, has the distinction of being the only colored girl m.c. travelling the USO CAMP SHOWS circuit. A brilliant performer, Miss Pierre does interpretative toe dancing using rhumba and boogie-woogie rhythms; sings in a mellow torch voice and gags at a rapid pace. Before joining Tabloid Troupe 88 now entertaining at army camps and naval bases in the Fourth Service Command, Miss Pierre appeared at night clubs on the West Coast, the Apollo Theatre, New York and was featured in Broadway's SWINGING THE DREAM with Benny Goodman.

Young Gal With a Future Tells Nightclub Editor of Her Past

I never thought I'd see a singer as cute and doll-like as Doris Harris, newcomer to the American art of tinsel-tonsiling. With a flowered print surrounding her curvy chassis and a satin-soft white feather perked on top of a snappy upsweep, the ninety-five pound darling came bouncing into her living room (where the interview was held) almost at a trot.

"Sorry to've kept you waiting," she apologized the while extending a cute little brown hand in our direction. She turned on a smile that made us accept her apology with amazing quickness.

Miss Harris, doesn't drink, smoke or use naughty language, "only when alone!" She hails from Galveston, Texas, where she first made an audition as a singer with a band there known as Boots and His Buddies. Her career was nipped in the bud before it got started. "Boots," she confided, "thought I was twenty years old, but at the time I was only fourteen!" She looks no more than fourteen now. She has a cute face, and loads of personality. Her ambition is to be a singer, and she's got what it takes to make the grade. She is just starting out on a singing career, and she's got what it takes to become a successful singing star. She can sing.

Musicians' Congress Feature Nash Singers

When the Musicians' Congress held its recent festival in Beverly Hills, the Nash Singers were the featured artists. With a capacity audience of musicians present, the singers, under the direction of Luvenia Nash, were at their best. The group of numbers presented included "Dawning Over Africa," written by Edna Heard and taken from the opera written by her, "Kings in Africa"; a spiritual, "Certainly Lord," with Edna Heard as guest soloist; "Strange Fruit," by Miss Heard; "Seeking for a Kingdom," Arvel Johnson, soloist; "Feeda My Sheep," with Philip Waites as soloist; "Rock 'a My Soul" and "Joshua Fit De Battle of Jericho," and later "St. Louis Blues" with Elise Davis as soloist. As usual, the group was well received, which attested to their ever growing popularity.

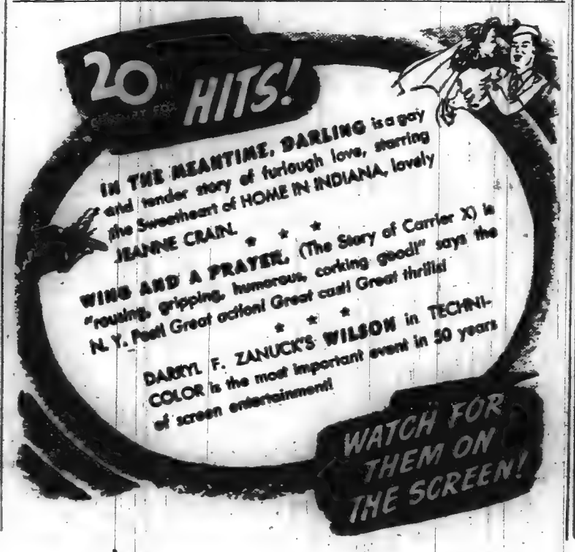
Olivette and Her Harp At the Troc

Movie celebrities and other notables who flock to the famed Trocadero, on Sunset Strip, are going ga-ga over lovely Olivette Miller, internationally known harpist, who is featured nightly.

Olivette does a single, entertaining on the scant singing "Brown Gal," which brings down the house. Following this, she takes her position at her trusty harp and begins strumming the "St. Louis Blues," while a hush settles over the house.

She ends with an original boogie-woogie version of the famous blues number that wraps up the audience. Her first week was so sensational, the management immediately lengthened her contract. The other night she was invited to play for a party consisting of Errol Flynn and other artists.



FLOURNOY LASS

Olivette Miller's current success comes as no accident. She was born into the theatrical profession. Her dad is the famous Flournoy Miller of the Miller and Lyle fame.

Olivette is a graduate of the Greenwich Academy, of Greenwich, R. I. and of the Julliard School of Music, New York. After completing the work at the latter school she went abroad and continued the study of harp at Paris Conservatoire. Her mother formerly was a Latin teacher in the schools of New York.

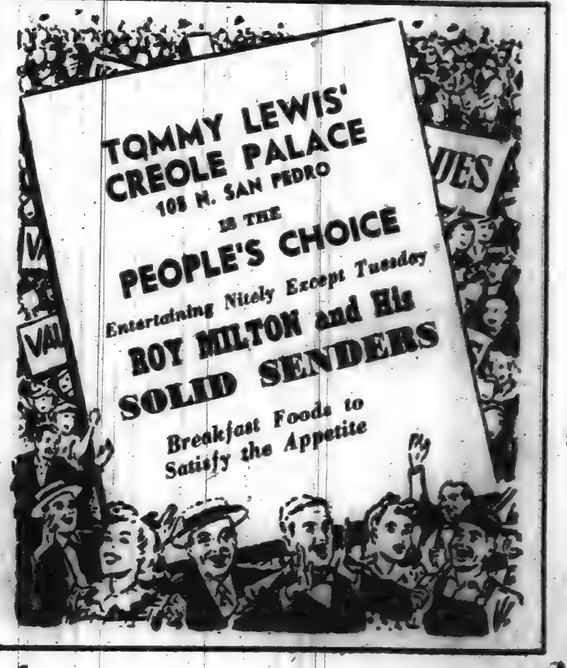
Hines Scores At Orpheum

After an absence of three years, Earl "Fatha" Hines brought his orchestra to town last week and already has become one of the most sensational drawing cards to hit this burg in many months. Long lines formed around the Orpheum Theatre boxoffice during the week, attesting to the Earl's popularity with the local mob.

Monday night, guest night at the Orpheum, drew an unusually long list of celebrities who came to greet Hines. Included were Lillian Randolph, Marion Abernathy, Maggie Hathaway, Nicolemus Stewart, Curtis Mosby, Walter Fuller, Eddie Green, Art Tatum, Louise Beavers, Nina Mae McKinney.

Also included were members of the East Side Kids gang, featured in the screen actration during the week at the Orpheum. Present were Fred Purcell, Jimmy Strand, Bill Chaney, Charlie Murray, Jr., Billy Benedict, Jack Kennedy, Leo Gorcey and his dad, Bernard.

Hines and his orchestra open a month's engagement at the Plantation Club Thursday.



JOINS DARLINGS

Clarence Love, leader and musical director of the Darlings of Rhythm, now on tour of the sunny state of California, announced this week that he had added Margaret Backstrom, nationally famous saxophonist, to his reed section.

Pete answers roll call thusly; Mister, get that Mister, "Mister Belton O. Webster, Warrant Officer, Junior Grade, personel adjutant of Field Artillery as you know a Warrant Officer, now wears a bronze bar and rates a salute.

Pete escorted 20 Nazi prisoners back behind the Allied Lines. The men under Pete received a terrific write-up in "Stars and Stripes" because they kept hammering the Nazis with heavy artillery until they yelled "Quit" in perfect English.

GOOD CONDUCT

Theodore A. Davis, one of Rev. Russells pride and joys, and former First Aider on the General Hospital Ambulances, along with 27 others received the "Good Conduct" Award. You know, the whole regiment turns out on the Regimental Parade Grounds and the brass hats do the decorating.

It is for GI's like Pete Webster and Theodore Davis that you should deem it your duty to place an "X" for yes on Proposition Number One to allow the soldiers to purchase a home or a farm when they return. Don't forget the soldier boys.

ORCHIDS

Lester Wilkins, deputy-sheriff, member of the Criminal Division assigned to the jail, gets the nod from the column for winning friends for the Sheriff's Department.

Which brings to our mind that if you haven't seen the Sheriff's Show over at the Shrine Auditorium, hop over there and give yourself and family a treat.

Asworth T. Mingleton also rates a nod for his courtesy from this scribbler. He is operating one of the fleet of cars under the supervision of Robert Hardon in the Hall of Justice.

James and Zelma Mitchell have called it quits, while Mable and Ted Nolan are doing the same. Ed and Emma Gordon fell in line and decided to get a divorce, while they are handing them out like confetti.

SHERIFF'S SHOW—Enthusiasm was at a highpitch among the Boilermakers at Local A 35 when they were informed by Leland Whitney, Sheriff's Deputy, of the high quality of the forthcoming Sheriff's Show. Officials as well as members expressed a desire to witness this great variety show and see Abbot and Costello, plus other of the best artists in the entertainment world perform.

Aware that the purpose of the show is to raise funds for the relief of sick and disabled county peace officers and their families, Mr. Ulysis S. Griggs, executive secretary of the Local A 35, readily reserved seats for his entire staff. Said Mr. Griggs, "This is a community humanitarian project worthy of the support of all Los Angeles citizens."

In the photograph above, Mr. Griggs is shown purchasing his tickets as two members of his clerical staff, the Misses Irene Blodgett and Gloria Speed, look on.

Gipson Thinks Maestro Used Wrong Method In Thumbing Nose at Walt Disney Script

News that bandleader Tiny Bradshaw turned down the Walt Disney scrip to play the role of "Uncle Remus" in a forthcoming picture left me cold. I can't get too excited over his turning down the script because of its so-called offensiveness against the race.

Tiny interrupted our slumber one peaceful morning about six ayem to complain that his intelligence had been insulted. "Imagine," he bellowed into the phone nearly giving us St. Vitus of the ear drum, "the studio sent me a script and it had 'yessuh,' and even 'dese and dose' in it."

"So what?" we asked, wondering why th' hell couldn't he wait until at least twelve o'clock to complain to your overworked correspondent.

"Well," he went on, "the only thing hurts me is that I'm a college graduate and my intelligence has been insulted!"

"Oh," we said, "you're hurt merely because you're a college grad and your intelligence has been insulted, and not because you feel as tho the script is offensive to the race?"

"No," he said, "it isn't just that. But I'm gonna call all the papers and give them the story. You've been nice to me and my band, and I wanted to give you the story first."

SHOULD HAVE USED OTHER METHOD

We told him to give them the story. We weren't interested. Tiny, instead of huffing and puffing all over the phone, should have used another method. He called the President of the Studio and complained that his intelligence had been insulted. What Tiny should have done, instead of stirring up more mud by making a mountain out of a molehill in giving the not-too-important story to all the Negro newspapers, is discussed the dialogue with either the director or the script writer himself. He saw instead, a chance to grab off space and publicity for himself by turning down a script because he deemed it offensive to the race. The publicity (showing him as a true race man) would have done him more good, he surmised, than all the publicity and rave notices he might have gotten from the Remus picture itself. He figured wrong. Only a few of the papers elaborated on his "intelligence being insulted." Instead they, as we, threw the complaint in the wastebasket.

THIS WAY GETS RESULTS

If a cat has nine lives, there must be nine different ways you can kill him. Okay, so let's say the Remus script was offensive. Tiny should have signed the contract without any open protest, rehearsed his part at home (substituting "these" for "dese" and "all of you" for "you-all") and the day scheduled for shooting read the script in his own revamped style. Maybe he wouldn't have gotten away with it. But he would have at least collected his money from the contract. He would have in a much more dignified way expressed his protest against the script. And should the director demand the script being read the Studio's way (and not Tiny's), he then could have refused, but he would have gotten paid for his time since he had signed the contract. As it is he huffed and puffed and even called the Mayor's secretary to complain about his intelligence being insulted.

Being a newspaperman, I naturally have respect for the newspapers, but to put a "BANDLEADER REFUSES UNCLE-TOM SCRIPT" story on the front pages doesn't help the cause. He should have talked it over with the studio officials. That, ladies and gentlemen, is the way to get results. Not by printint headlines or calling up studio officials because some guy who probably doesn't have any, claims his intelligence has been insulted.

Writers like Phil Carter, Almena Davis and a few others are beginning to get on the studio's nerves. Why don't they let Hollywood run Hollywood. It's a million dollar industry. I'm sure they know what they're doing, or Hollywood wouldn't be a million dollar industry.

Too much useless interfence will result in Hollywood throwing up both hands and refusing to hire Negro players at all.

And at the rate some Negro writers are slinging mud, you can't blame them.

I, for one, wouldn't.

Curtis Mosby's Club Alabam Is a Good Community Enterprise

Patrons who make it a habit to take in the Club Alabam on their pleasure tours are so accustomed to the atmosphere and the top-notch entertainment presented by Curtis Mosby that they seldom associate the Alabam or Mosby with the community in any other way. However, when you listen to the side-splitting dialogue of Calhoun and John Henry, or the mellow singing of Marian Abernathy, you are not only enjoying yourself, but you are taking part in the building of security for the many employees of Alabam.

Mosby employs an average of 150, with a top figure of 180 persons to keep the Club Alabam operating on the efficient and highly-entertaining plane for which it has become noted. The salary figure he must meet every week runs into thousands.

With headliners like "Big Six" Reeves and his band and Roy Milton's Swingsters providing the danceable tunes, and Inez Newell singing your favorites with a "Bessie Smith" touch, the show currently at the Alabam is rounded out by Jeanne, a hot hip hurler, and a fast-moving revue.

"Porgy and Bess" To Be Presented Overseas for Army

NEW YORK.—A streamlined "Porgy and Bess," the largest USO-Camp show production yet assembled for American troops, will be sent overseas for a period of at least six months, it was announced last week at the offices of USO-Camp shows, a member of the National War Fund. In this presentation of George Gershwin's favorite folk opera there is an all-Negro cast of 16 men and women, many of whom appeared in the original Theatre Guild show in 1935 as well as in the revivals since that date.

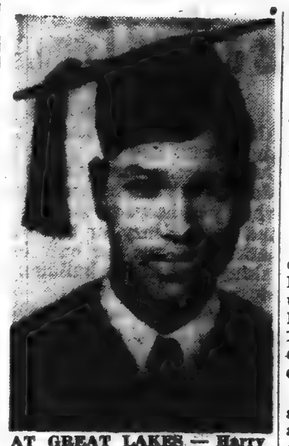
Youth Organizations Convene Mock Congress Session Sunday

The pros and cons of a dozen vital issues facing Americans today will be tackled this Sunday afternoon, October 8, by some 75 "teen-agers, who as "Senators" and "Representatives" from Los Angeles youth organizations will convene at Virgil Junior High School to stage a mock Congress.



Plans for the event, set to begin at 12:30 in the school's auditorium, have been completed by the Joint Senate and House Rules Committee, according to "President" Patti Zimmerman, scheduled to deliver the President's Message before a joint session of both houses, over which "Vice-President" Ike Friedenthal will preside.

The event, to which the public is invited, has among its sponsors and consultants: Professor Franklin Fearing of UCLA, Dr. Ernest Caldecott, Judge Stanley Moffatt, Assemblyman Lester McMillan, Carlotta A. Bass, Judge John Beardsley, Reuben Borough, Oscar Pattiz, Mrs. Lucy McCollie, Phillip M. Connelly, Carey McWilliams, William Pomerance, Mrs. Harry Braverman, Kenneth Howard, Everett Wile and Earl Robinson.

ITALIAN FRONT

Over 30,000 Africans from British protectorates and colonies of lower Africa, plus several thousands of work troops from the Union of South Africa (which does not accept non-white volunteers for active combat service), are serving with the British Fifth and Eighth Armies in Italy. Africans from the French territories are also fighting there.

AT GREAT LAKES — Harry Troy Jones, the popular young son of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Jones of 946 East 31st Street who recently enlisted in the Navy, is now in training at the Great Lakes Station in Illinois, where he is studying to become a Pharmacists Mate. He sends greetings to his many friends of the younger set. Harry's dad is the well-known pianist.

This outstanding Choir will be ably assisted by Clarence Muse, actor-director of stage, screen and radio, the golden-voiced Ever Brewer Hudson, mezzo-soprano, who, by popular demand, and her fine voice, has been acclaimed one of California's own greatest mezzo-sopranos. Mrs. Hudson will be accompanied by Miss Juanita Terry. Earl Pleasant, the famous Gospel singer whom we have all heard and enjoy, has kindly consented to contribute in his own inimitable way, and we are sure this will be a Sunday afternoon you will never forget nor regret. Ernest Whitman, of stage, screen and radio, will M.C. the program. Tickets on sale at the West Coast Service Bureau, 4235 South Central Avenue.

Suit Is Filed

Suit has been filed in Superior Court here by Atty. H. L. Richardson for $21,000 for four persons who were injured September 24, 1944, six miles east of Redlands on public highway No. 70 as a result of a collision with a truck of the Garibaldi Trucking Company.

The truck drove across highway 70 to the left hand side of the road in front of the automobile in which D. W. Ross, T. G. Benson, James B. Ross and Willa Mae Thomas were riding, en route to California from Texas.

T. G. Benson, residing at 1066 East 47th Street, Los Angeles, was driving the automobile. All of the occupants of the Ross car suffered cuts and abrasions about the head and body. They were given medical attention by Dr. Howard H .Allen, in addition to the first aid they received at Redlands.

Eastside War Chest Wants 1100 Workers

Recruiting a full roster of 1100 volunteer workers in the Eastside War Chest appeal for "our boys, our Allies and our own at home" within the next ten days before actual solicitation starts is of paramount pre-campaign importance, emphasized Mrs. E. W. Rakestraw, district chairman, following two recent overall meetings of residential leaders and team workers throughout the Los Angeles War Chest area, the Women's Breakfast yesterday in the Ambassador Hotel and the Lead-Off Rally last Friday in the Shrine Auditorium.

Young Americans for Roosevelt, A Non-Partisan Organization

Recently a group of young people, vitally interested in the future of this great country of ours, decided to start a national movement to facilitate the re-election of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt. The idea caught on like wildfire and today hundreds of thousands of young Americans all over the country are working tirelessly to prove to American voters that they believe Roosevelt is the man to lead this country to victory and a lasting peace, and above all, to economic security. The Los Angeles branch is headed by the leaders of almost every progressive youth organization in the city and all indications point to an overwhelming mobilization of the representative youth in the city before November 7.

Ike Adams

The organization is nonpartisan and any young person between the ages of ten and twenty-eight years of age is eligible for membership. It is the purpose of this organization to mobilize young people to use their spare time working in the campaign to reelect Roosevelt, by helping to distribute literature, making speeches, helping to educate first voters and by giving all possible aid to the older Roosevelt workers in the various district headquarters.

Ike Adams, president of the Youth Council of the N.A.C.P., is serving as one of the coordinators in the 14th congressional district and is urging all interested persons to register for service at the Roosevelt headquarters in the California Eagle building 4073 Central Avenue. A complete list of all officers, together with the full program for future action will be announced at an early date.

Rev. Clayton Russell Heads Movement To Open Negro Bank

This is to inform the public that a bank, to be owned by Negro people of this community, is definitely under way. Immediately following an editorial written by Mr. James Erwing of the "Neighborhood News" and an article appearing in the "California Eagle" written by Mrs. C. Bass, Rev. Clayton D. Russell, Pastor of the People's Independent Church of Christ and president of the Negro Producers' and Consumers' Cooperative Association, owners of Victory Markets and Victory Markets' Farms, gathered together a group of citizens interested in the estaglishment of a bank for all peoples but owned by Negro people. No funds are being or will be solicited from the public; no public meetings, in connection with this movement, will be held soon, but as soon as all requirements, State and Federal, are met the bank will be opened to the general public for investments and all banking operations.

Banking is a business that the law permits to operate only one way and that is the right way. In this movement we are starting on the right foot. In excess of $25000.00 cash is now available. This money is posted in a trust fund to be used when, we receive our permit and charter. Suitable lovation has already been obtained.

Said Rev. Russell in an interview: "Negroes have succeeded in banking operations in the South, Mid-west, and East. What has been done in those parts of the country can be done in this part of the country. If it becomes necessary we will utilize the experience of the Heads of those successful institutions.

We must view this bank movement with a broad American point of view; yet not forgetting the importance of economic progress among Negro people—progress that comes only through cooperation.

A few years ago we were spending in excess of a million dollars a year for food on Central Avenue and its environs and did not own a large Supermarket. Today we own five, both large and small. It is important to note that we are not merely employees in these markets but we are the owners of these markets, likewise, Negroes will not merely be employees in this bank; Negroes will be owners and Heads of this bank.

Negroes in Los Angeles are in possession of milions of dollars. We do not expect all of them to put their money in this bank, but we do expect a reasonable share from Negroes, White people, Mexican people, and all groups of peoples.

To Form L. A. Branch of Ass'n for Study of Negro Life and History

The first organizational meeting of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History to form a Los Angeles branch will be held today (Thursday) at 8 p.m. at Pilgrim House, 120 N. San Pedro Street. Old members of the National organization and anyone interested are invited to help build the much-needed branch in this city.

This fine organization was founded in 1915 through the efforts of Dr. Carter G. Woodson, one of the most prolific writers of Negro History, at Washington, D. C. It is known as the scientific organization for the study of the Negro and its Journal of Negro History is circulated throughout the world. At first the association accepted contributions from philanthropic foundations which insisted on dictating a policy of printing only part of the truth about the Negro. Since then their main support has come from individual Negro workers themselves with some aid from white scholars and students. The organization also publishes the Negro History Bulletin for school children and those beginning the study of Negro History. Many teachers use this publication in their classes. Negro History Week in February is celebrated throughout the United States in schools, libraries and clubs.

The Los Angeles Branch wishes to appeal to young people especially, both Negro and White, who have missed this necessary part of their education in school and those who are training themselves for the struggle to obtain full rights for the Negro people.

John Howard Lawson, screen writer and lecturer, now giving a series on "America's Tenth Man" in Los Angeles, will be one of the first new members.

KINLOCH'S CORNER

By John S. Kinloch

Since joining my Uncle Sam in the military exercises connected with this war for national liberation, there is one thing you can say for me, loudly and publicly, without the vaguest fear of contradiction.

I sure in hell have kept my Privacy.

A Private's-eye view of the Army is just about the most authentic you are likely to pick up. After all, we in the lower nine-tenths of this olive-drab multitude are rank rank-and-file. It is we who largely populate the graves, the battlefields and the hospital wards of this war. Some bebarred character shouts "FORWARD!" and it's we who go bounding into the chop-chop of the Kraut's Tommy guns. And it is we (and especially ME) who have experiences with K.P., special duty, guard duty and extra duty for not-saluting the looty.

Understand this is no special pleading of the case for the Private. Heaven forbid! I am simply attempting to bring you the lowdown on the situation faced by we buck P's, or as the lobe of my life so CLEVERLY put it, PFE's, or Privates For Ever. (Dear girl!)

At the present time, yrs. truly has knocked down one beauty of an assignment with the Army Public Relations Office. I am—ahem—the only gentleman of color in this man's Army (barring civilian reporters) cavorting about France with a "U. S. Correspondent" patch on his arm and the rights to go jump into a Colonel's face with a notebook in hand and a mouthful of questions . . . even while bombs burst and the rockets red glare . . . etc.

You may take a ten-minute break to gasp. (Now there is some little devil of a thing urging me to point out that gasp is not rationed, but there is another little thing which assures me the remark is corny, so forget it.)

As I say, here I am perched up in the Public Relations Office in all the glory of my Correspondent's patch—which rises in uncontested grandeur above the virgin nudity of my shirt sleeve—a phone at my elbow and chow still two hours off.

My phone manner, incidentally, is really impressive. I pick up the thing and I proclaim, clearly, roundly, "Colonel Fitzgoo, this is the Public Relations Office. (Dramatic pause.) Is it true that your battalion is lost somewhere in Northeast Watts?"

Persons of rank are very careful with the PR Office. I usually pick up a "sir" in telephone communication with individuals all the way up to the rank of Major. Little devil that I am, I make it a habit to end the conversation with, "This is Private Kinloch speaking, sir." BANG, goes the phone on the other end of the line, while I settle back calmly to enjoy a few hours of hysterics.

MEMORIES

I wish it to be clearly understood, however, that I have memories of authority. There was a time when I was a Private First Class.

At this period, we were stationed on the downy green breast of what represented itself as an English mountainside. It was before the invasion and for a few weeks I don't guess anyone knew precisely what to do with our Company.

The men shortly worked this out for themselves. Each afternoon there would be a gliding and a sliding of olive-drab figures down the hillside and over the fences and into town. The Officers were aware of this sport, but no one was greatly disturbed unless brought face to face with some unhappy miscreant on the forbidden streets of one of the local townships.

I, of course, refused to engage in any such underhanded business. I would not go out of the gate without a pass. So I wrote myself one.

A bit later, my bosom buddy, Joe McKay, and I were stashed handsomely on the corner of Hollywood and Vine when who should appear before our very eyes but the Captain himself?!?

There appeared to be no means available for making the man dematerialize on the spot, so, mustering all my resources, I pulled myself up to full height and said: "Sir, I am standing here waiting for the U Car."

Our subsequent interview was brief and tragic. Off went that beautiful stripe.

To add insult to injury, my dearest friends among the noncoms arranged a delightful Company formation to announce the glad tidings.

Sgt. Aurelius Beecher Stevens of Harrisburg, Pa., held before him a perfectly blank piece of paper and sonorously read: "Private-First Class John S. Kinloch, having disgraced the service of his country and what's worse having been caught at it, is hereby busted from the grade of Private First Class to the grade of buck Private!" Here his voice was drowned in raucous cheering.

At the time, I was in my tent weeping into the blankets.

No sooner than the mock formation was dismissed than what should show up at my front flap but a grinning delegation of the Company cutups.

Slowly, deliberately, they seized each article of my clothing adorned with that beautiful winged chevron and stripped it bare.

They put a gun on the thing there that passed for a table, gave me a significant stare and stalked out.

How I suffered that night!—Torn between a cowardly craving for life and the soldier's code of honor. It was awful.

The gun later netted me a neat two and six at Joe's Place in London.

LOUIS WISE MEETS WATSON JONES TUESDAY

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

DID YA KNOW?—Last Friday night at New York's Madison Square Garden, Willie Pep, Hartford, Conn., retained his New York version of the featherweight championship, by gaining a 15-round decision over Chalky Wright of Los Angeles before a near capacity house. Thus Chalky failed in his attempt to regain the title. However, he may still get it if the pair are rematched. The nod in Pep's favor was that close . . . In an exclusive talk with Henry Armstrong this writer learned that Hank isn't contemplating any fights in the near future. Methinks that the former triple champ is a little fed up on fighting. I hope so . . . At San Francisco, Aaron (Little Tiger) Wade, 163, knocked out Jimmy Hayden, 165, New York, last Friday night in the first heat of a scheduled ten-rounder . . . The Hollywood Rangers pro gridders gave the second-place Los Angeles Mustangs a 49-7 beating before 9000 fans at Gilmore Stadium last Sunday afternoon . . . The promoters lost $10,000 on the fight card at Hollywood Ball Park last Saturday night. Undaunted however, they plan bigger and better shows in the future . . . Norman Saunders, trainer of Henry Armstrong, is in the east lining up fights for boxers under his wing . . . Chase received $2500 for his share in last Saturday's fight while Marshall got $3500 . . . At San Francisco last Sunday Kenny Washington set the pace as his team, the San Francisco Clippers downed the Seattle Bombers grid team, 35-21. Kenny scored two of his team's touch downs.

ANENT REFEREES, JUDGES—Fight decisions are getting worse and worser (yes, we know that is a grammatical error) around these here parts. It is getting to the place where the best way to pick a winner after a guy has beaten another to death is to pick the defeated brother. He's certain to get the nod. There's no quesion about that. Sometimes we think that the judges spend too much time stopping Cocoa Cola (you're welcome for the plug) vendors and the referees too much time looking for friends in the audience and too little time concentrating on the business at hand. That Lloyd Marshall decision over Jack Chase was awful and we think that Chavez was at least entitled to a draw with Ortiz too. They pulled a gun on "Jumpin'" Joe Keyes recenly too. He had done everything possible to gain a victory except lug an axe into the ring. He won all right, but did he get it? Heck no. The fellow he was fighting was a soldier, a winner of the Purple Heart, so naturally since he still remained in an upright position at the finish despite the fact that Joe had measured him for a new uniform—he got the decision accompanied by cheers while all Joe received was sympathy.

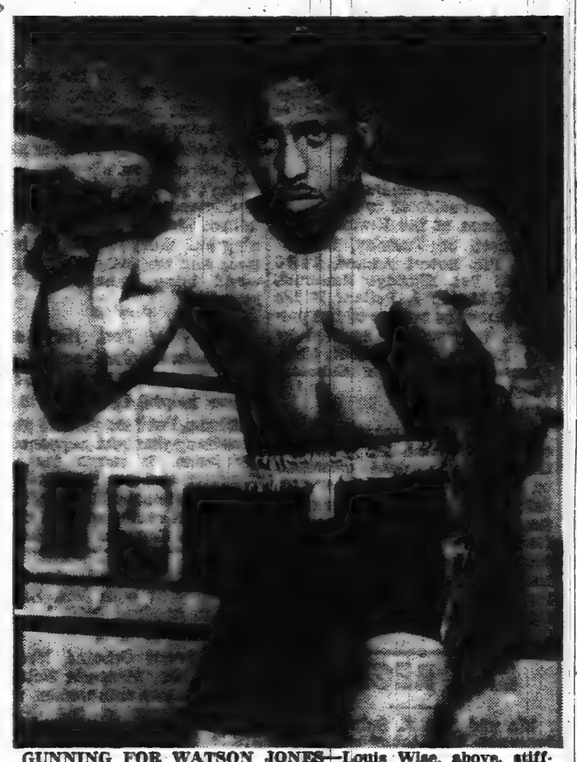
Hard-Hitting Light-Heavy May Be Favored Over Jones

By Eddie Burbridge

Watson Jones, laughingly called the glamour boy of the "Main Stem," but who boasts of one of the finest boxing records as a light-heavyweight boxer on the Pacific Coast, will meet a tartar in Louis Wise, hard-hitting protege of the George Tolson-Bert Lewis fight stable, on Tuesday night, October 10th, in the ten-round main event at the Olympic Auditorium.



Jones is well-known for his great fights against Jimmy Bivins, top-ranking light-heavy and Fitzie Fitzpatrick, kayo artist, who had stacked up four one-round kayoes here until he met Jones, who not only went the limit but came near garnering the decision.

Louis Wise may gain national recognition by nodding Jones Tuesday night. This pleasing fighter has been coming to the front by turning in several superb performances. His most impressive victory was gained over Tommy Garland, the pride of Ocean Park, recently. Garland hadn't lost a fight in three years until he met Wise at his own stamping grounds. Louie won every round and the decision to disappoint the gamblers who had installed Garland as the 4-1 favorite.

Wise as an amateur won the light-heavyweight title in the National A. A. U. tournament in 1939 and has won 27 bouts and only lost two since turning pro. Manager-Trainer Tolson states that Louis is one of his best proteges, clever as a boxer and a hard puncher. He is known to stop win streaks, having halted one compiled by Edgar Robinson, adding insult to injury by having Edgar on the canvas during the battle. He also won over Kent Roberts, who was enjoying great success in Hollywood, putting Roberts down also during the tilt. Reecy Davis was another good fighter Wise nodded since turning pro.

The gambling fraternity along the main stem are putting their gold on Wise to defeat Jones. The point they argue is that from time to time Jones is known to enter the ring out of condition while Wise, according to Trainer Tolson, will be in great shape for Tuesday's bout. Other experts say that Wise does not have to catch Jones out of shape to beat him, that he is the better fighter anyway.

It should be an interesting fight and an almost capacity house is expected. We advise you to get your ticket or tickets now.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

AGUA CALIENTE, MEXICO—Pima Chieftain, a five year old maiden that hadn't raced since 1942 was first to the wire in the first half of the daily-double paying $28.40, while Alpine Ace, another longshot, was the winner in the third, the second half of the double, which paid the big price of $1145.20. Only two people held the winning combination. In the third race, another new comer, Night Hunter, won like a good thing and a small coup was made by those in on the know. Alacyon was an eacy winner in the seventh race, paying $14.60. The feature event of the day was won by the much improved filly, Barging Lady, who broke the 7 furlongs record with the time of 1:23 3/5.

E. Generalissimo Eddie Nealis announced to his many friends that his father who is ill in Los Angeles is doing as well as could be expected. A grand welcome was given our popular director of personnel, Armando E. Verdugo who has been in Mexico City for the last five weeks on business for the track. We are glad to learn that Ruben Verdugo is improving at the Scripps Hospital in La Jolla. The handsome Ruben is very popular with everyone that knows him. The Quiniela paid $30.20. So-long, George.

Pirates to Engage Golden Bulls Sat.

HAMPTON INSTITUTE, Va.—After two short weeks of meticulous drilling on the fundamentals and perfecting a few of Coach Sylvius (Little Duck) Moore's intricate T-maneuvers, the Hampton eleven is beginning to round into shape and will on Saturday (Oct. 7) invade the chalk-barred pastures of J. C. Smith's Golden Bulls. Still smarting from a 19-6 setback administered to them by last year's Pirate eleven, the Smithsonians are expected to test the inexperienced Seasiders to the nth degree.

Bobby Yeager In Easy Nod Over New Yorker

Bobby Yeager, 138¼, sharpshooting lightweight of the Tolson-Lewis fight stable, gained added national prestige last Friday night at Hollywood Legion Stadium when he won an easy ten-round decision in the main event over Jimmy Hatcher, 136½, of New York.

Yeager won every round and the decision was unanimous on the part of Referee Johnny Indrisano and the two judges.

Hatcher was bleeding from cuts about both eyes and the left ear at the finish, the result of Bobby's steady hammering featuring a sharp left jab and stiff right crosses to the head.

In the preliminaries, Nolan Sharp, 180, defeated Allen Arnett, 170, in six rounds; Frisco James, 166, and George Fulton, 165, fought to a four-round draw, and in the other four-rounders Lloyd Batiste, 129, won from Ivan Jones, 131, and Joe Rivers, 119, scored a t.k.o. over Frankie Comancho, 119, in the first round.

Mosk says Protect Veterans

"All public officials must unite to protect the rights of returning servicemen," Judge Stanley Mosk, judge of the Superior Court, said in an address delivered last week before the state convention of the United Veterans of the Republic Auxiliary.

Commending veterans' groups for their efforts in securing passage of the G.I. Bill of Rights, the distinguished jurist pointed out that the measure is just a beginning, that even further measures will be necessary to do justice to the boys who gave up their jobs and education in order to serve their country.

Meet the Author

An autographing party, at which Albert Maltz, author of "The Cross and the Arrow," was the guest of honor, was held at 2414 Fourth Avenue, last Sunday afternoon from 3 to 7 p.m. Held under the auspices of the Progressive Book Shop, the party was given for the purpose of having the public, which responded in great numbers, meet the author.

Mr. Maltz spoke, and autographed copies of his book. Charlotta A. Bass, California Eagle editor-publisher, received a specially autographed copy of the fast selling novel.

Mike Delia, who had a bit of success in the East until he was stopped in a round by Ike Williams, tangles with Matt Oglesby from the Tommy O'Brien stable in the Legion's main event Friday.

Mike Delia, a homebred, has returned after nearly a year's sojourn in the East. Leaving here as a semi-windup fighter Mike scored knockouts over Dusty Brown and Eddie Dowl, won from Leo Francis in main events, but found Williams, winner over Sammy Angott, much too tough.

Bean Feed at "Y" Is Success

More than 200 youths of the community attended the kick-off bean feed held last Thursday at 28th Street YMCA, which signalized the season's opening of the Eastside Athletic Association's touch football league. Guest speaker for the occasion was William H. Spaulding, UCLA Athletic Director and former coach.

The evening's program was climaxed by the showing of several movie reels of pro and collegiate grid games.

Wright Fillmore was chairman of the affair. He was assisted by Carl Gross, W. A. Lyons, H. A. Howard, Herman Hill, and J. T. Thompson. Chef George White, 30-year veteran of Southern Pacific Railway service, volunteered his services to prepare the food. Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and the Dining Car Waiters and Cooks Union, sponsored the feed.

The football league is the first of a series of year 'round youth athletic programs adopted by the Eastside Association, which is affiliated with the City-wide Los Angeles Youth Project.

A committee of 25 persons, consisting of various school and social agency rerpesentatives in the area, supervise the association.

The Los Angeles Youth Project was started a year ago by the War Chest in order to provide more adequate recreation and character building activities for children and youth in the Central and Eastside sections of the city. The money is granted to 10 organizations which have had many years of experience in working with youth. They are: All Nations Boys' Club, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Catholic Welfare Bureau, Church Federation, Girl Scouts, International Institute, Woodcraft Rangers, Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.

Winter League Baseball Opens Here Oct. 15

Winter league baseball of the major league variety makes its bow before the public on Oct. 15th at the Hollywood baseball park.

Chet Brewer and Marshall Armstrong have gathered together a team of stars from the Negro National, American and Mexican major leagues.

The Royals will play their Sunday games in Hollywood baseball park and their Wednesday night games in Wrigley field with the toughest white teams in the state furnishing the opposition. The first night game will be Oct. 18th at 8:30 p.m., with popular coast league prices prevailing.

In the gala opener scheduled for the 15th of October, the All Star service team that humbled Hollywood and Los Angeles so easily this past summer, will be the opponents of the star studded Royals.

GRID DOPE

CAMP LEE, Va.—Virginia's recent heat wave couldn't even put a stop to the Lee Travellers football squad as it went through several scrimmage sessions during the past week.

Coach Ray Bedard held the season's first scrimmage last Friday and two teafs battled it out for almost 45 minutes before the heat and Bedard called the whole thing off. Except for the usual bruises, the squad came through the workout in good shaps.

OPEN AT BAINBRIDGE

With the change in schedule giving Lee almost a fonth's practice before the opener against the Bainbridge Comfodores on Sept. 30, the youthful mentor sees plenty of hard work ahead perfecting the T-fortation. "This system takes time to smooth out and we'll have to hold some blackboard drills," he said.

Mixed Baseball Game Oct. 11 at Wrigley Field

At Wrigley Field on the night of Oct. 11th, Vince DiMaggio, brings his major league team recruited from the two big leagues to cross bats with the well known all colored star team the Kansas City Royals, managed by that star pitcher Chet Brewer. Brewer will have a star studded team also bringing the famous Kansas City Monarch team almost intact along with players from other National and American colored league teams.

On the major league team will be Bob Elliot of Pittsburgh regulad third baseman, Rex Cecil, star pitcher of the Boston Red Sox, and George Metcovitch, hard hitting outfielder of Boston.

Barney Sorrell, Bill Sims, Hilton Smith of the Kansas City Monarchs, Jed Prothroe of Philadelphia, Pepper Bassett of the Birmingham Black Barons and other well known players will cavort in the Royal suits.

Adam Berry Shows Form At Relays

CAMP LEE, Va. — Lt. Adam Berry jumped six feet eleven inches only to finish second at the recent Fresno Relays in California. Lee Steers of Oregon State defeated the Southern (La.) University ace, clearing the bar at seven feet one inch for a new unofficial world's record.

Berry, now an officer here at the world's largest Quartermaster installation, was selected on the A.A.U. All-American track and field team following his victories in the 1942 National A.A.U. indoor and outdoor meets.

Chase Wins But Marshall Gets Nod

In a bristling 10-round main event before 8000 fans at Hollywood Baseball Park last Saturday night, Jack Chase, former middleweight champion of the state of California, jabbed and hooked his way to an impressive win over Lloyd Marshall, duration light-heavyweight champ, only to see Marshall's hand raised in victory at the finish. The other ten on the card found Manuel Ortiz, world's bantamweight king, winning a close nod over Carlos Chavez, State featherweight title holder.

Chase weighed 159¾, to 164 for Marshall. Ortiz scaled 123 to 126 for Chavez.

In the preliminaries Rene De Leon, 145½, scored a fifth-round t.k.o. over Chito Hernandez, 148½; Benny Cousins, 114, won from Augie Rodriquez, 110½, and Hugh Stelland and Bill Trillo fought to a four-round draw that followed the main event.

Elmer Ray Stops Lovett

Elmer Ray, 199, Florida, knocked out Larry Lovett of Georgia in the third round of their scheduled ten-round main event at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday night before a fair crowd.

Lovett went down eight times before Referee Abe Roth stopped the uneven bout.

men in San Quentin than he, and that such perfidity should be cried from the housetops. We do not deny the fact that every man is entitled to his own political opinion, if that opinion be honest, but we do say, and without equivocation, that any man or woman preacher or what not, who claims leadership and proves his unworthiness for that position, should be exposed publicly, and the Reverend Fountleroy would be rendering a service of great import to the community at large through making known the name of the acceptor of a consciousless bribe. The community at large condems such pseudo claims to leadership and aims to rid itself of such. The exposing of the racial "Quizlings" will prove a boon and go far in the upbuilding of community respect and integrity for our people. The Carpe Diems are far in the lead, as far as civic activities are concerned, and the young women are proving that they can give "what it takes." They deserve the full support and cooperation of the community for their efforts for the advancement of civic betterment is of incalculable value. It is hoped that their sessions, held the fourth Sunday of each month, will find capacity crowds.

"NO SPY FOR HITLER"
(From the September Issue "Negro Digest"

CHICAGO—Although schooled to sabotage the Allied war effort, a Negro spy for Hitler surrendered himself and his Nazi comrade immediately upon landing on free soil, related J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, in the September issue of Negro Digest, published here.

In an article entitled "No Spy for Hitler," Hoover reported how a Negro dock worker captured by the Germans in Holland had accepted espionage training but cleverly secured the gun of his Nazi partner, held him prisoner and turned him over to the authorities upon arriving in America.

"There is a lesson here for Hitler and for all who believe in tyranny," stated the FBI chief. "An impoverished Negro who had been born in a free world and conditioned to freedom so hated Nazism as he found it in Europe that he was willing to return to poverty and even imprisonment rather than suffer it longer."

NEEDLESSNESS

Fear in the hearts of men seems to be the order of the day. Is it because we are afraid to look forward to a brilliant future? As we look about us, we find chaos on every side and wars and rumors of wars. But a new day is coming, and, history is in the making.

So-called destinies that have been guided under the scepters of dictators are giving place to democratic liberation. These things are now crumbling over night, and, we trust forever passing into oblivion.

Don't let your own obstinate faithlessness in yourself and the human race keep you from winning out, don't let fear of brute force and the evils of a miliate world bring unhappiness into your life.

A.W.—Dear Prof. Herman: I have been reading your column in the California Eagle and find it very helpful in regards to my problems. But I am puzzled about something that just happened in my home. It seems that my daughter and my husband just don't agree about the friends she has and it causes quite a bit of confusion. Can you help me in this matter?

Ans. I find that you do not object to your daughter's friends and therefore think you should talk to your husband. He may be a little rigid in his views and perhaps you can make him understand. It is much better for your daughter to entertain her friends in her home than elsewhere and you should encourage her to do so.

L.L.B.—Does my friend care enough to give me some of the things I save asked for?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that your friend is very fond of you. And would not refuse you any favor within reason.

P.R.—Will my future desire ever come true?

Ans. Probing into the matter I find that your Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet indicate many things coming to pass within the next 6 months that will bring much happiness and joy into your life.

C.P.—Will we go back together again?

Ans. I am of the opinion that a reconciliation can be reached if you and your husband make up your minds to try to get along. But you must work together and make plans that will stimulate both of your interest. Life sometimes becomes humdrum if you don't have any goal to strive toward.

Mrs. L.C.—Has my husband received his income tax return check?

Ans. It appears to me that your husband hasn't received his check as yet. When he does I am sure he will tell you, as he has some pleasant things in store for the both of you when he receives it.

Dear Sir: May I congratulate you on your wonderful years of success. I have been away and unable to get a paper containing your column, but when I returned found you were still doing the work that is bringing so much happiness and inspiration into many people's lives. Just continue to do so, for we certainly need more people like you! Sincerely your, E. A.

C.T.—Will I be able to continue doing the work I am doing now?

Ans. My Psycho - Mentalist Crystal reveals your being able to work at the press as you desire for an indefinite period of time. Your work is good and you are a steady, reliable person.

E.B.—Will I be successful in getting the money I am trying to get?

Ans. Many things are indicated in your Horoscope, and I would be glad to help you solve your future problems, if you will write in for a private reply. I do vision your financial conditions improving, soon.

ICKES ASSAILS DEWEY; HOLLYWOOD FOR FDR

On the Sidewalk

c.a.b.

WHAT DO YOU think of the campaign up to this point?

What about President Roosevelt?

Do you think he should be returned to Washington to finish this war job?

I have enough answers to these questions to publish a pamphlet. Here is one:

"Well? I think Mr. Roosevelt has done right; well, but I feel so sorry for him; I know he must be tired and should go home and rest."

And here is another answer:

"I believe by changing presidents we could end the war."

And from yet another:

"I don't like the dole system; and if elected, I believe Mr. Dewey would abolish it."

To the first question, it does seem that President Roosevelt's activities speak for themselves. At no time has he failed to perform a duty or responsibility in behalf of the people he serves. He was the moving spirit in the Atlantic Conference, parent of the Atlantic Charter, which united three great nations in a determination to drive from the face of the earth, Fascism.

The Casablanca Conference was, if not wholly, partly his brain child. And at Teheran he, President Roosevelt, with Churchill and Stalin made the plans for the successful invasion of Germany by way of the Second Front and the defeat of Japan in the Pacific. And finally, Dumbarton Oaks where the closing session of these conferences were held and the program for world pace was made.

Any loyal American who followed the trends and results of these conferences must admit that never before in the history of the world has there been a similar demonstration of an almost perfect war strategy. Nothing in President Roosevelt's role in each and all of these sessions suggested that he was tired and grouchy. I am sure that the people who vote on November 7 will answer this question about being too tired to finish the job.

The man who lays the foundation is better prepared to build the structure than an unknown on the job.

Now about the dole, especially as it concerns Negroes and other minorities. Had it not been for the W.P.A., the young men serving as soldiers in the Army and the Navy, because of malnutrition, would not be able to withstand the rigours of war. Who of you have forgotten the parade of hungry men standing wearily about employment agencies from day to day begging for work by which they might eat.

Mothers, with babies in their arms plodded the streets unashamed of their shabby appearances, stop-

GOP Candidate Is Untried And Vain Says Ickes

Hollywood Party Raises $50,000 For FDR Support

The Hollywood IS for Roosevelt Committee—with very special emphasis on the word "IS"—went to town really in the welcome they gave Harold Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, at a brilliant party held at the Ambassador Hotel Sunday evening. "Don't Change to a Trojan Horse in the Middle of a War" was the theme of all the skits, the songs, and of the address of Mr. Ickes himself.

All of the great of the film world were there. They laughed and danced and sang and poked fun at Leo Carillo's white horse or the GOP elephants or Dewey, the "Elephant Boy" himself and his friends.

Groucho Marx conducted his own "Barber poll of public opinion." Judy Garland sang "Somewhere Over Your Checkbook." Jimmy Durante almost broke up one of the Ambassador's finest pianos with his wild man act. Robert Benchley started a "Dewey for President" speech but finally gave up after interference by Charles Cantor of "Duffy's Tavern," and decided he'd join the crowd for Roosevelt. Larry Adler, of harmonica fame, delighted the audience

Government Acts In Murder of Negro Soldier By Georgia Chief

DUBLIN, Ga.—The Department of Justice announces the filing today in the U. S. District Court at Dublin, Georgia, of an information charging James Mitchell Bohannon, Chief of Police for the town of Summit, Georgia, with a violation of the Civil Rights Statutes in the killing of Willie L. Davis, a Negro soldier.

The information, filed on behalf of the government by U. S. Attorney J. Saxton Daniel, alleges that Bohannon, "acting under the color of law," shot Davis without provocation on the night of July 3, 1943. The police official had been called to a Negro roadhouse on the outskirts of Summit to restore order, the information states. After order had been restored, but while still acting as Chief of Police, Bohannon "wilfully, unlawfully and without provocation" shot and killed Davis with a pistol.

A corner's inquest was held following the shooting, but no

Black America Salvage Company Under Fire In Municipal Court

Whether the Black America Salvage Company is conforming to the city regulations for the management of salvage depots was the question before the courts on Tuesday as evidence was presented pro and con in Municipal Court, Division No. 7 where the case has been under consideration for some time. Attorney Willis O. Tyler, legal representative for the Black America Salvage Company, accepted various suggestions offered by Fire Captain Osborne in lieu of a $700 fine which would have been imposed by the court should a verdict of non-compliance have been returned.

Wendell Willkie, The Negroes Friend Is Universally Mourned

On October 8, at 2 a. m., death claimed one of the most courageous fighters and friends of the Negro people. The death of Wendell Willkie will be mourned for some time by millions of Negroes throughout the United States, and oppressed people all over the world. For years to come his death will be regarded as a great loss by the whole world.

Phone Wiring From Beachhead to Combat Front Job of Negro Outfit

—By U. S. Army Correspondent John S. Kinloch—

WITH AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE—Knitting Allied lines of communication into a tight web of humming telephone wire often under the sledge-hammer blows of enemy artillery and the crackle of small arms fire is the business of Negro Signal Construction companies here.

Soldiers of these outfits throw up telephone poles and string wires between many of the war's most important command posts, frequently using captured enemy equipment, in all kinds of weather,—even when it's raining bullets.

One such unit installed the communication net for the invasion forces in one area of England. Their work drew special commendation from Brigadier General C. O. Thrasher, commanding the Southern Base Section. "The quality of the work," said the General, "and the spirit of the personnel... has contributed to the successful mission of our Army in mounting the cross-channel operation."

"The unit," he continued, "is commended for its diligence and devotion to duty displayed in the excellent maintenance of the wire communications in the marshalling areas."

Monday afternoon at sundown, Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist leader of thousands and organizer of Angelus Temple and hundreds of Foursquare Churches all over the world, was laid to rest in Forest Lawn Memorial Park after funeral service attended by 10,000 persons, including many Negroes. Mrs. McPherson died on Sept. 27 in Oakland. Her son, Rolf, will succeed her in her Christian work.

NAACP Pledges Full Support In 'Lower 13' Case

At a recent special call meeting of the executive board, the Los Angeles branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People donated $300 for the defense of Robert Folkes who was convicted of murder in the "Lower 13" case last year. The NAACP, along with other organizations, has protested the conviction because of the strongly circumstantial evidence on which it was based.

After hearing a report of the case from William Pollard, chairman of the Robert Folkes Defense Committee, and a brief statement from the mother of the accused man, the board pledged full moral and financial support in the fight to free him.

Appoint Wilson Chief of Minority Groups Service

Appointment of Benjamin F. Wilson, of Gary, Ind., as chief of the Minority Groups Service of the Bureau of Placement of the War Manpower Commission, was announced last week by Paul V. McNutt, chairman of WMC. Mr. Wilson, a lawyer, and a veteran of the last war, will serve as liaison officer with other governmental and private agencies on the development of a program of fuller utilization of minority groups in war industries.

Sleepy Lagoon

The District Court of Appeals took final action in the Sleepy Lagoon Case this week by handing down an order of remititur, (sending the record back to a lower court for execution, or a new trial), after defense attorneys and Attorney General Kenny reached an agreement which made it unnecessary for the court to wait the usual 30 days before issuing the order.

Earlier, the court had reversed the conviction of the 17 defendants ruling that the 13 week trial had failed to produce sufficient evidence to justify their conviction. Unless District Attorney Fowler takes action for a new trial, this most notorious of all frameups will soon be a matter of history with all of the defendants free, and their full citizenship rights restored.

HOPE Meets Friday Nite

The Home Owners Protective Association will meet at the California Eagle office this Friday night at 8 o'clock to continue the fight against residence restrictions. All taxpayers, rent payers and property owners are invited to come out and join in the fight to defeat the attempt to create a Negro ghetto.

Captain Mulzac Says FDR Is Needed for Post War Period

Captain Hugh Mulzac, commander of the Booker T. Washington, the first merchant ship to sail under a Negro captain with a mixed crew, spent last weekend presenting himself as a witness for the Roosevelt administration. Angered by Republican attacks on the new deal policy toward the Negro, Captain Mulzac, who has made seven round trips to the Allied war fronts delivering 12 cargoes, appeared before thousands in several gatherings to give credit to President Roosevelt for making his appointment possible, and for opening the way for other Negro captains and officers in the merchant service.

Arriving here Thursday with Ferdinand Smith, national secretary of the NMU, and Thyra Edwards, public relations representative of the NUM, the captain spoke to an overflow meeting at the 62nd District Democratic Headquarters.

At a press conference Friday morning he recounted his years of trying to obtain a command under successive Republican administrations, meeting with failure until the combined efforts of the President, the NMU, and

San Pedro Mother Found Not Guilty On Charge of Contributing

Mrs. Dorothy Meeks, who resides in San Pedro, Calif., was found "not guilty" and completely vindicated in the courtroom of Judge Edward Brand, Department 45 of the Superior Court, last Friday, after a trial lasting one-half day.

The case arose out of a complaint made by the district attorney's office that Mrs. Meeks contributed to the delinquency of two minors, June Kohal, age 13, and Ruthe Butterfield, age 14 years, both white; that Mrs. Meeks allowed them to remain overnight at her home and while they were there encouraged them to have sexual relationships with men and promised them sums of money.

Mrs. Meeks denied the charge and told the court that she had merely accommodated the girls by letting them stay at her home after one of them had had an argument with her stepfather, and that no men had been in the house while the girls were there. A attack for some time by the City Planning Commission, mothered the Economic Relief Association which has been called to the attention of the public from time to time as an organization which is doing for the Negro community what the Salvation Army and other salvage organizations are doing for other sections of the population. No other salvage organization, however, has been subject to the strict supervision which the Black America Salvage Company has undergone.

The Black America Salvage Company as fosterer of the Economic Relief Association is a partner to many worthwhile community services and hopes to expand its facilities to be of ever increasing service to the community in the field of poultry raising, livestock breeding, and nursery development. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reeves, managers of the Black America Salvage Company and directors of the Economic Relief Association, enjoy the good-will of the the residents of the Eastside and solicit the support of all Los Angeles in their public spirited venture.

countless organizations and leaders brought victory. Friday afternoon he repeated his endorsement of President Roosevelt at a luncheon attended by leading business and professional people at the Last Word Lounge.

Friday night, Captain Mulzac was the guest of honor at a reception tendered by Assemblyman and Mrs. Augustus Hawkins at the Villa Arlington. Following a program of entertainment provided by Hollywood personalities and presided over by Clarence Muse, the captain addressed the gathering, pointing out that he was spending his first furlough in two years campaigning for the re-election of President Roosevelt because he wanted the administration's policy of no discrimination extended into the post-war period.

Captain Mulzac, Ferdinand Smith and Thyra Edwards will continue their tour covering many states until November 4, when they will return to New York.

half of the Negro, colonial and semi-colonial peoples, in an article in Collier's.

In his article, Willkie made a statement that is worth repeating here, and it is to be hoped that every responsible person in America regardless of political beliefs, will take them to heart. Willkie said then:

"The equitable treatment of racial minorities in America is basic to our chance for a just and lasting peace. For it can not be too much emphasized that in the world today whatever we do at home affects our foreign policy, and whatever we do abroad affects our domestic policy. The two are necessarily inter-related. On no single question is this truth so inescapable as in the repercussions all around the world that result from our treatment at home of our colored citizens."

This is a sound policy. It should be adopted by all sincere spokesmen. The policies of Willkie, so far as the Republican Party is concerned are, like the policies of Lincoln. They died with their author.

A SAD FAREWELL

As we bid farewell to this sincere fighter for the rights of the Negro people, let us hope that it will not be another 80 years before another spokesman arises in the Republican Party with the same vision that Willkie had. It was 80 years from the time Lincoln conducted one of the most important election campaigns, to the time that Wendell Willkie found his chances to be a Republican candidate squelched by the old guard of his party. He was not only not nominated as the candidate but was not even a delegate to its convention.

To be sure, the leaders of his party will proclaim his name as they have the name of Abraham Lincoln. While claiming his name they will carefully avoid and refuse to claim his policies, even though policies are far more important than names. It has been almost 80 years since the voice of Lincoln subsided. It has taken almost that many years for a national leader of that party to arise and speak openly and vigorously on the behalf of an oppressed people. Let us hope it will not be that long before someone from the ranks of the G.O.P. will proclaim both Lincoln and Willkie, not only their names but their policies.

Leonard Wood, Missouri. It was the first one sent overseas.

"Frankly, I think this is the best darned Signal Construction Company in the Army," declares the Company Commander, Captain Henry G. Shopfer, Jr., New Orleans, Louisiana.

"The first three graders show the ability of commissioned officers in handling the men and the work. I'd put this Company up against any battalion."

It is from the ranks of this group that cadres for many other Negro Signal Construction outfits have been drawn. The men who roganized the first Negro Signal Aircraft Warning Company were also products of this pioneer unit. No man in the Company had had experience in the field prior to his Army training.

"We feel, we're blazing a trail," said veteran Technical Sergeant Winston R. McLemore, 25, Little Rock, Arkansas. "Many of us, fully qualified by Army training, will go into high-pay civilian jobs after the war."

One of the most responsible jobs in France rests on the shoulders of Technical Sergeant Joseph W. Danforth, 25, Minneapolis, Minnesota. He is incharge of all connections from the cable line running to Great Britain on the floor of the English channel.

"We have done virtually all of the cross-connecting in making circuits for the various units moving in," reported Technical Sgt. Danforth. Over wires in his care, the voices of Prime Minister Winston Churchill and many other dignitaries have passed. Teletype connections are also under Danforth's supervision. Much of the equipment he has used was left on the beachhead by the fleeting German Army.

The honor of having set up one of the highly secret phone circuit used by General Eisenhower in England is held by Staff Sergeant Alfred Perry, 29, Memphis, Tennessee.

"As I walked out of one end of the headquarters tent, the General walked in the other." Said Staff Segt. Perry, the phone had been installed in record time.

The men work with the most modern equipment of the American communications industry, pointed out First Sergeant Fred Miller, 48, Rolla, Missouri. An old infantryman, with 24 years in the Army, Sgt. Miller reported that his Company is planned "according to the highest efficiency standards of the civiljan communications systems. Our trucks are equipped with every type of necessary tool. Our linemen and cable-splicers have valuable individual sets of instruments, and the fleets of jeeps and trucks assigned to this Company duplicate the system of the best civilian firms."

The Company's first commander, now Lieutenant Colonel William A. Joyce, was a West Point class-mate of Colonel Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., son of Brigadier General Benjamin O. Davis, and first leader of the famed 99thth Pursuit Squadron. Lt. Col. Joyce, then a Captain, headed the unit at the outbreak of the war when it was stationed at the Panama Canal Zone.

In fifteen record shattering months the Company laid 350 miles of open wire through dense tropical jungle, binding together United States Army airports throughout the Isthmus. This was one of the great achievements of hemisphere defense.

Youngest member of the unit, 19-year-old Corporal Clarence Bruce, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, put his finger firmly on the reason for the Company's excellent performance. "It's the team-work around here," he said. "The Officers, non-coms and men work together. It's a swell outfit, even though they tease me because I'm the baby of the gang."

About the Germans, one of the unit's real veterans had something to say. Staff Sergeant Jesse C. Brooksins, 24, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, has been mess sergeant, supply clerk, dispatcher in the motor pool, lineman and cable-splicer, his present job. 'After the war," he stated emphatically, "we've got to put the Germans back in their own country and hold them there!"

"We know," he added, "what Hitler thinks of our people and it's a kick to be a part of the Army that's whipping him to his knees."

so much that they gave $1000 for an boogie-woogie encore. Claudette Colbert put up half the sum.

THREE CO-CHAIRMEN

There are three co-chairmen of the "Hollywood 18 for Roosevelt Committee" — Katherine Hepburn, Jack L. Warner and Samuel Goldwyn. Danny Kaye made his boss, Samuel Goldwyn, and several hundred others, join him in the chorus of "Minnie the Moocher." Then he put the "mooch" on every one by ordering them to pay an extra $10 per head.

Six lovely girls tried to make every one believe they were men in their men's trousers, and six men, wearing bustles and what goes with them, pretended they were ladies in a Floradora Sextette number. The girls, costumed as men, were: Joan Leslie, Kay Gorsey, Evelyn Keyes, Lucille Ball, Gloria de Haven and Jane Wyman. The men in bustles were: Danny Kaye, Phil Silvers, Groucho Marx, Walter Huston, Keenan Wynn and Edward G. Robinson.

All of these skits and dances and songs were intended to cajole money out of the pockets of those present for the election of President Roosevelt. It came, to the tune of something like $50,000.

Then, the serious theme. In the midst of all the frivolity, came the address of Mr. Ickes. His subject was: "Don't Change to a Trojan Horse in the Middle of a War." He likened conditions today to the time of Ancient Troy, when that city was captured and destroyed by a wooden horse filled with soldiers, taken into the city by the unsuspecting Trojans.

Among those passengers in the Trojan horse of today, Ickes listed Herbert Hoover, the probable secretary of state if Dewey were elected.

"Mr. Hoover isn't a 'tired old man,'" commented Mr. Ickes, "because the American voters have given him a long rest."

SECRETARY LEWIS

For secretary of labor in Dewey's Trojan horse cabinet, Ickes suggested either John L. Lewis or Westbrook Pegler, although Pegler had really disqualified himself by writing on June 14, 1940, that "as a presidential possibility Dewey is preposterous."

Others in this Trojan group listed by Ickes are: Publisher Col. Robert McCormick of the Chicago Daily Tribune; Rep. Hamilton Fish, notorious isolationist; and Gerald L. K. Smith, who "long ago came out openly for the principles and tactics of Hitler."

"This prize group of isolationists and rabblerousers," warned Ickes, "are the people who, in full panoply, will leap from the Trojan horse if Mr. Dewey is elected and will proceed to take over and foist upon the people of this country and of the world their own destructive and vicious ideas of isolationism and hatred."

They are the people, he said, who "have bitterly fought our preparations for war; our participation in the war; our efforts to quarantine the Nazis and the Japanese; our recognition of our staunch ally, Soviet Russia; and even our encouragement to the peace-loving nations of the world."

EAGER YOUNG MAN

No business and no nation, warned Ickes, would entrust its affairs in a time of such crisis as this war and the time after the war, "to a new and untried youth when experience and qualification stand at the helm, in order to gratify the vanity of an eager young aspirant crying out for what to him looks like a pretty bauble."

Only the studio people and their guests attended the dinner and party. Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor and publisher of the California Eagle, and Herman Hill, of the Pittsburgh Courier, were among the invited guests.

● Gov't. Action

prosecutive action was taken by State authorities. The case was then referred for action to the Department of Justice by the War Department. The Federal government takes jurisdiction because the slain man was deprived of his life without due process of law in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment, and charges the defendant, Bohannon, under Section 52, Title 18, U. S. Code.

Today's action was authorized by Assistant Attorney General Tom C. Clark in charge of the Criminal Division, folowing investigation by the FBI and Army authorities.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By John M. Lee

Strange Bedfellows

The Hollywood Democratic Committee has run for cover, followed closely by my good friend, Ted LeBerthon. It was not an orderly retreat; in the confusion, they tried to turn their shameful rout into a defeat for the Negro people, but they failed. How miserably they failed is evidenced by the reaction which has set in against both LeBerthon and the HDC in the Negro community. From this point on, Ted and the HDC are marching along, shoulder to shoulder with William Randolph Hearst to defeat Hal Styles, who for twelve years has been the friend and benefactor of tens of thousands of the needy, without regard to their race, creed, color or POLITICAL AFFILIATION.

John M. Lee

Let it be noted for the record that the spokesman who engineered the HDC into its untenable position, did so in the name of the Negro people of Los Angeles. That the rank and file of the Negro people, or the representatives who have led their progress in season and out, were not consulted did not seem to trouble HIM at all.

This column does not presume to speak beyond the limits of its knowledge in this issue. In that respect we are unique. However, we do know from days of active discussion of the Styles' candidacy with persons of all shades of opinion that Negroes have more faith in Styles than they have in the HDC. We also know one Rufus Walker, a Negro who went to Public School 18 in Yonkers, New York with Hal Styles, and who was one of his closest associates. He can tell you more about Styles' democracy and Americanism than all of the historians in the HDC.

Since the order of the day seems to be the smear subtle, let us go to town. According to reports, rumors and idle gossip, the HDC would have thrown Styles overboard sooner or later anyhow. Why? Because he was too independent. That means he recognized that he was the candidate who received the support of the regular democratic organization and the people before he was supported by the HDC. There is the further report that certain non-catholics in the HDC didn't think that Styles was quite kosher.

There are these persons who ask how come the Hearst press was kept informed about what went on in the secret meetings of the HDC when the advisability of supporting or not supporting Styles was being discussed? Some of them even ask who dug up the Klan issue, the Herald or the HDC? All in all it is not a pretty picture. There is enough dynamite in the situation to blow the progressive forces as wide apart as the thinking of some of the HDC leaders is from the thinking of the minority groups.

Many more ugly reports anent the reason and purpose behind the HDC's break with Styles are being circulated, but we must leave them for a later time while we caress a rumor or two concerning our friend Ted LeBerthon. Ted, it seems has gone the way of the Negro newspaper for which he writes a weekly column. We fear, with as much reason as he fears that Hal Styles will don a sheet the morgent he is elected to Congress, that Ted is for Mr. Dewey and the States Rights crowd.

What is more important than that, however, is Ted on the telephone spreading the poison that was brewed over at the Hearst factory. He must have had some painful moments when he talked to many of the persons he sought to sway with his sincere, perhaps, but dangerous logic. He must have discovered what was pointed out here last week, that the Negro voter would rather have a former klansman whose record for over twelve years is one of unselfish service to his felow man without regard to race or creed, than to gamble on the promises of a reactionary supported candidate.

They are strange bedfellows indeed! The Hollywood Democratic Committee and Ted LeBerthon, snuggling up to the Hearst press.

Atty. Williams Gains Dismissal In Robbery and Kidnapping Case

Faltering under the sharp cross-examination which was brilliantly conducted by Attorney Martha E. Williams in Department 45 of the Superior Court, presided over by Judge Edward R. Brand, the complaining witness for the state, Morris James, had the validity of his testimony viewed with serious doubt by the court.

James charged the defendants, Andy Nobles, and Melvin Lee, had during the middle of last July, under the guise of police officers, kidnaped him, robbed him, and assaulted him with a deadly weapon. The penalty for conviction of this crime as described in section 209 of the penal code of California, is death or life imprisonment without possibility of parole.

After hearing the cross-examination of James by Attorney Williams, the court granted her motion for the dismissal of the charges of kidnaping and robbery against Lee and Nobles. At the close of the trial, however, the court charged the two defendants with having assaulted the person of James, and sentenced them each to five days in jail.

OUR 39th BIRTHDAY

WITH PRIDE and appreciation, we observe the 39th milestone of our career! Pride in the fine friendships, the place of leadership which we have won in the popular-price field, the public confidence expressed in your continued patronage. Appreciation of the opportunities for growth, progress, achievement which we have enjoyed.

In prewar years, our Birthday Sale was the highlight in our entire year. However, this year again, conforming to our co-operation with wartime conversation, there will NOT be a Birthday Sale.

Looking ahead to new, peacetime activities, great plans are in the making for enthusiastic renewal of our Birthday Sale . . . for the big two-thousand-pound Birthday Cake for our customers . . . for the advertisements in which we say "dramatic, exciting, VALUE-GIVING" . . . for the kind of sale that will again demonstrate the leadership of the Fifth Street Store in the popular-price field.

See Our Window This Week

You are invited to come downtown and see, in our windows, the outstanding collection of Americana pertaining to the election campaigns of the seven presidents of the last 39 years.

The Gay Side

By Bernice Cook

Love leads the way—I shall not seek another path of guidance, dear:
Feet go astray—when led by any other, and the aftermath of gripping fear
Within the heart of one, is hardly worth the folly he has done!

A party of friends, including Jerry Mann, her mother and mine, Mrs. Jannie Mann, Della Williams, LaVaughn Martin, Dorothy Carr, Ted Thomas, and yours truly, took in the Annual Sheriff's Show on Tuesday night. It was an all-star show with many stellar acts which required the utmost in skill and training. Watching the performance of the world-renowned cyclist and several acrobatic teams brought to my mind a simple truth: "Success is the doing of the ordinary things in life better than anyone else." A very talented young woman played the piano and gave exact imitations of a player piano, a harp, a music box, and then gave a pretty good imitation of the boogie-woogie a la Hazel Scott or Dorothy Donegan. Lora Lee was the young woman's name. Another outstanding act was a group of acrobats who call themselves the "Maxellos." I am just wondering how William Bendix (movie actor of guest star of the night) is feeling now... as he was made the butt of a joke when the Maxellos put him through a routine of bumps and twirls which I'm sure he'll remember a long time. One colored act, the Sepia Steppers, were also billed on the show. They did not, in the estimation of this writer, come up to the standard of the show because they insisted on antics which those of us of color putting on a lot of "Uncle Tom" did not appreciate. All in all, it was a grand show—and we were glad to see a goodly sprinkling of colored faces throughout the audience. A number of "colored" jokes were told from the stage—but they kept it clean.

RECEPTION FOR MULZAC AND SMITH

A lovely reception honoring Capt. Hugh Mulzac, Ferdinand Smith, and Miss Thyra Edwards, who are making a tour under the sponsorship of the Political Action Committee in the interest of re-electing President Roosevelt, was given by Assemblyman Augustus Hawkins at the Villa Arlington Club on Friday. A fine and very representative cross-section of Los Angeles citizens was present, including labor leaders, business men, actors, movie directors, writers, professional people and housewives. The distinguished Captain Mulzac, who had the honor of taking the S. S. Booker T. Washington on her maiden voyage, was given a tremendous ovation. Short speeches were made in the interest of Mr. Roosevelt by Captain Mulzac, Ferdinand Smith, secretary of the National Maritime Union, and Thyra Edwards, assistant director of NMU. Actor Clarence Muse made a very capable master of ceremonies. Remarks on behalf of the Hollywood for Roosevelt Democratic Organization were made by the noted screen-writer, Sam Ornitz. Looking over the crowd we noted the presence of Judge Edwin Jefferson, Actor Rex Ingram, real estate man, H. W. Howard, Dr. Albert Patrick (and the Missus), County Chairman of the Communist Party Pettis Perry, Attorney Thomas L. Griffith, president of the Los Angeles branch of NAACP; Mrs. Charlotta Bass, editor of the California Eagle, and her news editor, John Lee; theatrical editor of the Sentinel, Leon Hardwicke; cameramen, Ted Merriman and Charles Westerfield; popular socialite, Sammie Moore, of course; Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Hawkins, and many more too numerous to mention. Captain Mulzac and party entrained for San Francisco on Saturday.

JOTS AND TITTLES...

This week's Life magazine gives quite a spread to the all-Negro Broadway play, "Anna Lucasta," which stars lovely Hilda Simms and features Canada Lee. According to Life, this is by far the best play acted by an all-Negro cast ever to hit Broadway, and they predict for it a very long and successful run. The thing we like about Anna Lucasta is the fact that it is not necessarily a "Negro" play; the story is one that could easily be acted by any other group regardless of race or color.

Listen in on the "Sentinel Hour" each Sunday morning from 10 to 10:15 and hear Attorney Loren Miller and publisher Leon Washington discuss news and views of the day as they affect our race. It is extremely interesting and informative.

We welcome the news that plans are now underway... another ingenious idea of the Rev. erend Clayton D. Russell... for the establishment of a banking institution in Los Angeles, owned and operated by Negroes.

Saw our ardent War Chest worker, Mrs. Josephine Brown, hurrying into the community center on Vernon avenue, to carry on her duties in the interest of the War Chest drive, which reminds us that we must GIVE NOW FOR A TRIPLE NEED and speed the return of our boys.

FINAL CURTAIN.. We mourn the passing of Aimee Semple McPherson and Wendell L. Willkie and pay tribute to their memory here. America has truly lost a woman and a man of great moral courage and spiritual fortitude...

DOUBLE RING CEREMONY—Miss Barbara Winifred Frazier and Mr. Fremont Thompson were united in a double ring ceremony, solemnized Sunday afternoon at Ward's Chapel, the Rev. J. W. Price officiating. The wedding was one of the high spots of the social season and was followed by a reception at the home of Mrs. Daggett. The couple will be at home to their many friends after October 22nd at their residence in Bel-Vue Village.

Frazier-Thompson Wedding Solemnized

By JESSIE MAE BROWN

A complete background of white chrysanthemums interwoven on white lattice-baskets of white flowers offsetting two huge white satin candelabras made a celestial setting for the marriage ceremony of Miss Barbara Winifred Frazier and Mr. Fremont Thompson, solemnized Sunday afternoon, October 8, at Wards Chapel.

The bride made a beautiful picture marching solemnly down the aisle on the arm of her father, Mr. Carlisle Frazier, in traditional white satin gown with lace sleeves and seed pearl trimming. White illusion veil fell from her dainty lace cap into a misty train. She carried a white Bible topped by a full-blossomed orchid with satin streamers. Her wedding gown was a gift of her godmother, Mrs. Estella Bledsoe, and was made by Modiste Mrs. Lola Jones Johnson.

DOUBLE-RING CEREMONY

Reverend J. W. Price officiated at the ceremony in which a double-ring ceremonial was held. The matron of honor, Mrs. Jean Hatley, wore a Copenhagen blue gown with matching fascinator type veil with feathered crown. Maid of honor, Miss Josephine Seagraves, wore pink gown with matching fascinator and feathered crown. Bridal attendants were dressed in alternate Alice blue and delicate pink gowns with matching fascinators and lace gowns. All wore quaint fingerless lace gloves. The attendants were: Theressa Rosemund, Bette Scott, Lillian Lomax, Helen Brooks, Catherine O'Neal, Muriel Wallace, Constance Jones and Thelma Green. The little flower girls carried out the color scheme. They were: Joan Lewis, Carol and Sandra Fuller and Loma Washington. Candle girl, Thressa Whitaker, wore pink taffeta. Ushers in full dress included: Herndon Green, Arthur Watts, Lewis Hatley, Lloyd Gladden, Silas Howard, Harry O'Neal, J. D. Crawford and Alvin Green. James Cox acted as best man.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

The wedding reception immediately followed the ceremony at the spacious home of Mrs. Daggett. The bride's mother, Mrs. Thelma Goodson, was stunning in an "egg shell" draped gown with orchid corsage. Mrs. Mattie Hamilton, bride's grandmother, was resplendent in black gown with aqua bodice. Traveling from Houston, Texas, to witness her son's marriage was Mrs. Mamie Thompson, beautiful in deep purple with orchid corsage. Assisting at the reception were: Mabel Cleveland, Aimee Bailey, Ruth Shaffner, Mignon Braxton and Lucille Gower. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Tinsley of San Diego, and Mr. Sonny Alexander of Oakland, Calif.

Beautiful music throughout the ceremony was rendered by Mmes. Pauline Evans, Marguerite Chapman and Miss Georgina Brown, with Mrs. Blanche Woods at the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Thompson were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and will be at home to their many friends October 22, in Belview Village.

What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

Jessie Mae Brown

Meeting of the Youth Council of the NAACP, holds a change in date, setting, and mood this week, for it heads for the Arlington (fast becoming "the place" for the Younger Set) Saturday night, at eight o'clock, where prexy, Ike Adams, will lead the group in a spicy meeting, after which all will turn into a regular social gathering. At the past few business meetings of the organization, the committees have been reorganized, making ready for a big season. Rumor has it that the Council may delve once again into the "Equality in Motion Picture Fight," headed at the time by Caleb Peterson. Anyway, all Youth Council members, and all wishing to become members are expected at Saturday night's meeting.

DEFINITELY PINK AND BLUE

The scheduled shower, honoring Mrs. Wellington Stanaslaus (Catherine Johnson), was held last Sunday afternoon, in all of its pink and blue glory. Blankets, rattlers, squeeky animals and other cuddley gifts, fitting to the occasion, were received by the lovely young matron. Guests included: Rosalia Safford Smith, Chickee (Jackson) Owens, Evelyn Bullocks, Anna Alexander (Newlywed), Lorrain Tennett, Doris Colley, Harriette Patterson, Francis Duncan, and Mildred Shores.

ON THE CALENDAR

—Since the different organizations are just getting in the swing of "Fall" activities, money making events, and loads of them are in the offing. See where the Manuel Arts Tri-Y division number one, plans to start off the Y. social gatherings with the first event of the new semester. A pre-Halloween party, scheduled for the 27th at Alpha Bowling Club. The sub-debbies want everything on the beam, so it will be masquerade or no admittance. By the way, Jackie Hatchet, back from Chi, and full of big ideas, is leading a dance group who will put on a number or two, a la Phraterie manner. Arleigh, Maddox, Gloria Crouch, Nona Hendrews, the full member long with President Becky Brown, are working hard to make this a rip-roaring success. Jackie Wilson is club advisor . . . The Delta's plan to aid their scholarship fund in presenting Elizabeth Garrot in recital soon. The Alpha's, having a recital as their last big event, are staging a mammoth Benefit Cabaret in November. So the next few social gatherings of importance will call for a little digging into the pocket-book. However, the winter-months find Semi after Semi and other invitational affairs. WELL! WELL! WELL!

The notorious tripping of Alvin Glover has created quite a sensation on the City College Campus. Could definitely be called a second Fred Astaire . . . My, my the brightened look on Jerry Stewart's face can be chalked up to the arrival of a certain Mr. Vic on furlough . . . And Dan Cupid is casting a very warm smile in Vashti Peaks direction, for Albert Hicks arrives in town this week from Virginia where he has been stationed for quite some time with the Marines. And I believe whispers had it that the two would do a little vow taking when Hicks made it won the LA scene again. We shall see. . . . Jo Marshall is certainly doing her part to make the Gents across the blue have a merry Christmas. Being an excellent cook, she made some 20 fruit cakes, and has already shipped box after box to the boys over there. . .

In noting different personalities, must take time to jot down the fact that Pauline Boutee Peake is genuinely charming, and her radiating personality demands the added respect of all. Sure the Alpha Phrateries feel the same way about their sponback in LA by now. Recent pen pushing which hails from Chicago, says that she and the infant will arrive on the 12th of October. . . . Received Cpl. Carl Alexander's new APO number in care of postmaster, San Francisco. Guess his destination will be somewhere in the South Pacific.

Seaman William Phyllips was in town for a few days last week, as a very brief intermission between "boot" training and regular service. . . . Keeping in the sailor line . . . Seaman Maurice Jones writes from Hampton University. Of course, he's enjoying life and says that he's trying to make the best of it. However, UCLA is still tops in his world. . . Hear that C. B. Gene Williams is in the South Pacific, and ain't fer it. . . . Sgt. Don Barksdale is stationed at Camp Lee, Virginia. Wonder if he's playing any basket ball.

Gym major Bea Smith has added a feather in her cap. She was elected historian of the Professional Women's Physical Education Club on the Bruin campus. . . . In town, and enjoying the added bit of club life, bright lights and all, was Arnette Lewis 'long with better-half Nancy. . . . Still keeping in touch with his LA buddies is sailor boy Sam Graveley, who writes of enjoying himself at Small's Paradise in New York City on frequent liberties from Columbia University. . . Don't forget to send your package to the boys over there. . . . Till next week.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS ENTERTAINED—The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Gamble was the scene last week of one of the season's finest receptions tendered in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Woods Dumas, Sr., of Natchez, Mississippi, and their daughter, Mrs. Marcella Dumas Huggins, wife of Dr. Hastings H. Huggins, prominent physician and surgeon of Baton Rouge, La. Dr. Dumas is past president of the National Medical Association, and has been its leading physician for 46 years. Mr. Gamble, who with his charming wife, was host to more than 200 guests from Los Angeles, Santa Monica, Venice and Pasadena, is a leading business man here, having been in the real estate business for over 20 years. Shown in the group above are, standing: Mrs. Nice Mann, Mrs. Ira Taylor, Mrs. Stanley Dumas, Mrs. Newman Dumas, Mr. J. E. Kyle, Mrs. J. E. Kyle, Mrs. Edward McDemore, Mrs. Irene Salisbury Orince, Mrs. Andrew L. Wallace, Mrs. Mallie Bowers, Mrs. Wayne Carter, Mr. Wayne Carter, Mr. S. P. Johnson, Mrs. Mattie Turner, Mr. Gilbert Allen, Mr. Ivan Howard Browning, Mrs. S. P. Johnson, Mrs. Wilbur C. Gordon and Dr. Wilbur C. Gordon. Those seated are; Mrs. Virgi White, Mr. Emerson Sapp, Dr. Albert Wood Dumas, Mrs. Albert Wood Dumas, guests of honor, Mrs. William H. Gamble, Mr. William H. Gamble, hosts, Mrs. Marcella Dumas Huggins, guest of honor, and Mr. Frank Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Gamble Entertain For Dr. & Mrs. Dumas—Daughter

Just as the evening shade had hid itself behind the golden purple twilight on the fourth day of October, Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Gamble's home became the scene of the season's finest reception given by them in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Woods Dumas, Sr., of Natchez, Mississippi — past president of the National Medical Association and for 46 years its leading physician; and their accomplished daughter, Mrs. Marcella Dumas Huggins, wife of Dr. Hastings H. Huggins, prominent physician and surgeon of Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Beginning at 6:00 on through the evening until 9:00 o'clock more than 800 of Los Angeles, Pasadena, Venice and Santa Monica guests filled to capacity this beautiful home that was bedecked with roses and brilliant lights and echoed with outbursts of sweet strains of music by Mrs. Irene Saulbury Prince, and with smiles, laughter and hearty greetings they passed down the line beginning with Mr. and Mrs. Gamble, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Dumas, Mrs. Marcella Dumas Huggins, Mrs. Hilda Ross Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Sapp.

All the participants in this affair were at their best and the evening passed without a dull moment.

After the party, pictures were taken by the California Eagle photographer and all retired to their respective homes having spent an evening long to be remembered.

Mr. Gamble, one of our leading realtors, has been in business in Los Angeles for more than 20 years and is known throughout the city and state, with his charming wife is being besieged by the hundreds of friends attending this gala affair.

The Nation Mourns Willkie's Passing

Now I lay me down to rest,
I pray the Lord I met the test.
If I fumbled any ball
At least my passing left no pall
On those whose rights I tried to defend.

These are not Wendell Willkie's words or perhaps not his thoughts. They are the meanderings of one of the lesser editorial prophets.

The passing of Wendell Willkie was a blow to the American people. Willkie made a definite and lasting contribution not only to the people of his land and country, but to the people of the world. His life was an example of an honest man, a "forthright American."

At the close of Willkie's 1940 presidential campaign he joined forces with President Roosevelt and toured a dozen countries on a goodwill mission. A result of this mission was his book, "One World."

"While we fight, we must develop a mechanism of working together that will survive after the fighting is over," is one sentence from "One World." Another is this: "Men need more than arms with which to fight and win this kind of war. They need enthusiasm for the future and a conviction that the flags they fight under are in bright, clean colors. The truth is that we as a nation have not made up our minds what kind of world we want to speak for when victory comes."

Willkie's sympathies were with the lowly. As he traveled in the different countries of the world his whole thought was centered on the enslaved and what service he could render in behalf of their liberation.

In his last message to the nation, which appeared in Collier's, Sept. 29, 1944, Willkie wrote "Citizens of Negro Blood."

"The political and economic status of our citizens of Negro blood assumes an importance in the election of 1944 which has not been equaled since the period immediately following the Civil War. The Negro people and their spokesmen both in the North and in the South know this; thoughtful Americans of whatever racial background know it; our enemies and our allies know it. Only those leaders of our two political parties who wrote and influenced the party platforms apparently have failed to grasp the import of this fact.

The war has given new opportunities to the Negro and at the same time has emphasized the injustices in our attitude toward him. More than that, it has made us conscious of the contradictions between our treatment of our Negro minority and the ideals for which we are fighting. The equitable treatment of racial minorities in America is basic to our chance for a just and lasting peace. For it cannot be too much emphasized that in the world today whatever we do at home affects our foreign policy, and whatever we do abroad affects our domestic policy. The two are necessarily interrelated. On no single question is this truth so inescapable as in the repercussions all around the world that result from our treatment at home of our colored citizens."

We cannot fathom the depth of wisdom. But whether we understand or not, God in His Divine Providence often removes from us a leader in his prime—at the time when he is prepared to do his best work, as we think.

There is no remorse in the after life of Wendell Willkie. No black spots in his character. He died that other men may live more abundantly.

In Florida—When We Win We Lose

The three Negro boys in Florida who have been sentenced to death after a trial that was a mockery to the very name of justice, is a vivid and haunting example of how we may win this war against Fascism abroad—and yet establish the worst form of Fascism at home in our own country.

Those three boys—James Davis, 16, Freddie Lane, 19, and Jesse C. Williams, 26—were tried for rape in a trial that lasted only 80 minutes while a furious mob howled outside the courthouse. The day for their execution was set for September 18. A stay of execution was granted upon appeal of the Florida Committee for Preservation of Legal Rights.

This same committee then hunted high and low throughout Florida for a lawyer who was not afraid of the Ku Klux Klan to defend these boys. They could find none. One filed an appeal from the death sentence, but later he quit fearful of the threats upon his life made by the KKK. Then a young white girl, Miss Mary Kogge, went before the court and asked for justice.

"Frantic and continued efforts have been made up to this very moment to obtain counsel," she said. "Unsuccessfully."

The judge refused to listen. The appeal from the death sentence was denied. The boys are waiting now for another day to be set for their execution.

Such a story of gross injustice in the United States of America makes one literally sick — physically, mentally, morally. That there should be such a gross miscarriage of justice in a trial presided over by the dreaded Ku Klux Klan. Incognito, of course, in the person of the judge, but none the less most effectual.

The whole world is bleeding and pleading for legal procedure on a basis of equality before the law. Our boys are dying in Europe to save that country from the very evil which so evidently is threatening ours. It will do no good to win the war against Hitler in Germany. It will do no good to set France free, Belgium, Holland, or any of the other countries under the Hitler boot, if a greater evil falls upon our land here.

We must win this victory at home. It is as pressing as anything abroad. What can we here in Los Angeles do?

We can at least write or wire Governor Spessard Holland, Tallehassee, asking him to let justice rule in his state. Ask him in the name of humanity not to let such a fearful blot come upon this free country of the United States of America.

We Are Going to Roll Call the Judges

On Monday night this week the Emergency Committee of the N.A.A.C.P. announced its intention of waging a sentiment battle against certain judges who were elected by popular vote to preside over our courts.

Men who assume the sacred responsibility of presiding over the destinies of other men should be free from all racial, religious, or color prejudice.

Recently some of our judges, many of whom canvassed our vote during elections, have rendered some unholy decisions on Resident Covenant Restrictions.

We are going to roll call on these gentlemen.

We want you to remember their names, and their decisions. We promise you, the people, that we shall keep you posted as far as possible.

We are writing this editorial today as a warning to these judges. We shall give you their names, and the unfair decisions they have made later, unless they repent. We know their names. We have their record. Their guilty consciences must warn them of their misdemeanors. And unless they change their attitudes and render decisions on a basis of equality before the law, they shall have to suffer the consequences.

Keep Faith With Our Soldiers

Negro soldiers fighting for freedom and equality on the battle fields of France in the South Pacific are probably much disturbed during this period by the question, "Will my people at home back up my bullets with their ballots?"

There is at least one place where every man or woman is already fully equal to all others—in the voting booth. Poor and humble little Mary Smith's vote for democracy counts just as much as rich and powerful publisher Frank Gannett's vote against democracy. The important thing is for all the Mary and John Smiths to go to the polls and vote.

Governor Dewey has made it impossible for most of our soldiers to vote, but at home we will have the privilege. Let us go to our neighborhood polls by the hundreds of thousands November 7 and vote.

W. J. Wheaton -Says-

The national campaign is well under way, and the Hearst-Hoover-Taft-Rankin STATES RIGHTS combine are smearing, cajoling and threatening the electorate. Telling them of the dire consequence and calamities that will befall them if their boy Dewey does not tenant the White House after December, 1944. We believe, that as far as the owners of that property are concerned (Mr. and Mrs. John Public), a lease for four years more will be given the present occupant. The majority of them have not forgotten that peeping old lady, Miss Prosperity, who never came from around the corner, and the chicken which evaded the pot, and the automobile that did materialize after the FALSE PROPHET has been sent to the limbo of all falsifiers.

THE RECORD

So they do remember also that the present tenant of the White House lifted the folk from the Slough of Despond and has placed it on a sound footing. In spite of the burden imposed by a global war, and the anxiety for the peace of the world, he has not forgotten the homeland and has favored legislation that assured all of the workers, without regard to race, creed, religious belief or national origin, the right of FAIR EMPLOYMENT. We know of one minority group that has made wonderful strides toward the goal of an unbiased citizenship. Prejudices which have existed for three-fourths of a century have ceased to exist, except in sections where the GOP's are seeking aid. By the way, we also remember that when legislation to do away with some of those inhibitions imposed on minorities in that section that many of the GOP's, supporters of Tom Dewey's candidacy, voted with the Rankin States Righters to defeat such legislation.

WE REMEMBER

Oh, yes, we do remember that coalition, and that is one of the reason why we, and the rest of the public have no faith in the trumpeting of the old pachyderm. He carries too smelly a conglomeration in the Howdah.

PERRY HOWARD

And we learn that the national committeeman from Mississippi (The Hon. Perry Howard) has arrived in California in the interest of the Dewey campaign. Just imagine a Republican coming from Mississippi! Oh, yes, we do remember that U. S. Senator Guffey (D., Pa.) did say that Rankin controlled the Republicans in that state. My, oh my! Just to think that Rankin is sending an emissary to tell the folk in California how to cast their ballots. Well, if you have ever seen that Mississippian on the floor of the House and listened to his diatribes, you would not have to wonder about his nerve. A member of the Republican party in Mississippi is just as useful, except to fool the gullible Negro, as the Dodo, and that bird has been extinct for a long, long time.

MULZAC VISIT

The auditorium of the R. T. Washington Center was packed to overflowing Sunday, October 8, to greet Captain Mulzac, Ferdinand Smith and Thyra Edwards. It was a Roosevelt-Havenner meeting and a most enthusiastic one. Havenner made a splendid speech and we, who know him and have known him for a period of years, can attest to his honesty and sincerity of purpose. His integrity cannot be questioned and his human sympathies are only one of his outstanding attributes. Asesemblyman A. G. Hawkins, representative of the 62nd Legislative District, was a platform guest. We think quite a lot of Hawkins up this way and look forward with pleasure to meeting him.

It is really amusing to listen to the predictions of some radio commentators. They try hard to prove that they are unbiased in their political comments to the public, but like Fulton Lewis, for instance, they can't conceal it. Fulton comes to California as an unbiased news reporter. No doubt he hoped to find some gleam of hope for Dewey. Finding none he sought to manufacture some. He, by every means possible, sought to discount the overwhelming registration favoring the Democratic party, by proclaiming the vote which elected Gov. Warren. He will find small comfort in that vote. Warren ran as a non-partisan, and there was great defection in the Democratic Party, as Governor Olson had not yielded to the blandishments of the big interests, and, therefore, was not in political favor. It was the combined vote of the disgruntled Dems, and the GOPs, that gave to Warren the majority he had.

That vote can be discounted and if Fulton found small comfort for Dewey in other sections he will find less in this bay area. We would think more of Mr. Lewis if he would come right out and campaign for Dewey instead of cloaking his comments under the guise of, impartial, news. Warren is a astute politician and realizes the fact that it is best to try to sell his wares where they may be best appreciated. Mr. Lewis is also a big farmer "Pour passer le temps," he has quite an elaborate establishment in Maryland, and by the way, have you ever heard him (Lewis) speak out for Labor? When those families who are maltreated on the eastern shore of Maryland sought redress did you hear him comment on the incident?

May be that you did. I listen to him religiously hoping that, at some time, he will say something to benefit the common folk. All that can be said, is, that if Mr. and Mrs. John Public are wise, and we certainly believe they are, they will keep the present tenant in the White House for another term and be assured of the rent.

WENDELL WILLKIE

In the loss of Wendell Wilkie, not this Nation alone, but the World, has lost a man whose human sympathies knew no boundaries and who was courageous enough to tell the WORLD when humanity was wronged. He sought, and lost, the highest office in the nation. But in losing he made a greater gain. He became not alone a national figure, but a man, whose influence reached the utmost parts of this earth. Many great names now known will be forgotten. WILKIE will be remembered always . . .

THE PULPIT VOICE

Conducted by
REV. HAMILTON T. BOSWELL
Minister, Bowen Memorial Methodist Church

SISTER AIMEE

(The following paragraphs are condensed from an editorial in the Oct. 17th edition of the Christian Century Magazine.)

Sister Aimee has closed her evangelistic career with characteristic suddenness and under circumstances which suggested to the public authorities the propriety of investigating the cause of her death. This is scarcely the time for a critical examination of her personality and career, but it is impossible to avoid some reflections upon them and upon the type of religion of which she was a conspicuous exponent. That Aimee Semple McPherson won enough followers in Los Angeles to build Angelus Temple and to keep its five thousand seats pretty well filled at several services a week for nearly twenty years, and enough throughout the country to make a considerable sprinkling of churches of the "Four Square Gospels," does not prove that what she taught was true, or, in the long run, helpful to the moral and spiritual life. It does prove that a great many people wanted what she had and responded to her appeal.

Spectacular Evangelist.

Aimee was, above everything else, an evangelist, and evangelism is not a dead issue in our time. Recently, the signs of coming evangelistic efforts by the so-called established churches is indicative of the great evangelistic need. In this Sister Aimee was far ahead, as her one note was the urgent, fervid and dynamic cry for repentance. There is need for evangelism, the persuasive presentation of Christianity to the non-religious. One may disapprove the methods of Aimee, but what she did and claims to do is something which points to what must be done, if religion will play a vital part in the lives of people. Sister Aimee was an evangelist. Lover of the limelight as she was, and adept in dramatizing herself before an audience, she also knew how to utilize effectively the testimony of others. She brought forward her converts to witness. A stream of the "saved" passed across her platform, enjoyed their moment of publicity, and spoke their word of testimony. She introduced variety and an element of surprise into the public services of religion to catch the interest of those who desire novelty, and she utilized spectacle and display and stirring music. The popular appeal of these things is unquestionable. Sister Aimee generally "put on a good show." Well, most churches try to do that, in more dignified ways, and some of the most dignified go to the greatest lengths in clothing the service in spectacular trappings which will appeal to every sense. Mrs. McPherson made her programs cheerful rather than solemn. Her scheme of things was an adaptation of Salvation Army techniques to the tastes of those who were, culturally and economically, of the middle class.

The Other Side

On the other side of the ledger were her fallacious and dogmatic simplification of Christian teachings, her glorification of ignorance, her mouthing of pious slogans and catch phrases, her fraudulent faith cures, her reliance upon the spectacular and sentimental. An audit of Sister Aimee's account would have to go much further into both the credits and debits. These qualities are mentioned because they are those which she shared, in large measure, with many irregular cults, marginal movements and free-lance enterprises which operate in the name of religion.

Why Cults Flourish

Cults of every grade and shade flourish because the "regular" churches do not meet the needs of men—taking them not as they ought to be but as they are—and because there are vast numbers of people with untrained minds and undisciplined emotions who do not know what they need. It is not the duty of the churches to feed the public with highly seasoned trash because the perverted appetite of some does not relish wholesome spiritual food. There is work to be done in education, in the development of a popular culture which is neither cynical and skeptical regarding the things of the spirit nor childishly credulous toward the nostrums for the soul and panaceas for society. The churches alone cannot do this. But the churches have a responsibility for meeting the real human needs which are mingled with these confused and perverted appetites to which "cults" appeal. "The hugry sheep look up to be fed." It was of an established national church that Milton wrote these bitter words. If the churches want to stop the inroads of the eccentric and irregular sects, they had better consider carefully what are the needs, the appetites and the digestive powers of the people and see to it that the sheep are fed.

ping in business places asking for milk for their little ones. Negro women, whose lot was domestic work, received a wage of $5 a week, and in some cases paid carfare to Beverly Hills and Hollywood out of this.

Today these same women who formerly earned $5 per week are averaging from $8 to $10 and in some skilled occupations, $20 a DAY.

Soldiers of World War I sold apples on streets to eke out a living.

These conditions started under a Republican president, who used as his campaign theme song, "Vote for me and there will be a chicken in every pot."

In presenting this case, I am not interested in political parties. I know that during this political campaign there will be plenty of chicken. But what concerns me is the after. I have studied carefully the arguments advanced by those who seek to overthrow the Roosevelt administration. I have tried to learn a little about the men backing Thomas E. Dewey, the cunning little wedding cake mannikin who wants to be used as President. I find in his corner such men as one Edward A. Rumely, who has been indicted for refusing to divulge the names of contributors to the Fascist-like Committee for Constitutional Government headed by Frank Gannett, millionnaire publisher and Republican National Committeeman, Hearst, McCormick, Hoover, Pegler, and Gerald L. K. Smith.

In the Roosevelt camp I find such men as Vice President Wallace, Harold Ickes, Claud Pepper, Adam Clayton Powell, Dr. Channing Tobias, Benjamin Davis, Rev. J. Raymond Henderson, Rev. S. A. Williams, Rev. J. Lyle Caston, and Rev. Clayton Russell.

The heavy barrages waged in the Dewey campaign are particularly against the C.I.O. Political Action Committee and the Communist Party. The C.I.O. and the A. F. of L. labor organizations, except one John L. Lewis, are almost solidly behind Roosevelt.

Any Negro or other minority laboring man who is against labor is his own worse enemy. Today labor is making the pattern for our new democracy and is saying to the Negro people, "You are included."

The fellow who tears his hair and froths at the mouth at the mere mention of Communism has, I imagine, never taken the time to look up the definition of the word. (I will discuss this later.)

The Dewey supporters, including some of my people, accuse President Roosevelt of accepting the support of labor and the Communists, but it is the support of the people that he is accepting; they know his voice, because he heard them when they were hungry. It's the people whom he tried to deliver from their Poll-Tax prsecutors. It's the people to whom he gave shelter in housing projects. It's the people who get employment, once denied them in big industries, who will retain their President in office.

Bishop Phillips organized the work of the CME Church in California, Arizona and New Mexico during a period which began in 1907. The meeting place of the convention, Phillips Chapel, is named in his honor.

Born in Milledgeville, Ga., Bishop Phillips' first church was at Pilot Knob, Tenn. He attended Walden University in Nashville, Tennesse where he received his B.A., B.D., M.A. and D.D. degrees. He won his doctor of medicine degree at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, a law degree from Wilberforce University. The degree, D.C.L., he won at Lane College in Jackson, Tenn.

Rev. Lockridge Leads Revival At Shiloh Baptist

Last Sunday, October 8, the Rev. L. R. Lockridge, a great pastor and evangelist of Dallas, Texas, began an old-time revival at Shiloh Baptist Church, 52nd and Compton avenue. Under the spell of his dynamic morning sermon alone six happy converts joined the church for baptism and two by restoration. Thus by his works, you shall know him.

REV. L. R. LOCKRIDGE

The gospel tide is rolling high and the revival will continue for two weeks. Come out and bring your sinner friends in particular, for the scales may fall from their eyes.—Rev. R. M. Marshall, pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church, 1511 East 52nd Street.

There must not be a balance of power, but a community of power; not organized rivalries, but an organized common peace.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Doctrine of Atonement" will be the subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text is from I Thessalonians: "God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him."

Jesus asserts in John's Gospel, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. . . . And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life." In the Lord's Prayer, as given in Matthew, Jesus says, "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done."

Why is that many religious peoples and groups are objecting to the proposed World Calendar?

The proposed World Calendar which its advocates want to start on January 1, 1945, is opposed by various religious groups because it will abolish the weekly cycle. Such a change would make the days of worship and the various holy days of the church wanderers without a definite place in the weekly cycle.

One writer has expressed it thus: "The real objection of the World Calendar is the fact that it aims to remove a day from the weekly cycle. A day may be called June W without outraging religious conviction, but when a calendar calls that same day an extra Saturday instead of Sunday, which it really is, the religious sensibilities of millions of people are shocked.

"The days of the new calendar are parading under false colors, bearing untrue names, for they are not the days of the week they claim to be. They have borrowed the names of the true week which do not belong to them, and are masquerading under these false titles. The week is a free-running cycle of seven days not tied to any other calendrical period. Indeed, there is no way to tie it to any such period. It is not an aliquot part of the yearly cycle.

"This is not the first time that an attempt has been made to solve some of our calendar difficulties by the use of the 'blank day' principle. Some years ago, under the direction of George Eastman of kodak fame, a well-organized plan for calendar reform was carried to the League of Nations. While that calendar had 13 months instead of 12, it was similar to present World Calendar in respect to the 'zero days' which broke the weekly cycle. At that time leaders of all religions protested against this attempt to interfere with the week"

Competent scientists have based their objections to the World Calendar on scientific reasoning. They oppose the injection of a "blank day" which would break the continuity of the week which is "the universal unit in the measurement of time."

Then just from the standpoint of simple honesty, the proposed World Calendar is not honest. "It asks that we lie to ourselves, that we practice deception on ourselves, that we declare to be true what is not true. It would have us declare that there are 364 days in each year. That is not true. There are 365 days in a year, in some years 366. When december 31 arrives the World Calendar would have us say, this is no day; we shall not count it. But it is a day, and saying it is no day does not change the fact. The World Calendar would have us say of the last day of 1944, which is Sunday, this is not Sunday, the first day of the week. It is no day at all. It would have us call the next day Sunday, when it is not Sunday at all, but Monday. It would have that Monday called Sunday and honored as a religious day. That is just plain deception and downright dishonesty."

Rev. P. M. Marshall, B.S.L., To Head Zion Community Church

The Rev. Paul M. Marshall, former minister of the First A. M. E. Zion Church at Pico and Paloma, who for twenty months was most successful in the following achievements: Back taxes paid, mortgage paid, all general church assessments paid in full each year, complete waterproofed exterior of church; replaced damaged stained glass windows over entire church, also plastering damaged areas. Rebuilt interior of tower, communion symbols, cross and candle holders; drinking fountain installed; repaired and replaced gutters on church; paid balance due on 100 chairs, established graded church school, cement slab put in on west wall to prevent flooding of basement; linoleum on rooms of ground floor, also furnishing youths lounge. Purchased two flags (Christian and American). Complete painting of exterior of parsonage, replaced broken windows and screening all windows and doors. New concrete part, porch and steps, fence around church and parsonage, complete dining room service at church. Teachers and desk in church school, received 220 members into church. Painting of chancel pulpit and chair stand. All furniture and equipment purchased under his administration paid for and paid balance due on electric ice box and gas range; installed hot water heater in parsonage, one gas heater and two carpets. Office equipment; new desk, bought and paid for; file cabinet, typewriter and adding machine; paid balance due; one hospital bed fully equipped.

Rev. P. M. Marshall

All things paid in full, including all salaries and current expenses up to date at Conference, except flags, symbols; repairing, painting of church and parsonage and fence, and other repairs which were started about six weeks before Conference, amounting to about $2,700.00 due. Approximately $19,000 was raised for all purposes during his administration.

After making a round report at Conference, Rev. Marshall was given the choice of a transfer or appointment to the church at Pasadena. He accepted the transfer. There was no conference stated in the face of the transfer. Therefore, he was without an appointment.

A group of people desiring his continued Christian leadership asked him to remain here in Los Angeles as their minister. Therefore, the Zion Community church was organized and held its first meeting last Sunday in the Masonic Temple at 1209½ South Central Avenue. This is the temporary location of the Zion Community Church until they can buy or build a new church.

It is the desire of the minister and the members to put into action a progressive Christian educational program that will meet the needs of the entire community.

The Rev. Mr. Marshall will speak from the subject Sunday morning at 11:00 a.m., "The Desire for Security." Evening worship at 8:00 p.m., his subject will be "A Durable Peace." All are welcomed.

Mr. H. L. Elmore, Prelate of the American Woodmen Camp No. 2, was elected Chairman of the Trustee Board, Mr. Robert Banks, Chairman of Steward Board.

Rev. Griffin and Rev. Dillard Fight Sin In Bronzeville

The Rev. and Mrs. H. Dillard, and Trustee George Cooks were guests with the Rev. and Mrs. H. K. Griffin of the Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Carter and the congregation of the Calvary Baptist church at Santa Monica last Sunday.

Rev. Griffin who is a nationally known evangelist, affectionately called "Sin Killing" Griffin, delivered an outstanding sermon on the subject "I Am Not Ashamed Of The Gospel" at the morning service at Calvary.

Following the dinner, they departed for the Lily Of The Valley M. B. Church in Bronzeville, of which the Rev. Mr. Dillard is pastor, nd where Rev. Griffin opened an eight night revival. Six Christian warriors were added to the church roll on Sunday.

With the revival closing on Sunday, the congregation of 'Lily Of The Valley M. B. Church the pastor and the people of Bronzeville thank God for Rev. Griffin who has been inspired to honor them with his service.

Rev. Dillard, who has been called the first pastor of Bronzeville, and the founder of the first church there, issued the following statement:

"As the first and youngest pastor, in Bronzeville district, I take this opportunity to point out that in spite of the fact that most of us are forced to live in hotels, store fronts, if you may call them that, we the people of Bronzeville are taking what we have and making the best of it, as God admonished Moses to do."

"Those of us who pioneered in this district, came into dusty, cobwebbed dwellings. We put on our work clothes and made livable quarters for ourselves. Some of the pioneers are men like Eddie Duval, Jay Bullocks, Major Bowles, John Hawkins, Joe Gertz, Dr. C. W. Hill, John Spencer, and a host of other men and women owning and operating businesses here.

"We appreciate the cooperation we have received from the Police Department, the Health Department, Fire Department, Board of Equalization, and the District Attorney's office. Their efforts have made Bronzeville a healthy, clean, decent and respectable community in which to live. God Bless us, God help us all."

Rev. Dillard

The Lily Of The Valley M. B. Church is at 121 Weller Street.

TWENTIETH CENTURY COMMENTS

By CALVIN JACKSON

"MUSICIAN'S UNION HEADACHES"

Most musicians on the coast would like to see the separate musicians unions united in every way. Ever since the inception of the union on the coast, the very word unity has been a farce. This is true of many cities in our country. A few of those are, Chicago, Philadelphia, Newark.

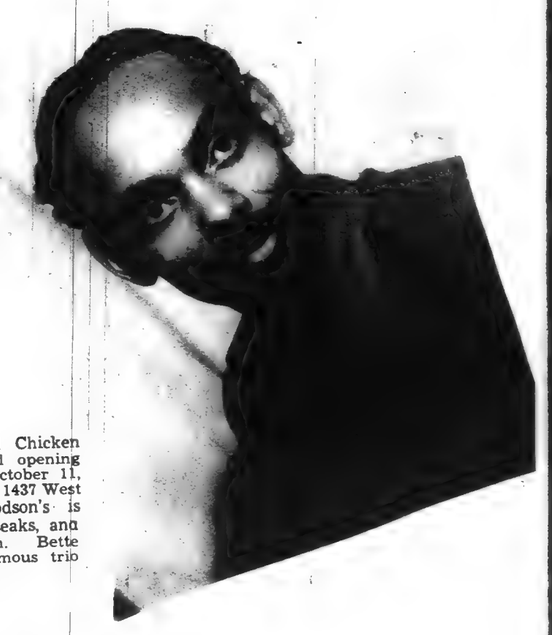
We have only one local that I know of that does not discriminate in this manner. That is Local 802 in New York City. There is no apparent reason for this local being merged thusly. When it was formed many years ago there was no thought given to the contention that Negroes and whites could not work together without an overabundance of friction. Sad but true.

You will not find one negro who has been accepted for a permanent chair in our radio studios, motion picture studios or symphony orchestras. We are then reminded that the negro does not study many symphonic instruments. That is true in a small measure. But we know of many boys and girls who would study these instruments with a zealous attitude if they had an inkling that they would be accepted by the afore-mentioned organizations.

I would like to name a few of the instruments in question. They are violin, cello, viola dagamba oboe, flute. English horn, bassoon, contra bassoon, bass clarinet. French Horn, bass trombone, novachord, harp, tympani. A negro aspirant to any one of the aforementioned instruments has at present no guarantee of being admitted into a symphony, motion picture or radio orchestra. We are continually faced by the bogus assumption that negroes can only and what is worse, SHOULD only play jazz instruments. These are piano, guitar, bass violin, drums (traps), clarinet, alto tenor and baritone saxes, trumpets and trombones. Yet, there is room for trumpets and trommones in our symphonies, also bass violin, piano for concertos and clarinet.

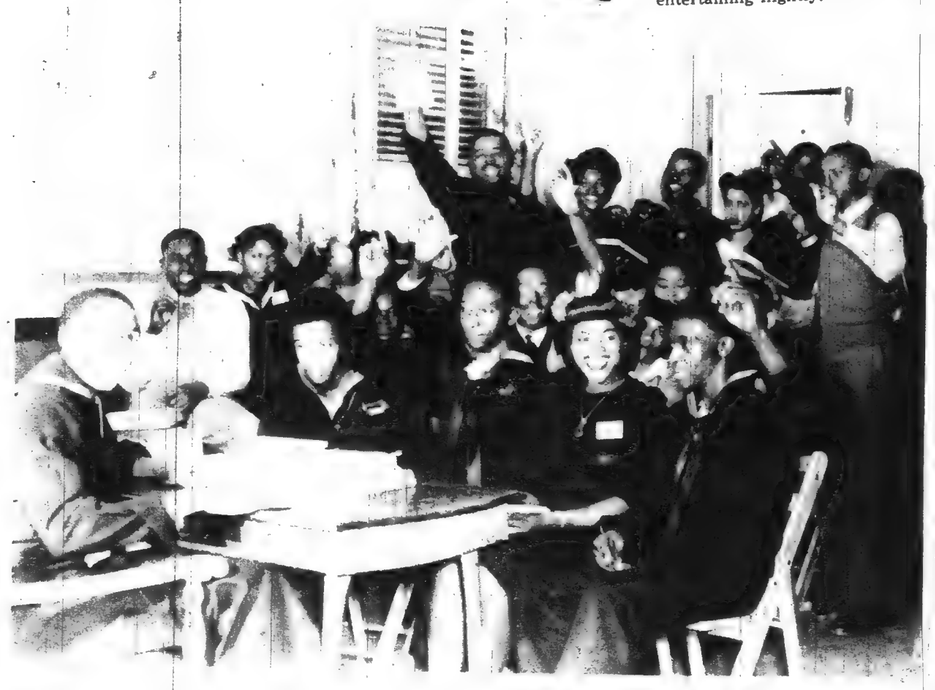
There is also room for a conductor of true merit like Dean Dixon of New York who is quite able to give excellent interpretation to what is termed as "classical" music. In my opinion "classical" music is any form of music that lives. There is a good deal of folk music that has lived for as many centuries as our serious music. Hold on, now. I'm running into a topic that I shall use subsequently.

If I have made the impression that the New York local is all peaches and cream then. I have erred. There are many things in which the N. Y. local is lacking.



But they can not carry the load by themselves. The only way to get action from the parties concerned is by public interest. I'm quite sure that Edward Bailey, the president of our negro Local 767 of Los Angeles has all the capabilities of being president of a combination of Local 767 and of the white Local 47.

It jars every free thinking man when he opens a telephone directory and sees listed Local 47, WHITE, and Local 767, COLORED, in that order. It's not only insulting; it's morale-breaking. This situation compelled a man to renounce his birthright.



It is deplorable, to say the least. There are negro executives in the New York local and they have assumed jurisdiction over the whites as they have over the negroes. This is democracy in action, after a fashion. I say "after a fashion" for this reason. The New York local could put enough pressure on New York radio stations, for instance, for the hiring of competent negro musicians in their studio orchestras. Coupled with public interest, the result would be pessimistic about such a venture when we haven't tried it? Even so, the situation in Los Angeles is about the same as in New York as to job preference. Still, New York leads by the fact that the one main obstacle has been hurdled, that is, unity in officiation.

Let us pray.

KINLOCH'S CORNER

By John S. Kinloch

(By U. S. Army Correspondent)
John Linloch

WITH AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE—On August 28, two days after the liberation of Paris, I lucked up on a truck convoy heading there to collect Nazi prisoners.

I saw part of what must have been the biggest mass explosion of joy in the history of everything, and I turned in a yarn about it which seemed to me un-Godly dull. There was one sentence in it, though: "These are the first hours of a new, free Paris. This moment is the bat of an eye between eras . . . Well, three weeks later I am in Paris again. The bat of an eye is over. The new era has come and it is magnificent!

We have always heard of Paris as the City of Love. Well damned if the biggest love scene since Adam and Eve isn't coming off here now. It involves literally millions of people. The American Army and the citizens of Paris are in the first flush, lovely stages of a romance that beats anything the boys out at Culver City, Burbank and Hollywood ever conceived even in their wildest dreams. Paris loves the soldiers, and the feeling is overwhelming mutual.

I have strictly a GI view of this war. I can remember the eight-mile hike with full field pack and carbine rifle on the first day of our landing on Franch soil,—an excursion that must certainly have been the worst event of its kind that ever happened. And the days when our Army held only a pitiful stretch of Normandy coast, and some guy tootling about on a nearby field untested for mines was always arranging a sudden windfall of Government dough for his family.

When the lovely landscape of Northern France bristled with snipers, spat bullets, and you couldn't sleep at night for some blasted Jerry kiting around in the sky, dropping neither bombs nor monkey wrenches, but keeping our ack-ack fire blazing away for hours, ending all possibility of sleep.

We were too much in love with the French then. We were freeing their country, and they were tilling the good earth as usual. We couldn't understand the somber undemonstrative people of the first province to feel the pierce of our liberation thrust.

But the Army rolled beyond those fat, comfortable farm lands of Normandy and bit into the heart of France. Our troops rolled into bursting with welcome.

Then one day, far ahead of schedule, the news that electrified the whole world grapevined through our Army. The French in Paris were fighting! The Maquis, the double-died anti-fascist French Forces of the Interior were running the herrenvolk down the Champs Elyses, dumping them into the Seine, smashing them out of the city for which every civilized person on eorth carries a torch somewhere in the corner of his heart.

Finally, "a bat of an eye between eras"—the volcanic, stupendous greeting of the American Army by the people of Paris. The solid ovation of "Merci! Merci! Merci!" that beat on the ear-drums of our soldiers for a full week after the liberation.

And now, the last hours of the first month of liberation are running low.

How has Paris changed? What is it that freedom has brought here?

There's no way to put the thing in words. I'll try, anyhow;

Paris is delirious. It is hungry, and it is gay. It is spent, and it is beautiful beyond words.

Staid, stolid officers visit for one day, return to their units in other sectors, and dance a jib. Honest to Pete! I've seen it happen.

There is a spirit, a glow, a fizzle-water delight about this place that beats your emotions into an omelet.

Today some of the first meetings of DeGaulle's Provisional Government are underway. Today there was a big gun duel between the F.F.I. and remaining collaborationists down the Champs Elyses. Today there are hundreds of Parisian painters, easel-in-hand, sketching Americans all over the city—for free. There are at least a thousand parties every night. Literally hundreds of troops are A.W.O.L. in the streets here for GI's just can't resist the temptation of coming to see Paris.

Negro truck drivers, Signal Construction men, engineers and artillerymen are discovering that the pounding preachment of Nazi racism for four years hasn't fazed the French in aris one whit.

We are wined, if not dined. We are waved at and kissed on both cheeks till you'd think each of us had freed the city by himself; when, actually, the French did it themselves.

The place is gorgeous. It is incredible.

Whoever believes this is not a war of national liberation,—let them say that in Paris tonight!

I don't think they'd live through the sentence.

Militant Pastor To Lead Fight Against Property Restrictions

Last week fifty determined citizens living on Arlington and Second Avenues met at 3601 S. Arlington Avenue to set in motion united action to defend themselves and their property from suits filed to oust them from its use and occupancy. The immediate occasion was the serving of summonses upon twelve families, who have recently purchased property in this desirable neighborhood.

This was the second attempt on the part of white citizens to prevent Negroes from occupying property in this tract, the first being a suit filed against Mr. and Mr. O. W. Barbee, who owns property at 3607 S. Arlington.

Present at the meeting last Thursday night were Attorneys Loren Miller and Monroe Townsend, as representatives of the legal committee of the Los Angeles NAACP.

A permanent organization was set up to be known as the Arlington Protective Association, with the west side's fighting pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church, the Rev. Lyle Gaston, as president. Mrs. Mabel Reid was named secretary and Mr. John L. Thompson, district supreintendent of the Golden State Mutual Insurance Company as treasurer. Sufficient funds were provided to retain counsel and carry the ceses to trial.

Attorney Loren Miller was retained by the Association which will undertake to fight all the cases which have already arisen or may arise in this area. Demurrers were filed by Attorney Miller Monday in behalf of the members of the Association who have been sued.

The APA took over the Barbee case which comes up for hearing this Friday morning in Department 1 of the Superior Court, Room 806, at 9:15 a. m. All local citizens who are able to attend are urged to be present as a visible evidence of the determination of Negroes to fight this form of discrimination to the finish.

The Trinity Baptist Church, 3500 S. Normandie Ave., was chosen as the permanent meeting place of the APA and the next meeting will be held this Friday at 8 p. m. George Cannady, V. A. Bradfield and Walter Jardine, real estate brokers, who have sold property in this neighborhood, were present and each contributed $50 to help in this fight. It was suggested that other realtors should do likewise and such contributions will be welcomed at the meeting this week at the Trinity Church.

A solemn and religious regard to spiritual and eternal things is an indispensable element of all true greatness.—Daniel Webster.

Professor Supports Roosevelt

Professor George S. Washington, who was appointed by the Democratic National Campaign Committee as an organizer, bears a national reputation. Since 1908 he has been an ardent supporter of the Democratic ticket, dating back to the time when Bi-metalism was the slogan of the campaign. He has spoken in Bloomington, Mattoon, Joliet, Aurora, Elgin, Danville and other cities in Illinois.

Prof. Geo. Washington

In 1936 he predicted the election of President Roosevelt by reason of the fact that Roosevelt championed the cause of the common people.

Now that Roosevelt's administration has brought our country out of chaotic darkness into the sunshine of prosperity and happiness, and has given more consideration to those who toil up through poverty than any other of our presidents, Prof. Washington advises that is is the duty of every Negro man and woman to give President Roosevelt, Senator Sheridan Downey, Helen Gahagan, and all the other democratic candidates their full measure of support in this election which is their only salvation from the clutches of Hooverism.

Professor Washington has letters of commendation from President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the late Senator, Joe T. Robinson, Senator Hattie Caraway, Senator John L. McClellan and others. He speaks highly of the interest manifested by the Negro people of Los Angeles in registration, and in his report, he lauds Mrs. Fay Allen of the 62nd Assembly district for the fine work she has accomplished. He says that nine out of ten persons he has met favor the election of President Roosevelt, Senator Downey and a full slate of progressive candidates.

36th St. PTA

The Thirty-sixth St. school P.T.A. membership drive is still on, and will continue through the month of October. All parents and friends are urged to join. Mrs. Milton Anderson, membership chairman and her assistants are working hard to go over the top.

At the last meeting of the executive board Mrs. Gladys Rhemm, purchasing chairman, reported that linen and cup and saucer service for sixty had been purchased for the use of the P.T.A. Serving with Mrs. Rhemm on the committee were Mmes. Otis Rene, Lucille Bufford, and Myrtle Williams.

Downey in 5½ years was absent 43% of Senate Roll Calls. During war years 1942-43 he was absent more than half of the time—52% to be exact.

★★ CANDID COMMENTS ★★

THE CUSTOMER'S ALWAYS WRITE

"Dear Sir," states an epistle from a LeRoy whose last name is Gibson, "Your name has made the rounds in a peculiar sort of fashion. That is to say, you have been mentioned in the same breath with a certain Republican who is seeking a very high office. I am not plugging for night clubs so I am omitting the name of the place. In this nitery I overheard a reference which could have been to myself since my name sounds as yours but spells different; hence, my reason for paragraphing you this note. I was 100 per-, ears—until one of the trio finally filled in the (JT) after which I eased up a bit, but still listened.

"One of the above mentioned was tossing adjectives your way and generally raking you and this Republican over the not so cool coals. Out of the three fellows two were in your corner. (Good average even in Chinese.) I cannot say as much for the other fellow. It seems that your 'candid comments' was what it was all about. To one out of that trio; you are very conceited, egotistical with some kind of a complex that I couldn't find in Webster's. In short, he knew of the very nice things that JT thinks about JT. I think the guy was trying to produce grins at your expense. It wasn't very long before his companions made him throw in the towel. They gave you splendid support. Sometimes these kind of conversations are more amusing than the floor show itself. I will have to admit that I don't understand the connection between you and the other fellow he mentioned. Here is one of the questions your supporters popped at the heckler (in defense of your stand for FDR?): 'Were either you a coach and the ball was on your own three-yard line in a crucial moment of the game, would you delegate the ball to an untried Sophomore or would you let the tried and true All American handle the ball?' With a satisfied smile this gent called the waitress. I like your comments, keep pitching. . . ." . . . "Dear Mr. Gipson," writes a reader all the way from Dayton, Ohio, "I have read your column for quite some time, and find it very vivid and entertaining. May I, as an ardent admirer (and religious reader of your scribblings) offer a suggestion that may do lots toward keeping you on the top (where you belong) as America's greatest Negro columnist? You devote too much space to so-called sportsmen, etc. No one is interested in the doings and goings-ons of gamblers, thugs and sportsmen. Keep those people out of your column, and give us more news of the social set. Are you, by any chance, a former sportsman? Please enlighten me on this point? (signed) O. W. Harrington." . . . Mr. Harrington asks for enlightenment, and his letter shows he certainly needs it. . . . When Jesus, Mr. Harrington, was teaching at Behar, on the river of the Brahms, a wealthy man named Ach gave a feast in his honor. He invited everyone to come. And among those present were thieves, extortioners, and courtesans. His many followers reprimanded him, saying, 'Master of the wise, this day will be an evil day for you. The news will spread that you consort with thieves and courtesans, and men will shun you as they shun an asp.' Jesus answer is recorded in the biblical history books. 'A master,' he said, 'never screens himself for sake of reputation or fame. God will judge men by what they are and not what they seem to be; not by their reputation and their fame. These courtesans and thieves are children of my Father-God; their souls are just as precious in his sight as yours. And they are working out the same life sums that you, who pride yourselves on your respectability and moral worth, are working out. And some of them have solved much harder sums than you have solved, you men who look at them with scorn. Yes, they are sinners, and profess to be nothing else. They confess their guilt, while you are guilty, but are shrewd enough to have a polished coat to cover up your guilt.'" Some people covet other people's wealth; you look at charming forms and deep within your hearts you lust for them. You practice deceit every day, and wish for gold, for honor and for fame, just for your selfish selves. The man who covets is a thief, and she who lusts is a courtesan. If you are none of these, you have a perfect right to send me a scolding letter. The pure in heart do not accuse. The vile in heart who want to cover up their guilt with holy smoke and piety are forever accusing. This loathing and this scorn is mockery, for if the tinseled coat of reputation could be torn away, the loud professor would be found to revel in his lust, deceit, and many other forms of secret sin. People who live in tin houses shouldn't throw can openers. If God saves only those who are perfect, who will be saved? That, Mr. Harrington, is a sixty-four dollar question! . . .

JUST DATA . . . BUT WHAT'S THE MATTA WITH DATA?

Wendell Willkie is dead. His last article (in Collier's of a couple wks. ago) was a plea for justice and equality for the Negro. . . Rae Pearl and Yo-Yo, the grand ballroom team opening at the Club Alabam tomorrow night, have a trick of putting any audience in the palm of their hands. Their act is one of the best seen around these parts in ages! . . . I enjoy lovely Alyce Key's col'm whenever it appears in print. She makes more sense in one paragraph than most editorialists do in one page! . . . PARAGRAPHICAL PAT ON THE BACK: Not enough praise is being given Leonard McClain, popular young bail bondsman-about-town, whose overnight rise to the top as one of the Angel City's most progressive young business men is hip hip hoo ray'd by his many friends. A gentleman in ev'ry sense of the word, McClain is one of the grandest guys we have ever met in this (or any other) town. A local boy, he came up the hard way. He experienced the usual hard knocks and fought them with a smile. He has a kind word for everybody, and everybody has a kind word for him. A big, handsome hunk of man, he stands six feet tall, weighs 220 pounds. And every pound of him is a gentleman! Walk into his office, at 4108 S. Central Ave., and you'll be greeted with a warm handclasp. His "hello there" is one of the Angel City's most cordial greetings. And he is one of the Angel City's most popular sons. That, ladies and gentlemen, is a thumbnail sketch of Leonard McClain, bail-bondsman. . . . After listening to the Ansel Hill band, Count Basie exclaimed: "It's the greatest white band since Bennie Goodman!" The Count is in possession of something there. They open at the Alabam the 20th. . . .

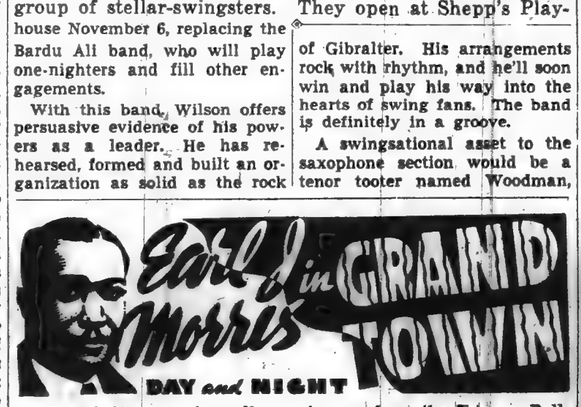
A FAMOUS FOURSOME—On hand to greet Earl "Fathaw" Hines on the band's opening night at Joe Morris' beautiful club Plantation was the popular motion picture actor, John Garfield. In the usual order its Earl, the "Fathaw" himself; Garfield, Julius "Stuff" Crouch, Plantation host, and the dapper Plantation club owner, Joe Morris. Also coming out from Hollywood to be on hand opening night were the stars from the picture, "Destination, Tokio"; plus the lovely starlet, Veronica Lake.

Former Lunceford Trumpeter In Rehearsal With New Swing Band

Considered by many musicians and critics to be among the top ten trumpeters of the nation, the handsome trumpet-tooting Gerald Wilson, former star of the Jimmie Lunceford band, is rehearsing his own newly-organized group of stellar-swingsters. They open at Shepp's Playhouse November 6, replacing the Bardu Ali band, who will play one-nighters and fill other engagements.



With this band, Wilson offers persuasive evidence of his powers as a leader. He has rehearsed, formed and built an organization as solid as the rock of Gibralter. His arrangements rock with rhythm, and he'll soon win and play his way into the hearts of swing fans. The band is definitely in a groove.

A swingsational asset to the saxophone section would be a tenor tooter named Woodman, currently with the Lee Young ork. With his terrific soloes pacing the reed section, the band would stay in a groove that would be hard to equal.

Maybe Gerald should sign him up. He'd be an asset to the band.

"Abroad With Two Yanks" Now Playing

"Abroad With Two Yanks," now playing at the United Artists Theater, 933 South Broadway, downtown Los Angeles, is a service comedy. The picture stars William Bendix and Dennis O'Keef as Marines.

Lional Hampton is really coming on from the Trianon Ballroom. Earl "Fatha" Hines laid them in the aisle when he did his turn at the Orpheum. Ford, Harris and Jones, that fast-stepping comedy dancing trio, solidly did some fancy stepping at the Sheriff's Annual Relief Show.

LITTLE THEATRE GUILD PROGRAM

The Little Theatre Guild is presenting Leroy Antoine, singer, with the charming Olivette Miller assisting, at the Wilshire-Ebell theatre the last Sunday in the month.

We are informed by Otto J. Johnson, Jr., vice-president of the Little Theatre Guild, "It shall be the endeavor of the Little Theatre group to present the cultural side of the Negro through the arts."

Noble Sissle is the president, Laura Bowman, veteran dramatic actress, is executive director, while Orson Welles, the film dynamo, is chairman of the advisory board.

Johnson says they are readying a group of talent to be presented under the banners of "Bronze Showcase."

F. L. MILLER'S DAUGHTER CARRIES ON TRADITION

Ollivet Miller is the daughter of that famous showman, Flournoy E. Miller. Remember Miller and Lyles, comedy team who with Noble Sisle and Eubie Black put on a show back in the '20s which made five million dollars? "Shuffle Along" was the name.

Olivett Miller is married to Freddy Gordon, that clever little dancing fellow, who has put up his dancing shoes and is busy learning the barber trade.

Jay Moss, would-be "Boss Moss" if Los Angeles had machine politics. He is a dynamic behind-the-scenes man.

We saw the dashing Lillian "Billie" Yarbo, who quietly is making pictures—playing small roles without fanfare, but building up her economy for reconversion.

FRED FAVA, FAIR-MINDED OFFICER, EARNS PROMOTION

Fred Fava, one of my brother officers in the Sheriff's Department, certainly gets the column's sincere congratulations upon his recent appointment as Chief Bailiff of the Juvenile Division of the Superior Court. He is without doubt one of the most democratic men on the force. We met his charming wife, and she, too, is most democratic.

Benefit Show for Under-Privileged Kids of This Area

There'll be a hot time in the ol' town on the night of October 18. That's the night the Downbeat Room, one of the town's coziest cocktail lounges, will present a Thanksgiving dinner to the boys and girls of the Newton Division Deputy Auxiliary Police and the under-privileged children of this area. This is an inaugural event of an annual affair to provide holiday cheer for these youngsters. The monies over and above the amount necessary to feed approximately 400 children, will be used to assist the members of the Deputy Auxiliary Police to purchase baseball football and other athletic equipment for this organization.

FOR WORTHY CAUSE

In doing their part to promote good citizenship among our youth, Harold Stanley and Elihu McGee, popular proprietors of the Downbeat Room, will donate their club for the evening along with the ever-popular swing favorites, Lee Young and his band. Stars of stage, screen and radio have been contacted and promised to be among those present to donate their talents for this worthy cause. To those few of you who are not familiar with the work of the Deputy Auxiliary Police, it is an organization composed entirely of youth made up from youngsters of this community. As explained by Lt. R. C. Washington and Officer W. Goodlow, "Wherever a boy is occupied, there is no delinquent problem." The work of this club is on the order of Omaha's Boys' Town. The club is open to any youngster regardless of race, color or religion. The boys have their own baseball teams, etc. They have their own camp equipped with swimming pool, playground, etc., and there is always social and athletic activities to keep the boys' minds occupied. Funds must be provided to keep the club going. It is a very good and worthy cause, and it deserves the support of every man and woman in this community. That is why so many stars have promised to donate their time and talents to make this a great show. It's a show for the boys. The under-privileged kids. And they need our support.

Olivette Miller Plays Saturday

Charming and talented Olivette Miller, the little lass who is proving such a sensation with her harp playing at the Trocadera, mecca for film celebrities, will be special guest Saturday Evening, Oct. 14, at a party at the Beverly Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Trumbo.

She will appear in a program in the interest of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. Co-featured will be Calvin Jackson, prominent pianist.

Ansel Hill Band Is Next Attraction at Alabam

Local Boy Makes Good Is Story Of Swing Genius Lionel Hampton

The success story of Lionel Hampton reads like a page out of a fairy book. Never has an entertainer appeared on the musical scene with so much on the ball as has California's own adopted son, Lionel Hampton. Rising from obscurity to the highest-paid band leader in America today in three short years, is nice work if you can get it—and brother, he's got it! He's pulling down three thousand dollars per week for his current stint at the Trianon ballroom. And that ain't bad even if it's only half that much! Getting his start with the Les Hite band as a drummer, Lionel didn't win recognition until Benny Goodmar paid a visit to an obscure little nitery where the Hamp was appearing on the coast, and signed him to a contract with the Goodman band. "And you know," confided Lionel as he sat in our office surrounded by a galaxy of beautiful brownskins smiling down on him from picture frames on the wall, "Working with Pops (as he calls Benny) was tops. He's a fine cat."

Lionel Hampton

"You're a fine cat to work with yourself, Lionel," we said, remembering our trumpet-tooting days when we played in the same band (Les Hite) with the dapper little genius. "Ha, ha!" he laughed aloud, "Remember the night you got high and challenged Louis Armstrong to a trumpet duel?" Being years since your nightclub editor has tetched anything stronger than cow juice (milk, to you) we had to swear upon a Bible Leonard McClain brought in that we didn't remember.

Lionel, for the benefit of those two jerks in the second row who haven't been paying attention, is the most sensational musician swingdom has ever produced. He's an ace arranger. He plays terrific piano and vibraharp, and even admits to doing a bit of crooning. Of course, the boys in the band call it something else, but he still singe a little.

Manager Joe Glaser is really proud of Lionel, who has become a national institution. All America is proud of Lionel, too. He's a credit to the music profession.

Noble Sissle To Open New Stage Shows At Lincoln

Beginning Friday, October 20, the Lincoln Theatre will usher in the new season with the first of its new name-gand policy, Noble Sissle and his new band of international artists will be the stellar attraction at this famous theatre of ours. Noble Sissle is one of America's foremost colored names in the amusement world, and has done more to bring the colored musician to the front than any other band leader or promoter. He has toured Europe and played before the royal families, and was the first and only colored band to play for Billy Rose at the famous Diamond Horse Shoe in New York City.

PRODUCING FINE SHOWS—Leonard Reed, nationally-known producer of excellent shows, is currently turning out splendid floor shows at the popular Shepp's Playhouse Club, 1st and Los Angeles streets. A slogan which rings true, says, "If it is a Reed show, it is a good show."

Sissle also played at the world renowned Park Central Hotel in New York City, later to be followed by Chick Webb and Cab Calloway. He was selected as the band to open the well-known "Hollywood Casino" in Hollywood. The name Noble Sissle means the tops in musical entertainment.

The rest of the show will include those well-known comedians, Tim, Moore and Crackshot, Jimmie Baskette, Sybil Lewis and other well-known acts. Also something new to our community, the Noble Sissle Glee Club, a group of melodious singers, that will inspire you with their hormany. This show will be for one week only starting Friday, October 20, although there will be a real Hollywood preview showing on Thursday evening, October 19. All the stars will be there in person, Kleig lights will be on the street. Everyone is invited to attend this gala preview.

Another new innovation will be the matinee every day, at bargain prices. The doors will open at 1:45 p. m. All the latest pictures will be shown, and the stage show will start about 5 p. m. Come early and take advantage of the bargain matinee. Evening prices will start at 5 p. m. Remember the shows will be continuous every day. The theatre is being renovated now for your comfort.

Basie Declares Crew Is Best of White Bands

Angel city nightclub goers can really rejoice at the news that Curtis Mosby has signed the swingsational Ansel Hill band for a limited engagement at the Club Alabam, beginning Friday night, Oct. 20. For this terrific white band of eighteen stellar swingsters is the crew that had the dancers stomping their feet and whistling in approval after every number they played at the Red Cross benefit at the Plantation a couple of Wednesdays ago. Currently appearing at the ballroom that made the Stan Kenton band famous (Balboa Beach), the Ansel Hill band is the hottest thing to hit the state since the San Francisco fire!

BETTY LYNN, WOW!

Discovered by the California Eagle's Theatrical Editor, J. T. Gipson, the Ansel Hill band will definitely zoom across Central Avenue's musical horizon in a blaze of glory. The Gip, too, seems proud of his discovery. "You know," he said all out of breath and panting like a race horse, "I discovered Timmie Rogers and Dorothy Donegan, but THIS is my greatest discovery!" He was speaking of the Ansel Hill band, of course. Charge de affaires of the vocal department is a good looking happy-go-lucky lad named Al Whitney. Sweetheart of the band is a brown-haired bundle of singsational oomph named Betty Lynn. She has a terrific singing voice, and can best be described as having a beautiful profile—all the way down!

GREAT ACTS, TOO!

As an added featured attraction along with the Ansel Hill band, Curtis Mosby has signed the Archie Savage dancers along with Rae Pearl and Yo-Yo to round out the entertainment bill at the Alabam. The Savage Dancers, little known in spite of their terrific are of terpsichore, may come into their own at this spot. They're good. As for Rae Pearl and Yo-Yo, well, they're just down-right terrific!

But then, the Ansel Hill band is the magnet that will draw the lovers of swing to the Club Alabam, and his is the band I would walk a mile to hear!

Artie Shaw Will Head FDR Youth

Artie Shaw, jive idol of millions, has gained new respect among America's younger generation—he stands solidly behind FDR and has re-asserted his stand by accepting the honorary chairmanship of the newly-formed Los Angeles chapter of Young Americans for Roosevelt.

Barney Ross and Olivia de Haviland are national co-chairmen of the non-partisan organization which has enrolled thousands of young and enthusiastic Roosevelt supporters of voting age and under.

Visited by a committe of young people from the local group, Shaw said, as he accepted the chairmanship: "The world belongs to youth—and even those too young to vote can still exert a lot of influence to help reelect President Roosevelt who stands for the hopes and dreams of youth throughout the United States."

Ike Adams

The local chapter is headed by Pat Campbell, editor of the UCLA Bruin, and other officers include Bryant King, chairman of the Christian Youth Council, as vice-chairman, and Ike Adams, of the national Association for the Advancement of Colored People, as treasurer.

ON TOUR

Dallas, Texas—Following a week of one-nighters which will take him into Beaumont, Galveston and Houston, King Kolax, "The Trumpet Sensation of the Nation" and His Mighty Orchestra, will stop off at the Rose Room here.

Golden State's Annual Kickoff Stimulates Agent Competition

Holding meetings in six different cities in California, Texas and Illinois, the Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company recently held its annual "Football Rallies." The rallies usually stimulate competitive interest between the various districts to excel in selling, conserving and serving the company's policies. This campaign conducted in simulation of a football conference is the company's 18th annual contest of its kind. The winning team (district) will be awarded the much coveted Walt Gordon Trophy. Cash and turkeys will also be awarded the winning teams and individuals.

Altho these rallies are primarily the "kickoff" for the Football Contest with which the agency department is most concerned, they draw an almost 100 percent attendance of all company employees, and many members of their families and friends. In Los Angeles places were provided at the breakfast for 150 guests and in Oakland, Chicago, Dallas, San Diego and Fresno, proportionate preparations were made.

At each rally an officer of the insurance company was present for the principal address. President William Nickerson, Jr., spoke in Oakland and Fresno, California. George A. Beavers, Jr., Vice-president was in Dallas last Friday and Chicago, Tuesday. Norman O. Houston, secretary-treasurer delivered the "kickoff" address to the Los Angeles staff and A. J. Williams, assistant director of agencies, was the speaker at San Diego.

POST WAR THEME

A majority of the talks to the company's employees carried a post war theme—security for the future for both policyholders and employees. At the meeting held in the Wesley Community Center, Edgar Johnson emphasized the necessity of good underwriting.

Mr. Houston compared an agent to a football player in that to be efficient he must maintain good health, be alert, have the ability to appraise, possess stamina and learn to take orders, the basic fundamental of being a good employee. In conclusion he disclosed that the character of the Golden State Mutual company is a perpetual one and that the company will always exist—for our children and posterity.

It is expected that the company's goals for 1944 in both business in force and in assets will be passed as a result of this year end drive.

Sorors To Fete Fall Reunion

The house of Sarah Esther Griffith will be the scene of a gala occasion on Saturday afternoon, October 14, when the three local chapters of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority unite for their annual fall reunion.

An unusual program as well as a delectable repast is being planned by one of the groups of the Deltas consisting of Sorors Robby Chester, Portia Griffith, Evangeline and Ella Wood, Lillian Duffy, Laura Duffy Harris, Helen Wright, Edna Cohen, Emily Woody, Ida Harris, Mary Roberson and others.

INCOME TAX COURSE

A course in Income Tax, consisting of ten meetings on Tuesday evenings from 6 to 9 o'clock, will open on October 17 at Metropolitan Evening School of Business, 234 Venice Boulevard (corner of Olive Street).

Golden West Bridge Association

The big day for bridge players on the Pacific Coast and the far west has just about arrived. Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 14-15, is the one chance of the year for two G.W.B.A. members to become national masters overnight. The National Master Point Certificate awarded for the four pair with the highest score is 10, 8, 4, 2.

A special invitation has been issued to lower-ranking players. All members who are not city masters will be permitted to play free as guests of the club. Participants will be served a turkey dinner free. The event is our Second Annual Sectional Tourney. All members are expected to participate.

There will be prizes for the winners and consolation for the losers in our Sunday and Tuesday plays, says President Clarence Ennis.

Dr. D. Matthews-A. L. Gross were the N.S. winners. Friday night, J. D. Dunn-A. Dumas, Watson, E. W. Mitchell. Sunday winners in a Howell game were J. D. Dunn-May Denton. Watch this par in the sectional. You are invited to spend an evening in a pleasant atmosphere playing a fascinating game of duplicate contract bridge—the only place on the West Coast, 1054-56 East 54th St., AD 5946.

Brunch Given For Visitor

A 12 o'clock brunch was given for Mrs. Hazel Drew Williams of Kansas City, Mo., by Mrs. Grant H. Burnside, 873 Sunset avenue, Pasadena, on Thursday, Oct. 5th. Covers were laid for ten.

Later Mrs. Verlena Allison and Mrs. Burnside accompanied Mrs. Williams and Mrs. McGruder to Los Angeles for a visit with the Misses Etta and Mabel Smith, formerly of Kansas City.

For the past ten days Mrs. Williams has been the house guest of Mrs. McGruder.

Electa Chapt. No. 3, O. E. S., Aids AWVS

The Masonic Hall, 1050 East 50th street, was the scene of a small party planned by the members of the Electa chapter for the entertaining of 50 men and women of the armed services from the USO and AWVS. Mr. Ben Ellison and Mrs. Maurine Browning of the organizations mentioned made their appearance with a representative number of young people who were served by the chapter hostesses. Supervisor and Mrs. Gordon McDonough were present and talked to the group. Among the boys who accompanied Mr. Ellison was his son who was on furlough at the time. "God Bless America" was zestfully sung with Ann Morrow accompanying.

The chapter presented Mrs. Browning of the AWVS a check for $100 to help her and her efficient staff in their work. Sometime during the Christmas season the chapter will help Mr. Ellison with the USO group in a worthwhile way. Special thanks goes to Mrs. Thelma Stewart, chairman of the occasion. The presentation was made by the secretary of Electa and the assistant secretary acted as mistress of ceremonies. Illness prevented the matron, Estelle Van Meter, from being present.

Calif. Ass'n. of Colored Women Stage Fall Tea

Last Sunday, at the Masonic Hall from 3 to 7 p.m., the first brilliant affair of the fall season was a tea given by the California Association of Colored Women, honoring John W. Fowler and the Pioneer Club of which he is president. It was a testimony to his staunch support and friendship to the organization from its inception 40 years ago. It was "orchids to John W. Fowler" when a real orchid was presented to him by little Gloria Jetter, a great grand-daughter of Mrs. Greenie Walston, also a pioneer.

A beautiful musical program was presented by Mrs. Mabel Massengill, state musical superintendent of the California Association.

Mrs. Eliza Warner, president emeritus, presented a banner to the president of one of the youngest girls' club.

Mrs. Esther T. Greenly, president of the Southern Section, was a charming hostess, assisted by members from each club.

Lucky tickets represented presents to the ones holding them.

Delicious refreshments were served.

Entertained 12

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jenkins entertained for 12 last Sunday in honor of Dr. and Mrs. A. Dumas and their daughter, Mrs. Huggins of Mississippi. Also present were Mrs. Ponzett and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins. Dr. and Mrs. Dumas will leave for Mississippi on Sunday.

Good Neighbor Rally

A Roosevelt "Good Neighbor" rally, featuring speeches by Senators Dennis Chavez and Sheridan Downey, will be held at the Shrine Auditorium, Royal and Jefferson, next Thursday evening, Oct. 19. The doors will open at 6:30. A Latin-American pageant of song and dance with Hollywood stars will be presented. Americans of Latin-American descent will be featured and all language groups will be honored. Admission is free. No reservations necessary.

Mr. Ickes Meets the Press

Secretary of the Interior, Harold Ickes, held a press conference in his Ambassador Hotel Suite early this week, and very deftly dodged attempts by reporters from the Dewey press to tie him up.

On the matter of gasoline for civilian consumption on the west coast, the secretary said that there are no prospects of increased allotments in the immediate future, but he also promised that there would not be further cuts in the present rations.

Ickes paid tribute to the administration of Indian affairs in California, stating that under the Roosevelt administration, such administration had reached its highest point of efficiency. He enlarged upon his response to include the Negro and all minority groups in answer to a question asked by a reporter from the California Eagle.

The secretary refuted Dewey's oft-repeated charge that the west had been neglected under the Roosevelt administration by pointing to the improvements that have been made through Federally financed projects.

Daisy Simpson Has Luncheon Guests

The attractive Miss Daisy Simpson, one of the city's most popular Interior Decorators and beloved in social life, entertained guests with a Luncheon last Thursday afternoon at the beautiful Fawn Cafe. Among those present were: Mrs. Estelle Lomax, Mrs. Gertrude Harris, Mrs. Myrtle Swanigan and Mrs. Washington. The party later visited the Club Arlington and Ethel Waters' lovely home on Sugar Hill, where they were shown through the palatial home by the famed Negro actress herself.

The day, as the party all attested, was indeed an enjoyable one.

Sgt. Welford Wilson, Writer, Returns to L. A. On Furlough

Sgt. Welford R. Wilson, 1784 E. 54th Street, has returned to camp following a twenty-one day furlough from his duties at Mac Dill Field, Fla., where he has been stationed for over a year. Sgt. Wilson is assigned to the Classification Section with the 3rd Air Force Command and is in charge of a unit taking care of personnel records.

Aside from his regular duties, Sgt. Wilson has written a number of radio scripts, two of which were presented on the air while he was in training at Washington Jefferson College in Pennsylvania.

Before his induction into the Army, Sgt. Wilson was a Senior Interviewer with the United States Employment Service. As a member of the Independent Church of Christ, he was also active in many community affairs, the most outstanding of which was his participation in the Bond Rally sponsored by the Negro Community at Pershing Square in 1942 at which time $75,000 worth of Bonds were purchased.

This visit of Sgt. Wilson was especially pleasant in that he enjoyed the companionship of his baby daughter, Carol Elizabeth, who was only five months old at the time of his induction and who is now attending the Nursery School at Pueblo Del Rio where the Wilsons reside.

During his furlough, Sgt. Wilson also visited his mother and sister, Mrs. Blanche Wilson and Mrs. John Morris, 2900 Bush Street, San Francisco. A former resident of San Francisco, Sgt. Wilson was welcomed by his many friends and former associates there. His impression of San Francisco, where the Negro community has doubled in population since his residence there, was favorable; and the fighting spirit with which the San Francisco workers are backing up the men in the armed forces was very heartening. The lack of discrimination present in San Francisco and the wholehearted manner in which the work of winning the war is being carried on made a lasting impression on him. "This fact, together with the progress which Los Angeles has made in the same direction, will be good news to the many Negro soldiers back at camp," said Sgt. Wilson.

WANDS To Hold Meeting Friday

The Betty Hill chapter of the Women's Army for National Defense will hold its meeting at 1783 West 35th street on Friday, October 13, in the home of Mrs. Della Sharp, the regular meeting place. We are still recruiting, and Capt. Waltens requests that all be on time at 8 p.m. sharp.

Two outstanding speakers will be heard and the public is invited. Captain, Theola Waltens; reporter, E. M. Wright.

Turkey Dinner Party Is Given

There was a lovely turkey dinner party at the home of Mrs. Grace Linton in honor of her birthday party.

The house was decorated with cut roses from her rose garden. The table was beautifully set with the birthday cake as a centerpiece.

The guests were as follows: Elder L. M. Driver and wife, Elder Eddie Driver and wife, Dr. Foster Driver and wife, Mr. Mason Driver, Mrs. E. R. Driver, Miss Vivian Turner and others.

Detroit Visitor

Mr. O. W. Woods, popular young Detroit business man-about-town, is enjoying an extended vacation in the city of the angels. Popular in the Motor City social and sporting circles, the dapper Mr. Woods is engaged in the Hotel and restaurant business in Detroit. While here he has been the recipient of many social gratuities extended by his many friends.

He is stopping at the Dunbar hotel.

"Lest We Forget" At Wadsworth School Next Week

"Lest We Forget," a documentary film depicting the history of the administration, plus several noted speakers who will outline the reasons for the election of President Roosevelt, vice president Truman, Helen Gahagan Douglas to Congress and the re-election of Judge Stanley Mosk, are the features of a program which will be presented at the Wadsworth School on Wednesday evening October 18th, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

A debate on proposition No. 12, with the pro and con arguments getting equal consideration will also be presented. Instructions on how to use your ballot and information on all of the propositions will be given.

With the slogan, "Win the Peace With Roosevelt," the committee in charge extends an invitation to everyone to attend. The Wadsworth School is located at 1039 E. 41st St.

Proud Daddy Passing Out Cigars, Candy

A run on cigar and candy stores was started last Saturday when Mrs. Loretta Kaufman, wife of Dr. Seymour Kaufman, presented the doctor a six-pound bouncing baby boy on Monday, October 2 at 2 p.m. The mother is feeling fine and the doctor, who is more than elated over his first child is a very enthusiastic father also for many more reasons than one.

First—Dr. Kaufman has delivered almost two hundred babies for colored families in this district in the past year and now, when he is able to bring into this world a new baby and another soldier to follow in his footsteps, the ovation is much greater.

Congratulations and telephone calls have kept Dr. Kaufman a busy father at his office for the past 24 hours.

If you haven't had your box of candy or cigars, go at once to the office of Dr. Kaufman and get it before the free supply gives out, 106 North San Pedro street.

WAR LOAN DRIVE

Thousands of horses with colorfully costumed riders will highlight a spectacular "Cavalcade of the West" which will wind through the downtown section of Los Angeles on Saturday, Nov. 18, to usher in the Sixth War Loan Drive.

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

DOTS AND DASHES—Larry Lovett, who was iced by Elmer Ray in the third heat at the Olympic last week has been suspended indefinitely by the boxing commission for an unsatisfactory showing . . . Ike Williams, Trenton, N. J., leading lightweight contender of the East (John Thomas is the leading contender—period), has been rejected for military service, his manager, Connie McCarthy, revealed last weekend . . . Harold Blackshear, San Francisco heavyweight, scored a fifth-round technical kayo over Paul Hartnek of Omaha, in the scheduled 10-round main event at Frisco last Friday night . . . At San Diego last Friday night Jackie Cooper, Chicago welterweight, knocked out Nava Esparza of Tijuana, Mexico, in the eighth session . . . At Hollywood last Friday night Matt Oglesby knocked Mike Delia down twice for counts of nine and generally oiled Mike up only to see his opponent's hand raise along with his in token of a draw. Another one of those things. The dailies unanimously agreed along with one of the judges that Oglesby deserved the nod. The judge who had his eye on the ball was Jimmy Wallace.

DID YA KNOW?—Henry Armstrong recently purchased a home for his invalid father on the eastside . . . Fight trainers who put their hearts and souls into their work out here are: George Tolson, who trains and co-manages John Thomas, Bobby Yeager, Louis Wise, Kenny Watkins and Lloyd Battiste, Charlie Kelson, trainer of Roy Miller and many others, Benny Conyers, trainer of Turkey Thompson, Leonard Nix and others, Norman Saunders, trainer of Henry Armstrong and Torpedo Reed, the latter whom he also manages, and last but least, Johnny Gray, who with his great persistence in trying to develop a good boy, will sooner or later hit the jackpot . . . NOTES TO YOU—Remember to look up George A. Ramsey whenever you visit the race track at Agua Caliente, Mexico. George is the Negro goodwill ambassador of the track and he'll see that you have a rip-roaring time.

Heavyweight Champion May Again Tour Combat Zones

NEW YORK—Staff Sergt. Joe Louis, world's heavyweight champion, is back in the United States after an extensive tour overseas entertaining servicemen. His tour took him to European and African war areas and covered about seven months in time.

The Brown Bomber arrived by plane at LaGuardia field Tuesday morning after boxing 42 exhibitions in England, 27 in Italy and four in Africa. He was accompanied by Capt. Fred L. Maly of the special service division, who had charge of the tour. Before going overseas the champion toured the United States for 14 months giving 123 exhibitions for servicemen. Capt. Maly estimated that Joe had appeared before more than 2,000,000 servicemen at home and abroad.

Louis said that he hoped to make more appearances before servicemen in the combat zones. He will go to Washington after spending a few days here.

RETURNS TO U. S.—Heavyweight Champion of the world, Staff Sgt. Joe Louis, arrived on United States soil early this week after a seven months exhibition tour of combat territory overseas. He plans to return for appearances before servicemen.

Watson Jones In TKO Over Wise

Watson Jones, 168, scored a technical knockout in 59 seconds of the first round over Louis Wise, 167, in the scheduled 10-round main event at the Olympic Tuesday night.

The bout had just gotten underway and Wise was fighting Jones on even terms in close when Watson lashed out with a terrific short left to the jaw which floored Louis for a count of nine. When Wise rose gamely but wobbly on his pins Referee Reggie Gilmore stopped the bout.

In the semi-windup Bobby Jackson, 131, won in six heats over Julia Franco, 134. The four-rounders found Petey Wheatstraw, 145, scoring a one-round TKO over Jorge Rodriguez, 149, Bill Reed, 186, stopping Sgt. Sanchez, 185, in the first, Lloyd Battiste, 130, drawing with Pee Wee Swingler, 122, and Mickey Romo, 118, outpointing Augie Rodriguez, 113.

RAY VS. DANIELS

Tuesday night, October 17th, at the Olympic, Elmer Ray, known as the heavyweight flame thrower, will face the only man in these parts considered capable of defeating him in the person of Perk Daniels, classy heavy who defeated Turkey Thompson here. A record turnout of fans is expected.

Double Ten Main Event At Legion

At Hollywood Legion Stadium Friday night a double-ten main event will be staged featuring Guy Serean vs. Baby Gonzales of Mexico and Jorge Robles vs. Ceferino Robleto.

Serean, who hasn't been seen in Hollywood for many months, is now out of the Army and recently fought a 10-round bout in New Orleans.

An excellent card of preliminaries have been arranged and the entire boxing program promises heated action.

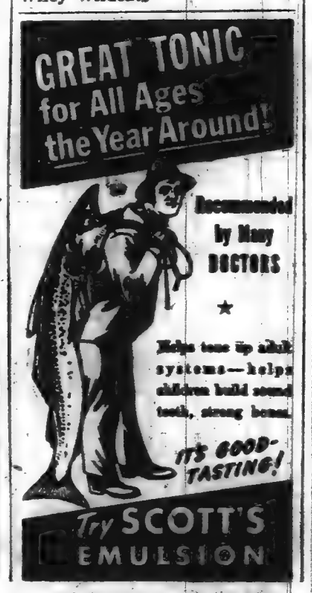
JACK CHASE WINS

SAN FRANCISCO—Jack Chase, 163, Los Angeles, scored a 10-round decision over Billy Smith, 163, Oakland, Monday night before a large crowd.



MARSHALL, Texas—Under the blazing Texas heat, the Arkansas State Lions' return to conference grid tilts was marred by a 45-0 defeat at the hands of the Wiley Wildcats

Oglesby and Delia Fight Torrid Draw

In a torrid slugging bee that left the customers limp at the finish, Matt Oglesby, 135, earned a decision over Mike Delia, 132, in ten-rounds at Hollywood Legion Satdium last Friday night, but the best he could garner from the officials was a draw.

Oglesby knocked Delia down twice for nine counts, once in the third and again in the fourth to be saved by the gong and held his own throughout despite a fast finish staged by Mike.

In the preliminaries, Ralph Lara, 130, and Freddie Taylor, 132, fought to a six-round draw; Eli Galindo, 123, decisioned Bert White, 125, in six rounds; Frisco James, 163, and Willie Collins, 159, drew in four rounds; Benny Cousins, 117, won from Mickey Romo, 119, and Fidel Aguilar, 125, took the curtain-raiser from Stanley Jamison, 128.

Municipal Semi-Pro Gridders Play Tie

The Washington All-Stars of the eastside, twice Municipal champions, journeyed to San Pedro to play a scoreless tie against a fighting longshoreman football team recently.

Highlights of the game were the open field running of Johnny Williams, formerly of Jeff High, the blocking of Willie Slayton and defense work of Jack Scott. G. Vickers and Curley Monroe, quarterback, also stood out.

ON THE TURF

AUGUA CALIENTE, Mexico.—Four thousand fans were on hand to witness a card of 13 races last Sunday here. Star of the day was little Charley Bianco, who flew down from Bay Meadows to ride on the Sunday card. Starting off with the old Caliente favorite, Abide, in the fourth, coming back with Heisweep in the sixth, Wee Scot in the 10th and Igorete in the 11th he made it four winners for the day. Jockeys Thaens and Fermin also shared in the second spot, both riding doubles.

Tick On Time won the feature race of the day at 5½ furlongs in 1.05 1-5, just two-fifths of a second from the record set 14 years ago. Overlooked in the betting, he paid $9 to win. In the second feature, Igorete ran the mile and one-sixteenth in 1.44 3-5, going the first mile in 1.37 2-5. We call that traveling. He paid $6.80 to win.

The daily-double with the combination of Sir G. in the second race and Balko Bud in the third payed $13.20, while the quiniela with the overlooked Anhelation and the favorite Victory Vee running one-two paid $45.20. Our popular generalissimo, Eddie Nealis, and brothers, Andy and Johnnie, announced that their father was much improved in the L. A. hospital. The entire official family and also all the employes are pulling for him. This writer joins in wishing a speedy recovery for Mr. Nealis. Our genial and jovial director of personnel, Armando E. Verdugo, and Brother Charlo, also reported that the handsome Ruben Verdugo, auditor of the track, was improving in the Scripps hospital at La Jolla. The new post time for the races will be 12:30 instead of 1 p. m. That's the news, folks, from the world's greatest Sunday race course. So until next week, keep smiling and have a little fun. So long . . . GEORGE.

L. A. Bulldogs Clash With Hollywood Wolves Sunday

Two great Negro backs will be in the starting lineup for the Los Angeles Bulldogs Sunday (Oct. 15) at Wrigley Field when the oldest professional football team in the west makes it local debut against the Hollywood Wolves.

The two are Jolting Johnny Wynne, famed UCLA blocker, and Touchdown Tommy Mills, the fleet Xavier College boy. Wynne will be at fullback, with Mills at quarter.

Two other colored boys are a cinch to see action, with one liable to move into the starting lineup at the last minute. Everett (Slim) Marcell, pass-snagging end from Southern U. may replace George Toombs, Loyola giant at left end for the Bulldogs. Marcell is a former member of the famous Harlem Globe Trotters basketball team which is the reason why he has sticky fingers.

Fondro Talbert, 196-pound tackle from Tuskegee Institute, is a cinch to see action at one of the tackles.

Those who have seen the two clubs in practice pick the Bulldogs to score a close win over the Wolves. Harry (The Horse) Mattos, St. Mary's All-American, will lead the Hollywood attack. Mattos is hailed as one of the greatest passers in football history.

BELLOISE GETS NOD

At Ocean Park Monday night, Mike Belloise, 132½, gained a 10-round decision over Victor Flores, 133, in the main event. In one of the prelims Al Williams, 160, knocked out Frisco James, 162, in the first round.

BAY REGION NEWS

Perhaps one of the most fascinating human-interest stories involving Negro personalities, is one concerning Clifford M. Prince, local pharmacist who is a graduate of the University of Southern California, a former Pasadenan, recently appointed as a pharmaceutical technician at the Rayfield Laboratory, Oakland, where the prescriptions for the various Permanente hospitals are compounded.

Due to critical circumstances involving the state board of pharmacy, it was necessary to place a registered pharmacist immediately at the Permante Foundation at Broadway and McArthur blvd., one of the five pharmacies associated with the laboratory and hospital, Prince was found to be the only one with all the requirements necessary to fill the position.

After several weeks, he continues with dignity and efficiency to fill his appointment, which was greeted with much surprise, not because a Negro had received this signal recognition. Now everything has become normal routine.

Apparently, much of the credit for Mr. Prince's appointment is due to the democratic policies of the institution, involving the nurses and other personnel, and to Mr. Howiler, chief of their various pharmacies and to Mr. Burke, his assistant, and the gentlemen directly responsible for Mr. Prince's appointment; Mr. Dibble, hospital administrator, and Dr. Sidney Roy Garfield, who heads the four Permanente hospitals.

The citizens of Ridge Point vicinity in the famed Hunter's Point addition in San Francisco, sensing the need of united effort to deal with problems of the race caused by the influx of citizens from all parts of these United States, organized the Friendly club, which dedicates itself to post-war planning, economic security, and wholesome entertainment. Officers of the club include D. V. Vance, president; Raymond A. Pepars, secretary, and Edmond Reed, director of finance.

True Vine Baptist Church, also in Hunter's Point, held a well-attended banquet recently at 2649 Ingals St., with Mrs. M. Johnson, hostess. Father Emanuel Davis was master of the ceremonies. Rev. Henry Carter is pastor of the church.

Mrs. Leona Moore Bess, 1323 Carrison st., entertained at a breakfast party, Sunday the 23, honoring Mme. Jozelle Bryant of Los Angeles, house guest of Mrs. Lena Jordan in Ashby ave., who was also present at the breakfast.

Others sharing the hospitality of Mrs. Bess were Mesdames Sara LeBeouf, Pearl Hoskins, Portia King, Lucille Robinson, Elsie Handy.

Mrs. Gussie Lewis, Berkeleyan, in King st., was the hostess at a lovely bridge luncheon, one of the season's major fetes, at the Masonic Temple, Oakland, Sept. 30, when fifty guests were brought together for the brilliant occasion.

Prize winners, in the order named, were Mesdames Beatrice Wilkerson, Ada Manley, Alma Macklin, Leona Johnson, Bernice York. Mrs. Beatrice Perry of Los Angeles, who has returned home after her visit of two weeks, was awarded a lovely guest favor. Here Mrs. Perry was the house guest of Mrs. Clarence White, during which she was extensively feted.

In response to the social summons issued by Mrs. Berta Johnson, Oaklander, 30 members of the smart social set here about, were assembled at the home of Mrs. Florence White, in Telegraph st., for a gay afternoon of bridge, recently.

Mrs. Alpha Henry, Berkeleyan, was hostess at a buffet dinner party in her lovely new home, 1521 Woolsey st., Sept. 29. Mesdames Alta Thomas and Lillian Williams assisted Mrs. Henry, the hostess, who received a number of gifts.

Mrs. Lillian Mae Martin, Berkeleyan, in Hearst ave., was the hostess at a cleverly appointed luncheon, the decorative scheme of which was gold and yellow. Games supplemented the smart affair.

Prize winners were Mesdames Lena Christian, Ella Pitts, Florence White, Major Stevens of Chicago, Ill.

Other guests present were the Mesdames Pearl Rowan of San Francisco, Libby Ferguson, Bernice York, Marcita Lenear, Marian Dawson, Ada Gomez, Alicia Hinds, Berta Johnson, Hattie Mack, Myrtle Mitchell, Anna Mae Talbot, Beatrice Perry of Los Angeles, and Miss Alfreda Franklin.

Rev. and Mrs. X. C. Runyan in Ashby ave., planned a very lovely party at home Thursday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Jordan, also in Ashby ave., and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Bryant, insurance brokers of Los Angeles. Mrs. Ada Jackson, prominent club woman, was also in the party. Com-BAY REgion news—Eagle gal 2 munity singing and voice recording provided the evening's pastimes.

The first reciprocity of the fall season for the Federated Club of Northern California, was held Oct. 3, at the St. Paul AME church in Fairview st., of which Rev. M. L. Hawkins is pastor.

The meet, which was very well attended, was directed by Mrs. Maggie Marshall, state chairman of reciprocity; Mrs. Vivian Osborne Marsh, state president, presided during business activities.

Mrs. Billie Ashley of Tulare, Calif., first vice president of the state federation, was prominent among those present.

An editorial appearing in a local newspaper, occasioned by a letter written by Miss Bessie Osborne, well known teacher in the extended child care center of Longfellow school, who is also state chairman of child welfare, challenging the policies of the paper toward children of minority groups. An illuminating health movie filmed at Tuskeegee Institute, featuring the famed choir of that institution, loaned by the City of Berkeley, was a special feature. Baby Azota Carlyle Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Cooper, was made the official member of the Federation. She was presented by Mrs. Margaret Nottage.

The Rhododendron club, a cultural organization, met in regular session at the lovely home of Mrs. Zillica Foster Williams, 1121 Eighth st., Oakland, on the evening of Oct. 2. Election and installation of officers were included in the agenda for the evening. Mrs. Lezinka Cooper, state parliamentarian guest, was the installing officer for the occasion.

FRUITS OF LABOR

We have been accustomed to think that some folks are endowed with a super-human talent which enables them to enjoy the finer things of life without labor. Some say they have genius and possess a miraculous gift of spontaneity. Results and past experience reveal how utterly false these assumptions are as all worthy achievents in life call for labor, intense and prolonged, and ofttimes, up to the very limit of our powers of endurance.

There are few exceptions to this law of nature, as no amount of natural ability will suffice if there is a lack of training and concentrated effort. There must be some perspiration as well as inspiration. While some people seem to do great things with apparent ease, we may be sure that behind their excellent performance lie many years of indomitable perseverance.

F. W.—Dear Prof Herman: I have been reading your column for some time and find it both helpful and interesting. Would you please advise me regarding this matter. Am I doing the right thing?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that you have been forced to make a decision and you are wondering if you made the right one. From all indications you did the right thing, and have no reason to worry any further regarding the matter.

P. L. T.—Is my opinion right regarding the stamp?

Ans. Probing into the matter I find that someone stole your sugar stamp while you was in the south visiting and you are wondering if your suspicions are correct. I am of the opinion that they are, but suggest you drop the matter, rather than have any further trouble with this person.

Mrs. E. L. C.—Does my husband still love me?

Ans. Your Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet indicate your husband as being very much in love with you. Dismiss your doubts and suspicions for his attitude just now is due to some business difficulty that is worrying him. Try to help him in every way you can over this crisis.

H. D. C.—What shall I do?

Ans. My Psycho-Mentalist Crystal reveals your difficulty, but I see no reason to let it upset you. Your future looks very successful if you continue to study and try to achieve something worthwhile. Have more confidence in your own ability to do so.

R. T.—I have been using your products for many years, and it seems the last few years have been the happiest of my life, thanks to you! May I take this opportunity to thank you for everything you have done for me.

Worried.—Will this man marry me?

Ans. It appears to me that your friendship with this man has been a long drawn-out affair. Marriage has been talked about but nothing definite has been done concerning it. Since he has promised to marry you so many times and failed, why not set a definite time for an answer, this may help. I would be glad to aid you further if you will write in for a private reply.

D. E. B.—Is this letter I received concerning my boyfriend true?

Ans. I do not vision this letter as containing any accurate information. Destroy it and forget it. As long as your friend respects you and acts as a gentleman should, his friendship should be valued.

S. M. B.—Will my boy be discharged from the Army? Does the man my daughter keeps company with, care for her? Will she get married?

Ans. Only one question is answered in the column due to the limited amount of space. Kindly write in for a private reply.

E. L. P.—Should I take my husband back?

Ans. I am of the opinion that you should give your husband another chance since you now have a baby in your home, that may make a difference in his attitude. At least, it would be wise to try. He cares a great deal for you, but has that one fault which makes it hard to understand his feelings.

WATTS USO NEWS

NAVY MEN

The round table discussion on the Twilight Hour Program last Sunday was led by St. 2/c William H. Camp and Sc 2/c Lonnie R. Johnson of Datona Beach, Florida. Lonnie Johnson was one of only two Negroes to survive the Liscombe Bay disaster, the ship on which Dorie Miller met his fate. Johnson was a personal friend of Dorie's and had been talking to him only a few minutes before the ill fated ship was torpedoed.

QUARTET FESTIVAL

This month will feature the big Quartet Festival to be held at the club on Sunday evening, October 29. The popular Boosters' Quartet, Kings of Harmony, Friendship Male and Female Quartets, Jubilee Gospel Singers and others will be heard.

Servicemen are invited to attend the States Night Dance on Wednesday, October 11, when the Frontier Naval Base Orchestra will furnish the music. All men from the Eastern seaboard states and as far west as Ohio will be honored guests. The October birthday party is Saturday night, October 14. Presents will be given servicemen born in October.

Junior hostesses are urged to sign up now for the trip to Oxnard on Friday night, October 13. The training course conducted by Mrs. Grinage last week was a huge success. Lt. F. W. Brink, chaplain of the U. S. Naval Frontier Base at San Pedro gave an interesting lecture. Mrs. Acquilla Matthews and Mrs. Wilson, prominent nurse, were speakers at the other sessions. One hundred ten girls attended the sessions.

"A Star Is Born," starring Frederick March, drew a near-capacity crowd last Sunday. "Mr. Boggs Steps Out," starring Stuart Erwin, will be the feature attraction for Sunday, October 15.

INFORMATION CENTERS FOR SERVICEMEN

To take care of the growing tide of men and women in uniform who are coming to this area on visits, the Los Angeles City War Council has opened two additional Servicemen's Information Centers in Hollywood, and the units are today in full operation. They are located at Hollywood Boulevard and Highland Avenue, and at Sunset Boulevard and Vine Street.

COLUMBUS HAD IMAGINATION, TOO!

Because of his intense desire to explore, Columbus discovered America. This desire was fused by his ability to imagine—to dream of strange, fanciful things—and then to follow his dream through to a successful conclusion.

Imagination such as this is the spur to progress. Imagination in the minds of men exists throughout the ages. The dreams of yesterday gave us the improvements we enjoy today. So it is with the future.

We, of the Los Angeles Railway, are constantly probing into the future. Our imaginative powers are tempered by the experience of operating through two previous wars, and this experience, in turn, has given us the knowledge for our blueprints of tomorrow.

Our plans have vision, for we believe that transportation is the key which will open the lock to postwar prosperity.

FASCISTS FORCE NEGRO TO MOVE FROM DWELLING PURCHASED HERE

Keeling Told No Negroes Are Allowed in Vicinity

Fascism was on the march this week. Chief among the reports of the sinister operations of this evil of democracy was the case of Sullie Keeling.

Some months ago Mr. Keeling reported to this newspaper that he had been visited by the Ku Klux Klan with a rock through one of his windows and subsequently a sign on his front door ordering him to move. The order was signed K-K-K.

Mr. Keeling lives at 854 E. 97th Street, where he purchased his home more than a year ago. Last Sunday night when Mr. Keeling, a quiet, conservative man, returned to his home after a busy day's work, he found that his house had been broken into and the glass in the door smashed. As he was about to enter the house, his white neighbor attempted to brush him aside, asking, "Haven't you got out of here yet?" In the same breath the intruder further stated, "We do not allow any black ——'s to live in this vicinity."

One blow from Mr. Keeling's fist sent the intruder reeling streetward; so surprised was the brave advocate of white supremacy that he ran past his automobile parked with lights burning in front of the Keeling residence.

On Monday morning, Mr. Keeling reported the incident to the California Eagle and to the 77th Street Police Station. The editor of the California Eagle advised Mr. Keeling to observe all the aspects of the law governing the citizenship rights of Americans. At the police station where Mr. Keeling went for protection and advice he was advised to move out of his home to avoid trouble. The officer with whom he talked was so kind as to offer police protection while the Keelings removed their furniture and clothing from their home.

The Keeling property was occupied by a Negro family when he purchased it. The property is adjacent to Central Avenue Gardens and is unrestricted.

According to a report received by the California Eagle, Republican congressional candidate, Gordon McDonough, has been instructed not to take an opposing stand on the notorious anti-labor Proposition No. 12. How about it, Supervisor McDonough — are you against Proposition No. 12?

Women's Vote Urged for FDR

"Women in the labor movement must cast their wartime vote for the re-election of Franklin Delano Roosevelt if their gains are to be maintained and extended," declared Mrs. Jeanetta Welch Brown of the Democratic National Committee before a mass Registration and Voting meeting of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, New York City, last week, presided over by Mrs. Sidney Hillman.

"When we march to the polls on November 7, we must remember that labor's right to organize and bargain collectively is at stake. Your registered vote is your future—protect it."

COAST GUARD BAPTISMAL—A mountain pool on a remote Pacific island serves as a natural Baptism Fount for servicemen, many of whom are about to face a baptism of fire and shell from the Japanese enemy. Every possible observation of religious practice is respected in the armed forces, and many times at the cost of difficult improvisation, services such as this are held under enemy fire. Approximately 30 servicemen are baptized each Sunday in this picturesque setting while the Base Choir's songs add impressiveness to the service. Chaplain Sanders, who was formerly pastor of the Norwood Baptist Church, Birmingham, Ala., is shown about to baptize Coast Guardsman Farley Archer whose home is at 1624 North Spruce St., Los Angeles, Calif.

Mutiny Prosecutor Is Charged With Prejudice By Marshall

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—The mutiny trial of the 50 Negro seamen, at which Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel of the NAACP has been an observer since last week, developed a charge of prejudice, levelled against Commander James F. Coakley, senior Judge Advocate, in charge of the prosecution by Marshall.

Coakly, who formerly served as an assistant district attorney of Alameda County under Governor Warren, has, throughout the trial, deliberately avoided bringing out information relative to the education, birth place and background of the Southern-born Negroes, concentrating instead on the Northern born defendants.

During the cross-examination of seaman Frank L. Henry, Coakley became angered when Henry failed to address him as "Sir."

"Don't you know you are guilty of insubordination for not addressing me as 'Sir?,' he asked.

Henry seemed bewildered by the question, and Navy defense attorneys jumped to their feet offering objections which were sustained without comment by Admiral Hugo Osterhaus, president of the trial board.

Truman Speech Flays Dewey's Straddling On Foreign Policy

Senator Truman, Democratic Vice Presidential candidate spoke at the Shrine Auditorium Monday night to an audience that overflowed into the ballroom and the street. Introduced by Senator Sheridan Downey, who had been introduced by Mike Fanning, Senator Truman received an ovation that echoed throughout the hall.

The major part of his speech was devoted to a searching revelation of the dishonesty of Governor Dewey's charges which he repeatedly has made. Truman charged that Dewey's half quotes were deliberately designed to be misleading, and that the Republican candidate was straddling the fence on foreign policy and most of the real issues in the campaign.

The senator pointed out that Dewey had one foreign policy for his listeners in the west and another for those in New York. In response to his question asking if the country wanted a fence straddler for president, the audience responded with a resounding "No."

Throughout the entire speech, which was broadcast from coast to coast, Senator Truman refuted the loose charges which candidate Dewey is hurling in the absence of a real program. Occasionally, the vice-presiden-

IT SEEMS TO ME that the people of California should appeal to Governor Earl Warren to put a stop to the wasting of our taxes. Some of the big league office seekers are parading up and down the nation whining about government waste, while last week I learned that a goodly portion of the Tenney Committee's time was used investigating who attended a Carl Winter birthday party.

Most of us who pay taxes into the coffers of our state are not concerned with the social activities of Mr. Winter or any other individual. I believe that I voice the sentiment of at least one-third of California's population when I say that we struggle to meet our tax demands, but we pay with pride because we are proud of our state and rightly jealous of our nation of which it is a part.

As a member of America's biggest minority, and the most persecuted, I naturally feel the sting of such practices as those imposed by this Tenney Committee. The people of the nation, along with our brave allies, are concerned with the winning of this war and the peace to follow; hence, we would have our taxes put to better use than that of investigating an individual's political views.

The Tenney investigating Committee, we realize, is in step with the wing of the Republican party that is on a rampage to take over Washington. They have frightened suspecting Americans by hoisting the red flag for so long that they fail to realize such tactics are out of vogue. The people are wise. What they want and need is Democracy, and they know, too, that the greatest strides towards achieving it have been CONDUCTOR—"The golden rule is the rule for speedy transportation," says Edward Shelton, conductor for the Los Angeles Railway.

"The old maxim," continues Shelton, "of giving yourself a lift by giving the other fellow a hand is certainly the working order in the streetcar transportation business. Streetcars during the war time must keep on schedule. The motorman cannot make his time if he carries an 'anchor' on the back end. An 'anchor' is a slow conductor—a conductor who has not awakened to the fact that the streetcar crew is a team and must operate as a single unit.

"I find that by assisting ALL my passengers onto the car, by keeping the aisles clear so there is no bottleneck on the back end, and by being courteous and considerate to the passengers, our car is always on time.

"Most important is the fact that time goes faster and working conditions are truly pleasant."

Edward Shelton is the first Negro conductor to work out of Division Three.

Eastside War Chest Goal Is $10,072.00

"It's Up to Us to See Them Through" was emphasied by leaders of the Los Angeles Area War Chest appeal for "our boys, our Allies and our own at home" in their inspirational talks at the joint Kick-Off meeting last Monday afternoon for all volunteer workers in the Eastside and University-West Adams campaigns, which was held in the Parish Hall of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Headline speakers of the meeting were Mrs. Albert Crutcher, one of the War Chest vice-chairmen, Mrs. Lucine Gray, general mobilization chairman of all residential areas, and Mark Stoll, campaign director of the metropolitan residential districts. Paul Dietrich, chairman of the University-West Adams appeal, and Mrs. E. W. Rakestraw, Eastside chairman, were rally leaders.

$10,072.00 was set as the minimum goal for the Eastside.

There are several important matters regarding the health of people in our community which require immediate consideration of all members, Mr. Houston stated.

Property owners are especially urged to attend and become a part of this organization, and the public at large is cordially invited.

Ask Probe Of Tenney Committee

A special committee representing the 3500 members of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization met this week and charged State Senator Jack Tenney with obstructing the war effort.

At the same time the group accused Senator Tenney and his Joint Fact Finding Committee on un-American activities of approximating the Japanese police system of "thought control" in methods of investigation.

A two-point program was outlined by the committee from the eight writing guilds of the Mobilization. Emmet Lavery, chairman, presided and presented the program of activity.

This program was announced at a special press conference on Tuesday (October 17) by Chairman Emmet Lavery, well-known playwright and screen writer who has just been nominated without opposition to be the next president of the Screen Writers Guild.

Beauty Operators Found Guilty Here

Mattie Cole, owner of the L. A. Tex. Beauty Salon, 2330 South San Pedro street, and two unlicensed operators, Rosalie Mondy and Robbie Slaton, were found guilty of violation of the Cosmetology Act by Judge Charles Newall Carns in Division 5 of the Municipal Court Tuesday, October 17.

The proprietor received a fine of $100 or 10 days in jail, a suspended sentence of 180 days in jail and was placed on probation for one year.

The unlicensed operators received a fine of $50 or five days in jail, a suspended sentence of 180 days in jail and were placed on probation for one year.

All three defendants paid their fines.

ENGLAND—At the wheel of a Red Cross jeep is Elizabeth McDougald, of 2360 7th Avenue, New York City, director of an American Red Cross club in Great Britain. Miss McDougald arrived in England early in 1943 as a personal service director and was assigned to London's first Negro-staffed club, the Duchess. She was formerly a social service worker on the research staff of Fisk University. She is the daughter of Cornelius McDougald, 16 Morningside Avenue, New York City, and Mrs. Gertrude E. Ayer.

"A Small World," He Thinks Now

SOMEWHERE IN THE CENTRAL PACIFIC — (Delayed) — Marine Private Wilbur L. Blackman, colored, of 814 Federal Ave., Orlando, Fla., a switchboard operator in an anti-aircraft unit, went for a swim the other day in the waters off this atoll.

While floating, he grazed another swimmer.

It was his brother, John D. Blackman, a sailor, who had arrived earlier that day on a Naval craft.

made under the sagacious leadership of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

In the Tenney Committee everyone supporting Roosevelt is supposed to be 'red." Who do we find supporting Roosevelt: The CIO Political Action Committee; Senator Ball of Minnesota, outstanding Republican; Senator Claude Pepper of Florida; Harold F. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior; Burton of Ohio; Mary McLeod Bethune; and the elite of the Hollywood movie colony. We also find the lowly: the hodcarrier and the washerwoman — those who came up the rugged way. Even the New York Times saw the light, and that light was not red. It was the light of progress against which any opposition is opposition to the hopes and dreams of the American people today.

On the other hand, Dewey and all his spokesmen have built their case on false premises. For instance, Mr. Dewey tried to create the impression through his Republican newspapers that Hull was to be his adviser, until Mr. Hull firmly slapped the suggestion down. Although Dewey had the gall to say what Hull should do regarding the Dumbarton Oaks Conference, he did not tell reporters that he would urge Congress to ratify the agreement.

Until Dewey is prepared to crack down on his own reactionary fellow Republicans and assure the nation that the experience of 1919 will not be repeated, his praise is not worth a farthing and his role is that of another Harding.

GOP progressives like Ball and Burton have already warned the modern "irreconcilables," GOP reactionaries who oppose world organization. Unless Dewey denounces them, his fine talk is as but dust in the eyes of the nation.

Fortunately, the country does not have to wait for the answer: Dewey's foreign policy adviser, John F. Dulles, spoke out plainly. Dulles is a man whom Claude Pepper denounced as the lawyer for the Nazi banking firm of Schroeder in Germany. Dulles is a man who pooh-poohed the threat of war as nothing more than hysteria on the eve of Hitler's march into Prague.

This same Dulles wrote to the League of Women Voters' leader at Wilton, Connecticut admitting that he does not favor the use of armed force until an alert and enlightened public opinion exists. Since such an opinion certainly exists throughout the United Nations, it is plain that Dulles opposes the very basis of the Dumbarton Oaks Plan. At least his uncertainties offer no assurance, and Dulles' suggestion that only a Dewey in the White House would control Congress, is another indication of what he actually expects from Republican Senators when the issue of ratifying the Dumbarton Oaks Plan comes up.

Is this the sort of control we would have at the steering wheel of our government?

TRAINING—Under the exacting direction of Line Instructor B. H. Dean, Student Trolley Pilot T. Lester Ellis learns the workings of the controller and the feel of the air brakes. Instructor Dean is showing his student how to "feed the controller" to build the car up to maximum speed. It's the rhythm and timing which makes a good trolley pilot.

Mr. T. Lester Ellis is the first motorman to work at Division Three, located near Highland Park. He is one of the many Negroes employed by the Los Angeles Railway. After Mr. Ellis has qualified as a motorman, he will be given his numbers and assigned to the extra board. He will work in a substitute capacity until his seniority with the company earns for him a regular run.

● Seamen's Trial

Banks, testified that he had three reasons for not working. He was a compartment cleaner prior to the explosion, he did not receive an order to load ammunition and he was afraid to load ammunition. Melvin Ellis, seaman 2-C testified that he had also been a compartment cleaner, and although he had done some ammunition loading, he disliked it very much. He said he did not know the gravity of the charges against him until he was told by the Chaplain at Vallejo.

All of the men testified that they did not refuse to obey a specific order to load ammunition, but objected to the job in general because of the danger involved, and because only Negroes were assigned to the eask. They said that they signed the statement which is in evidence against them because they thought they had to do so when they were ordered by an ensign.

NO REASON FOR CHARGE

Marshall who flew to the scene of the trial on a Navy priority, and who will make his report directly to the Navy Department, stated that after investigation and conversations with the 50 men on trial; he was convinced that there is no reason for the men to be tried on mutiny charges, which imply a mass conspiracy; that the charges should be individual insubordination.

NAACP Youth Council Met At Arlington

The youth council of the N.A.A.C.P. held a very interesting and lively social meeting Saturday night, October 14, beginning at 8 o'clock at the swank Arlington Villa. The many young people present discussed many pertinent problems with which minorities are confronted both locally and nationally, and committees were set up to work with all other progressive groups to work out solutions for these problems.

Mr. Stewart, who is now connected with Pilgrim House in Bronzeville, attended the meeting as honored guest and is now working with a special committee committed to the task of organizing a youth rally to be presented at Pilgrim House in November. Ike Adams, president of the council, urged all members to redouble their efforts to interest the youth of the community in the problems facing us now and those which will carry over into the post-war period.

Several of the new committee chairmen outlined to those present the scope and the importance of their respective committees. The council will hold its next regular meeting at the 28th street YMCA Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock, and all members, both new and old, are urged to be present.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By John M. Lee

POST-WAR PLANNING

The November election is the rendezvous with destiny that comes into the lives of men once every century. How well the people who stand to make the greatest gains in this century have prepared themselves, will be determined by the way they react to the opportunity that is present. Out of the chaos of a world bleeding and broken, a tiny beam signaling the hope of the future flashes bravely. At no time since the civil war has there been an opportunity for the Negro people to set the course of their progress such as they have today. The vote has always been a powerful factor in American life, but it has never been more significant. Properly cast, it will set in motion the machinery that will make it impossible to halt the steady march of the Negro to a position of full equality in a democratic nation.

John M. Lee

The CIO, with its great history of courageous struggle, is younger than many organizations that have sincerely and progressively fought for the rights and advancement of the Negro, yet the record, to be truthful, must show that the CIO has advanced the Negro to a comparatively greater degree than any of these organizations. The reason is obvious. The CIO deals with jobs and the things that are relative to jobs such as food, clothing, housing, a dollar in the bank, and the power of intelligent mass voting.

By affording, generally, full and equal opportunity to Negro workers to participate in its program, the CIO has supplied the answer to the Negroes' yearning cries for realistic, productive leadership. Present and future security is the force that must guide every voter if he is at all concerned about his own and his fellow's welfare.

The CIO recognizes the necessity to re-elect President Roosevelt if its program, which has frequently been called democracy in action, is not to be hampered and set back; not because the President is the only man in the nation who is capable and courageous enough to lead the fight for fuller democracy for all Americans, but simply because his opponent is not the man to replace him.

There is nothing more important in the planning for the post-war period than the question of leadership. It is item number one. The economic status of the Negro will be determined by his action at the polls on November 7. It is inconceivable that he will vote against the man who has made its present level possible.

The CIO has doubled and redoubled its strength to support the election of President Roosevelt and members of the Senate and Congress who will work in the interest of all the people. That the Negro people will follow its lead is more than a coincidence. That the Negro people will share its fate is unquestionable.

In the absence of a program, the Republican candidate and his supporters, who come from the ranks of the isolationists, the America Firsters, the homegrown facists, and the long hours and small pay groups, have resorted to smear attacks against the leaders of the CIO, and the candidates whom it supports, from the President down.

The Negro voter cannot afford to indulge, even for just one political campaign, the self-destroying luxury of smear attacks. There are no traditions or pledges of loyalty that are wide enough to cover the sin of voting in hatred and anger, yet that is all the Republican candidate for the presidency and his fellow office seekers are offering the Negro voter. They will reject bitter Republicanism this time as they have rejected it in the past.

COMPETITION

When the need is no longer present, and the records of the Blood Bank are closed for the last time, it will be interesting to know what union local made the greater contribution through its members' voluntary donations of a pint of blood every ten weeks. By using a system which permits crediting each donation to a specified local, the Red Cross will be able to announce the exact number of pints each has contributed. While the LANG is not great in numbers, its record should be outstanding because of the regularity with which its members make their visits. Make an appointment today and help your local take the lead.

SUPPORTING NO. 4—The following representatives of well known organizations met at the Y.M.C.A. last Friday and launched a campaign to bring success to proposition four on your November ballot. Proposition 4 provides for the elimination of taxes on Charitable Institutions and is known as Fair Play for Charity. Mr. George Bryant was elected Chairman, others shown are: Father Berglin and Mr. Galvin of the Catholic Church, Mrs. J. Willis of the Y.W.C.A., Rev. Frank A. Harris, presiding Elder of the AME Church, Rev. Baxter Duke, pastor of the Avalon Christian Church, Mr. Harold Prince of the Y. M. C. A., Fred M. Roberts and John Fowler, chairman of the Outdoor Life and Health Association.

Douglas-Mosk Speak Sunday

Central Avenue, Sunday afternoon, October 22 at 6 p. m. The public is invited to hear them.

Fortune Survey

NEW YORK, N. Y.—The Fortune Magazine poll of Negro opinion conducted in August in New York and Chicago revealed that 60.9 per cent of Negroes in those two cities favor the re-election of President Roosevelt, it was announced this week.

Economic Relief Council Plans To Enter the Production Field

The Economic Relief Council through the Black American Salvage Company and its many community activities is planning for the future of the returning Negro Servicemen by an expansion into the field of production through community support.

The Negro, the Economic Relief Council believes, must launch out into the field for production if he is to maintain the measure of economic security gained in this period of war. The training which the servicemen have received in the various phases of production must be turned to use in peacetime, and the Economic Relief Council feels that these newly acquired skills should be put to work both for the welfare of the men and the progress of the community.

The facilities of the Economic Relief Association, especially those of the nursery can be broadened into truck farming for consumption through the various markets through support of the community, thereby giving employment to many Negro veterans while also fulfilling a need of the community. The salvage activities of the Black American Salvage Community wil give an outlet to the abilities of those men interested in business fields.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reeves, directors of the Black American Salvage Company and the Economic Relief Association, are much concerned about the future of the World War Veterans and are joining with other community organizations for rehabilitating the men back into civilian life.

Taking full advantage of the provisions of the G. I. Bill, eleven or more ex-servicemen will spend varying amounts of time at Lincoln University pursuing academic and vocational curricula.

LUNCHEON FOR CHICAGO VISITOR

The well-appointed home of Mrs. Juanita Henderson, 1506 West 37th lace, was the scene of a gala Bridge Luncheon, on Thursday, when she invited some thirty-five matrons in to do honor to her Chicago guest, Mrs. Susie Strickland Scott. Mrs. Scott, a former resident of Los Angeles, is a successful hat designer in the Windy City. For a centerpiece, the table at Mrs. Henderson's luncheon was decorated with orchids, no less, which made a picture of breath-taking loveliness. Assisting Mrs. Henderson with the lovely affair were her daughter, Mrs. Clara Taylor, and Mesdames Julia Richardson, Eva Gaenet, Lillian Butler and Ethel Williams.

CECIL BUCHANAN SCORES

The song recital of charming Cecil Buchanan, at the Ward Chapel Church Sunday afternoon, was al that we expected it to be. A large and appreciative audience thrilled to her magnificent voice and pleasing personality. Miss Buchanan, daughter of Rev. J. E. Buchanan of Pasadena, has many outstanding plans for the future, which many of us predict will come true.

NEWLYWEDS

Quite a surprise to her many friends was the marriage of Marcelle Ward to Sergeant C. T. Erwing, on Saturday, October 14. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Maggie Peery, 1425 East 15th Street. Sergeant Erwing was just recently discharged from military service. The bride is employed by the Los Angeles Board of Education. The couple will make their home with Mrs. Peery for the present time. This columnist wishes all the happiness to the newlyweds.

HERE AND THERE...

Congratulations are in order... and we say them to our good friends, Earline and Bennie Shaw, upon the birth of their first child, a lovely baby girl. Weighing six pounds and twelve ounces, the little bundle of joy, who has been christened Valerie Brenda, was born in the Queen of Angels hospital on Monday.

The palatial new home of Rev. and Mrs. Jonathan Lyle Caston, 36th Street and Arlington Ave., was the scene of a dedicatory tea, on Sunday, sponsored by one of the women's auxiliaries of the church. Many friends were on hand to take advantage of their first opportunity to look around the attractive new home, and to wish the Castons much happiness there.

Kenneth Spencer, the brilliant young basso, had a short visit with his mother, Mrs. Emma Spencer a few days ago, when he passed through the city, enroute to New York. Spencer, who has been traveling with a USO entertainment unit overseas, for the past several months, is scheduled to give several concerts in the East in the near future.

Saw the Bing Crosby picture, "Going My Way," and was very pleased with it. The integrating of the little colored boy in the group of young choristers was very neatly done, and the appeal by "inference" rather than by "direct quota" could not be missed. This picture shows one good example of how the racial equality angle can be worked out in motion pictures, without offending anyone.

Don't forget the big Roosevelt "Good Neighbor" Rally tonight at the Shrine Auditorium. There will be an unusual program of Latin American entertainment, with many Hollywood stars in attendance. Admission is free. Come on, Roosevelt boosters, and make your presence felt. Until next week... 'bye.

"SUNSHINE BEARER"—Bertha Dyer Woolford, portrayor of 'Mother' in Army produced film "Negro Soldier", was the featured soloist on 'Ladies Day' program at Hamilton M. E. church last Sunday. Mrs. Woolford, an impressive singer of gospel songs, plans to visit hospitals and sing for sick and wounded service men. Her tour will begin in early November.

Yvonne Maddox-George Houston Marriage Solemnized Wednesday

Over five hundred guests attended one of the most fashionable weddings of the fall season, held Wednesday night at 8 p. m. at Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church.

A beautiful and artistically-designed wedding ring of white gardenias made an elaborate setting for the marriage ceremony of Miss Yvonne Maddox and Mr. George W. Houston, United States Army Air Force. Rev. E. W. Rakestraw, pastor of the bride's church, performed the double-ring ceremony. The soloists were Jessel Reid and Carl Yaeger of the United States Army.

The beautiful strains of the "Wedding March" played by Edith Catherine Owens at the organ began the bridal procession. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. Clyde Maddox. Her gown was a hoop skirt of white slipper satin in period style. A dainty shoulder ruffle set off the sheer yoke, buttoned sleeves repeated the ruffle at the wrist. The fitted bodice buttoned down the back, a lace juliet cap which supported a three-tier fingertip veil. Her jewelry was a strand of knotted pearls. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and bouvardia with an orchid center.

Matron of honor Bernice Scott, aunt of the groom, and Geraldine Barnum, maid of honor, cousin of the bride, were pink taffeta bustle topping full skirts, with matching lace bonnet and carried bouquets of blue delphinium and roses. Bridal attendants were: Wrenna Clarke, Roslyn Hundley, Ermie Brown, Thadeus Ross, Doris Lee Thomas and Betty Brewington.

They wore taffeta ruffled gowns, two each in orchid, canary and blue. On their heads they wore matching lace caps with self-trimmed bows. They carried pink gladiola bouquets. The little flower girls, Melonee Johnson and Judith Downs, wore pale pink ruffled taffeta dresses and carried pink and blue nosegays. Mr. Carl Peterson acted as best man. Ushers in tuxedos included Lord Small, Warren Quinn, Wilbur Hall, Robert Brewington and Jimmy Haney.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Aurena Maddox, was stunning in powder blue jersey with pink rosebud corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Elise Taft, wore turquoise blue chiffon with orchid corsage. The wedding reception immediately followed at the beautiful home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barnum. The decoration of the church and reception was taken care of by Mrs. Lenora Greene. Assisting the bride at the reception were Dolores McDaniels, Elaine Ross, Orchid Oliver, Winifred Smith, Gloria Howard, Frances Spann, Ina Howard, El Rae Griggs and Emma Brown.

After the reception a bridal dinner was given at the bride's homes.

Shriners Meet To Award Scholarship

The nobles of Egyptian Temple No. 5, A.E.A.O.N.M.S. met Saturday, October 7. A highlight was the presentation of the Shrine Scholarship award. The honor went to Willard Powers, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Powers of 1462 E. 47th St. Young Powers graduated with high honors from Jefferson High School in June. This fall he enters UCLA to major in mathematics, engineering and refrigeration.

Powers won an award from the California Scholarship Federation and the Superintendent's award of Jefferson High School. For four semesters he headed the school's "Who's Who" Society and was president of his Senior "B" Class.

Egyptian Temple was very pleased with the selection of its Educational Committee. Noble Milton S. Brown, in presenting a check to young Powers, praised him highly.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Visited in L. A.

The many Los Angeles residents who have been guests at Murray's Overall-Wearing Dude Ranch, Victorville, Calif., were pleased to welcome Mrs. Lela O. Murray for a one-day stay here this week. Mrs. Murray, who together with her husband, Mr. Nollie Murray, manages the ranch, seldom foregoes her duties there to "go on vacation," but her many friends here are always happy to see her.

36th St. School P.T.A. Meeting

"Home is the most important single institution to our children," said Mrs. Catherine Henry, speaking before the 36th St. school P. T. A. last Wednesday, adding, "parents are the key people in the life of a child."

The meeting was held in the school auditorium with Mrs. Ernest Shelby presiding. Mrs. Bernice Barnum's class recited an original poem, "A Typical Citizen in Our Town", and then sang "Flag of Our Land."

The program was in charge of Mrs. Otis Rene.

Orange Blossoms Club Meeting

The Orange Blossom Club of Daughter Elks held its regular meeting last month at the home of Mrs. S. P. Johnson, 834 East 28th street, with a large attendance of members present.

After the meeting adjourned, a delicious supper was served by the hostess, Mrs. S. P. Johnson.

The club will meet Friday night, October 27, with Mrs. Myrtle Laurence, 1346 E. 41st Place. Auxiliary members are invited to attend.

Mrs. Wilma Martin, 1171 E. 47th Place, is on the sick list. She is confined to her home with a fractured ankle. At present she is doing nicely.

Don't forget the big rummage sale Nov. 4, corner 32nd street and Central.

PUBLICITY MAN—Maceo Hill, nationally known in the newspaper publicity field, will be in Los Angeles this week. While here he will be the guest of Fred Roberts, 350 Jefferson Blvd.

John H. Lawson In New Lecture Series

What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

Jessie Mae Brown

With the Sixth War Loan Drive in the limelight for aiding the nation, the new Martha Williams chapter of the Wands is rapidly making plans to do its part. With buying bonds one of the biggest parts stay-at-homers play in aiding the war effort, the Wands are expecting full cooperation from the public. On November 11, the chapter will be doing its part at the USO Canteen. . . . The AKAs recently took another of its frequent trips to Birmingham Hospital, to cheer up the recuperating soldiers.

KITCHEN POLICE

With a spicy breakfast program featuring William Pollard as guest speaker, Winifred Saxton, soloist, Yvonne Cole and Ralph Jones at the piano, and Walter Worrill leading the group in community singing ,the Dormineers Club (residents of the YMCA), entertained their girl friends with breakfast. The gents sported aprons and scanned the cookbook on the hows of making a perfect breakfast. Toussaint L'O Jennings, Lloyd Thomas, Joe Knight, William Jones and several others took over the role of cooks and, I'm told, the meal was quite delicious. The gents plan to have this type of gathering at least twice monthly.

FASHION STANDOUTS

The latest (and nothing but) is being proudly worn by all the glamour debs 'round town. Most recent comment catchers include the bit of suede bootery featuring spiked heels, etc., worn by S.C. co-ed Marion Jackson. Norma Lee McDaniels, who makes it a point to be outstanding, has as her wardrobe addition a black satin drape, strictly date type, and she tops it with a black beaver hat and casual monkey fur coat. Fannie Crain has turned to Madame Vogue for her black and red double blouse outfit, while Bette Wilson's latest features a poplin dress of black, using a red topper coat for that dash of color. Clothes have the day and the debs are right on the beam with the times.

In order to encourage the "young bloods" to play more tennis, the West Side Tennis Club is forming a junior body. So, young setters interested in playing the game are free to join the organization where they will be coached on the high points of the game.

WELL! WELL! WELL!

AKS's Elfleda Jackson plans upon graduation from S. C. in June, 1945, to enter Howard University where she will begin to study for her M.D. . . . Jackie Wilson receives her B.A. in sociology next Sunday at the S. C. commencements. . . . When turkey time rolls around next month, Sarah Collins will be in Chicago. She departs from the Angeles City on the 6th of November. . . . Corinne Jones will spend her Thanksgiving vacation up in Frisco with the Ed Boyds. . . . Several months passed before any word was heard from William Elkins, who is fighting on foreign shores, so I'm quite sure his family and friends were relieved when a letter finally got through stating that he was safe and sound. . . . When the new university semester opens, understand Ruth Smith will enter S. C. to study sociology.

Noreen Allen is preparing to leave the States for the Hawaiian Islands where a government position is waiting her. . . . Cupid's spotlight is directed on Hariette Patterson, who takes those vows next month. She was showered Sunday, with Eunice Gross and Gloria Smith acting hostesses. Next Sunday Gloria Walton is honoring the bride-elect, and the following Sunday the honoree will entertain her brides maids. . . . Speaking of showers and such, Les Charmontes certainly surprised Rosalie Smith when they turned last Sunday's meet into a baby shower in her honor. By the way, Clori Ann Young and Franzanna Slater Saffold were elected as active members of the club.

Yvonne Johnson, after taking a year's vacation, enters UCLA this semester. . . . Roy Harte is still making plans for that two or three-month stay in Berkeley, Calif. . . . The date for the AKA Scholarship Benefit affair is set for November 17, so keep that date open. . . . TILL NEXT WEEK.

She had as her attendants, Mrs. Thelma Harris, as matron of honor; Miss Beverly Sutton, Miss Gloria Green, Miss Ladania Adams, Miss Dorothy Robinson were hostesses. Not Deceived By Flattering Phrases

Many letters and pamphlets concerning Proposition No. 12, pro and con, have been received in the office of the California Eagle.

This proposition has been placed on the ballot, not by the friends of the workingman, but by the friends of the big industrialists. They call it the "Right to Work," and their billboards demand loudly that every one be given "a chance to work."

But if you examine this proposition closely you will find it really means a chance for the big industrialist, the manufacturer, the employer, to demand his workmen work as long as he says for whatever wages he wants to give. How would you like to work ten hours a day for ten cents an hour? That is the situation we could very easily reach if Proposition No. 12 should be passed.

One of the letters received by the Eagle referred to a Union which has a clause in its ritual, so the writer stated, saying that a person cannot be a member of that Union unless his grandfather was a craftsman of that trade!

The writer probably has in mind the "grandfather" requirement of some Southern states for voting. Or he may have been thinking of the International Boilermakers or the International Association of Machinists, which as every one knows required a person to have a white skin before he can become a member.

These are conditions in labor unions which every intelligent person deplores. Such problems, however, must be solved within the unions themselves. And they will be solved to the degree that the membership of each union realizes it is to their own interest to combat racial discrimination.

Negroes are beginning to find out who their real friends are. Even if they are not admitted into some unions, it is nevertheless organized labor that is fighting racial discrimination most effectively. In their fight against Jim-crowism labor has been their "Balm in Gilead." To the degree that the Negro people and their organizations surge forward, rallying to their side all of their friends, in the fight against Jim-crowism in unions and everywhere else, will the problem be solved.

Proposition No. 12 is a menace to the Negro people. It is a menace to all patriotic Americans. But it is more of a menace to Negroes than to any other class of Americans. We are not barred from the benefits and privileges of all unions. The CIO welcomes us gladly. Many members of the trades unions, the AFL, are our best friends and are working within their unions for our admission as full-fledged members.

Shall we destroy the fruits of these struggles on our behalf? Shall we render null and void all our own efforts and the efforts of our friends to create a labor movement truly representative of real Americanism?

No. So far as the California Eagle is concerned, we expect to devote one hundred per cent of our effort and energy for a "NO" on Proposition No. 12. A "Yes" vote will be definitely more injurious to Negro workers than to any others.

The defeat of Proposition No. 12 will safe-guard the interests of the Negro people, working. It will keep industrial harmony in our state as a pre-condition to post-war security.

Be not deceived by flattering phrases, by words twisted so that they seem to mean the direct opposite of what they really do. Vote to keep the rights we have now. Vote to have the right to keep on fighting until we have won all the privileges which the American Constitution grants to all American citizens.

VOTE NO ON NO. 12.

"IT'S NOT OVER YET—STICK TO YOUR JOB!"

Malcolm Ross Quotes Eagle Editorial

In an address by the Hon. Malcoln Ross, chairman of the President's Committee on Fair Employment Practice before the annual conference of the National Urban League held October 1 in Columbus, Ohio, Mr. Ross cited the recent victory won by Negro workers in securing employment as conductors and motormen from the Los Angeles Railway Company.

"In Los Angeles," said Mr. Ross, "the Negroes had largely taken to heart the fact that their race was barred from obviously essential war jobs on the streetcars. There was restlessness, resentment, occasional brawls on the trolleys—all the storm signals which run before the fact of racial conflagration. But when the simple act of justice was done, when the public and the union and the company proved their good faith, these are the sober and patriotic words with which a hitherto critical Negro newspaper celebrated the event."

That "hitherto critical newspaper" was the California Eagle.

We quote, proudly yet humbly, the editorial to which Mr. Ross referred, and which he himself quoted in his address.

"It was a proud day for the Negroes of Los Angeles when the cars of the Los Angeles Railway Company rolled out of their barns Wednesday morning and fourteen Negroes were on their platforms guiding them...

But with our jubilation comes also a sense of deep responsibility. The eyes of all Los Angeles are on those fourteen Negro conductors and conductorettes. Our enemies, as well as our friends, are watching every move that will be made. Every word that will be spoken...

Hold your head high, little Negro girl! Collect your fares, direct your passengers to their destinations with the courtesy only you know how to show. Help that old lady, brother, that cripple, with the kindness and the gentleness that seems to have been born within you. You may have nasty things said to you, mean things, things that will make your cheeks burn and your fingers itch to strike down the person who said them. But don't do it, brother, don't do it. You are fighting as great a battle on your streetcar platform as those who are in Europe and the South Seas. You are fighting for the dignity and the honor of your race. You have won a bridgehead. You have taken a hilltop held by the enemy. Keep them. Do not lose them by one hasty word, one careless action. Keep them, hold them, and go on winning others by your high moral courage, your friendliness, your sense of humor, your native tact and courtesy."

We Are For Hal Styles In The 15th

We recognize Gordon McDonough as our sincere friend. As a member of the Board of supervisors from the Second Supervisorial District, he has demonstrated his ability and his desire to do all he can for the uplift of the people of his district, the majority of whom are Negroes.

Grateful for that understanding helpfulness, and believing he would continue to work for the welfare of the people of his district, we reelected him last spring to continue in office as supervisor.

Supervisor Gordon has a great work to complete. Like President Roosevelt, his experience and his ability are needed where he has gained that experience, where he has done his best work. That place is the Second Supervisorial District the place to which we elected him last spring.

We need you here, Supervisor McDonough. We feel you have made a mistake in accepting the candidacy for member of Congress from the Fifteenth Congressional District. But we do not censure you for this. It is hard for any human being to evalute his own abilities, to decide where he can best use those abilties for his country. It is hard not to answer when ambition beckons.

But, we the people of the Second Supervisorial District, are not going to let you leave us. We are going to keep you here, to help solve the problems of the post-war world for us in Los Angeles County.

The California Eagle grateful for all that Supervisor Gordon has done for this district, will insist that you stay to finish your job, a great job, a difficult job, a job that no inexperienced person can do.

The California Eagle will support instead in the Fifteenth Congregressional District the candidacy of Hal Styles. Young, enthusiastic, imbued with a genuine love for humanity, for the down-and-outers, for the third of the nation which has concerned President Roosevelt so strongly, we feel he is needed badly in Congress when the plans for our country and for a world after the war begins to take shape.

The man who for thirteen years has helped to secure jobs for these who had none, who found homes for those who were wandering the streets, who united families, who somehow found bread for the hungry—this man we believe is needed and needed badly in the halls of Congress to vote for the humane measures President Roosevelt desires.

Hal Styles, we believe, will continue to work in Congress for the Negro, the Mexican, the member of every minority group and class, as he has worked for them in his "Help Thy Neighbor" programs.

The thousands he has befriended will answer all critics in the ringing words of Senator Truman: "I'm for Hal Styles."

Senator Truman, better than any other man, realizes how much our leader, President Roosevelt, depends upon such men as Hal Styles in Congress to insure the social legislation he has asked for.

The California Eagle, therefore, with Senator Truman and the thousands of men and women who Hal Styles has befriended, says definitely, "I'M FOR HAL STYLES."

W. J. Wheaton Says . . .

Too often, in the heat of a political campaign, we look only at the personalities or, may be even their looks, to determine our choice. In the main we forget to peer behind the scene and take a look at the supporting cast. The men who will determine the policy of the man elected: Should Mr. Dewey win this election . . . Of course we don't believe that he will... let us take a peep at some of his main supporters. (a) Hoover: Is there any man woman or child who doesn't think, and remember the "Chicken In The Pot" days. When men and women were victims of big interests and protesting citizens were gassed and subjected to gross indignities in the Capital of the nation. (b) Hearst the demagogue who, after a visit to the White House to ask favors that were denied, turned his guns on the man whom he had previously supported, and the numerous others who care not one whit for the welfare of the men and women who toil.

The Moss Backs of the old guard who would draw this nation back into the shell of isolationism and blanket any attempt for recriprocal trade agreements. Mr. Dewey may have good intentions but when the supporters begin to put the pressure on, well, that's another story." Smearing, Mud slinging, Lies." But who are the smearers? Let's take a look: Have you seen the term applied to Hillman? Although an American citizen, by adoption, he has been smeared as a "Russian born pants presser." Russian born, Is not that an insult to one of our greatest fighting allies? Is it any disgrace to be Russian born? This free country, one that opens the door of opportunity to all, has given to Hillman as to many other foreign born, the opportunity to rise above the level.

There are many in the camp of the GOP whose Americanism is below the standard. Then comes the "Glamorous" congressa-lady who represents the "Nutmeg State," Connecticut. After stating some half truths, and failing to correct them she stated, and we quote, "Shall we trust the making of a new peace to the tired and shaking hands of a man who could not keep the one he inherited when he was young and strong? He failed in his greatest obligation to the nation before God and under the Constitution. For he is the only American President who ever lied us into a war because he did not have the political courage to lead us into it." End of quote. The glamorous one should be sympathised with and not censored. Her close association with the Rankins and pseudo Dem's whom Senator Guffey has said, dominate the Republicans in the House, has, no doubt, given her a Billingsgate mode of expression that ill becomes a lady of culture.

Gov. Bricker, like his running mate Dewey, has the expert faculty of picking out certain expressions in speeches and statements made by the President, without reading the qualifying words which precede or follow the phrasing, thereby distorting the meaning of such. And by the way, a certain gentleman has made the offer of $2,500 to be given to any charity Mr. Dewey may name if he (Dewey) will quote the preceding or following words in the paragraph of the sentences that he selects for his criticisms of the Administration. We listened to the speech of Gov. Bricker, made in San Francisco Sat. the 14th, and followed up some of the statements made and we are convinced that the GOP's will go to any extent to impress unthinking voters. Gov. Warren is showing political astuteness in refusing to make any prediction as to the ultimate outcome in California. He is not going to climb on the limb and have it sawed off behind him.

Rep. Tom Rolph, no doubt sees the hand writing on the wall and, so far, has been very quiet. Frank R. Havenner, his opponent in the Fourth Congressional District, is gaining votes wherever he appears, and his election seems assured. He will be a tower of strength to the Roosevelt administration, and his integrity and honesty of purpose can't be denied. Furthermore he knows no man by his creed, color or national origin. The voters of the Bay area are keeping close tabs on the men who aspire to judgeships, and there will be many disappointments when the votes are counted. This is an election when party labels are forgotten and candidates for office are judged for their worth to the community and their fairness to humanity at large. All in all, this is an election where the average voter has studied the issues and

Local N.A.A.C.P. Fight Restrictions

The California Eagle is in perfect harmony with the attitude of the local N.A.A.C.P. in its effort to prevail upon certain judges to be, if not more American, at least more human is rendering decisions in the matter of convenant property restrictions.

In most cases where the property restrictions, state that only Caucasians shall be permitted to reside in certain sections, Negroes are the chief victims of this un-American, un-Christian, and truly "unhuman" practice. In the opinion of this newspaper residential restriction covenants are at variance with the 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

A few of the cases in which our judges have gone on record in enforcing the so-called covenant restrictions are the cases of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts, West 30th street, the Crestmore Tract, in which Atty. Thomas L. Griffith, the local N.A.A.C.P. president, represented the Roberts and Judge Myron Westover upheld the restriction act. The case of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lofton and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Laws in the Goodyear Tract—Judge Roy V. Rhodes rendered a decision against the Laws and Loftons ordering them out of their homes.

The case of Mr. and Mrs. Allen in West 50th street, between Main and Broadway—Judge William J. Palmer decided against the Allens. The latest Los Angeles restriction offense is the case of Atty. Clarence Jones, who is ordered out of his home by the decision handed down by Judge Arthur Coats.

In Pasadena the outstanding case of the year is that of Fairchild vs. Raines, in which the restrictions were upheld by Judge Frank C. Collier, but reversed by the State Supreme Court.

It matters not how humble a man's home, it is his castle. It is easily understood how and why one man would object to another invading his home or premises, but it is strange how certain people will deny other people the rights and privileges granted ALL by the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States, and the Four Freedoms.

Are we not sowing the same seeds that brought forth Fascism in Geramny and lighted the torch that started the present world conflict?

✦ AS I SEE IT! ✦

By Jeanette Cohen

Two women shared the platform the other night at the Golden Gate Ballroom in New York. Two great women. One black — the other white. Both women loved by millions—both women deeply imbedded in the hearts of the people.

That great woman, Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, educator and leader of the Negro people, chaired a meeting sponsored by the Non-Partisan Registration Committee. The main speaker at this meeting was that equally great woman, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Despite the vicious, filthy attacks against the wife of our Commander-in-Chief by the Peglers, Hearsts and Deweys, tremendous audiences have jammed theatres, concert halls and ballrooms in Brooklyn, Manhattan and the Bronx to listen to the message of that outstanding advocate of democracy. The applause and cheers of admiration and confidence were deafening at each one of those meetings.

The jeers of the Deweyites against 'the woman who never stays home" are answered by the praise of every freedom-loving American, for the woman who stands firmly on her own feet and marches, without faltering, on the road to victory.

Yes, Eleanor Roosevelt is "away from home again." She is out reaching the millions of Americans of every color, every creed and every religion to remind them of their patriotic duty to register and vote. She is saying to the privileged Americans that there are thousands of their brothers and sisters, Negro and white, in the South who are deprived of their democratic right to vote. She is saying to us—you and me—that we must vote now so that they may vote later.

While the vast majority of the audience at the Golden Gate were supporters of President Roosevelt for a fourth term, there may have been a few here and there who might have been confused by the propaganda of the reactionaries, about the post-war period. But when Rev. Adam Clayton Powell, that dynamic figure held high in the esteem of his people all over the country, assured that: "There is no way of losing the peace with FDR, but we can lose the peace under 'screwy' Dewey," the audience raised the roof with roars of approval.

The Poll Taxers and Southern "crackers" may thing that their northern henchmen can get away with speeches of empty promises. But Dr. Channing Tobias, who also spoke at the meeting, has full confidence in Negro Americans. He said: "If there is one group in America that knows what this campaign is about, it is the Negro group, and they are not going to be fooled by promises."

Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune believes: "No man in the history of America has done as much for the Negro group as FDR."

Bishop R. R. Wright, as millions more, agrees with that and states further: "The Roosevelt record is one of constructive action. The Republican record is only one of unfulfilled promises.

"We need President Roosevelt in this crisis. England will not get rid of Churchill—the Soviet Union will not get rid of Stalin—China will not get rid of Chiank Kai-shek. We should not get rid of Roosevelt. This is no time to break up that quartet. If one leader is dropped out of the quartet, there will be disharmony."

Remember to vote on November 7. Remember to vote for Roosevelt.

POLITICAL RACE-BAITING

Many of us who have been admirers of the two men discussed in the following paragraphs, will be interested in their race-baiting ctivities against other minorities. If they will bait any racial minority, rest assured that Negroes are not exempted. Here are their opinions about Japanese-Americans, written by Larry Tajiri, editor, "Pacific Citizen," a Japanese-American newspaper.

PLITICAL ASPIRANTS

It is interesting to note that in twelve months' time two public officials in California have warned that the return of Japanese-Americans to their homes would result in bloodshed. And it is something of a coincidence that both of these men are young Southern California politicians whose political fortunes are in the ascendancy. One is Fred Howser, the D. A. of L. A. County. The other is Fred F. Houser, lieutenant governor of California.

FRED HOWSER

It was Fred Howser who warned last fall that three organizations had threatened to kill any person of Japanese ancestry who returned here. In his statement, Mr. Howser seemed more intent on fear than on his public responsibility, which is law enforcement. His statement provided a one day sensation for the Hearst Press and the Los Angeles Times, outstanding proponents of the anti-Japanese reaction. It may be that D. A. Howser has lost his appetite for racebaiting, or it may be that he has found that hounding Japanese-Americans isn't consistent with his pronouncements of fair play regardless of race, creeds, etc., but he has not made any similar racist statements for some time.

Just before the May primaries, D. A. Howser was questioned by church groups as to his attitudes toward Japanese-Americans. His reply was that he would enforce the law fairly without prejudice. Before the war about 40 percent of all persons of Japanese ancestry on the American mainland lived in Los Angeles County, so that the personal prejudices of a public official of that county is a matter of some importance to any individuals who may suffer as a result of such prejudices. Howser's statement, then, is a reassuring one. It is to be hoped that in the future he will vent his spleen and his authority on those who threaten to commit violence, rather than on the intended victims.

FRED F. HOUSER

Fred F. Houser, lieutenant governor, and Rep. nominee for U. S. Senator, is rather new at racebating. He gave it a tentative trial a few weeks ago in a small county seat in the Sierran hinterland. He now considers the 1944 Yellow Peril as his major campaign issue. Of course, the Lt. Gov., like his superior, Gov. Warren, had publicly opposed any proposal for the return of the evacuees, but in the past few weeks his thesis is that everything concerned with fair-play for Japanese-American evacuees is a New Deal plot, including the possibility of return to California. Houser declared that he was opposed to the Japanese-Americans returning to their home state because he is a "native son," has aligned himself with that school of thought which holds that American democracy cannot win its war against Japan unless there is a total racist hate against even Americans of Japanese ancestry. Lt. Gov. Houser is a young public official who is looking forward to a career in the U. S. Senate, but he looks back to the Dark Ages for guidance. A campaign of racist bogeyism seems hardly the proper preliminary to a career in the U. S. Senate. It is possible that the young candidate does not realize the sordid history of race mongering in California, of the propagation of racial hatreds for economic advantage. It may be that he considers his attack on an American minority as political opportunism, and it is true that he has made his statements on this issue at places in California where there has been some popular activity against evacuees—at Alturas, which is frightened by its proximity to the Tule Lake Segregation center, at Sunnyvale, where the city council passed an anti-evacuee resolution, at Salinas, whose chamber of commerce has sent "missionaries" to the inter-mountain states and the east to speak on the "Japanese problem." But if his attitude is founded on such opportunism, then his political naivete is alarming. If he is not merely an opportunist but a sincere white supremacist of the "native son" stripe, then it is just as well that the fact is out.

P. V. COMMENT

Such comments are of obvious concern to the Negro community of L. A. County and California, for our experience with racebaiters has been all too bitter. If race mongering such as the zoot suit riots against Mexican people, the undemocratic evacuation of Japanese-Americans, goes unquestioned by Negroes, we can early expect similar action against us. With the mass increase of Negroes on the Pacific coast, which already caused fearful concern among the majority group, who knows what might be attempted against us? It is well to remember with a negative ballot such double talkers who would grow fat on racial persecutions. They are of the same breed as the Cotton Ed Smiths, the Martin Dies, the Talmages, the Rankins and the Bilbos.

Large Crowd Attends Funeral Of Presiding Elder J. Holmes

After an illness of fifteen months, Reverend James Benjamin Holmes, former presiding elder of the Los Angeles District, Southwest Rocky Mountain Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, passed to the Great Beyond from the Methodist Hospital, Los Angeles, Wednesday night, October 4th. But three days had been spent in the hospital where he had been rushed in the hope of prolonging his life. During the remainder of his illness his devoted wife and family had ministered to his comfort in every way posible at their West 29th Street home. Throngs numbering into the hundreds paid their last respects to this well known and beloved minister of the gospel, at the First A.M.E. Zion Church, Los Angeles, Tuesday morning, October 10th with Presiding Elder W. B. Smith officiating, Bishop W. C. Brown being unavoidably absent.

Acclamied one of the most beautiful funerals heretofore witnessed in the city, the scene will long linger in the memories of those in attendance: the rich but quietly dignified mahogany casket on which was placed alone an open Bible, turned to the favorite scripture of the deceased, the 91st Psalm; an exquisite background formed by a floral Bible, open and standing five feet high, the family floral piece; on either side extending back to the steps of the rostrum a gorgeous flower banked altar of sprays, wreathes, pillows, hearts and various designs in which every blossom bespoke the freshness of the crisp October air. Individuals, choirs, auxiliaries, churches, from Montgomery, Albama to Oakland, California, had united in supplying the labrinth of wonderful floral tributes, while telegrams, letters and cards had poured in from all sections of the country, overwhelming the sorrowing family with reminders of the esteem in which their loved one was held.

Dr. H. Philbert Lankford, of San Diego, acting as master of ceremonies, was flanked by the outstanding ministers of many denominations, of many California cities, who taxed the rostrum to its capacity, while a large number of others were seated on the main floor. Among the speakers were: Rev. E. C. Walkins, of Monrovia, close friend of the deceased for more than twenty-five years; Presiding Elder Frank Harris, African Methodist Episcopal Church; Dr. S. M. Beane, Hamilton M. E. Church; Dr. L. C. Cleaves, Phillips Temple C.M.E. Church; Dr. E. W. Rakestraw, Wesley Chapel M. E., representing the Interdenominational Ministers Alliance; Rev. P. M. Marshall, B.S.L., last pastor of Rev. Holmes; Rev. B. Leon Carson, B. D., bringing condolences from the Northern California Conference; Presiding Elder W. B. Smith, B. D. Los Angeles District, who delivered the eulogy. Scripture selections were read by Rev. Jonathan Dames, D. B., A.M.E. Church, Pasadena, and Rev. Roger Willis, The prayer was offered by Rev. Joseph D. Maxwell. The combined choirs of the First Church and Brown Temple, Los Angeles, and the Randolph Church, Pasadena, furnished the choral music, directed by Mr. Howard, of Brown Temple choir, while Mrs. Florence Johnson Crooksie, soprano, Director Howard and Professor J. Louis Johnson, baritone, contributed solos. Mrs. Minnie Lee Dames, of Pasadena, president of the International Ministers Wives Council spoke on behalf of the Council; Mrs. Anna B. CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live," declares John in the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. "Probation after Death" is the subject.

Paul writes in his first letter to Timothy, "Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. . . . Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; . . . Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life."

On this subject Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "If the change called death destroyed the belief in sin, sickness, and death, happiness would be won at the moment of dissolution, and be forever permanent; but this is not so. Perfection is gained only by perfection. They who are unrighteous shall be unrighteous still, until in divine Science Christ, Truth, removes all ignorance and sin."

The EAGLE BIBLE QUESTION CORNER

Conducted by
The Sweet Chariot Hour
Bible Correspondence School
Address All Questions to
Eagle Question Corner
4075 S. Central Ave.,
Los Angeles, Calif.

The CALIFORNIA EAGLE offers all its readers the choice of two Free Correspondence Courses of study in the Bible, with no fees collected and no postage charges made. The new Introductory Course of 20 lessons, divided into two sections of 10 lessons each, has been prepared especially to meet the needs of those beginning for the first time the systematic study of the Bible. Also there is the standard course of 30 lessons which many of our readers have taken or are taking. The only text book needed for either of these courses is the Holy Bible. A Certificate is issued upon completion of either of these courses. When you write be sure to state which course you desire. Address a card or letter to the California Eagle.

Did Jesus write any of the New Testament?—Pfc. J. J., San Francisco.

Athough the writers of the New Testament record many of the sayings of Jesus, we do not have any writings of Jesus.

What was the prevailing language in the country where Jesus lived?—Mrs. B. L., Los Angeles.

The common language of Palestine at the time Christ was Aramaic. It was very similar to the ancient Hebrew. Jesus and His disciples spoke Aramaic. It is quite possible that Jesus spoke Greek, since Greek was the world language at His time and also due to the fact that He was raised in an area that had been under Greek influence. In His quoting the Old Testament, it is evident that He read the Greek Old Testament as well as the Hebrew.

In Matthew 2:3 the reading is: "When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled," etc. The words "these things" are in italics. any words are in italics in the Bible. Is this done to emphasize the words?—C. L., Oakland.

In the Bible words are not italicized for emphasis. Italics indicate that the words have been added to complete the sense. In the translation from ont language to another it is always necessary to add a word or phrase here or there to convey the thought expressed in the original language. To show when this is done in the Bible translation out of the original Hebrew or Greek, the added words are printed in italics.

Why don't you print your offer for a free Bible correspondence course in larger type so folks can read it? It was a long time before I took time to read that small print, although I read your column every week. I didn't know what I was missing until I took the pains to read the offer. The lessons certainly are wonderful.—Mrs. D. R., Los Angeles.

Thank you for your suggestion. We'll pass the word on to the Editor and see what can be done about it.

In Acts 2:4 I read about the apostles speaking "with other tongues at the Spirit gave them utterance." What does that mean? —Mrs. J. K., San Diego.

If you read verses 5-11 you will see that it means just what it says. There were many foreign speaking Jews and Jewish believers assembled in Jerusalem for feast of Pentecost. Under the influence of the Holy Spirit they preached to these various language groups in their own native language. And the people were amazed. But these 'tongues' were not some sort of gibberish or nonsensical jabbering They spoke in the language of the nations represented. And these foreigners understood what was being said to them.

Evans-Stevens Moment Musical To Be Presented By Bowen Choir

The senior choir of Bowen Memorial Methodist Church, East 36th and Trinity Sts., will present for their second annual Moment musical Artist Series to be given this coming Sunday afternoon, Oct. 22nd, 4:00, in the beautiful auditorium of Bowen Church, Mrs. Pauline Evans, soprano, and William Stevens, pianist. Mrs. Evans will be accompanied by Mrs. Anna Scott, Bowen organist.

Last year the first annual Moment Musical presented by the Bowen choir, was an unusual success and was enthusiastically received by an appreciative audience of music lovers. The Kelson, Graham, McNeil and Cummings presentations, featured in superb artistry, will long be remembered as participants in Bowen Choir's first Momen Musical.

In view of the high precedent established last season, the Bowen Choir is especially proud to present this year Evans, Stevens musical moment. Not only are we eager because of their unusual musical qualities, but also because they are both active members of Bowen Church.

Pauline Evans is widely known in musicl circles among the younger set in the city. She has been very active as a soloist featured with some of the city's outstanding church choirs. All who have heard her renditions marvel at her unusual vocal qualities and rangs in constant demand by churches of all groups, she will appear as evening soloist at the Hollywood Methodist Church on November 2nd.

William Stevens, native son of Los Angeles, has long been acclaimed for his ability as a pianist virtuoso. Coming from a musical family, he is the brother of Zula Sommerville, outstanding pianist of the city. Not only is Bill, as he is known, a musician of note and promise, but also is he a student of Theology at U.S.C. Likewise does he serve efficiently as assistant Minister of Bowen Church.

TICKETS AVAILABLE

Music lovers of the city are extended a cordial invitation to be the personal guests of the Bowen Choir on this annual affair. Patron tickets are available at $1.00 each and general admission tickets 35 cents.

Ever B. Hudson Thrills Hearers

Proof that true lovers of music do not have to be proficient in foreign languages to understand and appreciate the beautiful messages in the classics, was demonstrated in the raptness with which a large audience heard Ever Brewer Hudson, golden-voiced mezzo-soprano at Patriotic Hall last Sunday. She sang "Vissi D'Arte Vissi" by Puccini, on the program staged there by the Non Nobie Goodwill Workers, while visibly thrilled, her hearers drank in every note to break into prolonged applause at its close.

In response to persistent calls for an encore, the personable artist rendered a special arrangement by her accompanist, Miss Juanita Terry, of the inspiring "Hold On." She also rendered "The Birth of Morn," from the lovely word picture by Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

With recognition of her artistic talents rapidly increasing, Mrs. Hudson has been engaged to sing at one of the largest churches in Whittier on Oct. 22, and the Philharmonic on Nov. 5, with the Sally Martin Gospel Singers. Musical critics noted last Sunday, that not only is her pronunciation perfect, but that her voice from the lowest range to the highest octaves, retains a clarity and purity, sliding over the scales with effortless variation.

Nash Singers On Benefit Program

The Nash Singers, talented group, will sing several Negro spirituals at a benefit concert Friday evening in Wilshire Ebell Theatre. Also on the program will be Earl Robinson, composer of "Ballad For Americans" and "The Lonesome Train." He will sing American folk songs. The concert is being sponsored by the Jewish People's Fraternal Order, Lodges 469 and 471.

ATLANTA, Ga.—Bishop Joseph Simeon Flipper, senior Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal

BISHOP J. S. FLIPPER

Church and presiding over the conferences in South Carolina, passed away at midnight last Monday after an illness of several months. Funeral rites were held Monday of this week from Big Bethel A.M.E. Church in Atlanta.

Joseph S. Flipper was the 33rd Bishop of the A.M.E. Church, elected in 1908 in Norfolk, Virginia. He was born a slave in Atlanta, Georgia, February 22, 1959. He was one of the first students of Atlanta University, entering there in 1869. He served the church well and made a splendid record of church building, mortgage debt paying, and as President of Morris Brown College. Though he has been appointed to preside over Georgia, South Carolina, Florida, Arkansas and Oklahoma at different times during his service to the Church as Bishop, he has maintained his home in Atlanta, the city of his birth.

Church, Eighth and Towne Avenue, of Los Angeles, was the only representative from the west coast present, though hundreds of telegrams and messages of sympathy were sent.

The Six Conferences of the A.M.E. Church in the state of South Carolina will be supervised by Bishop Frank Madison Reid during the interim of the General Conference. Bishop Reid, residing in St. Louis, Missouri, was elected in Detroit, Michigan in 1940 and assigned to supervise the work of the Church in South Afrira. Because of the critical conditions overseas travel caused by the war, he has been unable to go to South Africa.

from the First Church and acknowledged telegrams and other communications; a representative of the American Woodmen spoke. Mrs. E. Roberts Saunders was at the organ console, while a member of the Brown Temple choir served as pianist. Only three of the huge stack of telegrams were read at the funeral. Through these could be heard the comforting voices of Bishop and Mrs. W. C. Brown, enroute to the Kentucky Conference; Bishop and Mrs. C. H. Phillips, C.M.E. Church, Cleveland, Ohio, and Professor and Mrs. Judge R. Wingfield, Mt. Meigs, Alabama.

The very interesting and active life which had just ended on this plane was revealed through the reading of the obituary by Rev. J. G. Edmonds! The early struggle for a livihood; schooldays at George R. Smith College, Sedalia, Missouri, and Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Georgia; his ministerial apprenticeship in the A.M.E. church and his marriage at Riverside, California to the oldest daughter of the John Williams', a pioneer family of Southern California; pastorates in the A.M.E. Church at Howard Chapel, Hanford, and Cooper Church, Oakland, California; Old Ship Church, Montgomery, Alabama; St. Matthews, Sewickley, Pennsylvania; St. John, Wilson, North Carolina, and First Church, Los Angeles; his special activities among and love for young people; purchases and repairs of church properties and paying mortgages; special spiritual activities; his work as presiding elder for almost nine years; his nobility as husband and tenderness as father.

Beautiful were the tributes paid, beautiful the scene, beautiful the service throughout representing the last that loving friends could bestow.

The honorary pallbearers were: Rev. M. McLaughlin, pastor of Brown Temple, Rev. Joseph Maxwell, Hanford, Rev. Roger Willis, Rev. E. C. Walkins, Monrovia, Rev. Morris Greene, from Boyle Heights, and Rev. J. C. Edmonds. Active pallbearers: Messrs. S. H. Warren, Thomas Collins, John Majors, Walter Cox, S. M. Maddox and Beverly Fields.

Interment was at Rosedale Cemetery. The Angelus Funeral Home was in charge. Sorrowing for their loved one are the wife, "Jean Willa" and the young daughter, Jean Carol Holmes; other relatives and friends innumerable. Through marriage ties the deceased leaves a fond mother-in-law, Mrs. John Williams, sister-in-law, Mrs. Bessie Dones and her family, at 818 32nd Street, Los Angeles.

KINLOCH'S CORNER

By John S. Kinloch

WITH AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE—Sergeant Jack Bonner, 26, comes from a little burg called Orrville in the good state of Alabama.

For the last two months, he has been driving red-ball (highest military priority) freight straight into and sometimes beyond the front lines of the United States Army's plunging offensive across Europe.

He is part of the supply miracle concerning which Prime Minister Churchill has said: "The vast and brilliant encircling movements of the American armies will ever be a model of military art and an example of the propriety of running risks, not only in fighting—because most armies are ready to do that—but even more on the 'logistics' (supply) side, as the Americans put it."

Sgt. Bonner is a veteran of the most effective and the most dangerous freight operation in all history. One trip carries his lumbering 2½-ton truck 400 miles across France and Belgium along roads punctuated with bomb craters and, near the front, surrounded by sniper-infested country-side.

One day, just outside of Paris, Bonner's convoy was attacked by an armored car belonging to the collaborationist French. Mounted machine guns, constructed on a circular dias just above the truck cab, were turned upon the pro-Nazis. Twenty-seven bullet marks landed on the Sergeant's truck during the fight. The collaborationists surrendered before the shower of our convoy's .50 cal. machine gun pellets, and the whole caravan shifted (five times) into high and took out for Holland.

I met Bonner in Paris at a little Cafe three steps below street level and straight out of the last pre-war Parisian movie you saw.

The place is very like the little restaurant where GARBO LAUGHED with Melvyn Douglas in M-G-M's sadly remembered "Ninotchka."

The joint has become a favorite hang-out of Negro red-ball drivers and French Maquis, the tough anti-fascist fighters of the French Forces of the Interior.

Frequently these guys roll in from weeks of guerilla battle somewhere within the vast, surrounded pocket of Germans still held in the bloody noose that is now Southwestern France. They are grimy, bearded men sometimes barely visible underneath cartridge belts that wind around their solid torsos in every direction.

Negro truck drivers and the Maquis have struck up a fast friendship and chatter away at one another in their respective languages with a great display of fraternal good feeling, if not much literal understanding.

Sgt. Bonner's particular friend is a short, laughing little Frenchman who can pour more undiluted vitriol into the word "Boche" than anybody else in Paris, which is no small tribute. Phillippe has fought at Bordeaux (which the Maquis liberated unassisted) and in the street combat here before August 26th. His ambition is to operate the guillotine that will someday end the career of M. Pierre Laval.

Phillippe, who is part of a thoroughly organized and strictly disciplined unit of the F.F.I., has had his "orders" and is no longer with us. Bonner's a little worried, too. The Maquis don't leave town to go pick posies.

Now, about the Sergeant himself. He unfolds to about 6 ft. 3 inches and his skin is a solid, flawless ebony, which stretches smoothly over the regular, Arabic features of his intelligent face.

He quit school in the sixth grade, and worked on turpentine plantations all his life until he entered the service.

His training was taken in the South and he left for overseas from the Norfolk, Va., port of embarkation.

He spent eight months in England. "England was the first place I'd ever been where I could go everywhere I wanted to, where everyone was friendly and treated me with respect," he told me seriously. The first dance he attended in Britain he recalled with a laugh. The sweet young things of Burley, a small town in Southern England, turned out in droves. By that time, in late '43, previous waves of "Brown Yanks" had thoroughly initiated them in the gentle arts of jitterbugging. Bonner just stood and watched. He couldn't believe his eyes.

Like most of us, he soon lost his shyness. The great good heart of England opened to us all, and we moved in for keeps.

Bonner hauled out a well-worn picture of a cute English lassie affectionately inscribed to him, and a sigh rumbled through his immense frame so shot through with nostalgia that it might easily have stocked a perfume factory for six months. "The English," he said, "taught us how to feel like men, like we're equal to anybody else anywhere."

I knew that the Sergeant had been in Paris on the day of its liberation, that his big truck had lumbered into a dozen or more towns still puking Germans out of the other end. "And what about France?" I asked. "What about being part of the liberation?"

"It makes you feel good," he answered promptly. "I remember on the day we came into Paris the people shook our hands and kissed us and poured wine into us until we couldn't take it anymore. They kept saying 'Thank You.' Who wouldn't like that.

"I felt proud. Every American soldier should have been in Paris that day. You can never wonder why we're fighting after that."

"Bonner," I said bluntly. "What about when you go home, back to Georgia?"

There was no hesitation.

"We're going to change things," the Sergeant quietly declared.

Some GI called him from the door. The Sergeant said he had to go now, that his convoy was ready to pull out.

"Where,"

He jerked his finger in the direction of the Belgian border, in the northeast corner of France where the Siegfried line nestles like so much unexploded TNT.

"If you see Phillippe," he waved from the door, "tell him Orry Vor."

I said O. K.

Active Committee Formed To Support Judge Stanley Mosk

With the announcement that Judge Stanley Mosk, judge of the Superior Court, has given abundant evidence of standing for freedom, justice and equality for all in his court, a committee of outstanding Negro leaders has been formed to urge his election at the polls on November 7.

"Equality for all in the eyes of the law—that is what everyone expects, no matter what his race, color, or station in life," reads the statement issued by the committee.

Pointing out that over a year ago, when there was no political campaign in progress, Judge Mosk refused to join the American Bar Association until it repudiated its century-old policy of excluding colored lawyers, the committee stressed that the distinguished jurist serves all the people with courtesy, ability and understanding.

For that reason, he is being supported by leaders of both the Democratic and Republican parties.

Leading members of the Committee to Retain Judge Stanley Mosk are:

UAW-CIO Sets Up A Committee For Fair Practices

The UAW-CIO today announced the creation of machinery by its International Executive Board to protect the interests of minority groups within the union. The plan, adopted by unanimous vote of the Board at its recent meeting in Atlantic City, N. J., establishes a UAW-CIO Fair Practices Committee to investigate complaints of alleged violation within the union of the official union policy against discrimination.

The Fair Practices Committee, the first of its kind to be set up by a labor union, will also assist other departments of the union in handling problems involving minority groups.

George W. Crockett, Jr., formerly associated with the Fair Employment Practices Committee of the Federal government, and for the past several months consultant to the UAW-CIO on minority problems, has been named by President Thomas to serve as Executive Director of the new committee.

★★ CANDID COMMENTS ★★

PORTRAIT OF A MAN WITH A HAMMER . . .

If you've followed the papers the past few weeks, you've surely noticed all the space-wasting hullabaloo being raised in the case of Plantation Nightclub Owner Joe Morris, who has been verbally spanking in print the Musician's Union for "fining" bandleaders Artie Shaw and Tommy Dorsey for allegedly "jamming" with Count Basie's band. And here, in a couple paragraphs, is my opinion of the case. Rules are made to be broken, it's true. But a rule is a rule. And in the Musician's book of rules is a paragraph that says "No musician may appear on another musician's job to render gratuity services of any kind without the permission of the local board in which they perform." The only people who hate policemen are people who break the law. Mr. Elmer Fein is an officer of the Musician's Union number 767. He walked into the Plantation one evening, saw a Union rule being broken and merely executed his duties by turning the names of Tommy Dorsey and Artie Shaw in to his superiors. So naturally, Joe Morris would "hate" Mr. Fein.

HEY, WOTTA BOUT THE LITTLE GUY?

It's being argued in some circles that Tommy Dorsey and Artie Shaw merely played a few numbers with Count Basie's band to extend professional courtesy. Probably so, but if Shaw and Dorsey (just because they ARE Shaw and Dorsey) can get away with the breaking of a Union rule, why then, shouldn't the little guy (not equally as famous as Dorsey and Shaw) be allowed the same privilege? It just doesn't make sense to let one Musician get by with the breaking of a rule, while a lesser known fiddler must toe the chalk line religiously. Now personally, we have nothing against Joe Morris. (On the contrary, his name has appeared in these pages more than any other person or persons who operate nightclubs), but in this case, Joe Morris is as wrong as Dinah Shore would be if she sang the "St. Louis Blues" at a church prayer meeting. Mr. Morris accuses the Musician's Union of "persecution." Now there is a statement that makes about as much sense as Kate Smith trying to cross Lake Erie in a hollow tooth! Joe Morris has been given the benefit of the doubt in all his dealing with the Musician's union. I know, because I started out with him when the Plantation was but a Beer Garden. He has been given more consideration than any nightclub owner on Our Side of The Tracks. To say that he is being "persecuted" makes, as Sportsman J.B. Brown would say, "no sense at all."

IF IT'S IN THE EAGLE IT'S THE TRUTH

On our last visit to the club, Mr. Morris' greeting to us started out like this: "Say, why didn't you have something in your paper about Fein making a mess outuve himself by fining Tommy Dorsey and Artie Shaw for playing with Basie?" I explained to him that I thought Elmer Fein was in the right in executing his duties. "So What?" he screamm'd in his low speaking voice, "I spend lots of money with your paper, and I expect to get stuff in print that I want in there." We explained to him that he will see his stuff in print if the stuff he wants printed is worth printing. But when he's wrong, as in the case of Joe Morris versus the Musician's Union, no amount of money or advertisement he could give this newsboy could make us deceive our public. Uh-uh, this is one square-john newsboy who doesn't write a column that way. I will never let my public down for the sake of a few dollars or a few ads. And believe me, I will never let my public down PERIOD. But that's getting away from the subject. I don't blame the other papers for printing what they thought was a good "news" story. I blame Joe Morris in making a mountain out of a molehill. As the old saying goes, "Whenever an organization gets too big to fight, join it." Maybe Joe Morris should join the Musician's Union. It's too big to fight, when you're in the wrong. And in the wrong is where Joe Morris ain't anywhere else but! . . .

SCANNIN' THE NEWS TICKER TAPE

What a letdown the papers paragraphed on Joe Louis' homecoming. He rates more space than was selfishly allotted his return . . . Pardon me for mentioning it, but Eddie "Rochester" Anderson will play the "uncle Remus" role in the Walt Disney pic . . . Maggie Hathaway filed suit for divorce, but hubby Maurice Fleming left for Chi. before papers could be served. A reconciliation is widely cocktailcornered, anyhow . . . The J.T. Gipson's (whoever they are) are hoping it'll be a little colyumist . . . And just in case you wanna make something outuve it, Mr. Olympic Matchmaker, Watson Jones' toughest assignment wouldn't be with a Fitzie named Fitzpatrick, it'll be with a Tiger named Sheppard. Over at our house we love Watson Jones dearly, but in a Jones-Sheppard match, our money'd be on Sheppard. Training with Elmer Ray the other pee yem at Main St. Gym, the Tiger had Ray OUT ON HIS FEET! . . . Harry Mills (one of the famed brothers) is outuve the Army. He heaved such a sigh of relief, that it was recorded in the eastern papers as another California earthquake! . . . A Dewey supporter observed the other day that "Dewey's Got his eyes on the Presidential seat." . . . "That aint," cracked a columnist, "as good as what Roosevelt's got on it!" . . . In bathing trunks and hrs. Avanelle Harris (the downeer) could be referred to as The Shape . . . The stitches in Hazel Scott's cute chin, is actually the result of a fall downstairs in her beautiful home . . . Eddie Heywood's ear-pleasing "Begin the Beguine" recording is something to enjoy. Has all the piano pounders copying his solo . . . As crooners go (and I sometimes wish they would) Jesse Perry, who sings for Earl Hines, isn't my idea of how a singer should sound. But then, neither's Frank Sinatra, for that matter . . . Sudden Thawt: If I had $1,000,000 I'd spend half of it just to hear Martha Tilton sing "I'll Walk Alone." . . . Faces about town: Carrie Williams, not famous, just a pretty girl with a pretty smile . . . Ansel Hill and his great all-white orchestra begin their 4-wk. engagement at the cub Alabam starting tomorrow night. One bystander wondered why Curtis Mosby would hire a White band in an all-negro club. This is something to think about: If Negro bands depended on Negro clubs to give them work, how many Negro bands would be working? If WHITE nightclub owners can hire NEGRO bands, why then, can't NEGRO nightclub owners hire WHITE bands? We speak of the white man's intolerance against the Negro, yet deep down in our own hearts we're prejudiced ourselves. And don't get me started on THAT subject. . . . I love this autographote: "I have a memory of your smile to cheer me when I'm blue." That's from the pen of Alyce Keys.

AT ORPHEUM NEXT WEEK—Popular product of Los Angeles, now featured vocalist with Erskine Hawkins and his orchestra, Effie returns to her home city next week when the Hawkins crew opens a week's engagement at the Orpheum Theatre starting Tuesday, Oct. 24. Miss Smith, who in private life is the wife of John Criner, singer and emcee of note, began her singing career here back in 1936 on the Mutual Broadcasting System "Louisiana Hayride" and "Deep South" programs. She has been with the Erskine Hawkins crew about a year.

Solid Songs Sends Nightclub Scribe as Slick Chick Clicks

I have just come from seeing Marian Abernathy, the cute singer who wraps her honey-lyrnx vocals around seductive-style torchants nitely at the club Alabam.

I can count on one finger the singers I know whose singing gives me goose pimples. Marian Abernathy is all of them. What she does to a song is something that should happen to other so-called "greats" in the chanteuse kingdom.

She saucily sauntered up to the bar where I was having a Planter's punch and said, "It's an honor being interviewed by the great Gipson with the JT handle."

I blushed three colors and continued with the interview.

"You look very good in a sweater," I said.

"You've never seen me in a sweater," she said.

"What is that you're wearing now?" I asked, the while rubbing the planters' punch out of my eyes to make sure the one drink hadn't affected me.

She looked down at her chest and exclaimed "Oh, I forgot I had the damb thing on!"

See, and Mrs. Bass thinks I've got an easy job! Marian told me of her early start around Chicago, where she sang in most of the big time clubs. Her longest stay at a club there was a two year run at Mike DeLisa's nitery on State street.

She "packed 'em in" she recalls.

She's packing 'em in at the Alabam, too. With a final look at the lovely sweater she was wearing, thus ended the interview with Marian Abernathy, singer of torch songs.

ON LONG HOP

Lincoln Theatre Owner Signs Master Contract

Conferences held between Harry Popkin, owner, Lincoln Theatre, and Edward Bailey, president, Musicians Protective Association, Local 767, resulted in a signed agreement guaranteeing fifty-two weeks of employment for various musicians for the period of one year, dating from October 19th, it was disclosed this week.

Provision for services of local musicians, as well as so-called traveling name bands, are covered in the master contract, which calls for wage payments that may total $50,000 during the one year period, the union official said.

WRITE TO THE BOYS SAYS SPIKE JONES

Just back from overseas where he entertained thousands of servicemen, Spike Jones, leader of the band, Spike Jones and the City Slickers, said "I would like to impart to all who have friends or relatives in the Service—to please write more often. If you can't bring the boys and girls home immediately, the next best thing is to bring their home to them by letters."

RUSSELL IN IOWA

WATERLOO, Iowa—The "Brown Bombshell of Swing," Snookum Russell and his Hollywood Orchestra, invade Spider Kurns Hall on Whitney Road this week under the auspices of Frank Garrison.

LAND OF SUNSHINE

CHARLESTON, S. C.—Floyd Ray with his bag of musical tricks and novelties which have brought his band to the front with the "name" class rapidly, will bring his aggregation into Riverside Beach Park this week.

Ansel Hill Inks 4-Week Contract At Local Nitery

There are over five hundred night clubs in the city of Los Angeles, but the Club Alabam is the only one featuring the Ansel Hill band. That, guys and gals, is the reason the Club Alabam will be crowded to capacity every night starting Friday, October 20th. That's the date, in case you haven't been keeping up with these communique's, the Ansel Hill band (rated by critics and Count Basie as being "the greatest white band since Benny Goodman!" will take complete charge of the bandstand at the nitery headed by a Mosby named Curtis.

TOPS IN TERPSICHORE

Do I hear some jerk in the second row saying "Who is Ansel Hill?" Well, for the benefit of the lone unbooted character, Ansel hill is a name that will sail stratispheric heights in a blaze of glory before the year rolls into oblivion. He has the greatest White band to come out of the Kingdom of swing since Benny Goodman popped on the musical scene. He has a jump band, and also a band whose style is as soft as the underside of a butterfly's wing. They play listenable as well as danceable music.

To round out the entertainment bill, the dapper Mister Mosby has signed the dancesational Rae Pearl and Yo-Yo team of ballroom hoofers. They're Harlem's answer to Veloz and Yolanda. Their act is tops in terpsichore. On hand to handle the seductive-styled torchants is an attractive little bundle of energy named Marian Abernathy. Her style is the most refreshing seen around these parts since Hector was a pup, to corn a phrase.

The Savage Dancers you'll love. They're also on the bill. It's hard to describe their kind of dancing, other than to say that it's tops. And tops is what it aint anything else but!

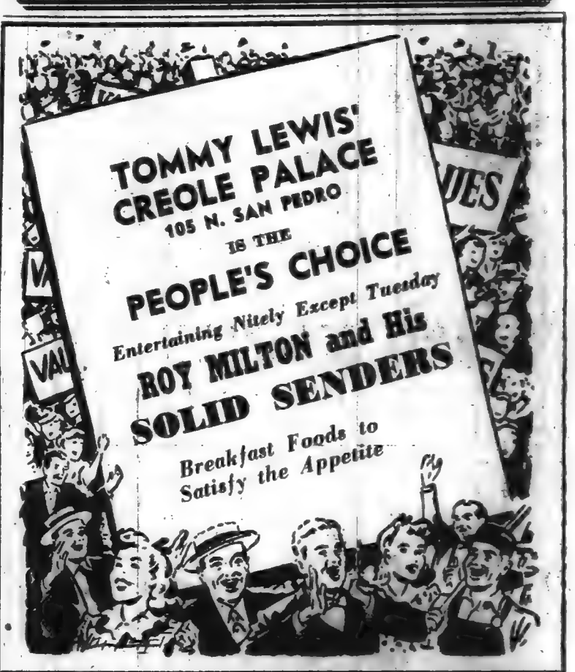
Cecil Gant, the soldier who auth'd "I Wonder", is held over for the new show.

United Artists Theatre Books Two Great Pics

Brightness and laughter are the essence of "Barbary Coast Gent" now playing at the United Artists Theatre, 939 S. Broadway, downtown Los Angeles. Wallace Beery has sagely been cast as the lovable "Bill" of "Min and Bill."

The cast of the show is excellent, and bristling with names, a few of which are Noah Beery, Henry O'Neill, Donald Meek and Morris Ankrum.

The second big comedy hit offered by MGM is "Maisie Goes to Reno." It is the best vehicle Ann Sothern has had in which to display her varied talents.



Your entertainment guarantees "Barbary Coast Gent" plus "Maisie Goes to Reno," now playing at the United Artists Theatre, downtown Los Angeles.

HOLLYWOOD WENDS WAY TO SHEPP'S PLAYHOUSE

The Maurice Flemings have decided to make their separation legal. She is that glamorous, exotic movie actress who faces the cameras under the name of Maggie Hathaway. She is affectionately known on the Avenue as "The Glamour Girl." He is a former head waiter at the Elks Club (maybe still is), who recently received a great deal of daily newspaper publicity in a legal tilt.

We wonder if Edward Bailey and Elmer Fain, president and business manager (or what have you) of the Musicians' Union, has heard about the terrific fight that workers made in the Superior Court recently against the "Boiler Makers A-35 Auxiliary Union?" After all, this is California. Here's hoping that that swell body of fellows (many of whom are now veterans of this war) adopt as a theme song this tune, "There Will Be Some Changes Made."

Law-enforcing agencies are indebted to Jack Spears, mayor of Fifth Street, and his crony and chief of police, known only as "Fifth Street Slim."

Is you is or is you ain't my baby, is the $64 question. The divorce mills are still splitting marriages in two. We understand marriage ties are being unhitched at the rate of about 40 an hour in Los Angeles.

Here is a couple that have definitely decided "you ain't my baby." Jesse and Debora Higgins have filed. While Charles and Tillie Seales have decided to unseal. Edward and Mary Pollard are asking the courts to make them free.

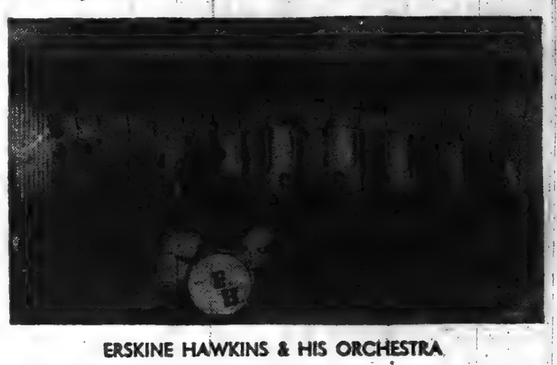
In the case of Lillian and Ralph Gibbs—it seems a pity—that they cannot go their way in peace. But the backyard gossips are tearing them both to pieces, as a pack of hungry wolves fight, for a morsel of the fresh, juicy scandal.

Is Herbie Jeffries the Voice or not the Voice of TanTown? We first heard of the Voice in Detroit. He became widely known when he signed with Earl Hines and Ed Fox at the Grand Terrace. He rode to fame at this swank nitery on the tunes "Blue" and "I Fell in Love With Her, Because She Reminds Me of You."

Then Herbie came to Hollywood. Starred in "Harlem on the Prairie," then he became known as the "Bronze Buckaroo." Some of the local cowboys laughed at Herbert, Maceo and others "trying to ride," but changed their tune when it became known that Jeffries was to star in three or four more films of the western type. That meant jobs for them. But Herbie learned to ride, and twirl six-guns like Tom Mix.

Next he was head of a recording company with John Levy and riding around in a Cad two blocks long, with huge steer horns adorning the radiator. Then Jeffries went into seclusion.

But he always comes back. This time it was Duke Ellington and "Flamingo." He kicked up quite a fog with Duke. Then he fell out with Duke—seclusion. But our Herbie is never beaten. So he teamed up with Earl Griffin and opened a nitery. This promised to be a group of business.



Well, the next we heard of Herbert Jeffries he had his own band. Now we don't know what happened to the ork. But Herbie is causing maiden hearts to flutter and slick chicks to swoon at Shep's as the current star of Leonard (My Pal — with the knife) Reed's production.

Patriotic Hall Stages Program

Offering a cultural treat both by latent young talent and famed artists, a musical program presented by the Non Nobia Goodwill workers at Patriotic Hall last Sunday afternoon pleased a large highly appreciative crowd of music lovers. Presented by its director, Clifford Holland with Clarence Muse, noted on stage, screen and radio, master of ceremonies, the affair was featured by the public appearance of the Phillips CME Church Junior Choir. Seated on the large stage the youthful and promising choristers made an inspiring appearance.

Boy Scout Campaign

"4 out of 5 boys would like to belong to Boy Scout Organizations." This statement, which is a result of many surveys, is the keynote of the Troop Organization Campaign in the McKinley District, now being conducted in the district of the Los Angeles Area Council Boy Scouts of America.

Scouting is not new in the McKinley district, but has been active for many years, and during this year, 8 new units have already been organized. At present time, 675 boys are being served in the Cub Packs, Scout Troops, and Senior Units of the District.

Any organization interested in sponsoring a Cub Troop, or a Unit, or any persons wishing information about Scouting in the McKinley District is urged to call or write Mr. Roger Willis, Boy Scout executive of the McKinley District, 1206 Maple Avenue, Bendix Building, Room 830, Phone RI-5141.

Poet Hughes Pens New Song

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Langston Hughes, world famous poet and Chappie Willet, noted songwriter and aranger, have collaborated in writing a rousing, militant new song "Let My People Go, NOW!", a veritable declaration of independence by the minority groups of the world, particularly those in America.

It was inspired by and is dedicated to the young, militant Congressman-elect, Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., whose picture appears on the cover in a characteristic pose. According to the Text Music Publishing Co., publishers of the song, it should reach the public in about two weeks.

FDR Ends Army Bias

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The personal intervention of President Roosevelt in the original War Department plan to acquire the Hotel Theresa in New York and the Pershing in Chicago and to segregate soldiers returning on furlough from the battle-fronts won widespread praise from Negroes last week.

Under the new plan adopted by the War Department, "Negro returnees will be processed with white returnees through existing northern distribution centers. Thereafter, all returning soldier, white and Negro, certified by a medical officer as being most in need of this type of accommodation will be housed in hotels retained for convalescents."

LARY Asks Cooperation

An appeal for motorists to cooperate with street car and bus operators in the use of crowded city streets and highways has been voiced by L. A. Reeves, director of the Bureau of Public Service of the Los Angeles railway.

"Street cars and buses travel on carefully-calculated schedules, arranged to get them to certain places and over certain distances in certain times," says Reeves. "The public expects our conveyances to maintain these schedules and govern their own movements accordingly.

If you think of the other fellow, he is more likely to think of you. Please do not obstruct the passage of street cars and of war workers and others is buses. The business of a carload more important than that of one individual."

Little Theatre Guild in Gala Benefit Recital Sunday, Oct. 29

There will be plenty of representatives from the film colony among patrons who will attend the gala benefit recital sponsored by the Little Theatre Guild at the Wilshire Ebell Theatre Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29, featuring LeRoi Antoine, dynamic Latin-American baritone from Haiti, and charming Gertrude Peterson, symphonic harpist.

Noble Sissle, Guild president, announced this week that among the long list of prominent audience sponsors for the affaire will be:

Claire Parrish, well-known writer and author of "Maid in the Ozarks," comedy currently playing the Belasco downtown; Frank Tuttle, director; Gale Sondergaard, actress; Herbert Bibberman, RKO director formerly with the New York Theatre Guild; Rex Ingram, well-known actor; Jean Brooks, lovely RKO contract actress; Edward Dymitryk, director of "Tender Comrade," "Behind the Rising Sun" and "Hitler's Children"; Abner Bibberman, actor; Earl Hines, orchestra leader, and many others.

A complete list will be printed next week. The affair promises to be the most glamorous of the concert season. Numerous motion picture, theatrical, civic and political figures are expected among the patrons.

The concert itself will be entertaining. Mr. Antoine, for years a student of Prof. Franz Erdody, sings in French, Italian, Russian, German and English.

He will be accompanied at the piano by Carroll Hollister, noted accompanist for the incomparable John Charles Thomas.

Miss Peterson, the assisting artist, has played with the Women's Symphony Orchestra in Chicago and other symphonic organizations. One of her featured numbers on next week's program will be "Quietude," by Carlo Salzado.

Tickets are on sale at the Wilshire Ebell Theatre, the Eagle office and the guild headquarters, 1430 W. 35th St., PA. 0791.

Jefferson High School students and faculty take pride in the fact that the school is considered one of the "courteous" schools in the city. They want to keep the school's reputation as it is, so they are observing a week dedicated to courtesy.

ACTION IN THE PACIFIC—Here at this advanced Coast Guard Base, somewhere in the far Pacific, the gentlemanly art of self defense is not neglected. Competition runs keen and high between the boys in the different branches of the service, and the Coast Guard sluggers give a good account of themselves at all times. The trio shown here have just wished each other good luck prior to their entering the ring to do battle against an Army or a Navy opponent. Left to right, they are: Aram Donabedian, seaman, 2/c, 445 N St., Fresno, Calif.; William B. "Sunny" Funderburg, seaman 2/c, 131 Josephine St., Detroit, Mich., and Rodolfo Gutierres, seaman 2/c, 255 South Fetterly Ave., Los Angeles.—(Coast Guard Photo—OWI.)

Royals Play Ball At Hollywood Sunday

NEGROES IN THE LABOR MOVEMENT

By Ferdie A. Finch
UAW-CIO No. 148

POLITICAL ACTION

Man has advanced from a common slave to an American citizen by the help of the Labor movement from the twelfth-hundred century to the present day. And in our own country, a brief history has shown that through such an organization the Negro question has been most paramount . . . his political equality, his hours of work regulated trade unions . . . his independent actions is an awakening fact that he can also be a leader as well as any.

In the days prior to the Civil War the threat of independent political action, a potential alliance of labor, the farmers and the Negro people held forth in the National Labor Unions had caused considerable apprehension in the ranks of the rising class of industrialists . . . Press attacks on the Congress after 1868 revealed anxiety and often alarm that such an alliance in an independent political party might assume challenging proportions and jeopardize the newly won power of the industrial and financial interests . . . consider this feeling and compare its reaction with the present republican party of today in conjunction swith the newspaper that, while pledging themselves to be impartial, yet smear the Labor unions of today and all those who alliances to the cause that tends to help free men, this action is worse than traitors in arms. Labor knows that the Dewey-Bricker cry is 'save the world from dictatorship, and give to the states the rights they should have . . . therefore hindering the passage of the Kilgore-Murray-Truman Bill and passing of the George Bill.

'Tis sad that a brother who lives in Texas will die of starvation while his sister who lives in Michigan will have food until she finds a job. Well this is your fault. You are responsible for the election of any man whose interests are for the free and it is near time that the laboring masses of America awaken and send their own representatives to pass bills to promote the welfare of every citizen regardless of race, color, creed, or previous condition of servitude.

All laborers shall not forget Mr. Press reporter and Mr. Congressman, that you have pledged yourselves to represent the great majority of American people, yet in your proposition No. 12, you tell us that we should have a right to work. Sure we do, we have always worked for you and your demagoguges and we must always work, therefore, we shall vote against the contents of your bill because we want justice and rights in our 'right to work' and you are trying to take it away.

In an article written in the July 25 edition of New Masses, by Earl N. Dickerson, he emphasized, quote, "Dies has announced his retirement. Let the weakling take heed. Let the defeatist ponder this victory. Dies has by this action testified to the growing consolidation of national unity generally. In particular, he gives proof of the growing unity of labor and the Negro people. Let us not fool ourselves or be fooled by Martin Dies. The defeat of Costello and Starnes, the retirement of Martin Dies, marks but the beginning of a fall and summer offensive against the political bastions of reaction. The news of these victories here at home will hearten the heroic American and British fighters who are fighting on the Western Front", unquote.

Eight favorites won last Sunday for their backers. The Daily Double paid $113.80 with the winning combination of West Glory and Balko Bud. Fox said that the jury held Lane blameless after considering evidence in recent sessions.

MYRT-GILBERT-MAYER'S LIONS ROAR

Published in this space every week — The greatest star of the screen!

The romance of Susie and the Major—first told in Louis Bromfield's popular novel, "Mrs. Parkington"—has been brought to the screen by yours truly.

★ ★ ★ ★

The stars of "Mrs. Parkington" are Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon and the story is one that gives this talented duo the greatest opportunity of their careers.

★ ★ ★ ★

It is quite a different type of story from any in which they have heretofore appeared together.

The sparkling saga of a beauty who married a rogue, "Mrs. Parkington" is lusty, gusty and as American as baseball and huckleberry pie.

★ ★ ★ ★

Greer is the daughter of a mining camp boardinghouse keeper, lovely to look at and a bit naive at the start. But she learns, she learns—and becomes witty and wise as well as winning and winsome.

★ ★ ★ ★

She has a good teacher in Maj. Parkington, a handsome rogue with a roving eye.

★ ★ ★ ★

The part fits Walter Pidgeon like the proverbial glove. His "Major" is as engaging a rascal as a girl could hope to meet—and conquer.

★ ★ ★ ★

Tay Garnett, who directed, makes the Bromfield novel a thing of power, beauty and humor on the screen.

He is aided by a galaxy of stars including Edward Arnold, Agnes Moorehead, Cecil Kellaway, Gladys Cooper, Frances Rafferty, Tom Drake, Peter Lawford, Dan Duryea and Hugh Marlowe.

BILLY AND TOMMY MILLS STAR ON GRIDIRON

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

THE MILLS BROTHERS (not the singers), Tommy and Billy, football wizards have injected sudden life into the Los Angeles Bulldogs and as a consequence the pepped up team laid it on the Hollywood Wolves, 33-13, at Wrigley Field last Sunday, much to the amazement of quite a few fans and a scattering of so-called grid experts. Having watched these two guys cavort on the gridiron for Xavier University in "Deah Ole New Orleans" at which time they were called the "Touchdown Twins," I could have warned the Wolves what kind of characters they were up against Sunday but I let nature take its course. Both boys were great in that game.

WINFIELD S. WELCH, my good friend and manager of the Birmingham Barons whom he led to two championships of the Negro American League is in town concocting poison for the Kansas City Royals. The two teams battle it out in the second game of their post world series next Wednesday night at Wrigley Field. The Barons defeated the Oakland coast league baseball team 3-1 before a large crowd last week so Winfield's boys should be in great shape for the Royals. The Barons boast of Cool Papa Bell, leading hitter of the league, Lorenzo Pepper Davis, homerun hitter, who has 37 to his credit, and Art Wilson, stellar shortstop, who played in the East-West tilt.

ODDS and ENDS—Last Week the Tuskegee Army Air Field grid team crashed the spotlight by defeating the highly-touted Alabama State "Hornets," 21-0. Before a rain-soaked crowd the "Warhawks" surprised the gathering by keeping the game in the Hornets' territory for nearly four-fifths of the contest. . . . The Morris Brown Wolverines will meet the Alabama State Hornets in a twilight game at Birmingham, Ala., starting at 5 p. m. Thursday, November 9th. . . . Jefferson High's Democrats are showing more power on the football field than anticipated this season. Their 13-0 defeat of Belmont High last week-end shows that the boys are on the beam. In a few weeks the Democrats may be awfully hard to stop.

. . . . FIGHT DOPE—Louis "Kid" Cocoa, who battles Jack Chase at the Legion Stadium Friday night, is a veteran of many years standing. He has fought all the topnotchers and possesses one of the cleverest left jabs in the business. In Chase he is tackling a smart ringster who also knows all the answers, so a lively bout is in prospect for Friday.

Lead L. A. Bulldogs to 33-13 Win Over Hollywood Wolves

The rejuvenated Los Angeles Bulldogs gnawed their way to an impressive 33-13 victory over the Hollywood Wolves in a Pacific Coast League pro football game at Wrigley Field last Sunday afternoon before a crowd of 4500 fans.

The Bulldogs ran up a total of 10 first downs to Hollywood's nine and generally outplayed the boys from the Film Capital.

Billy Mills, stocky 175-pound Bulldog Negro half, formerly of Xavier University, turned in the most spectacular run of the day, an 85-yard return of a punt. Tommy Mills, weighing the same as his brother, was all over the field, passing, running and doing the punting.

IN EASTERN BOW—At Holyoke, Mass., Monday night, Lige Drew, above, weighing 144 pounds and hailing from Los Angeles, made an impressive eastern ring debut by knocking out John Brown, 153, of New York, in the eighth round of a scheduled ten-rounder. It was the first time Brown has been knocked out in three years of pro boxing.

LOUIS GRANTED FURLOUGH

WASHINGTON— Staff Sgt. Joe Louis, world's heavyweight champion, will be given a furlough of 21 days after he reports at Fort Seibert, Ala., it was announced by the War Department late last week.

Jack Chase To Meet Cocoa Kid At Hollywood

Jack Chase, former California State middleweight champion, will meet the Cocoa Kid in the 10-round main event at Hollywood Legion Stadium, Friday night. Both boys are clever boxers and an interesting scrap is in the offing.

The Cocoa Kid appeared here about a year ago and won every round from a rugged Jimmy McDaniels; also holds a draw with Charley Burley, who won over Chase twice in battles for the California middleweight championship.

In his defeat of McDaniels, Cocoa Kid was declared to have more cleverness than ever seen on the Coast.

BUDDY YOUNG STARS FOR ILLINOIS TEAM

CAMPAIGN (Ill.)—Little Buddy Young, left halfback speed merchant, flashed around right end for 64 yards to a touchdown and later scored another from the 30-yard line in the first quarter for his Illinois teammates as Illini defeated Iowa, 40-6, last Saturday.

Ray Defeats Daniels In Smelly Bout

By Eddie Burbridge

Seven thousand fans sat in at the Elmer Ray-Perk Daniels 10-round main event at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday night and wished sincerely that they had stayed "to home." The result if anybody cares to know was that Ray got the decision after as smelly a bout that these old eyes have gazed upon.

During the entire mess if Daniels threw a single worthwhile punch it was a military secret and got by all 7000 of the fans including yours truly. He entered the ring looking like a man who is going into the gas chamber and that's just what the ring was Tuesday night, a gas chamber that smelled to high heaven. This scribe won't say anything more about this fiasco except that Ray weighed 194 to Daniels 199.

Roy Miller, 163, defeated Ray Acosta, 167, in the six-round semi-windup.

TITLE BOUT TUESDAY

Tuesday night coming up the busy bantamweight champion of the world, Manuel Ortiz, meets Luis Castillo, in a 15-round title defense bout. In a previous bout Ortiz won over Castillo by a technical kayo when the latter sustained a cut but the little battler was gixing the champ plenty trouble when this occured and many fans think that the result may be different on this second meeting.

DiMaggio, meanwhile, lit out for home and in a tight play at the home plate beat first sacker Willie Simm's toss to catcher Bizz Mackey.

Charley (Red) Barrett went the route for the Majors and gave up eight hits.

George Metkovich, with two triples, and Lowrey, with three singles, led the Majors' attack.

Jordan Hi In Grid Victory

They were John Herrington and John Finney, the latter throwing a nine-yard pass into the arms of Herrington as he was crossing the glory line midway in the second quarter, Lucius Thompson failed to convert. The southside eleven was much smaller in size and experience, and was not favored.

The Rocky Mountain boys were greatly outplayed on the ground, and also in the air until the last quarter when the Eagles took to to the air in a grave effort to score. Most of the game was played in green territory and only once the hilltop kids came within eleven yards of pay dirt.

Jordan meets Huntington Park in their first league game Friday.

A SINGING HEART

Cheerful workmen do more and better work than gloomy, dissatisfied ones. For grumbling is the indication of a low spiritual life, and usually this type of person sees very little good in people or circumstances. One's vision is retracted and the heart fails to glow within those that persist in sullenness.

An example is one who marches, fatigue is scarcely noticed because of the music and its cheerful tones. The man that sings at his work, hardly notices the time going by, because his humming keeps him company. Gratitude also helps keep up the spirit, steadies the step and promotes patience and endurance. Let your heart be gay, and your work will seem lighter, and not as a burden.

Dear Prof. Herman: Recently, a friend of mine was telling me of your wonderful work, and she recommended the Prayer and Meditation Combination. I was able to obtain it at a nearby drug store, and I must say that it has helped me to carry on in spite of difficulties that confronted me. I will certainly tell my friends about you.

J. M. M. Will I ever meet the boy I am corresponding with?

Ans. Your lucky stars and guiding planet indicate your meeting this Marine in the near future. When he obtains a furlough, he will stop by and see you.

G. A. Will I ever have children?

Ans. There is a possibility of your having children, but I suggest that you consult a reputable physician.

R. H. What is in store for me?

Ans. According to your Zodiacal sign, marriage may be the result of your friendship with this ex-service man. Through your own efforts, you can obtain happiness in the future. Take advantage of those opportunities that will enable you to accomplish your desires.

J. C. R. What should I do?

Ans. It comes to me that you love this man, but you are wondering if your love will be returned. Evidently, his past actions has lead you to doubt him, so do not plan your future with him in mind. Go out more and meet new people, take up new activities, and you will have the opportunity of meeting men who have more to offer you.

E. T. Dear Sir: I have been a customer of yours for years and I find your advice and guidance very helpful to me in solving my problems. I want to thank you for all you have done for me. You can expect a large order from me soon.

R. R. What does he plan to do?

Ans. After a careful study of your question, I find that your friend has plans that include you also and you can look forward to a happy future with him.

J. R. Does he love me? Will I ever marry? What is in store for me?

Due to limited space for my column, only one question is answered. I suggest that you send in for a private reply at your earliest convenience.

E. T. Does he love me?

Ans. It comes to me that your past relations with this boy should not cause you to doubt his love. He loves you and marriage will be the result of your friendship with him. Dismiss your suspicions from your mind and prepare to trust and have confidence in him. In this way, you can build a happy marriage.

has discounted all of the sob stuff and mud-slinging.

That fallacious statement "That the administration intended to keep the men in the army because it was cheaper to keep them there than to bring them home to unemployment," has been scotched by Gen. Hershy, who has told the President that the expression made by him was purely personal, and as far as he was concerned he had no jurisdiction over the matter. Another of Mr. Dewey's misstatements, through which he sought to mislead the relatives of those in the armed service.

The auditorium of the California Womens Club was filled by a critical audience Sunday 15th, when Roy W. Sechler presented his Star pupil; Mary Gordon, Soprano, in a recital. In the audience were a number of the cast from the San Francisco Opera, now playing at the Civic Opera House. Listening to numerous criticisms the recital was a success and a new star has risen on the musical horizon of San Francisco. The programme was varied and it was hard to say which was the best. But Cosi Cosa, by Washington and Agnus Dei, by Bizet, were rendered with artistry. Encores brought out the beauty of the Spirituals, Swing Low Sweet Chariot; Deep River; Crucifixion and the Lord's Prayer. While the singing of Mary Gordon has the promise of great attainment, credit must be given to Professor Sechler, who has an international reputation as a teacher of voice.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

The fall music season opens at the Watts USO Club on Sunday afternoon, October 29th with the colorful presentation of the Battle of Music Festival.

The motion picture show on Sunday evenings is fast becoming one of the most popular program features of the Club. In order to stimulate a keener interest in the program among the girls a lottery is held each Sunday and the two Junior Hostess winners are given free tickets to any downtown theater of their choice. Last Sunday's winners were Misses Barbara Gayden and Henrietta Harper.

On Thursday evening last the Senior Hostesses entertained twenty-five Junior Hostesses at their regular monthly meeting.

The Carnival on last Friday night drew a large crowd of servicemen and hostesses. The ten concessions were kept busy throughout the evening with Junior Hostesses acting as barkers.

Cpl. John Crawford and his popular Camp Ross Orchestra stole the show Saturday night with their inimitable interpretations of "Straighten Up and Fly Right" and "Flying Home" at the close of the floor show. This fine orchestra will be on hand for the regular Saturday night dance this weekend.

A FAIR QUESTION
HOW MUCH FURNITURE WILL $6.50 BUY?

Well, see here, just suppose you should put $6.50 in a fire insurance policy, and that too, this policy is good for $1,000 in real money; if you should have a fire and also it would run in full force for three long years. If you have a fire in that time, you would collect $1,000. And too, if you should pay $13.00 to me, you then could collect $2,000—in good hard cash—money to replace the furniture, draperies, floor coverings and other household good—all brand new and still be out of debt. This is wisely placing your war money. Buy this insurance and buy War Bonds.

Styles Has a Record of Real Unbiased Service To the Needy

By FAIR PLAY

Since coming to California in 1932, Hal Styles, radio's original good neighbor, has been consistently broadcasting in the public interest, as we say in radio, dedicating himself to the public welfare and human betterment, long before his memorable "Help Thy Neighbor" program over KHJ and the Don Lee network (in January, 1937).

He was Los Angeles' original "problem solver." For instance, in 1935 he had a program over KFI, known as "Your Friendly Counsellor" in which he gave helpful counsel to people on every conceivable subject.

He has obtained everything from blood transfusions for the dying to new-born babies for childless couples. Artificial limbs, glass eyes, baby layettes, and food supplies are but a few of the things Hal secured for those who needed them, through the medium of his memorable program.

Republican Governor Frank F. Merriam and Democratic Governor Culbert L. Olsen, thrice proclaimed a week in his honor, as did the governors of Washington and Oregon; so too did the mayors of 29 California cities, including Mayor Fletcher M. Bowron of Los Angeles. Judges, congressmen, district attorneys, priests, rabbis, ministers, movie stars, civic and veteran heads, lauded him with resolutions, testimonials and citations.

OPPONENT'S ENDORSEMENT

Oddly, Supervisor Gordon L. McDonough, after appearing on his program, once introduced a resolution in the County Board of Supervisors (which was unanimously adopted) memorializing him, and saying that "due to his industry, foresight, and exceptional ability, his efforts resulted in thousands of people finding lucrative employment which in many instances relieved Los Angeles County of the increasing relief burden by taking people off the relief rolls, and finding employment for relatives of aged persons and others."

"Help Thy Neighbor" became a national institution and over 100 national magazines paid tribute to its helpful good neighbor. In fact, stories were written about Hal Styles in London, England, Juneau, Alaska, Berlin, Germany, Paris, France, Shanghai, China, Sidney, Australia and Rapawli, India! With the coming of Pearl Harbor, "Help Thy Neighbor" became no longer necessary and the country's greatest individual job-finder found himself out of a job!

His "Let's Face Facts" program on KFWB heard daily, Monday through Friday at 2:30 p. m., in which he has been known as the friend of the downtrodden, the homeless, the halt, the blind, the crippled, the friendless, old and young, black and white, Protestant and Catholic, Jew and Gentile, is an institution.

For two years he has been broadcasting over KFWB each Saturday night, the program "Young America Speaks," dedicated to a solution of the juvenile delinquency problem in which he affords teen-age boys and girls an opportunity to "take the stump" and offer their views for the consideration of the listener.

"LEST YE FORGET"

His most interesting program, heard over KFWB each Sunday from 3:15 to 3:45 p. m., "Lest Ye Forget," is dedicated to the returned serviceman of World War II, and functions somewhat as "Help Thy Neighbor" did, in that it finds jobs, places to live, civilian clothes, fare back home, tools and whatever else it is a returned veteran needs by way of immediate first aid. Hundreds of veterans have testified that Hal Stayles is truly a friend!

Last March a committee of representative people waited on Hal Styles and petitioned him to enter the hectic field of politics. They wanted him to run for Congress because, as they said; "he had a good record."

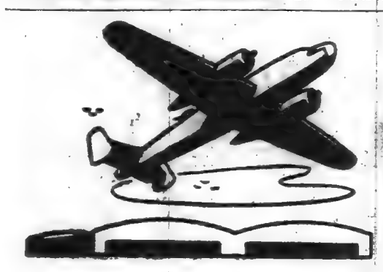
A Deflated Costello

Stepping out of a well-ordered life, he stunned the nation by defeating the incumbent John M. Costello (member of the Dies Committee) heretofore considered unbeatable. Recently he was smeared on the charge that 18 years ago he had joined the Klan.

Hal admits he did this as a somewhat curious idealist; after attaining a position of prominence, and learning of the skullduggery and intolerance of the Klan, he exposed it in a series of ten articles in the New York Evening Graphic back in 1930.

His exposure cracked the Klan throughout the East and his articles created a sensation. It seems that in this hectic field of politics, they dig into one's past and point up one side of the story. In fairness to Hal, it must be said that here, too, he rendered a service to his fellowman by fighting bigotry where he found it. He has been fighting bigotry ever since.

Evidence of this lies in the fact that despite the so-called disclosure of his identity with the Klan many years ago, he is today supported in his candidacy by Jewish and Negro newspapers. We don't usually talk about politicians, but Hal Styles is not a politician. Far from it. He is a proven humanitarian with deep-set convictions about helping his neighbor.



LOVE THY NEIGHBOR

His creed is "love thy neighbor," and although a devout Christian who quotes freely from Scripture whenever the occasion requires, he makes no attempt to foist his views on the other fellow.

Hal was in the last war (as was his father and his four brothers) and he saw the failure of the peace. He believes that wars can be ended for all time if the nations of the world will get together. He reasons that if the states of America can get along harmoniously as they have for more than 160 years, surely the nations of the world can do likewise.

Campbell Pledges Himself To Fight For Equal Rights

William D. Campbell

Pledging himself to fight for the elimination of the poll tax and to work for equal rights for all, William D. Campbell, former assistant United States attorney general, who is now a candidate for Congress in the 14th District, yesterday announced that he would sponsor extension of social insurance to include "domestic employees and many others now unfairly excluded."

"I will also work for the establishment of a permanent Fair Employment Practices Commission, anti-lynching legislation, and the extension of Civil Service without racial, political or other discrimination," Campbell declared.

"Thousands of our citizens of the 14th District will vote for Campbell because they know they can rely upon him to represent them honestly, fairly and effectively in Washington," his campaign manager said.

PUBLIC HEARING

ON RACE BANK POSSIBILITIES

FRIDAY NIGHT 8:00 P. M.—At 4113 So. Central Ave.

We hope to create the frame work—establish the basis of cooperation for a sound—sensible and constructive program of finance and security for the Negroes of America—owned-controlled 100% by them on the same conditions—high standard as the best institutions in America.

Do you honestly believe the Negroes in the City of Los Angeles—have the training — ability — courage — character, and are seasoned in business experience sufficiently to warrant the effort necessary to create a banking system owned — controlled—managed and operated 100 per cent by Negroes, consistently with the required safety to meet the state and federal banking requirement laws?

Do you believe that a credit system with thrift clubs—established on a national basis should precede and provide a training course and a proving ground for Negro boys and girls to lay the foundation for such a national banking system for Negroes with its home office in Los Angeles?

If you believe that these things can be done and the time is ripe for such an endeavor come to 4113 S. Central Ave., Friday evening, October 20th, at 8 o'clock, for the selecting and instituting Negro banking personnel—possessing bonding abilities which conform to and with State and Federal Banking Law requirements.

Nazis Starved Million Black Senegalese Troops To Death

WITH AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE.—One million black Senegalese troops, the flower of the French colonial Army, were starved to death or murdered by the Germans after the betrayal of [illegible] country in June 1940, Free French sources [illegible]d here this week.

Captain Bertrand Desroc, Negro officer [illegible] the Fighting French Forces, told [illegible]ie in Paris two days ago:

"At Compiegne, after the Armistice of June 1940, I saw [illegible]0 Negro troops burned to death. [illegible]e Senegalese were tied together, back to back, drnched with gasoline and set afire. They burned for over an hour, screaming horribly while they could. Their own blood sizzled as the men were consumed in flames. Nothing was left but charred ashes and blood that soaked the ground."

Captain Desro stated that this atrocity was typical of the horrors which befell black troops throughout France after the fall of the last pro-Allied Fench government, that of M. Paul Reynaud, and the ascension to power of the French Fascists, Marshal Phillippe Petain and Pierre Laval.

Collaborationist French aided the Nazis in their terror drive against the black troops whom Hitler had called "half-apes."

Only a few months after the defeat of June 1940, little or no trace of Senegalese troops could be found in occupied France. All that was left of these famed fighting men was the fresh-tilled earth of new graves,—and a few thousand fortunates who escaped in one way or another into the unoccupied zone.

Black prisoners were separated from other French soldiers—Jim Crowed—fed one meal to the white Frenchman's two. Since the menu at its best consisted of no breakfast, bread, soup and water at noon, soup and water at night, the one-meal starvation of the Senegalese was delibrate and systematic.

The report of Captain Desroc, surely one of the most important and shocking revelations of the war in western Europe, finds an equal in every story a reporter obtains from the hundreds of Negro survivors left in Paris after the Nazi deluge.

There is no balanced and polite way to report monstrous crimes like this. At least, I am not capable of it. If I should write this story in a proper news fashion, I would strike a pose of impartiality, couch every phrase in a depreciative "according to spokesmen of blah-blah" or "it is authoritatively stated"—for fear of libelling the Germans.

But every Frenchman, without exception, has told me the same thing. Every black one shook with emotion when relating to me the destruction of the Senegalese armies and bestiality of the Germans in accomplishing that murdrous mission. What is there to doubt? What is there to be impartial about?

Is a whole nation wrong?

I don't believe it. I believe precisely as I am told, again and again: that the Germans were brutal beyond all power of description.

I remember that as a civilian in Los Angeles I felt a remoteness from the horrors of this war, the mass assasinations so many thousand of miles away, the distant hurt and bleeding, the terrible

100,000 NEGROES CHEER PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AS HE DRIVES THROUGH N. Y. CITY STREETS

c.a.b.

HAVING labored in the Republican vineyard for so many years, I naturally have many friends over there—but since my baptism in the Republican faith many changes have come in the life of the Party as well as in mine.

As children, we take mother's advice in almost all things, but when we come of age, we think for ourselves. We, the Negro Americans, have been considered as the "child" race here in the United States, but at least for the past decade we have been considered to have come of age.

For the first time in our history as American citizens, and especially as voters, we have an opportunity to demonstrate our political power, as well as our understanding and ability, to choose our path and to see clearly the course we should pursue in our determination to gain our full rights and our complete freedom. We have experienced bondage, but our period of slavery was not so long and so bitter as that endured by our compatriots in suffering, the Jews.

According to biblical record, after their long period of Egyptian bondage the Jewish people dragged from the Jordan through which they had passed twelve stones and built a monument to commemorate their freedom.

We, the Negro people of this age, have passed through the Jordan of American slavery. Because we refuse to shake off the burdens of our bondage engendered in the debasing school of slavery, in many ways we still suffer the aftermath of that experience. God gave the children of Israel, Moses. He gave the children of Amrican slavery, Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

The burning question that faces us, 13 million dark Americans, on November 7, is whether we shall accept or reject this

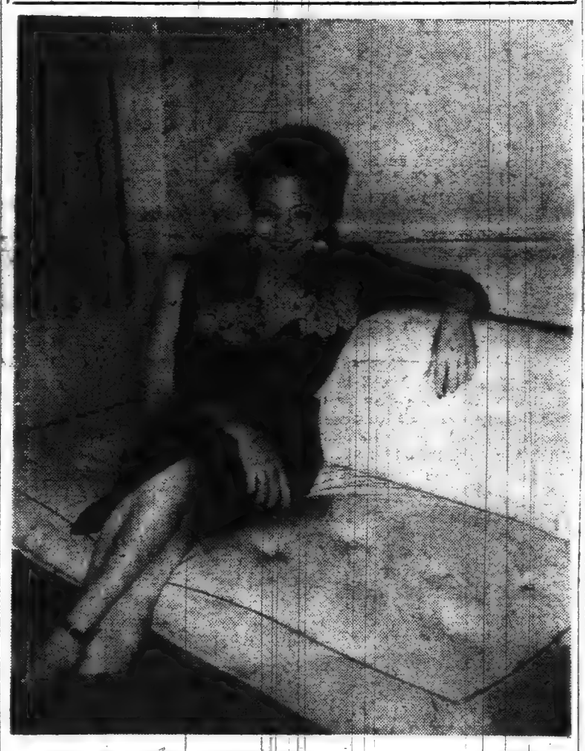
Negro Women to Be Accepted In Women's Reserve of Navy

The President last week-end approved a plan submitted by the Navy Department providing for the acceptance of Negro women in the Women's Reserve of the Navy. The plan calls for the immediate commissioning of a limited number of especially-qualified Negro women to serve as administrative officers. They will assist in the subsequent planning and supervision of the program for Negro women which will be administered as an integral part of the Women's Reserve. Enlistment of Negro women will be undertaken as soon as these plans have been completed and it is presently indicated that the first Negro recruits will enter training shortly after January 1. Officer candidates and enlisted women will be trained at existing schools for the training of WAVES. The number to be enlisted will be determined by the needs of the service.



There was general approval of this act of the President in opening another door hitherto closed to Negroes. Not very long ago there were no Negroes in the Navy except in menial positions. This bar having been lifted and now the fact that women will also be permitted to enter this branch of the service is another distinct step forward.

Fail to Enlist Walter White In Hal Styles Smear Campaign

In a telephone conversation from Washington, D. C. with Walter H. White, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Editor of "The California Eagle" learned that much pressure is being brought to bear by people from Los Angeles and Hollywood in an effort to enlist him in the Hearst instilled smear campaign being waged against Hal Styles, Democratic nominee for Representative from the 15th Congressional District.

Sending his greetings to his hosts of friends in Los Angeles, Mr White wanted them to know that although the tempo of events in Washington is keeping him tremendously busy, he nevertheless is aware of the political situation on the West Coast. He further stated that the interest of the people of Los Angeles is his interest and was very anxious to know how the voters here are reacting to the Hearst campaign smear against Hal Styles of which Mr. White was not persuaded to become a part.

GETS DECREE — Mrs. Lillian Greene, well known columnist, and secretary to Walter L. Gordon, Jr., attorney-at-law, was awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce from Bene LaRue Greene, actor, singer, publisher, on Wednesday, October 18th, in Judge Kurtz Kaufman's court, Department 13 of the Superior Court. Mrs. Greene charged extreme cruelty, but named no specific complaints. A property settlement agreement made out of court, giving Mrs. Greene fifty percent interest in the magazine which her husband publishes was approved by the court and incorporated in the decree. The couple were married in Yuma, Arizona in 1941, and separated in 1943.

Throng Waits for Hours in Driving Rain to Greet FDR

NEW YORK—More than 100,000 Negro citizens who had stood for hours in a driving rain greeted their commander-in-chief, President Roosevelt, as he rode down Harlem's Seventh Avenue last Saturday afternoon.

The President rode in an open car, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and Mayor LaGuardia. He waved continuously to the cheering crowds and showed the folks that he was still the champ and in the best of health. He wore his grey campaign Fedora and a blue naval cape.

The throng stood several lines deep all along Seventh Avenue from 155th Street to Central Park. They waved wet flags and yelled lustily "We Want Roosevelt."

The largest group was gathered at 125th street near Hotel Theresa, where Sergeant Joe Louis and visiting notables from all over could be seen peering from vantage points of the hotel.

The trip of the President through Harlem was part of a four-hour tour through New York. This is the first visit of the President to his home town since the war began. He came to address the Foreign Policy Association at the Waldorf-Astoria Saturday evening.

When President Roosevelt arrived at the New York port of embarkation in Brooklyn early Saturday morning, three companies of Negro soldiers and a company of Negro WACS were

Sleepy Lagoon Boys Go Free As Justice Enters Notorious Case

The boys who were the victims of the most notorious frameup in this century are free. The blot of Sleepy Lagoon has been wiped from the record of Los Angeles jurisprudence. The release of the youths came about on an order from Superior Judge Clement D. Nye early this week.

Originally twenty-four Mexican boys were made defendants on a charge that grew out of the killing of Jose Diaz after a fight at a party at the Williams Ranch, near a brackish, unromantic pool that was known as Sleepy Lagoon, on October 2, 1942.

Subsequently, two of the boys were dismissed, five were convicted of misdemeanors and five were acquitted. The remaining twelve were convicted of murder at a trial which began October 16, 1942, and lasted for 13 weeks. That trial was marked by the high-

Eagle Publisher To Hostess Affair At Villa Arlington

A party tonight (Thursday) at the Villa Arlington, 3115 West Adams, will introduce the Los Angeles Chapter of the Non-Partisan Council. The affair will begin at 8 p.m. and everything is free — food, entertainment, and an opportunity to meet your friends.

The Non-Partisan Council is a national organization of people from every political party actively interested in the re-election of President Roosevelt. The organization has as its national head Mary McLeod Bethune, and ten vice-presidents over the entire nation. Charlotta A. Bass, editor of "The California Eagle" is one of the ten first vice-presidents and in this capacity is coordinator for activities on the West Coast and is hostess for the evening.

HOPA Meeting

All taxpayers, rent payers and property owners are urged to attend the HOPA meeting this Friday night at 8 p. m. at the California Eagle offices. The fight to remove the racial restrictions that are forcing Negroes to abandon their homes and live in ghettos needs the support of everyone. Come out and lend a hand for your own welfare.

Negro Bandits Get $8000 In Daring Holdup

Shots rang out as a climax when four Negro bandits held up Herman Kleinberg, operator of a service station and check cashing agency at 4889 Compton Avenue, who became the victim in a daring stickup last weekend on 57th street near Central which netted the bandits $8000.

The holdup men fled in an automobile accompanied by two hasty shots flung by Kleinberg, who could not say whether either was effective.

Court Martial Board Convicts Fifty Seamen In the Mare Island Navy Yard Mutiny Trial

YERBA BUENA, Calif.—The seven-man court martial board which has been sitting for the past several weeks in the trial of the 50 Negro sailors who were on trial for failure to load ammunition at the Mare Island Navy Yard following the Port Chicago explosion, found and returned a verdict of guilty early this week. The board convened later to hear evidence of mitigation.

During this hearing, evidence on the conduct and record and service of the convicted seamen, wil be examined to determine the sentence. All of the men have perfect conduct or 4.0 rating. After the mitigation hearing, the board will call for past convictions and pass sentence. The nature of the sentence will not be known until it is reviewed by Rear Admiral, Carlton H. Wright, Commandant of the 12th Naval District, and is passed upon by the Naval Judge Advocate at Washington.

Whether the seamen have been convicted of conspiring to mutiny, which carries the death penalty, or conduct prejudical to Navy discipline, which carries a maximum of 15 years imprisonment and dishonorable discharge, or or specific individual verdicts, has not been announced.

Lt. Commander James F. Coakley, Judge Advocate at the trial said that the seamen refused to obey orders to load the ammunition. All 50 of the defendants testified however, that they had not disobeyed a specific order and merely objected to the assignment per se, because only Negroes were ever on this duty, and because they were afraid since the Port Chicago disaster.

They further testified that the statement which they signed and which formed the basis of the charges, was un-

Upgrading Of Negro Deputy

In a conference on Oct. 19th with Thomas L. Griffith, Jr., Dr. S. M. Beane, L. G. Robinson, Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, and Nita Blackwell, members of the N.A.A.C.P. committee, Sheriff Biscailuz and Undersheriff Jewell announced plans for staffing two radio cars with Negro deputies and placing one Negro in the Bureau of Investigation for Los Angeles County. This conference was the result of the request of the Los Angeles Branch, N.A.A.C.P. for upgrading of the Negro deputies who have heretofore worked only in the County Jail. The N.A.A.C.P. and the Negro community will watch anxiously for the execution of this plan.

J. Robert Smith Gets a Taste Of His Own Bitter Medicine

Talk about truth being stranger than fiction—here's one for the newspaperman's book: Last week, the Los Angeles Sentinel, of which J. Robert Smith is Managing Editor, streamlined a story of a vice squad raid on the Villa Arlington Club, 3115 W. Adams, of which H. A. Howard, prominent realtor, is owner.

The Sentinel was the only local paper to carry the story. According to Mr. Howard, Mr. Smith previously had intimated he was writer of the story. The former was of the opinion that the nefarious treatment accorded the Arlington story was motivated by personal enmity on the part of Mr. Smith against Mr. Howard.

COULDN'T WAIT

Then came the rare quirk: Managing Editor Smith, according to an affidavit filed this week by Budweiser Hawkins, an employe of the Arlington, ans of destiny—the man ho believes in the free-om of all mankind. here was a time when we ere hungry, when the emptation to sell our oice and our so-called uslership meant food, erhaps; but Roosevelt, he man some of us want depose, provided food or all of our hungry tomachs, and lifted the rage scale by encouraging abor unions for all Amer-cans alike.

I often hear members of ay racial group say, "I istened to the President's eceptance speech and he id not say one word about s." Have they forgotten hat Jesus said, "Inasmuch s ye have done it unto ne of the least of these, ay brethren, ye have done t unto me."

In every social measure hat President Roosevelt as introduced during his welve years of office, the Negro, "the least of these," was included. From his program to extend credit o the farmers at low in-erest rates down to his lat-st Soldiers Vote Bill, the American people as a whole have been included in the benefits. Are there not Negro farmers? Do not the Negro soldiers want to add their voices to the progress of democracy on the home front while they give their lives for it abroad?

While our immediate interests are ever in the forefront, there is one thing we must not forget: the 13 million Negro people are not all of America. The United States consists of 130 million people of all races, creeds, religions, social backgrounds, prejudices, hopes, and dreams. If each time a social measure were introduced, the President labeled it, "This part applies to the Negro citizens of America, we would have been truly suspicious. Even so do the Pharisees. The Republican Party platform for years has been abundant with promises for the good of the Negro people, but their support for those measures which would really result in their good has been sadly lacking.

Not that President Roosevelt has not made his position clear on the status of the Negro people in America today. No President has ever made it more clear. With no other way to overstep the opposition of the Republican dominated Congress than by using the powers of his office, the President, for the first time since the days of Lincoln, issued an Executive Order—and that Order issued for the benefit of all America's minorities, meant more for the good of the Negro than any other, for we are the largest minority group in America. And Order, in no uncertain terms, stated that there shall be no discrimination in the employment in defense industries of any person because of race, color, or creed. And going further, the Fair Employment Practices Commmittee was set up to insure that the Order was carried out. Is this not speaking out for the rights of the Negro people? President Roosevelt has used the utmost statesmanship in fostering the cause of the Negro people and preserving unity at the same time when so many Americans so sorely disagreed with him. At a time when the unified strength of America was direly needed, a lesser diplomat could have divided the people of America over this one question. And we, the 13 million of us, could not have fought the war alone, even with Roosevelt at the helm.

And I feel in the mood to say finally, brethren, since our president has dignified our position as American citizens (which some of us resent) by leaving off the identification tag, "your people," we should look to the future with greater optimism than ever before.

Our nation, with Great Britain, Russia, and China, is now at work organizing a peace program. This program is aimed at freedom for all. Governor Thomas E. Dewey and his isolationist gang have packed the Republican campaign with lies. Just how and why many of the Negro leaders and leading Negro journals fall for these lies is beyond my power to reason.

Judge E. Jefferson Jails Auto Drivers

Carrying out his warning to show no leniency to motorists ignoring traffic citations, Municipal Judge Edwin L. Jefferson last weekend sentenced Robert G. Breen, 24, of 715 S. Hope St., to 10 days in jail and gave Morisse Waton, 34, of 1329 E. 45th St., a five-day sentence after police were forced to serve warrants on them.

PASSES—Mrs. Ethel G. Prioleau, outstanding religious leader of Southern California, passed to her reward on Thursday, October 19, 1944. Mrs. Prioleau, widow of Chaplain George A. Prioleau, was a charter member of Bethel A.M.E. Church of this city. She served as superintendent of Bethel Sunday School for 20 years, the church organized by her late husband. For many years she was active in the missionary work of the Conference, serving as Conference Branch president for 11 years. She was a member of the Connectional Missionary organization, attending several Quadrennial Conventions and serving as chairman of important committees.

telegrams expressing condolence were received from many eastern points. An inveterate traveler, Mrs. Clark made one and often several trips across the country each year.

Her passing was sudden, coming at a time when she seemed to be enjoying the best of health and it was a great shock to her family and friends. The deceased was a native of Yazoo City, Mississippi, and she was married to Horace P. Clark Sr. in Chicago 27 years ago.

She was a member of the Girl Friends social club and the Assistance League of the Outdoor Life and Health Association, and an active worker in civic projects.

Surviving are her husband, Horace P. Clark, Sr., a son, Horace P. Clark Jr., Sgt., USA, who is on his way home from his post in Virginia, a daughter-in-law, Beverly Anne Goodlow, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Mae Brooks of Mississippi. him. Several thousand Negro workers greeted him later when he inspected the Brooklyn Navy Yard, while still others cheered him as he made a short speech at a rally for his friend Senator Wagner, at Ebbet's Field.

The President's entourage of fifteen cars crossed the Macombs Dam bridge at 155th Street and entered Harlem, after a tour of the Bronx and a short stop at the WAVES training quarters.

After skirting the Harlem River houses, a Federal project, the presidential party moved down Seventh Avenue to Central Park and downtown Manhattan. It was estimated that about 3,000,000 New Yorkers saw the President during the four-hour tour.

derstood by them to have been a petition staying their dislike of the assignment and asking for other duty. Their conviction has caused much comment, since public opinion expressed belief that the seamen were un-nerved by the Port Chicago explosion, and greatly disturbed by the Navy discrimination policy which makes it necessary that Negroes serve mostly in the category of stevedors and laborers.

A telegraphed report received by the California Eagle from the OWI confirms the report that no final decision in the case will be made until local authorities and the Judge Advocate in Washington, who represents the Secretary of the Navy, have reviewed the case.

ly circumstantial nature of the evidence offered, and the extreme prejudice of Superior Judge Charles W. Fricke, who presided.

Recently, four of the youths were paroled, leaving eight, three of whom were serving life sentences in jail for periods ranging from five years to life. With the order issued by Judge Nye, all charges against all of the youths are dismissed, giving them their complete freedom.

When the boys were released on Monday, a crowd of over two hundred persons, including their mothers, sisters, sweethearts and friends, was on hand to greet them. Emotions ran high, and there were tears of joy in evidence as the crowd cheered and embraced them. The demonstration lasted for over an hour, in jubilation over a belated but nonetheless welcome triumph of justice.

Need Men To Staff Critical War Plants

Whether General Douglas MacArthur makes quick work of cleaning the Japs out of the Philippines or our fight to regain our lost island possessions develops into a long, costly campaign will in a large measure depend upon the response of Southern California workers to the War Manpower Commission's "must" appeal for men to staff critical war plants, H. R. Harnish State Manpower Director, emphasized this week.

The War Manpower Commission's "must" recruitment program, Harnish stressed, deals with placing workers in plants which are lagging in the production of extremely critical war goods and services. Included in Southern California are heavy-duty tire manufacturing, shipbuilding and repair, and the U. S. Naval Supply Depot.

couldn't wait until the papers hit the street in order to look over his handiwork. He borrowed Hawkins' car early Thursday morning to pick up a Sentinel, but in racing to the newspaper plant, rammed into the rear of another car at the intersection of Jefferson and University Avenue.

The affidavit cites that Editor Smith confessed to the driver of the smashed car that he had had a few drinks and asked for leniency on the grounds that he would "square things" without the latter's having to report the accident. Hawkins charges in his affidavit that $200 damage was done to his car.

Then came the strange twist of fate: Holder of the insurance on the Hawkins car is H. A. Howard, alleged victim of Smith's reporting. So Howard now has served notice on Editor Smith to "come across with the 200 bucks" or stand ready for a court suit. Who was it who said, "He who lives in a glass cage shouldn't throw stones?"

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By John M. Lee

Quiet Power

Intolerance is not dead. Far from it, the strongest evidences of its unhappy being are showing through the issues in this campaign. In the ranks of labor are represented all of the people against whom intolerance is directed, and, as though that were not enough, organized labor itself is the target of the greatest smear in the history of this nation. Last Friday, the Los Angeles Times published a cartoon in which Sidney Hillman is one of four characters on a horse. To have depicted Hillman as the head of CIO-PAC would have shown nothing beyond a man who is the leader of a properly organized participation in a national election; that would not have been enough for the purpose of the Times. There is not enough hate fostered against the picture of a man unless they can make that picture a symbol of all that their, and small minds like it, have conjured up to represent an inferior human creature. So they gave Hillman an attitude that was intended to show him in a characteristic racial pose, and the job was done.

John M. Lee

Perhaps it is as some persons say, that this and similar attempts to incite racial feeling will react to the detriment of the candidate who hopes to achieve election to public office in this un-American way, however it must not be left to chance. The forces responsible for the smear campaigns in the Times, and papers of its type throughout the country are well organized and articulately powerful. They have money and all of the influential propaganda mediums at their disposal.

For all this, however, they do not have the majority of the American people thinking as they do, consequently they can be defeated. Along with the boycott, which is still a potent weapon, the quiet power of volumes of protesting letters addressed to the offending newspaper will go a long way toward removing this blot from the record.

Unless the practise of smearing, instead of discussing and declaring on the issues is discontinued, it will become increasingly difficult to get men of high type to stand for public office. That, I am inclined to believe, is the plan of the reactionary, isolationist press. It is a form of fascist control that will prove more dangerous the moment that we get off the alert.

Vote No. on No. 12

Undoubtedly, public sentiment is against the vicious anti-labor proposal which will appear on the ballot as Proposition No. 12. It didn't have a chance of passing, once the voters became informed about its real purpose, but propositions are not defeated by merely talking and being against them. They must be voted against and strongly. There is the danger that with so much outspoken opposition, the voters will take its defeat for granted, therefore, it is highly important that every one who is against the proposal, cast a vote against it.

Give Anyhow

Sometimes it is difficult to understand what happens in the minds of people who think of themselves as members of the master race. Occasionally, even persons, White and Negro, who profess not to have prejudices are guilty of hurtful acts of racial discrimination. Why it is that way, is a perplexing question that must be solved some day soon. Until it is, there is only one thing that can be done. That is to serve and to give in the name of humanity wherever that service is needed. In that spirit, approach the blood bank and give up a pint for the boys who have shed gallons for your freedom.

Economic Relief Council Serves Public of City

Among the Southern California enterprises forging ahead in Post-War planning is the Economic Relief Council. The close association of the Council with the Black Amerian Salvage Company has enabled it to render a great service to the community in which it is established.

Neither the Black American Salvage Company nor the Council has had an easy sail along the path of endeavor which it has chosen to help those who need help.

Those of the community who are able to envision the future believe that the Economic Council will be in line to help mold the new order after the war and help many to find their places in the various fields of industry.

McDonough Opposes Number 12

Ed. Note—Following is a public statement by Supervisor Gordon L. McDonough opposing Proposition 12:-

"I am vigorously and emphatically opposed to Proposition 12, which in my opinion would impose unfair penalties upon the Constitutional rights of Labor to organize and protect its members

"Having five sons in the armed services it is my hope that my sons and the sons of others can come back to this country following a victorious end of the war and find it the same nation that they defended with their blood and sacrifices.

"I am making this statement strictly on a non-political and non-partisan basis and with no desire or intention to aid or benefit my political position in any manner whatsoever.

"I believe Labor is a social and economic problem and that it should be permitted to organize and bargain collectively without the hindrance and opposition t hat Proposition 12 would impose.

"I urge a NO vote on Proposition No. 12."

Masonic History Is Made As Waller Lodge gets Charter

Masonic history was made in the Most Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons throughout the world here in Los Angeles Wednesday, Sept. 20, when the Thomas Waller No. 49 of F&AM, was consecrated, constituted, dedicated, and received its charter from the Most Worshipful Sovereign Grand Lodge for the Most Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons for the State of California and its Masonic jurisdiction. The Thomas Waller Lodge No. 49, is the first daytime lodge in the world of Free and Accepted Masons to be given a charter to operate in the daytime. Some nine months ago, the foundation for this lodge was laid by several prominent Masonic brothers of this city, of which Paul L. Howard, Secretary of Musicians Local 767, AFM, is highly credited with the institution of this lodge whereby members of the musicians and entertainers profession might be able to practice Masonry in a regularly-constituted lodge of Masons in the daytime. Much credit is given Lillard G. Dandridge, grand secretary, and George E. Brown for their untiring efforts in helping to establish this lodge.

Amid a beautiful Masonic setting at the 50th Street Masonic hall, presided over by the officers of the Most Worshipful Sovereign Grand Lodge for the State of California and its jurisdiction and attended by the many brothers of the Thomas Waller No. 49 Lodge, also many guests and visitors; the dedication and the presentation of the charter to the worshipful master of the lodge, George E. Brown, was done under the capable and excellent guidance of the Most Worshipful Grand Master George H. Vaughn, who received a great ovation from the many gathered for this occasion.

Also to the following Grand Officers; The Most Worshipful Grand Master George H. Vaughn, The Most Worshipful Deputy Grand Master Sterling H. Hopkins, Grand Inspector of Dist. No. 1 Titus P. Petitions Circulated Regarding Bad Living Conditions in Watts Vicinity

By TED PRIDE

Bad and unregulated conditions exist in the city of Watts. Everyone is wondering what to do about it. Here is the answer.

We have an aggressive and civic-minded citizen here who says if we get together the job can be done. He is James E. Boatwright, president of the United Steel Workers, Bethlehem Steel Local 2273, and also of the Southern California Steel Workers Council, representing thousands of war workers and citizens of this district. Here is what he is doing: He is active in civic affairs. He believes that every citizen who respects the American flag and our government is his neighbor and brother, regardless of race, creed and religion.

Neighbors, let's get behind this man who believes in taxes but not taxation without representation. We citizens of Watts are demanding more help from the city of Los Angeles. We are not going to let Los Angeles make an outlaw city of Watts. This vicinity is deteriorating and we are going to stop it at once. We need and must have better conditions for our youngsters and teen-age children. They are the future leaders. We need an emergency hospital and an ambulance on the job 24 hours daily. We also need a regular police force and traffic regulation, proper lighting and proper rest rooms for the people in Watts and the thousands of war workers who transfer at this Watts Pacific Electric railway terminal. The streets need paving. Storm drains are open, children climb into them and play, dogs and cats are killed by cars and thrown into these drains, a health menace. Guards should be put over these holes. There must be a stop put to Los Angeles sending riot cars out here two and three times a week to order people off the streets. We also need women police who can speak Spanish, also Spanish-speaking policemen. I will say we have had some fine Negro policemen during the last few weeks.

Petitions are now being circulated in Watts and adjacent territories. Please sign one. All business men and many churches and lodges already have. They MUST be turned into the Chamber of Commerce by November 15th.

Soldier Sons Visit Their Mother Here

Mrs. Lillie B. R. Baker was pleasantly surprised when her sons, Pfc. Eugene W. Jackson and Pvt. Freddie S. Baker arrived recently. Accompanying them was Juanita Favors from Phoenix, Ariz., who is a school teacher. Miss Favors and Pvt. Jackson are great friends, with a hint of romance in the air. Mrs. Baker's sons were here for three days.

Paper Drive Is Success

The paper drive held at 49th Street School, October 18, went over the top. Prizes were given Room 17, Miss Annie Woods, and Room 12, Miss Catherine Dillingham.

The membership drive was also successful. Mrs. Kathryn Graham, of Room 14, and Miss Edna Williams of Room 19, took prizes.

Mrs. Rachael Wilson, principal of the 49th Street School, and Mrs. Lenora Best, president of the P.-T.A., wish to thank all, especially the children for making the drive so successful. They urge every one to attend the P.-T.A. meetings.

Protect Your Right to Work

Every person has the right to work. Every person has always had the right to work providing he is hired. The Bill of Rights and the Constitution of the State of California have already granted this. We acknowledge the right to work for every employable person, but we do not acknowledge the right of anyone to force people to work for starvation wages. A substantial segment of our population has never had a standard of living worth bragging about. That is why we have unions. That is why we have organized.

Approximately four out of every five persons who receive incomes in the United States are workers. If everyone is employed, we know we will have the means for raising our standard of living. Full employment means well-paid workers and well-paid workers are surely in the interest of good business. With the increasing industrialization of America, and with an increasing proportion of our people working, we must continue the harmonius relations existing between employers and employees.

1. More Negroes are working in war plants alongside white workers and at equal pay.
2. Proposition No. 12 will deny them this right.
3. Proposition No. 12 will make you liable to legal punishment if you hold a meeting to protest these conditions.
4. If you are a worker, union, non-union, white-collar or overall or overall worker, Vote NO on Proposition No. 12.

Victoria Charlene Caston, daughter of Dr. Jonathan L. Caston, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, who took her Master's Degree in Education last Sunday at the University of California.

She was granted a leave of absence from Stowe's Teachers College, St. Louis, where she was instructor in French and Spanish last year.

Miss Caston maintained a straight "A" average since coming here in June of this year and wrote her thesis on "The Problem of Absences and Withdrawals in the Negro High Schools of St. Louis." She was the only Negro to receive her Master's degree at this convocation.

While here she made another study which was graded "Excellent" on "The USO Movement" and which will be published for circulation throughout the United States. She returned to St. Louis last Wednesday afternoon where she will resume her teaching career Monday.

GET DEGREES—Left to right: Mrs. Ann Clay Johnson on October 22 received her Bachelor of Arts degree from UCLA. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall W. ABILITY RECOGNIZED—Mrs. W. P. Carter, the wife of the Rev. W. P. Carter, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, Santa Monica, was honored last August by having been selected to head the organization of the Women's Division of the Western Baptist Convention. Mrs. Carter has used her outstanding ability in assisting her husband who is acclaimed for having built a Calvary Baptist Church from the ground to become a phenomenal institution of spiritual and public usefulness.

CLASSMATES IN CONFERENCE—Walter Gordon, prominent Los Angeles attorney, and recent candidate for the Republican Congressional nomination is shown in an informal conference in his recently opened, modern office suite. On Mr. Gordon's right is Maceo Hill, outstanding newspaperman who is on the coast in his capacity of publicity director for the Republican National campaign committee. Gordon and Hill were classmates at Ohio State University, and the visit of the newspaper man was in the nature of a reunion for them. Eddie Green, noted screen, radio and theatrical actor, and Fred Roberts, former assemblyman, and an active civic leader are shown in the order named.

Wilkins, one of the discussion speakers, and Rev. Owen A. Troy, director of the program.

The Sweet Chariot Hour is aired weekly on Saturdays, 6:30-7:00 p. m. over station KPAS, by remote control from the Pasadena Sunset Avenue Church, corner of Sunset and Pepper. This week Mme. Florence Cole Talbert, celebrated soprano, will be guest soloist on the Sweet Chariot Hour.

IN CONCERT FOR USO CELEBRATION SUNDAY AFTERNOON—The people of the Eastside have accomplished a major community social planning and service for the Soldier, Sailor and Marine who have been made to feel at home away from home at the Avalon USO during the past year. Through the numerous services, hundreds of thousands of uniformed service men have been benefitted by the individual and collective volunteers. Ben Ellison, director of the Aalon USO announces that a gala program will be given on Sunday afternoon, October 29, to celebrate one year of achievement. Starting with open house at 3 P. M. the program will be highlighted by a concert by the famous 767th Ontario Army Air Base Band. Also featured will be the 80th Battallion, Port Hueneme Band, Clarence Muse, star of stage, screen and radio, Noble Sissle and his nationally known band and collection of entertainers currently showing at the Lincoln Theatre, and officials of the USO and the American Legion. Bertha Dyer Woolford, portrayer of the mother in the "Negro Soldier" film is also slated to appear as are, Ever Brewer Hudson, Mezzo Soprano of the Non Nobis Group, Earl Hines, Gene Rodgers, pianist playing at the Florentine Gardens, Bud Scott and his Troubadours from the Orson Welles show, entertainment from the floor shows of the Club Alabam and Shepp's Playhouse and many others. A matinee dance will follow the program.

TO SING FOR BENEFIT—Lending her services to the gigantic benefit concert at the Philharmonic auditorium on Sunday, November 5, 1944, will be the famed mezzo-soprano, Ever-Brewer Hudson, whose magnificent voice has thrilled many Los Angeles music lovers. The concert will begin at 7:45 p. m.

MAN ABOUT THE TOWN—If half the citizens of South Los Angeles took as much interest in the growth, development, and the lifting of the morale as does Citizen Ted Pride, there would be little room for complaint.

Mr. Pride is the South Los Angeles agent for the California Eagle. Never less than 600 copies are his quota, and never a return.

Aside from his activities for "The California Eagle," Ted Pride promotes many civic activities. Just now he is busy electing President Roosevelt.

Mr. Pride is the owner of a business in South Los Angeles, which serves the people in that area with sundry articles and services much in demand during this period.

PROGRESSIVE — James E. Boatwright, above, is solidly behind the efforts of citizens of Watts who are circulating petitions for better living conditions. Mr. Boatwright is the president of the United Steel Workers, Bethlehem Steel Workers Local 2273, and also of the Southern California Steel Workers Council.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE AGAINST PROPOSITION NO. 12

It is most pleasing to note that the street cars of the Los Angeles Railway are carrying a large advertisement anent Noble Sisle's appearance at the Lincoln theatre. Which brings to our mind that the great Noble Sissle, in aiding himself, has quite often given a helping hand to others. Among those he has helped on the way up are the Great Flo Mills, Josephine Baker and Lena Horne.

Speaking of Sissle recalls to my mind that he once told me that he ate a strip of bacon and two eggs for breakfast everyday in the year. If that is so-then for the past 25 years Noble Sissle has made away with about 18,250 eggs or 1,520⅓ dozens. That does not take the amount of bacon he has consumed.

Ethel Waters, one of the greatest singers of her type that American has produced is now back in harness in one of the swank spots.

Leonard Reed at times is one of our greatest producers. However when he is at his worst-hit shows are usually better than the run of the mill. But Leonard has staged some stinkeroos. But his batting average is good. He is the man behind the show at Shep's Playhouse. One of the finest spots in town.

Arthur MacClanahan, who for 25 years did about every job a fellow in his day, could do on the police force, is now a deputy sheriff. MacClanahan is a most likeable fellow. But the rub is this. That I, a novice at this police business, have been assigned to teach Mac the ropes. I really feel honored. He is a Bailiff, and the job is involved and intricate.

Arthur MacClanahan was a Commander of the Ben Bowie Post of the American Legion for two terms. He was succeeded by H. Leonard Richardson. MacClanahan refused to run—he wanted to confine himself to other activities.

Reginald Harangue of the County Clerks Office is back at his post after a 17 day vacation. Likewise Harry Beal is back on his post in the Federal building.

Otto Johnson is a nominee for our "Democracy at Work" department. He works for the County at 4th and San Pedro and has one of the finest jobs in the County, ranking practically in the class of Bob Hardon.

Jess Kimbrough, who is also a retired policeman, is now a deputy-sheriff and he does his chores on the other end of the police business. He is in the jail division. Well, he has put many a law breaker in jail, but now he is riding herd on them in the County Jail.

Many of you remember Captain William Thompson, often refered to as wild Bill Thompson, of Newton Street Station. Well he is now a deputy-sheriff, assigned as a Bailiff. Those guys certainly love their work, and which proves that it is now a profession and that they would like to remain in harness for many a year. They seem lost, when they are not looking out for the tax-payers.

Just a little reminder about the American Legion Sponosored Proposition One on the ballot. Vote yes and you will enable a world war two veteran to get a home for a small down payment at no cost to you, as a taxpayer.

This is Earl J. Morris, 5013 Wall Street 11, who tells you, don't spend it all. Save some and buy war bonds.

COURT ST. USO
SAN BERNARDINO, CALIF.

The Monday night dance at the Air Base was well attended by the hostesses from Court Street USO. Mrs. Claudia Clausell, the senior hostess at the Army Air Base, is anxious that hostesses attend this weekly function. The servicemen enjoy this even very much, so young ladies sign up and catch the bus each Monday evening at 8:30 at the Court Street USO Club at 323 Court Street, and have some fun!!!

Tuesday night, known as Community Night at the Court Street USO, was a gala evening this week. Big-name artists visited us and put on a show in the spacious recreation hall in the Court Street USO. The show was handled by Earl Griffin, the genial, gracious master of ceremonies of the Cobra Club of Los Angeles, and participated in by Herb Jeffries, who sang repeated encores for the large audience of servicemen and civilians; Mabel Scott, that torrid songstress of swingland fame; Clara Henderson of the Cobra Club, who thrilled the folk with her pianistic adventures into the land of "boogie woogie" and "hot rhythms," Among those who accompanied the artists from Los Angeles were: J. Robert Smith, managing editor of a Los Angeles newspaper; "Skippy" Smith, owner of the Pacific Parachute Company; Miss Edna Goddard, Mrs. Carmen Thatcher and the exotic Mrs. Herb Jeffries.

The Wednesday night dance was very well attended with the charming "Le Circle Charmantes" on hand.

The 4908 A. A. F. Base Unit "Torrid Swingsters" rendered the hot licks for the regular Friday night in the club dance.

Orchids this week to the Junior Hostess group of the Court Street USO fo rtheir untiring efforts at entertaining at servicemen. Practically every Junior Hostess was present Tuesday and Wednesday; 24 of them made a trip to the Ontario Army Air Base to entertain and dance with the soldiers there.

Watts USO News

On Friday evening Jimmy Martin will present his spectacular picture "Crime Doesn't Pay." Having spent seven years as an inmate of Folsom and other prisons throughout the country, Mr. Martin, now a minister, brings to his audience both authentic pictures of prison life and his own past experiences as a prisoner. This feature is the first of a series of educational programs the Watts USO is instituting for servicemen.

With Hallowe'en just around the corner the program committee is holding its masquerade dance on Saturday night. Ghosts, goblins, spooks and haunts will stalk the U.S.O. from 8.00 p.m. on. Cpl. WAGES are GROCERIES
DON'T ROB YOUR BREAD BASKET

Proposition No. 12, the so-called "Right To Work" amendment, will NOT guarantee the "Right To Work" but the "Right To Work" for low wages . . . It will reduce YOUR standard of living . . . It will disrupt collective bargaining and create disunity between management and labor . . . It will impede the war effort on the home front . . . It will deprive returning veterans of their right to return to their old jobs at decent wages and working conditions . . . Don't be fooled by this tricky amendment.

THIS must not HAPPEN HERE

Is this what you want YOUR loved ones to face when they come home? No, of course not. Proposition No. 12, the so-called "Right to Work" bill, would betray every war veteran who rightfully expects fulfillment of the promise that he would be brought back to a job at decent wages. This tricky amendment does not guarantee the "Right to Work," but the "Right to Work" for LOW wages. This is NOT what they are fighting for. Don't be misled by a false slogan . . . protect the veterans' future

Biddle Aids Investigation

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Attorney General Francis Biddle announced last week that he had authorized U.S. Attorney Toxey Hall, Southern District of Mississippi, to turn over to the local Grand Jury for Amite County, a report on the FBI investigation into the shooting last March of Isaac Simmons, 65-year-old Negro preacher, near the town of Liberty, Mississippi.

The local Grand Jury, under the direction of State Attorney Joe B. Brown, is now investigating charges that four white men of the community—Harper Dawson and Noble, Narvel and John Ryder, brothers—shot Simmons and drove his son Eldridge, out of the State in a dispute over the ownership of some land which the Simmon's were occupying. The four men were later arrested by the Sheriff of Amite County and released on bond of $1,000 each.

Food delivered for shipment to the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico under the War Food Administration Caribbean Emergency Program for the month of August decreased by about 3 million pounds as compared with July deliveries.

LEAVES FOR AFRICA ON IMPORTANT MISSION—Before taking a plane recently for Africa where he will serve as a member of an Anglo-America committee which is to make a highly important survey of education, agriculture, and rural life there, T. M. Campbell, Extension field agent of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, called on Secretary Wickard to say goodbye. While chatting with the Secretary, he pointed out on a map some of the areas of Africa that he and the committee would visit. The Secretary told Mr. Campbell that the Department was honored to have him chosen to take part in this important survey. —USDA photo by Hunton.

Re-Election of Judge Mosk Is Backed by Prominent Citizens

A distinguished committee of outstanding citizens has been formed to support the candidacy of Judge Stanley Mosk, judge of the Superior Court, who is seeking re-election at the polls on November 7. "We believe Judge Mosk has been an able, sincere, hard-working jurist of real merit, and therefore urge our fellow citizens to retain him," the committee's first statement reads.

Prominent among leaders of the group are Manchester Boddy, newspaper publisher and the west's leading radio commenator; Joseph Scott, laywer and Catholic lay leader; Andrew Copp, Masonic leader; Brig. Gen J. O. Donovan, former state adjutant general.

Lawrence Larrabee, member of the Los Angeles Board of Education; Cecil R. King, harbor area congressman; I. B. Dockweilder, distinguished native son of civic leader; Dr. Zelma Huxtable, organizer of the National Women's Party; Mrs. Willoughby Rodman, one of the country's most active clubwomen; Mrs. Edward G. Robinson, leader of the film colony.

Henry G. Bodkin, civic leader and member of the Los Angeles Police Commission; Jerry Giesler, one of the nation's greatest lawyers; and many others.

One of the county's most distinguished jurists, Judge Stanley Mosk is now completing his sixth year of public service, his second on the Superior Court. Presiding in the domestic relations department, he has achieved notable success in combating juvenile delinquency resulting from the wave of divorce and broken homes.

Negro Woman Biologist Works On Research for the War Effort

SCHENECTADY — Soggy fungi, which impair the striking power and durability of vitally important war equipment in humid and tropical areas, have been christened informally with Japanese names by Miss Ruth Wyant, biologist, who is one of the research scientists now seeking to render the parasites harmless in General Electric's Schenectady Works Laboratory.

Pointing to a greenish, moldish mass clustering to an insulated wire in a glass test dish, Miss Wyant, who is 25 years old and colored, said:

"Tojos." A whole colony of tiny destroyers. They look dead, but they're not. They keep multiplying night and day.

"These fungus Tojos and all their many parasitic kin are a menace to delicate equipment. Colonies of them sometimes clog machinery. Some of them give off acids strong enough to damage metallic and electrical devices, particularly in such hot and muggy areas as our armed forces are operating in against the Japs.

"Insulation on electric wires sometimes doesn't even stop them in the tropics, unless the insulated coating has been treated scientifically to withstand the parasitic fungi.

"This is relatively a new field," Miss Wyant said. "There aren't many books on the subject. I've read what there is, but no one knows too much about combating fungi—particularly in areas like the tropics, where the moldy parasites thrive in lush conditions of heat and high humility.

"Scientists here at G. E. and elsewhere are making advances in this important research. Several fungicidal varnishes, waxes and lacquers have been developed, which in the ever all reduce the depredations of the fungi greatly.

Miss Wyant, who graduated in 1043 from North Carolina State Colege, Durham, N. C., is the only woman biologist doing research in the G-E scientific fungus farm.

First becoming interested in trying to get the answer to things of a scientific nature by experimentation while in high school at Charlottesville, Virginia, where her family still lives, Miss Wyant continued this trend in college. There she majored in home economics and biology. A major part of her spare time was spent in the laboratory, where she concentrated on experiments in addition to those required in the courses she was taking. Reading of scientific books now is her major hobby. trol under all conditions has not yet been found."

Young Americans For Roosevelt To Hold a Rally

Young Americans For Roosevelt, a live organization of young people interested in and working for the re-election of President Roosevelt, are redoubling their efforts for the next three weeks to insure the success of their campaign.

The activities of this group consist of a daily program of telephoning and writing voters and distributing Roosevelt literature. In Los Angeles the organization has distributed over 5500, "I AM A Young American For Roosevelt" tags, and thousands of bicycle tags.

For the final campaign, the Young Americans plan to concentrate on precinct work, to sponsor a broadcast featuring Barney Ross, and A Young Americans For Roosevelt Rally on Sunday, November 5th at Hollywood High School from 2:30 to 5:30 P.M. Barney Ross, Sgt. Phil Stern, and Hollywood talent will be featured.

Olivia de Haviland and Barney Ross are National committeemen, and Artie Shaw, Paul Benard and Ike Adams, NAACP Jr. Council head, are ranking members of the local body.

Over 35 million turkeys, or 8 percent more than last year and 4 percent more than the record crop of 1940, will be raised this year according to preliminary estimates.

The Gay Side

By Bernice Cook

To love, and be loved for loving;
To have "will," — to do the task willing;
To desire things worthy of desiring;
To strive, without being driven;
To question without just being curious;
To have a goal that isn't purely golden;
To give without the thought of giving,
Makes life a truly worthwhile living!

FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF USO.

Sunday, October 29, will be Navy Day. It will also mark the first year of service in this city and community of our own Avalon U.S.O., which for the past twelve months has been so efficiently operated by Director Ben Ellison and his staff. To celebrate this year, which has been packed with events, many stars and celebrites will hold forth at the center, Sunday, from 3:00 until 9:00 o'clock, giving out some of the best entertainment you will ever want to see and hear. Throughout the afternoon, entertainment will be furnished by Noble Sissle, his band and show; the principals in the floor-shows from the Alabam and Shepp's Playhouse; the 80th Battalion Band from Port Heuneme, and the Ontario Army Air Base band. Earl "father" Hines has promised Mr. Ellison that he will be there and do his bit to make everyone happy. Besides, there will be many Hollywood personalities, members of the Hollywood Victory Committee present, and our old favorite, Clarence Muse, will be the genial master of ceremonies. As a special added feature, Mrs. Ever-Brewer Hudson, noted Mezzo soprano, will appear through the courtesy of the Non-Nobis Goodwill Workers, under the direction of Miss Lillian Doty. Miss Juanita Terry will accompany Mrs. Hudson at the piano.

The Avalon U. S. O. Center has made great strides during the past year, and Mr. Ellison has truly been the motivating force; though we agree with Mr. Ellison that all these accomplishments could not have been realized without the ardent support of his capable co-workers. The Avalon USO is doubly fortunate to have secured Mrs. Anne Jackson Hartwell as its new Associate Director. Mrs. Hartwell is a woman of many accomplishments. She was formerly dean of women and instructor in Psychology at Kentucky State College, Frankfort, Kentucky. She was also former director for service clubs at Camp Atterbury, Indiana, which mission she very effectively carried out. Mrs. Hartwell is an Alpha soror, and holds a responsible position in the National Association of Deans of Women. She holds a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Illinois, and a master of arts from Columbia University. Coming to Los Angeles, directly from the East, our city is most fortunate to have this distinguished leader as a capable co-worker with Mr. Ellison, at Avalon USO, and together they should do a great work.

The general public is cordially invited to the First Anniversary Celebration of the USO, Sunday afternoon, and here's hoping most of you will take the opportunity to go and see what "your" service organization is doing.

HERE AND THERE...

Noble Sissle's new stage presentations at the Lincoln Theatre are receiving favorable comment.

Friend, Sam Morgan, from 'Frisco way, will make a short business trip to L. A. next weekend. Incidentally, he will be warmly welcomed, as usual, by his many friends.

Mrs. Dooley Wilson goes to New York to join her husband, the popular actor, who is currently playing in the Broadway production "Bloomer Girl."

Attorney Vince M. Townsend, Jr., makes his usefulness in the community felt in more ways than one. Sunday morning past, he ably stood in the stead of Dr. Frederick Jordan, pastor of 8th and Towne Church, and delivered a strong discourse on the subject "Builders" to the regular Sunday morning worshippers.

The reception for charming Elizabeth Garrott, given by the Delta Pledges on Sunday afternoon, was a lovely affair, and Angeleno society bloomed en masse to do honor to the young musician who performed so brilliantly at the Polytechnic High School auditorium. That will be all for now, except to wish for my mother, and my niece, bon voyage, as they entrain for Oklahoma on Wednesday. So long.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

Members of Special and Standing Committees of the Y.W.C.A. Woodlawn Branch, will meet for reflection and study of the fall program plans.

Mrs. Curtis Albor, president of the Los Angeles Y.W.C.A., will speak of the World affiliation of the organization, and what is being done by the Y.W.C.A.

Mrs. Walter Gordon, Sr., will discuss the work at the Avalon U.S.W. Center, which is under joint sponsorship of the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A., locally. Many others will participate on the program, and special music will be rendered.

All members will stop at 5 p.m. for sandwiches and coffee, and beginning at 6 p.m., each Chairman of the Study Committee will give objectives of her respective Committee for the year. Mrs. Jessie Terry will close the meeting with a fitting thought and prayer.

List 5 Sorority Members Out of 6 Grads Getting Degrees At UCLA

By JESSIE MAE BROWN
Society Editor

Out of six Negro women graduating with degrees from local universities, five of the grads were members of Alpha Alpha Sorority. Outstanding in scholarship, these girls have helped to keep the AKA's high on the list of grade points. Last year the sorority ranked number one in grade achievement over all recognized sororities on the campus. Alpha Kappa Alpha is at present the one Negro Sorority holding recognition on the University of California Campus and is the first and oldest Negro sorority.

MURIEL MAILS G.I.'s GIFTS—Star of radio and stage, Muriel Rahn just made the deadline on her overseas mailing. All the packages will bring Christmas cheer to former Rose McClendon players in far corners of the world. —(Calvin's Photo)

Biggest local project of the sorority is the Local Health Project, headed by an Alpha Kappa Woman, Doctor Ruth Temple. At last Thursday's Health meeting one thousand dollars was donated for the cause by Mr. Nickerson.

Most outstanding National achievement is the success of the sororities National Non-Partisan Council on Public Affairs fight for the admission of Negro Women into the WAVES, Spars, and Women Marines. The council petitioned and lobbied for the immediate passage of H. R. 532 to bring about an investigation of the Navy's exclusion of Negro women from its auxiliary services.

Graduates include Miss Jessie Mae Milhouse, who received her B. A. degree in sociology. Miss Milhouse completed her studies in three years, rather than the regular four years. She plans to work for her master's degree at USC. Miss Milhouse was a holder of an Alpha Kappa Alpha schorlarship... She is a member of Alpha Gamma Chapter of the sorority and is an Anti-Basilius. Miss Josephine Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Marshall, who are pioneer residents of Los Angeles, received her Bachelor of Science Degree. She is Basileus of Alpha Gamma Chapter, and on the campus was active as Secretary of Home Economics Club and a member of the National Home Economics Association. Will return to UCLA next semester to do practice teaching and grad work.

Mrs. Ann Clay Johnson received on October 22, 1944, Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of California and also a general elementary teaching credential. She is secretary of Alpha Gamma chapter, of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, and a member of Chi Delta Phi, National Women's Literary Honorary Sorority. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall W. Anderson of this city and the wife of T/Sgt. Joseph P. Johnson, Army Air forces, overseas.

Mrs. Hope Speights Giste, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Speights majored in Sociology and received her B. A. degree in sociology on October 22, 1944. Plans to work for her masters degree at University of Southern California.

Jacqulyn Wilson graduated from the University of Southern California Sunday, October 22. She received her B. A. degree in sociology. She is an active YWCA worker and a member of Sigma chapter of the sorority. Out of the 6 Negro women graduates of the local universities, 5 are members of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority.

On November 17, 1944, the members of Alpha Gamma and Sigma chapters of Alpha Kappa Alpha are staging a Benefit affair in order to enlarge the sororities scholarship fund, which will enable them to present more scholarships to those seeking a finer education.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Johnson of 489 McDonald St., Pasadena, California entertained his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Johnson of Alexander, La., with a garden dinner. Forty guests attended.

Bowie American Legion Post Membership Drive In Full Gear

A National Citation for outstanding membership achievement almost within their grasp, members of Benjamin J. Bowie Post of the American Legion are staging a tremendous membership drive. The deadline for the securing of the membership quota assigned by National and State Departments is the meeting of the Post Monday, November 6.

Old Legionnaires realize the importance of this membership drive and anxious to have their Post inscribed on the Honor Membership scroll to be hung Armistice Day are getting their 1945 membership payments to the Adjutant post-haste.

World War II veterans are running the first World War veterans a close race in the contest to have the most members in the Post by the deadline.

Last year, Benjamin J. Bowie Post was the largest in its district and set a new record for membership. The Post had a very fine year financially and contributed heavily to the rehabilitation of ill veterans and charities. The meeting of November 6, after the voting in of the new members, will be confined to a financial report that will show no debts and a sizable amount of cash in the bank and assets running into the thousands.

On the night of November 11 Armistice Day, the Post will stage a celebration with entertainment and refreshments. Admittance to veterans and their guests will be by 1945 membership cards only.

House Guest

BERKELEY, Calif. — Madame Florence Carr was house guest of the Edward Moores on Alcatrex Avenue for seventeen days.

Mrs. Carr is the mother of Bobby Carr who is serving Uncle Sam on Burma Road.

Mrs. Moore, formerly of Los Angeles, is the mother of Daishell J. Hayes who is serving the Stars and Stripes as a censor somewhere in England. Daishell Hayes is a 1938 graduate of Jefferson High in L. A.

Young Pianist Rated Highly

Another evidence of the great wealth of talent in Los Angeles was vividly shown when Elizabeth Garrott, young pianist, appeared in concert Sunday afternoon at Polytechnic High School Auditorium. She was presented by Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and had a large and appreciative audience.

She played the Toccata and Fugue in D Minor by Bach-Taussig with dignity and poise. The Sonata op. 10 No. 2 of Beethoven was played with nuance producing a lovely tonal quality.

The first half of the program included Intermezzo op. 17 by Brahms, Rhapsodie op. 17 by Brahms, Etudes op. 25 No. 1 and op. 10 No. 5 by Chopin, and Papillons by Schuman.

The second half consisted of Liszt, Debussy, Dohnanyi, Still and DeFalla. The highlights of the program were her Debussy and Still works. William Grant Still said, in congratulating her, "You are not only a virtuoso, but a poet." He said she was one of the few people who interpret his numbers in the way he desires. With her talent and ability, Miss Garrott should make her mark.

What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

Jessie Mae Brown

Since the discriminating barrier has been lifted, olive drab is no longer the sole color worn by tan tone American Service Women. Many debs all over the nation are joining the Waves, Spars and Women Marine Corps. The National Non-Partisan Council on Public Affairs, of Alpha Kappa Sorority diligently urged an immediate passage of H.R. 522, which dealt with the exclusion of Negro women from auxiliary services. With the moral courage to act, the committee lobbied and demanded the admission of Negro women to ALL women's uniformed services of the Navy, Coast Guards, and Marine Corps on an integrated basis. So Alpha women are quite proud of their most recent National achievement.

Sunday was a pretty big day for the October graduates. Arthur Trent, a loyal Bruin from way back, received his degree after taking every math and chemistry course the university had to offer with high grade . . . Jessie Mae Milhouse received her B.A. in Sociology in three years. Ann Clay Johnson received her elementary teaching credentials. Hope Giste came out with flying colors in Sociology. Josephine Marshall received her B.S. in home economics and plans to return next semester to do practice teaching. Gloria Johnson who completed her studies in August, received her degree along with the October grad group. Jackie Wilson received her B.A. in Sociology from S.C.

Sunday afternoon also found local Delta's presenting Elizabeth Garrott in recital at Poly High School Auditorium. Her beautiful piano playing was well received by the audience. Following the recital, the pledge club honored the young artist with a reception.

Brief, But Fun

The one week vacation between the fall and winter sessions is being well excepted by all students. Returning from Berkeley Campus with much to chat about is Ouida Pruitt. Howard Grant, now bearing the Alpha Phi Alpha handle, also made the jaunt down to the Angel City, only to return to the Berkeley campus Friday morning. Peggy Prince arrived on the Berkeley bound L.A. train to see the bright lights of Los Angeles before returning to classes. Grace Davis is back after visiting home state of Alabama . . . Leola Beavers sends a line from Frisco where she is enjoying a brief vacation before entering her freshman term at the university.

With the college crowd back, the week-end frolicks are sure to be on the rolling ball. Most events this week-end will have the ghostly, witchey Halloween touch. See where the Young People's Choir of 8th and Town are having a Masquerade party at the Rumpus Room. The Ivy Leaf and Pyramid Pledges will join in a bit of fun Friday night. The Manual Arts Division No. 1 girls is also having its Masquerade Ball Friday night. So the coming week-end will be chuck full of fun and then some.

Dan Cupid's Bit

Sunday afternoon found Harriette Patterson playing luncheon hostess to her Bridal party. The S.C. coed and Lawrence Johnson will take their vows Sunday, November 5th, at Second Baptist Church immediately following the services. Lawrence arrives from his Army station Friday. Attending the luncheon were: Gloria Walton who will be matron of honor, Winifred Jones, maid of honor, Gloria Hawkins, Jessel Reid, Catherine Randolph, and Eunice Cross bridesmaids.

Notes From the Gents

Received a cheerful bit of info from Bobby Boswell stationed on the Isle of Corsica. How well I remember his impersonation of Napoleon — bet Bobby never dreamed he would ever land on that famed Isle. Anyway, the great little Alpha gent is sending loads of greetings to his many pals. Says that the Isle is the dullest place in the world. His buddies, Daniel Thomas of L.A. and Earl Gladman of Frisco send their regards . . . Then a cheery bit of V-mail from Rene Hewlett lets us know that France and all its champagne is all right with him. Had a fine time chatting with Foreign Correspondent Jonathon Spears Kinloch; the buddies spent the whole day together chatting over the doings 'round L.A. . . . Charles Douglas, stationed somewhere in the South Pacific on the U.S.S. Ticonderoga is doing plenty fine; understand that his campaign ribbons number "four," representing the European, American, Asiatic and Expeditionary Theatres of war plus four bronze stars. By the way he would like to have a few teasing tan pin-ups of his local chums . . . Albert Jones, somewhere in East Indies, sends his hellos to all the gang.

Well! Well! Well!

Snap shots of home town GI's seem to be quite the thing. Took note of Frank Saunders looking his best in uniform. The deb in possession of the shot let us know that Frank is flying high, and we do mean high . . . At the reception following Sunday's recital chatted with Mary Johnson, long time L.A. High School chum. By the way, Wednesday afternoon the famed "Anchor" so familiar to the L.A. Hi school crowd was the familiar setting for the annual "Boy and Girl" discussion led by Mrs. Portwig, Tri-Y advisor . . . Faye Thompson has definitely decided to be a professional flower arranger . . . Berkeley's Connie Wilson is seeing what the Angel City has to offer along with Gloria Ford.

I'm quite sure local organizations are thankful for genial Joe Morris' Club Plantation. For week in and week out Benefit affairs are being hostessed by leading local clubs. Les Charmontes have the club scheduled for the 3rd of November in order to raise funds to sponsor a recital . . . The Undergrad chapters of Alpha Kappa Sorority are staging their gigantic Scholarship fund drive at the club this year. Erskine Hawkins will be on the scene, so its sure to be a top knotch affair. AKA's are holding their affair on the 17th of November . . . That's about all.

TILL NEXT WEEK

Elizabeth Garrott Recital Applauded

That Los Angeles is blessed with a wealth of musical talent; was emphasized last Sunday afternoon, when nineteen year old Elizabeth Garrott, accomplished pianist scored in a sensational manner before a large and appreciative audience at Delta Sigma Theta's Scholarship concert at Polytechnic High School Auditorium.

Her program was varied in its scope and was presented with dignity and poise. Highlights of the concert were the artist's Debussey and Grant Still's numbers.

At the conclusion of the recital, Miss Garrott received the warm personal commendation from composer Still.

In congratulating her, he said, "you are not only a virtuoso, but you are a poet." Still further added that she was one of the very few artists who played his numbers in a manner in which he thoroughly enjoyed. He predicted a brilliant future for her.

Proceeds of the event were added to the sorority's scholarship fund which has been instrumental in assiting deserving young women to further their educations in local universities since 1924.

Following the concert, the Pyramid Club composed of Delta Pledges, staged a tea in honor of the artist and sponsoring sorors, at 2198 West 29th St.

Wallace Says Welfare of All People Must Be Considered At All Times

Vice-President Wallace, speaking by radio transmission to 5,000 persons gathered in Harlem's Golden Gate ballroom last Sunday, declared that President Roosevelt is necessary because of his vast experience to guide us through the peace of the post-war world.

"The welfare of all people must be considered," he said, "and all people means Negro as well as white."

That is the vast difference between the forces backing President Roosevelt and the candidates on his ticket, and those behind candidate Governor Dewey and those on his ticket.

When Governor Dewey is in the Mid-West he speaks only for the Mid-Western farmers. He tells them farm prices should go up. When he is in New York or Philadelphia he tells the city dwellers the prices of foodstuffs should come down. He is all things to all people, as someone remarked, but not in the sense of real service as Paul meant to be.

There are still millions of sharecroppers in the South, there are thousands still in the slums. There should be at least a million and a half new homes built. And, as Vice-President Wallace pointed out, if private industry can not or will not do it, the United States government must.

Slum clearance, the alleviation of the distress of the sharecroppers of the South, whether white or black, are outstanding achievements of the Roosevelt administration. Vice-President Wallace himself, when secretary of agriculture, did much to raise the standards of home-living of those who had been living in overcrowded cabins with not enough to eat, and few clothes to wear—the third of the South's nation, ill-fed, ill-clothed, and ill-housed.

As Congressman Dawson pointed out, at this same meeting, President Roosevelt has done more for the Negro than all the other presidents put together since Lincoln. He believes the welfare of ALL the people must be considered. And ALL people in President Roosevelt's opinion, means Negro and white.

Congressman-elect Powell declared at a time like this the country demands a proven people. "And both President and Mrs. Roosevelt have proven themselves," he said.

We know all these things are so. We have lived them the past twelve years. Do we want a change? Do we want to go back to the days of the Hoovers again? Will a change of that sort be grateful? An empty stomach again, after a full one?

Think well on these things. Re-elect a man who believes in the welfare of ALL the people, Negro as well as white. Re-elect a president who has done more for the Negro than all the presidents combined since Lincoln. Re-elect our friend, President Roosevelt.

Double Check!

What Goes On Here?

Samuel Grafton, columnist for the Daily News, tells graphically in last Saturday's issue of his feeling regarding the coming election as he traveled more than 6,000 miles across the country, getting the sense of the people regarding the two presidential candidates.

He tells first of a sense of outrage he felt as he heard people talking against the reforms President Roosevelt has made. He felt this first, he said, in Oklahoma, where he met some millionaire oil men, strong labor haters—one and all for Dewey. What goes on here? was the question in his mind.

The slur upon Sidney Hillman, with the special emphasis on him as a "Russian pants maker," just when Dewey professes we need accord with our ally, the Soviet Union, may become a "heritage which will poison our foreign relations long after this campaign is forgotten," he believes.

What goes on here?

"The fact that Dewey is a cold young man, that he has a glacial and strategic mind, is not news. But this is too cold, too strategic. It is a kind of enormity; so enormous an outrage against sense that it almost evades comment by its very boldness. Suddenly you realize that Dewey's problem is designed, not to solve our national problems, but to win an election. And the solution of his problem requires him to raise to new power the very elements that most bitterly oppose the aims he professes, from internationalism to social security. He is doing it.

Then the sense of outrage deepened to a sense of danger, and I used every means to get a ticket home in time to register."

What was this sense of danger that Grafton felt? Why did he hurry home so fast to register in order to vote for President Roosevelt? Why was he so frightened of those who are supporting Dewey? What strategy did he sense "so enormous that it almost evades comment by its very boldness?

Can be possible that it is the same strategy employed by another man who raised himself to power by telling lies to the people? Who said if you wish to deceive the masses do not tell them a little falsehood, they will not believe that. Tell them a lie so enormous that it evades comment by its very boldness. This the masses will believe.

Can it be possible that the American people will be deceived as the people of Germany were? Will we awaken, too late, when the chains of slavery, of native Fascism, have bound us hand and foot?

Remember Hitler arose to power on the backs of the common people, people who were blinded by the promises he made them, by the enormous lies he told. Do we want a Hitler in America? A stooge of the big industrialists, as Hitler is?

Forbid it, Almighty God. Give the American people a clear vision of the fork in the path they are walking. And help us choose the path that leads on to a greater democracy. Help the American people see the danger of the other path. And give us sense to choose the leader to a greater democracy on Nov. 7 —FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT.

Congressman Poulson Voted Against Federal Ballot for Soldiers

The Evening Herald-Express, a Hearst newspaper, last Tuesday, October 24, published a picture of Congressman Norris Poulson with two of his constituents "lauding" the California State ballot and criticizing the Federal ballot which President Roosevelt wished to have passed and which would have given all men and women in the armed forces the right to vote.

Congressman Poulson voted against the Federal ballot. He and other Republicans of the North joined forces with the reactionary elements of the South, just as they joined forces to defeat the anti-poll tax bill, and defeated the effort of our great Leader to give every soldier, every sailor, every man and woman fighting and working for our country, the right to vote in the election November 7.

True, the citizens of the state of California and of many other states in the Union that have progressive election laws, will be permitted to vote. But the soldiers and sailors of the Southern states and of some of the other states in the Union, will NOT be allowed to vote. Their state election laws will not permit them to do so. It was for these forgotten citizens of the United States, risking their lives in Europe and in the Pacific Islands for a real democracy, that President Roosevelt worked so strenuously against the selfishness and bigotry of such men as Norris Poulson.

The Evening Herald-Express and Congressman Poulson himself are deliberately telling a falsehood when they state Poulson voted for the soldiers' ballot. He voted to take the ballot away from thousands of our boys who will have to stand aside now and watch their more fortunate buddies cast their vote for Roosevelt.

That vote will be a large one, we know. An overwhelming one for the President who has always fought for the underprivileged whomever they may be, and an overwhelming vote, too, for all those who will support President Roosevelt in his fight for freedom for all.

Norris Poulson is opposed in this thirteenth district by a man of this kind, NED HEALEY. Ned Healey will support President Roosevelt in his entire humanitarian program, not only for one little section of the country but for the entire country.

In the fourteenth district, HELEN GAHAGAN DOUGLAS is the candidate pledged to President Roosevelt's program. In the fifteenth it is HAL STLYES, who has helped thousands on his "Good Neighbor" program. These Congressmen and SENATOR SHERIDAN DOWNEY, candidate for reelection to the U.S. Senate, must be sent to Washington to work for the third of the nation in all parts of the country.

★ THE LETTER BOX

Camp Maxey, Texas
186 A.G.F. Band

Dear Mrs. Bass:

Today I received my copy of The Eagle and was very glad as usual to get the news from the ole home front.

The Eagle has won its place in the hearts of other members of the band. It is getting so now that I no sooner get it than everyone wants to see it.

It has happened several times that one of the boys would pick up the paper and find some article pertaining to someone in his own home town, so you see The Eagle is tops around here.

The article by John Kinloch on the Invasion of Cherbourg was tops. It reminded me of John in civilian life. They say that the army will change people, but I don't think it has changed John at all. He is still the same, I know. I'm surprised to find that he is still Pfc. The army is run very differently than most people think. One finds that it is not always the person with the most education who is the leader. Truthfully I've been in long enough to be more than a Pfc. myself, but in a band of 28 men it is rather difficult to get a rating, especially when the band has been organized more than a year before you get there.

California makes up the major percentage of our organization.

I expect to be home on furlough around the last of this month or the first of next, at which time I shall drop by the office and pay you a visit.

Recently I received a letter from my cousin, Roy Smith, who is serving somewhere in France, asking me to send him my copy of The Eagle when I'm finished. I shipped him a whole supply that I had been saving for over a month. I know he will enjoy reading them.

Strange as it may seem, the bill passed by Congress that there will be no discrimination on government property has not reached the camp as yet. The transportation facilities for the Negro personnel is terrible! We got one bus an hour to the whites' 14. (I counted them.)

Like many other Negroes, we wonder just what is our point in this war.

Since we have been here we have played for the troops as they left on their way overseas. They have all been white, hundreds of them, yet just as many colored troops have left and as yet we have played for none. We would like to, but the matter is out of our hands. The bad point of it is, there are four white bands on the post to our one colored band.

Most people think that a bandsman does not do anything but lounge around and do nothing all day. But they are wrong, more wrong than they will ever know.

We go out on 25-mile road marches, dig foxholes, pitch tents and sleep in the woods the same as other units. When we are not in the field we are in classes on chemical warfare, field tactics, booby traps, and many other things the same as the other soldiers. But when the average soldier's day is over we are just starting. We usually pick up our horns and either play a concert to which we never have over 10 people present, or else off we go to the USO to play for a dance. Then it's reville at 5:00, and another day of the same thing.

There you have it—a complete story on a bird's-eye view of a bandsman's position in the war. We do have some fun, though, traveling, playing for USO shows and dances. (That was when we were in California.)

In closing I'm sending "hellos" from Pfc. Mercer Cantrell, S/Sgt. Samuel Allen, and myself, who say, "Keep up the good work, for it is really good for our morale."

Once again I would like to say "hello" to all of my friends in the Junior N.A.A.C.P., and tell them to keep up the good work, for the world needs a lot of good work done on it.

I remain yours truly,
Pfc. Edward Greenwood.

Office of Price Administration
Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass
Editor, The California Eagle
4075 South Central Avenue
Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Bass:

For some time I have wanted to express my appreciation for the support you have given the price control, rent control and rationing programs through your paper, and to tell you how important your support is to the success of the programs.

We are facing a difficult task in the reconversion period which lies ahead. As you know too well, in periods of this kind it is often Negroes who face the most severe economic pressure and discrimination. Negroes will, during this period, particularly need the benefits of price control and rent control. That is why we must make doubly sure that we give it to them.

This is a job that we can do well only with the cooperation of persons like you and other leaders of Negro communities who can help us reach all the people.

There are some specific ways you can help us to do this. One of the most important and most immediate is to make known throughout the Negro community the facts about our retail price programs. Dollars and cents ceiling prices on meats, community ceiling prices on many foods, ceiling prices on consumer goods, new and used, restaurant ceiling prices, and all others, should be familiar to every consumer. Only by means of a well-informed consuming public can compliance with price regulations be strengthened and maintained.

Another immediate program on which the Negro press could be very helpful is to make known the facts about kerosene rationing. The winter season is approaching, and the approximately one and one-half million families in this country, many of whom are Negroes, who use kerosene for heat and light, must be assured of getting their share of the kerosene supply, even though ration allowances have been cut.

In addition, I should like to ask you to feel free at all times to call to my personal attention any matters of price, rationing or rent affecting the community welfare, in which you think I or members of our staff, may be of assistance.

I shall be happy to hear from you, and I want to assure you that our concern over holding prices and rents in line in all communities is sincere and deep.

Sincerely,
CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

Mrs. Charlotta Bass
Editor, California Eagle
Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Bass:

I just wanted to let you know how much we appreciate The California Eagle, with its up-to-the-minute news, and the service it is rendering the people. The men of this regiment, a number of whom are from California, are always anxious to see The Eagle.

We have men from all walks of life, who are doing a fine job and bearing the torch for a new and better world, so that the victories of a post-war peace may yield the things for which we are fighting today.

In this unit are authors, educators, philosophers, medics from the leading universities of the United States, many of whom have studied abroad. All are making splendid contributions toward a just and permanent peace.

We do appreciate the sacrifices that are being made by those on the home front, and your continued loyalty in this global conflict for the preservation of the four freedoms. Remember all of us in your prayers. Best wishes and kindest regards for your continued success.

Sincerely,
Robert J. Saunders, Captain,
Regimental Chaplain.

✦ AS I SEE IT! ✦

By Jeanette Cohen

"No Vacancies," "No Vacancy," "No Rooms" "no nothin'" and it's coming out of my ears. I have walked out two pair of shoes, aggravated my neuritis; worn myself to a frazzle and still have no apartment.

I can't say, though, that I haven't had a good time looking for a place to live. The experiences one has ringing doorbells are amazing.

There is a regular routine that one follows. In New York there are certain sections of the City where one may find "furnished" apartments. (I put ((furnished" in quotes, because after looking at some of the junk, I have my doubts as to whether it could be called "furniture"). Practically every house has a sign on the outside, which usually reads something like this:

"Furnished Rooms — 1 & 2 Room Apts. Newly Renovated. Modern Maple Furniture, Stall Showers. Maid Service, Telephone. Moderately priced. Apply on Premises."

The first step in one's search is to ring the front door bell. After that is done, nine times out of ten a tired, disshevelled old lady comes to the door and shouts: "YEA?" or "WHADDA YA WAHNT?" You usually reply with a question: "Do you have any vacancies?" There is seldom an answer to that, just a shrug of the shoulders and a movement of the head from side to side.

Once in a while there is a sign of hope on the face of the individual standing in the doorway . . . "There is a three room apartment on the fourth floor." Hurrah. At last! Up I trudge, first flight, second flight, third flight—(and by that time I wish I was 30 pounds lighter) —finally, the fourth flight. The apartment door is opened by the tired superintendent (we don't call them managers in New York) and she waits for your reaction.

(If by this time you have come to the conclusion that the housing problem is the same in L. A.—just remember that you don't have to climb four and five flights in every house to see a hole in the wall).

I often wonder, when I think of those impressive signs outside the houses, when those signs were put up. When the sign states "newly renovated," it was probably true fifteen years ago. The "modern" furniture would be modern if all the pieces were intact. By "stall" showers, they mean there is one "stall" on each floor and ten people use it. "Maid Service" is no more — and prices are not "moderate." So————the only thing that remains true of the sign is that you may "apply on the premises."

All this is bad enough, but when a bedraggled, "hard-looking" woman, with a cigarette hanging out the side of her mouth asks: "Are you decent? Do you behave yourself?" before she will even show you her broken down apartment without frigidaire—five flights up), it adds insult to living with relatives.

If purchance you can't find an apartment in L. A. and intend moving to New York, don't forget your trailer. Or, you could pitch a tent in Central Park, although I can't guarantee steam heat in the winter.

Don't get me wrong—I love New York—and some day, who knows, I may find an apartment too.

John Kinloch Now Public Relations Officer In European Theatre of War

By Leroy H. Hart

John S. Kinloch, a former managing editor of the California Eagle, has been named on a staff of public relations officers who will facilitate news collection for the Negro Press in the European Theatre of Aperations, according to a report from Washington.

The staff will be headed by Maj. Kenneth E. Campbell, former field artillery officer with the 596th outfit of the 92nd Division.

Besides Kinloch, the five experienced newsmen working with Major Campbell will include Sgt. Trezzvant Anderson, Associated Negro Press; Sgt. Peyton Gray, Baltimore, Md., Afro-American, and Pvt. Charles P. Howard of the Iowa Bystander. A photographer, Sgt. Earl W. Tibbs, formerly with a lithographic company in Pittsburgh, Pa., has also been assigned to the unit.

Major Campbell's office will be with that of the war theatre commander in Paris.

Kinloch, who was inducted on December 10, 1943, began his newspaper work on the Eagle at the age of 16, and worked his way up to the post of managing editor, which position he held when called to the colors.

He is the son of Mrs. James S. Kinloch, sister of Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, and the late James S. Kinloch of New York City. Mr. Kinloch died since Pvt. Kinloch has been in the service.

The new public relations officer studied at the Ethical Culture School of New York City before coming to Los Angeles to work on the Eagle. Continuing his education here, he graduated from Polytechnic High School and was a student at the University of Southern California when inducted.

'TONIGHT'

Tonight, my ship puts out to sea
Tonight I'll leave all's dear to me
To find and fight this foreign foe
The one who caused us all this woe.

Tonight I'll think of you my dear
Knowing that you'll never fear
Having Faith in God—"Carrying On"
I will be back when Victory's won.

But if tonight my blood is shed
In this vast ocean running red
With blood of men just like mine
And I the book of death must sign.

I pray to God to give me strength
To say a prayer—minutes length
And then I'd pray to God on high
To forgive those who cried—"You must die."

For tonight I've found the man who saves
The man who died for free and slaves,
The man who gladly died for me
That I may live eternally.

So why should I ever complain?
Of this my fate — Who is to blame?
But sinful man who does no right.
That's why I'm leaving home tonight.

'We Democrats,' A Timely Book

To be really educated along political lines, to know how to vote intelligently in this coming election, you MUST read the little booklet, "We Democrats," by Marian Inglewood, just off the press.

"We Democrats" is a short history of the Democratic Party, but written in a sane and tolerant style, there is nothing in it that could offend even the most partisan Republican. It is a short history of our country as well, of the men who formed our government, and contains hundreds of interesting facts few of us ever knew. For instance, did you know Francis Scott Key, author of The Star Spangled Banner, was a Democrat? Did you know that for sixteen years there was only one political party in the United States—the Democratic Party?

You may not agree with what the Democratic Party believes, but even the most ardent Republican can not help but be interested in facts of history contained in this little book.

PARIS. — When the hob-nail boots of the Nazi army first clattered into this lovely, betrayed city in June, 1940, old Jim Crow marched in with them, bull-whip and all.

For the first time in history, the Germans brought racial segregation to Paris.

One of the initial proclamations of the Germans here was a decree against jazz music. The edict held that the music was degrading, a part of "decadent Negro savage culture."

The "Metro," the world-famed subway system of Paris, was hardest hit by the Jim Crow regulations of the Germans. Negroes were not permitted to ride first class, were confined to rear coaches only.

Most of the restrictions applied both to Negroes and Jews. Both were barred from government positions, the civil service, ownership of cabarets, theaters, places of public.

Both Jewish and Negro representatives in the French Chamber of Deputies were driven out of office.

The law against jazz drove most of Paris' Negro musicians to hunger and unemployment. Thousands were kidnapped to slave labor gangs within the Reich, where black workers are held strictly segregated from whites.

Imprisoned Negroes were fed only one meal a day, while others received two and were scarcely able to live on them.

FREEDOM ENDS JIM CROW

Paris' Jim Crow days ended with its liberation by Free French forces. The United States Army also bowled over all Nazi racial restrictions the minute it arrived in town, setting one of the clearest and most progressive precedents in its history.

The Jim Crow subway regulation disappeared with the Wehrmacht.

Under U. S. Army protection, Jewish religious services were held in a Paris synagogue for the first time since June, 1940, on the Sunday after our occupation of the city.

Outdoor Life and Health Group Raised $1200 On Mortgage Fund

The Outdoor Life and Health Association came $1200 nearer its goal last Monday night when 75 guests, present at a dinner at the Last Word Lounge, pledged that amount toward the retiring of the $10,000 mortgage on the Association's Sanitorium at Duarte. Mrs. Fannie Williams and Mrs. Pauline Slater were honored guests for the occasion, as a testimonial to their untiring service to the association.

Leon Washington, publisher of the Los Angeles Sentinel, acted as master of ceremonies, and he praised the efforts of the Association, pointing out that it served a great public need.

Dr. E. I. Robinson, president of the NMA, addressed the guests, giving his reports which he gave to Senate sub-committee recently, in Washington, D. C. He cited figures and statistics which showed the need for the sanatorium, and the further need of more accomodations in other institutions.

Supervisor, Gordon McDonough concurred in Dr. Robinson's report, and he deplored the discrimination which made it difficult for Negroes to train as Doctors, Dentists and Nurses.

John Fowler, chairman of the board of the Association arranged the dinner in conjunction with Dr. Leonard Stovall, president and founder of the Association. Mr. Fowler welcomed the guests and gave an outline of the Association's aims.

Dr. Stovall recounted the organization of the Association and its adjunct, the Assistance League. He paid tribute to past officers of the League, and introduced many of them to the dinners. He emphasized that while the Sanatorium at Duarte was progressing, it needed other improvements.

Rev. McMillan opened the dinner with prayer, and Anne Hunter and George Bryant sang solos. E. W. Leonard led off the contributions with a check for $100.

Mary Shannon Harrington who contributed $60, gave most of the dinners an uncomfortable half hour during her talk in which she employed all of the patronizing clinches of a good natured plantation owner who has come to visit his Negro tenants.

CORRECTION

In the October 19th issue of the CALIFORNIA EAGLE there appeared an article headed "Large Crowd Attends Funeral of Elder J. Holmes." On page 10 the continuation of the article says Elder Holmes assumed pastorates "in the A.M.E. Church at Howard Chapel, Hanford, and Cooper Church, Oakland, California." It should have read "In the A.M.E. ZION Church at Howard Chapel." Please pardon this error.

Five Negroes Arrested As Suspects in Mail Thefts

Five Negroes were arrested last weekend as suspects in robbing of mail boxes in apartment houses throughout the city in an organized scheme to steal government checks. They were charged with conspiracy to steal mail in complaints issued by U. S. Commissioner David B. Head.

Secret service agents and postal inspctors charge that the group established headquarters in a rooming house on East Twenty-first Street, from which each operated individually, being assigned to a specified district.

Defendants named in the complaints and awaiting grand jury action are Elroy Horton, 23, asserted leader; Laurence B. Fears, 26; James Sanders, 26; Doris Tolbert, 21, and Eugene Johnson, 23.

Investigators assert they recovered more than 100 stolen allotment checks or vouchers with arrest of the group.

In making her first appearance before the U. S. District Court, the Attorney Martha Malone Williams will be the counsel for defense of the five defendants named in the complaint.

All defendants are being held in the County jail with bail set at $3,500 each.

Leaders To Discuss Election Choice For Negro People

Should Dewey or Roosevelt be the choice of the Negro people?

Two Negro community leaders will discuss this question at the Pilgrim House Forum, 120 North San Pedro Street at 8 p.m. Friday, October 27.

Mrs. Charlotta Bass, editor of the California Eagle, will speak for Roosevelt. Mrs. Bass, long a champion of the cause of the Negro people is an officer of the National Nonpartisan Committee for the Re-election of Roosevelt, which is headed by Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune.

Speaking for Dewey will be Bertrand B. Bratton, certified public accountaint who is well known in Los Angeles political circles.

Interest in the discussion is heightened by the fact that both Mrs. Bass and Mr. Bratton are Republicans of long standing.

During the last year of normal car usage, more Americans were killed in traffic accidents than the total number who died in our Armed Forces during the first two-and-a-third years of the war.

★★ CANDID COMMENTS ★★

SCANNIN' THE NEWS TICKER TAPE

I read in a recent report that "Dynamite Jackson was contemplating a comeback." For the benefit of those two jerk's in the second row who're probably asking, "whoz Dynamite Jackson," we'll tell you a paragraph or two about one of the greatest heavyweights California has ever produced. About ten years ago, the hardest hitting fighter to don a glove in a California ring, was a big six-foot handsome hunk of man named Ernest Bendy. He knocked out opponents under the name of Dynamite Jackson. He met, fought and beat the best of them. In and out of the ring he was the dictionary's definition of the word "gentleman." He never drank whisky, smoked cigarettes, gambled or played the nitespots. He was in love with one woman—his wife. At that time, the boxing public was in love with one man—Dynamite Jackson. In his fighting days, he threw thrills with his left hook. He knocked out opponents right and left on his way up the ladder of success. Everybody was in HIS corner, because HE was in everybody's corner. After making a reputation for himself in the West, he was all set to invade the East. One last California fight, and he would invade the prize rings of New York. Well, you've probably guessed it by now. In his last California fight, Fate stepped in and played one of her usual tricks. His right eye was damaged in that bout. He didn't go blind; he isn't even partially blind today, but his right eye was cut after which it became the weakest part of his anatomy. He fought two or three times after that, and in every fight his eye was easily re-opened. On the advice of his lovely wife, Lula, he quit the prize ring. Since then, he has done all right for himself. He has a home. On 55th and Central avenue, he has his own liquor store where you can get all the whisky you want at regular OPA prices. His wife, as usual, is still in his corner working side by side with him in his store. He's the picture of health, and even today could lick the current crop of heavyweights they're serving to the public on Tuesday nights at the Olympic auditorium. Which is probably the reason he's contemplating a comeback.

But he won't get the support of this column on a "comeback" campaign. We love him too much to see him risk his eyesight on what will invariably end in disaster. Sure, Dynamite Jackson is good. He's great, and last Tuesday night (even out of shape) he could have beaten Pork Daniels and Elmer Ray put together. But let's hope he stays out of shape! To repeat a paragraph we have repeatedly preached to another grand guy (Henry Armstrong) in these pages, "The loss of ones eyesight isn't worth the fame and glory a successful comeback campaign would bring." Young Van, an Editor of the Knockout magazine, wrote in his last week's column that "Dynamite Jackson is planning a comeback." Let's hope Young Van's source of information gave him a wrong tip—for once! . . .

All White Band Sends Hepster's

by JT Gipson

Debut of Ansel Hill and his orchestra, tagged by Eagle columnist JT Gipson as "the greatest white band since Benny Goodman," at the club Alabam last Friday night went over with the proverpial bang. Hill's swingsational band fits admirably into the room's atmosphere. It offers smooth, swing music that the customers appreciate and the hepcats and hepchicks eat up. The band has good vocal support in Betty Lynn, a looker with excellent pipes, and tall, blonde good-looking Al Whitney, baritone, whose crooning goes over well.

GOOD SHOW, TOO!

Acts in the floorshow include the Archie Savage Dancers, a quartette of terpsichorean artists both talented and colorful. They offer several graceful routines that include some dancesational twirls. They'll probably be discovered by a talent scout before their engagement is ended here. The Army's contribution to the fast and snappy show are two popular soldiers named Cecil Gant and Bobbie Davis. The former wrote the Harlem hit tune, "I Wonder," currently the avenue fave, while Bobby contributes his share to the Alabam show by doing intricate tap routines and lifting tables, chairs etc high into the air between his teeth. A personable lad, he has terrific personality. Rae Pearl and Yo-Yo, Harlem's answer to Veloz and Yolanda, are a slick team. One of best such in local niteries in a long time. She's cute, and how; he's handsome. Their garb is good. Their tosses and twirls are great. They have the audience in the palm of their hand. Another show-stopper is singer Marian Abernathy, of which there is none whicher! A hard worker, she had the opening night crowd rocking in rhythm with her seductive-styled torch-anting. Here's another act that oughta be looked over by a talent scout! The Ansel Hill band is the feature of the evening, and they're the hottest to hit this neck of the woods in ages.

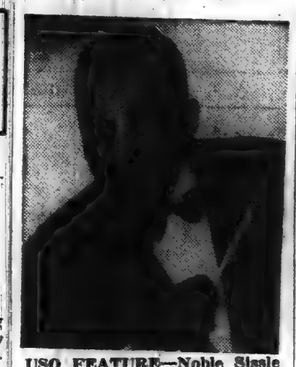
Dancesational Boy-Girl Duo Is Hollywood's Newest Find

Get ready, America! Hollywood is about to introduce a new and sensational discovery. It's a boy-girl duo known as Rae Pearl and Yo-Yo. At the Club Alabam, where Harlem's answer to Veloz and Yolanda appear nitely, a talent scout sat at a ringside table with his newsboy and went into raves aplenty about the terrific team of tapsters. They not only turn out a neat bit of torrid tappin', they sing, dance and do just about everything entertaining to make their act outstanding. They work with much flourish, and theirs is an act that's crowded with class.

At the bar of the Alabam the other evening I walked up and introduced myself to Yo-Yo, the male half of the team. He was standing there staring at a ginger ale highball as though trying to think of a good reason why he shouldn't drink it. (He couldn't think of any.) This historic meeting came about because I had watched their work with interest for a very long time. "And here," said I, to myself one night when they had finished their fifth curtain call at the Alabam, "is a team that should sail stratospheric heights in a blaze of glory." They have everything to offer. Good looks. A good act, and more personality than you can shake a stick at.



Well, a scout on the payroll out at MGM studio where Lena Horne gets her salary, is of the same opinion. He caught their act and thinks, as does your corpulent and collapsible correspondent, that the name Rae Pearl and Yo-Yo should have America in the palm of their hands before another year rolls into oblivion.

They're drawing down three hundred and fifty dollars a week at the Alabam, which ain't bad even if it's only half that much!

Lucky Millinder Arrives December

Fresh from a record-breaking tour of the eastern states, Lucky Millinder arrives in town December 12th for an engagement at the Orpheum Theatre. On the bill planned for that date are such stellar performers as Red and Curley, Gene Rodgers, The Deep River Boys, Judy Carol and Eddie "Duffy's Tavern" Green.

Blues singing Wynonne Harris left the band in Houston, Texas. He handed in his notice because of the "too many strenuous one-nighters."

M. Ben Ellison, director announces a roster of stars and celebrities who will be on hand to make the occasion a memorable one. A matinee dance will follow the program.

First-Nighters Applaud Return of Lincoln Shows

Earl Hines in His Final Week at The Plantation

Theatrical World Mourns Death of Famed Singer

By JT GIPSON, Theatrical Editor

Orville "Hoppy" Jones, bass singer with the world-renowned Ink Spots Quartette, died last Tuesday at his home in East Elmhurst, Long Island, from a cerebral hemorrhage attack. The theatrical world and its millions of fans all over the country mourned the passing of one of stardom's greatest.

One of the country's top box office attractions, the famous Ink Spots quartette was at the zenith of its career. Formation of the celebrated harmonizers had its inception several years ago while "Hoppy," Billy Kenny, Bernie McKay and other members were working as porters at the New York Paramount Theatre. Inspired by the many star entertainers who appeared on the Paramount stage, the three got their heads together and began to produce the original style of singing that skyrocketed them to the top of the musical ladder of success. Encouraged by everyone who heard them, they placed their brooms aside and began to sing for their supper.

Discovered by agent Moe Gale, who sent them abroad where they became the singsation of England, they returned to the States and continued their meteoric rise to fame as the nation's No. 1 quartette.

It's hard to believe that the ever-smiling "Hoppy" Jones' singing voice has been stilled forever. At 42 years of age, he had reached the top of his career.

He is survived by his wife, Esther, and nine children.

Crowd Thrills To Stellar Acts

The opening night crowd wrapped its arms around the return of the Lincoln theatre stage shows, which premiered last Friday night to a capacity crowd. Show is socko. It's eighty minutes long, but the time passes quickly. Every act wound up its stint with show stopping finality.

Opener is a patriotic arrangement of the war songs by the Noble Sissle band, with the dapper Mr. Sissle himself taking charge of the vocal chorus. Sissle, still an ace box-office attraction, has a solid swing combo made to order for the listener's of recognizable music. You can whistle right along with their playing, it's that smooth and understandable. Unlike the present day crop of bands, their kind of playing doesn't give you cauliflower ears. The band numbers smack of showmanship. Band boasts of several musicians who shine individually and with the group. Sissle sings a couple of songs, and gets by nicely as an emcee, making the announcements clearly and pointedly.

THAT ABERNATHY GAL!

Doubling from the Alabam where she stars nitely except Tuesday, Marian Abernathy is easily the star of this show. With her sensuous style and curved proportions, she cut through the house like a minesweeper. She warmed them up with the sexy claw in her voice. The audience loved her and she returned the affection by taking four curtain calls and then saying "the union will fine me" if she did any more. Jimmie Baskette, ascending the heights with his superb acting ability, pleases in a few scenes with comedian Crackshot. They're terrific, nothing less. The Two Esquires, clever dancing team, are on with their intricate brand of terrific tappin.' They're okay in their Nicholas Brothers' style of hoofing. Another doubler from the Alabam is soldier Bobby Davis, who picks up chairs, tables, etc., with his teeth. He has audience in palm of his hands throughout his act. Didn't we recognize Ernestine Wade as one of the featured vocalists in the Sissle band? She sings exceptionally well. They should spot her more. Closing spot gets most heaviest applause. Catch the show, we ain't snitching!

Top Notch Club Plantation Bill Ends This Week

"Fatha" Hines Fans Will Have To Hurry! Hurry!

Earl, "Fatha" Hines winds up his current engagement at Joe Morris' Plantation Club Wednesday night, having contributed his bit in the long parade of top-nitch orchestras which have cut out the rhythms for Plantation patrons. Hines, with his distinctive, easy style of piano playing and music making, has one of the strongest followings on record. Requests have been made to hold him and his combination over for at least one more week, but the bookings of the Plantation make that impossible, so those who want to hear the "Fatha" this trip will have to hurry to the Plantation before next Wednesday night.

Surrounded by the Two Esquires rapid fire dance duo, the comedy, singing and dancing of Ford-Harris and Jones, and the provocative dancing of Carita Harbart, Earl Hines shines through with a brilliance that is equal to that given off by any show featured by genial Joe Morris.

As a farewell gesture, Hines plans to really put the heat on for the week-end trade, and the stars promise to knock themselves out going through their routines, so if you want the best bet for the week, here it is, Joe Morris' Plantation tonight and any night.

Solid Show Sends Orpheum Hepsters

The hottest horn this side of Harlem (which of course means Erskine Hawkins) is made to order for the hepsters who will make a bee line for the Orpheum theatre during the current week. It's a solid show featuring The Three Rockets; Effie Smith; Miller and Lee; Olivette Miller and the master of the keyboards, Art Tatum. The show caught by this reviewer was a fast moving revue packed with entertainment galore. Every act a star.

Pre-Halloween Benefit Dance

Al Jarvis, famous announcer of the Make Believe Ballroom, on KFWB, will be master of ceremonies at the Elks Ballroom, 4016 S. Central Avenue, Friday night, October 27th, at a benefit dance sponsored by the Sunshine Unit of the Outdoor Life and Health Association. There will also be a jitterbug contest, and prizes awarded.

The dance promises to be a huge success, featuring Sammy Franklin's Band, with Earl Hines and many other popular stars offering their services.

The entire proceeds go toward lifting the mortgage on the Outdoor Life and Health hest home at Duarte, California.

IT'S FUN TO BE FOOLED

DANTE, internationally known as the world's greatest master of mystery and magic, will present his new all-fun mystery revue at the Biltmore Theatre, Los Angeles. Beginning Oct. 24 for 19 days only. "Cockeyed Inferno" is the title of his mystery extravaganza and will be the most spectacular in the 40 years of his colorful career. Much of Dante's fame has been gained through the fact that his stage shows have universal appeal to any age from 5 to 95.

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

DID YA KNOW?—The biggest star in collegiate football in the entire nation is Claude (Buddy) Young, 18-year-old freshman at Illinois. Here is a little late dope on the youngster from a Wednesday press story:

"The 20-year-od touchdown record of Harold (Red) Grange at Illinois is in imminent danger of being shattered. Grange scored 13 touchdowns in 1924, including four in 12 minutes against Michigan.

In six games this year Claude (Buddy) Young, the Illini's little "buzz-bomb" and national sprint champion, has raced across the goal line for 10 touchdowns. Illinois has four more games on its schedule. This is his first year of collegiate football.

Young's scores for the most part have been scored on end runs, including one of 92 yards and one of 93 yards. Those long runs have built up an eye-lifting average for Young of 12.7 yards per try. In 43 ball-carrying sprints, he has piled up 546 yards.

Young, national collegiate sprint champion, has been classified 1-A and probably will be called early next year, his local draft board said Tuesday.

His draft board said the 18-year-od freshman probably will not be able to defend his national and Big Ten sprint titles next spring."

AL HART, heavyweight soldier boxer, who stopped Turkey Thompson in one round, will be seen in action here again in the near future, probably against Elmer Ray at the Olympic. The powerfully-built soldier, a former college athlete, is being trained by Charles Kelson, one of the finest conditioners in the country. Kelson also trains the up-and-coming Roy Miller and Cecil Hudson, proteges of Henry Armstrong. Hudson recently received an honorable discharge from the armed forces and will soon be seen in action again.

TUESDAY NIGHT at the Olympic Watson Jones will climb into the ring to battle Fitzie Fitzpatrick over the 15-round route for the California State light-heavyweight title. Jones, who has been training hard for this one under the efficient eye of Benny Conyers, one of the ace West Coast trainers, should win. Conyers has been putting him through a rigid grind so that he may be in tip-top shape to go the marathon route. It should be a great scrap and a capacity crowd is expected.

ODDS AND ENDS—Roy Miller looked very good in defeating or rather stopping Sgt. Gaston Miller Tuesday night at the Olympic. The Kansas City boy is improving in each succeeding bout and may be called on soon to meet the leaders in his division . . . Jumpin' Joe Keyes and Ike Blair put up a slam-bang battle to a draw in their ten-rounder at the Olympic and the veteran Blair never looked better . . . One place where the fight crowd hangs out that is good fun is the Margol Cafe on Central avenue. There Arthur "I Told You So" Jarvis and Johnny "Strong And Silent Type" Reeves hold forth in their baliwick and even prize-fighters had better not start anything. Peace and quiet is insisted upon and enforced . . . Another plug—Read J. T. Gipson's "Candid Comments" in this sheet whenever you want a build-up from that let-down. It's a good tonic.

Trainer Conyers Picks L.A. Boxer To Win 15-Rounder

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

Watson Jones, brilliant local light-heavyweight fighter, who has been knocking on the door of fame for sometime and who always gives the fans a real run for their money, gets a chance to assert his superiority over the outstanding obstacle in his path, when he battles Fitzie Fitzpatrick, kayo artist, in a 15-round bout for the light-heavyweight championship of California Tuesday night at the Olympic Auditorium. A record crowd is expected.

Trained by Benny Conyers, one of the smartest and most efficient fight conditioners on the West Coast, who says that his boy will win, Jones is fast rounding into form for a history-making effort under Benny's careful eye. Watson, who always provides thrills in his fights, gained national prominence in fighting Jimmy Bivins to a standstill here and in a recent fight scored a technical kayo over Louis Wise in the first heat. Fitzpatrick had scored four straight kayoes before meeting Jones who not only went the distance but came near garnering the decision. Tuesday night's fight will tell the story as to who is the better man. This writer picks Jones.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico. — Kid Finish in the $2000 added stake last Sunday, beat the undefeated 1 to 2 shot Man O' Glory, with little jockey apprentice Ron De Belloy up, paying the overlaid price of $26.40. Man O' Glory finished last. Horses that favor the new lightning fast track and paid good prices were Lucky Romeo, Germantown, Bill Monahan, and the first starter on the border course, Second Case. The daily-double paid $51.60 and the Quiniela $58.60. Our generalissimo Eddie Nealis was back after a flying trip to San Francisco. A thought for you that hold U. S. war bonds—Just because the government is redeeming them you don't have to cash them. Hold on and they will pay big dividents in the future. I guess that's all for this week. Keep smiling, have a little fun. So long—George.

Royals Win Two Games; Important Tilts Carded

Playing a much better brand of baseball than before the Kansas City Royals winter league team won both games of a double-header from the Long Beach All-Star service team last Sunday at Hollywood baseball park before a slim crowd of fifteen hundred people. The scores were 3-1 and 2-0. The batteries for the first game were: Royals, Hilton Smith, pitcher, and Raleigh Mackey, catcher. For the Service team: Jack Paepke, pitcher, and Clint Cameron, catcher.

This Sunday, Oct. 29, Irish Meusel, famous former star of the New York Giants, brings his star-studded team, the Naval Dry Docks, to Hollywood park to meet the American League champions, the Birmingham Black Barons, in a doubleheader with the first game starting at 1:30 p. m. Meusel will have Rip Russell, Cece Garriot and other Los Angeles Coast Leaguers in the lineup, while Manager W. S. Welch will shoot Booker McDaniels, Cool Papa Bell, Sammy Bankhead and other stars at the white team in an effort to win the series.

The final game of the three-game series with the Kansas City Royals and the Barons will take place on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at Wrigley Field, Nov. 1. This will be the deciding game with each team winning one. Don't forget on Sunday it's Hollywood park at 1:30 p. m. and Wednesday night it's 8 p. m. at Wrigley Field. Come early.

Hollywood Park Opens Wed.

Honors as first entered for the $75,000 Hollywood Gold Cup to be run December 16 at Hollywood Park as the closing feature of the 34-day meeting which starts Wednesday November 1 go to Marriage, Doggone, and Applegnocker. They are from the stable of Coward and Du Puy.

To this stable also goes the distinction of first to make nominations for the entire list of stakes events that total $230,000 in added money.

For the opening day $10,000 Premiere Handicap at Six furlongs, net proceeds of which will be received by the Los Angeles Area War Chest, Coward intends to run Marriage, the "rags to riches horse" along with a stake winning stablemate. Appleknocker whom he recently refused to sell for $35,000.

Roy Miller Scores TKO

Putting Sgt. Gaston Miller, 169, down twice for counts of seven and nine in the first stanza, Roy Miller, 164, protege of Henry Armstrong, who worked in his corner, scored a technical kayo in the second round of a scheduled ten-round main event at the Olympic Tuesday night before a slim crowd. In the companion ten, Jumpin' Joe Keyes, 150, and Ike Blair, 149, battled to a blistering draw.

In the preliminaries Billy Reed, 187, protege of Prof. George Latka, won from Cpl. Elliott Beckman, 192, by a third-round t.k.o.; Julio Franco stopped Tommy Riviera, 144, in the first round; Victor Yanes, 111, knocked out Val Garcia, 108, in the fourth, and Al Williams 158, defeated Jackie Cooper, 155, in four heats.

Cocoa Kid Nods Chase

The Cocoa Kid of Hartford, Conn., scaling 156 pounds, scored an easy ten-round main event decision over Jack Chase, 160, former California state middleweight champion, last Friday night at Hollywood Legion Stadium before a packed house.

Cocoa employed a snaky left jab that was sudden lightning and also occasionally used left and right hooks and crosses to gain the nod. Chase was always in there pitching but was unable to cope with the clever boxing of the visitor.

In the 6-round semi-windup, Freddie Taylor, 134, nodded Billy Hale, 141.

GOLD RUSH WINS

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Waging a punting duel during the entire first half and most of the third quarter, Xavier university defeated Prairie View college 1-6 last Saturday.

GRID DOPE

DALLAS, Texas—The Wiley Wildcats continued their march in conference victory by defeating the Prairie View Panthers, 28-0. This was a victory of sweet revenge as the Marshall boys have been on the losing end since 1939.

IN PREP football games last Friday: Roosevelt High and Polytechnic battled to a 6-6 tie and Manual Arts defeated Fremont, 6-0.

Championship bound Wiley Wildcats under Long is now priming for the Xavier game which will be played in the Louisiana State Fair at Shreveport on October 30.

HAMPTON, INSTITUTE Va.—Ably supported by a hard-packed and aggressive A. & T. forward wall, Charlie Weaver's drives proved too much for the inexperienced Hampton eleven Saturday afternoon as they were overshadowed by a 12-0 margin.

Generals in Win Over Democrats

The Washington High Generals grid team pulled one out of the fire in the last minute of play last Friday to down the hard-fighting Jefferson High Democrats, 12-6, in a Southern League grid game on the Generals playing field.

The Democrats scored in the initial play, Richard Ford passing 20 yards to Willie Lightsy, who streaked 50 yards more to the Promised Land. Bill Gallagher rang up both scores for the Generals, the first on a 2-yard line buck and the winning touchdown from the 1-yard stripe.

LOUIS STILL CHAMP

NEW YORK.(C)—The quarterly ratings of the National Boxing Association came out this week with much the same ratings as they did three months ago. Joe Louis is still heavyweight champion. Bill Conn and Joe Baksi and Jimmy Bivins are listed as logical contenders. In the welterweight division, Freddie Cochrane reigns supreme but Ray Robinson is listed as the logical one to knock out some of his cocksureness.

A 41% drop in dog bites was recorded during the last three months under the 90-day leash law, Dr. George M. Uhl, city health officer, reported.

Birmingham Black Barons Trounce K. C. Royals, 6-2

Led by Cool Papa Bell, ace outfielder, who pounded out four hits in five trips to the plate, the Birmingham Black Barons coasted to a 6-2 win over the Kansas City Royals before a crowd of 4,000 at Wrigley Field last Wednesday night.

The Royals took a 2-1 lead in the first inning, but could not get a man past second base from then on. Bell and the Barons sewed up the contest in the third inning with a three-hit, three-run rally.

ROYALS WIN

Rev. Grant Harris Back From Frisco

Returning from the city of San Francisco where he delivered the Twelfth Anniversary sermon of the Rev. F. D. Haynes, who is the pastor of the Third Baptist Church of San Francisco, Rev. Grant Harris, beloved minister of this city's Zion Hill Baptist church, arrived in town Monday morning from what he termed "a very pleasant trip to the city of San Francisco."

Beloved in San Francisco, as he is here, the Zion Hill minister spoke to a capacity-filled church. It was one of the largest crowds in the church's history.

Rev. Harris was extended social courtesies by the Reverend Haynes and also by Mr. J. C. Ellis, who is one of San Francisco's most popular church and social personalities.

Mrs. Grant Harris, wife of the pastor, made the trip with him, along with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smallwood, and the pastor's niece, Miss Lillian Lomax.

Rev. Roswell Poles, Sr. Dies While on Visit

Reverend Roswell Roles, Sr., departed this life October 14, in the city of St. Louis, Mo., where he was visiting his son, Roswell Roles, Jr.

He was born in the city of Fredrick, Md., on April 21, 1870. His parents passed away at an early age, and as a youth, he was compelled to make his own way through life—entering Morgan College and becoming acquainted with the late Captain John Frye of the Eighth Illinois National Guards, and John Hope, president of Morehouse College in Atlanta, Ga.

After graduation he moved to Providence, R. I., where he married Theresa Turner. He became associated with Monroe Trotter in the publishing of the "New England Torchlight," a newspaper. In 1900 he was the first Negro to receive a license to practice mortuary science in the New England states, where he had a successful business in Providence, R. I., and Boston, Mass.

In 1904 he joined the Church of God and Saints of Christ, and was ordained to the ministry. In 1909 he went to the city of Chicago with his family, taking an active part in the political and civic development. He became affiliated with the Second Ward Republican Organization, under the leadership of the late Edward H. Wright and Louis B. Anderson in the support of the late Mayor William Hale Thompson.

He founded the Church of God Widows' and Orphans' Home under State supervision. He received an appointment as national representative of the Belleville Industrial School, and later received an appointment as a director of the association of Land Grant Colleges in secondary schools. He was, also, a 33nd degree Mason.

Preliminary rites were held at the Church of God and Saints of Christ in St. Louis, Mo., final rites being held in Los Angeles, where he has been making his home for the past ten years.

He leaves to mourn him, a loving wife, Theresa; two sons, Mahlon and Roswell, Jr.; two grandchildren, William and Mahlon, Jr.; two great-grandchildren, David and William, Jr., and many other relatives and friends.

Eagle Bible Question Corner Ch

Dear Sirs:

In Matthew 5:48 we read: "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." Please explain how a human being can be perfect—
J. W., Los Angeles, Calif.

God never sets before man a low standard. He always sets before man that which is perfect. Therefore his admonition is: "Be ye therefore perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect."

We know that God's sphere of being is infinitely above us and we cannot be perfect in wisdom as God is perfect, neither can we be perfect in knowledge as he is perfect in knowledge or perfect in power as he is perfect. But we should love God perfectly with all the heart and mind and soul and strength.

"For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him." 2 Chronicles 16:9. It is possible for us to be perfect in our sphere of life by God's help even as God is perfect in his sphere.

Dear Question Box:

Is the conscience a safe guide?
—Mrs. A. H. B., Long Beach, Cal.

No. The conscience is not a guide at all. Many people make the mistake in believing that whatever their conscience tells them is all right. The Bible teaches that God is man's only safe guide.

In Psalm 32:8 we read: "I will guide thee with mine eye." The conscience, like a watch, is good when it is kept regulated and runs according to standard time.

God's spirit, through his word is the spiritual regulator for conscience. The conscience is good as long as it is regulated by God's word, but when it is not regulated, it is worse than worthless, and the Bible states in Hebrews 10:22 that it becomes an evil conscience. If we want to be sure that our consciences are not evil, we must be sure that they are regulated by God's word.

Rev. J. H. Wilson, Noted Churchman, Passes Here

One of the most prominent figures in the church life of the State is no more. The Reverend J. H. Wilson, pioneer preacher and retired editor of the Western Christian Recorder, died Wednesday morning at 4 a. m.

Born in Kentucky, August 5, 1865, Rev. Wilson's early life was spent in Missouri and he entered the ministry as a member of the Kansas Conference of the A.M.E. Church, his first pastorate being a circuit in Southern Kansas composed of Osage Mission (now St. Paul) and Girard, Kansas. After several years in Kansas and Missouri he was transferred to the California Conference and stationed at Riverside. Rev. Wilson was soon made presiding elder of the conference, which then comprised the whole State of California and one point in Nevada, preaching 14 places in all.

REV. J. H. WILSON

During his tenure as presiding elder, Rev. Wilson made a great contribution to the church life of the state, adding many charges to the conference. After the San Francisco earthquake he was sent to rebuild the church at 1207 Powell street. Returning as the presiding elder after this task, he carried on until made editor of the Recorder 16 years ago, retiring at the last General Conference in May.

As Past Grand Master of Masons of the State of California he gave much to Masonry that will be favorably remembered.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed as we go to press.

"Save A Life Day" Is Termed Real Success

In excess of $1000 was raised last Sunday by community churches at the Annual observance of, "Save A Life Day" sponsored by the Outdoor Life and Health Association. The rally was climaxed by an elaborate musical tea staged at Church Federation Headquarters, 3330 West Adams Boulevard, the same afternoon.

Proceeds of the day will go towards lifting the mortgage from the Association's tuberculosis rest home at Duarte.

Chairman for the accasion was Mrs. Fannie Williams, founder of the Assistance League. She was assisted by a committee consisting of Mesdames Florence Carter, Bennie Meadows, Jessie Grayson and John Fowler.

The Assistance League and the Fidelity Unit combined to make the program a signal success.

Ministers used as their text for the day, "Save A Life to Save A Soul." Short talks were given by a corps of volunteer speakers and entertainment was rendered by guest soloists.

In token of the esteem which Mesdames Williams, Pauline Slater and Della Williams are held, the Business men's Unit of the Association staged a banquet at the Last Word Cafe Monday evening in their honor. Nearly 200 persons atteneded.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The Golden Text in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Everlasting Punishment" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from Lamentations: "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."

The Lesson-Sermon includes the parable of the prodigal son as given in Luke. The son, it is related, "wasted his substance with riotous living." When he finally "came to himself, . . . he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; . . . For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "The destruction of sin is the divine method of pardon. . . . Being destroyed, sin needs no other form of forgiveness."

Nazis Starve Senegalese

screaming in the night that never reached my own ears.

And I wonder if you, standing on the corner of Vernon and Central, or sitting comfortably in your home on West 37th Street, feel the same way today.

Think of this then. Think of it hard and for a long time:

The Germans have lynched a million of us. Burned us.

They Jim-Crowed Paris, where of all cities in the world we were free.

Our corpses are ground in the mud and stench of the battle grounds here, into the rotten earth of the prison camps that the Nazis planted in every corner of this country.

And in your mind's eye walk with me on the streets of Paris. Come with me while I find the story you're reading there at home this minute . . .

It was two days ago in Paris.

I had met my friends, former Eagle shop foreman Corporal Rene Hewlett, 1507 West 37th Place, and Private Rayford Ellis, of Washington, D. C., on the Champs Elyses. The huge tree-lined boulevard teamed with French civilians and American soldiers, bitingly cold despite the yellow blotches of sunlight that filtered through to the sidewalk.

Half to get out of the weather, we ducked into the Paris subway at the "Etoile" station, just in front of the Arc de Triomphe.

We set a course for the Montmartre and after frantic discussions with several helpful Parisians, we emerged in the midst of that compact little city of poor people and rich night clubs. We knew that in racial composition the Montmartre is as close to Harlem as you'll find any place in Europe.

Negro civilians mingled with the flambouyant assortment of humanity blandly sipping drinks in the sidewalk cafes. even while their breath formed frost clouds before them.

Attracted, I suppose, by the Army Correspondent patch on my shoulder, a French Negro Captain of Infantry touched my arm, introduced himself as Captain Bertrand Desroc, shook our hands, and offered to treat us to a drink.

The four of us walked along, Rene, Ray and myself immensely proud of the snappy salutes the French gendarmes and soldiers gave our Captain, the defferential "Bonjours, mon Capitaine" which were his at every step.

Over a round of some venomous apple concoction, Captain Desroc invited us to his apartment, where he said he had information that might be of interest to "the man of American journals."

We agreed readily. On the way, Captain Desroc stopped in at a huge, modern Cafe where an excellent Negro jazz band was playing the final strains of Shoe Shoe, Baby, as we strolled in. The Captain left us for a moment and returned with the band's leader, a handsome, slight Negro from Martinique named Sam Castendet.

"This man has a story you should know," the Captain said.

Castendet's afternoon performance finished, he joined us and, as a matter of fact, we ended up going to his flat, which was nearer than Captain Desroc's.

Small, attractive, done in the most modern style, the musician's apartment was a surprise to we three Americans.

Castendet disappeared for a moment and returnd with a bottle of 1937 Champagne that tasted like the tinkle of heavenly bells.

I had heard from friends in Army Public Relations, the many civilian War Correspondents I am thrown in contact with, and from other Frenchmen that the Germans had Jim-Crowed Paris, segregated their prisoners, persecuted and murdered the Senegalese.

The Captain's revelations were not new to me, or to Cpl. Hewlett or Pvt. Ellis. We had heard it from white and black alike ever since we came to Paris. But there was something special about the words as they tumbled from the lips of one of our people, a Negro who had become a proud anti-fascist fighter, though himself a veteran of the Hitlerite dungeons.

Here are a few of the things he said to us, speaking tensely as the dusk light faded from Paris and the city's sounds tiptoed through the open window.

I have already quoted his eye-witness account of the burning at Compiegne and will pick up his story just after that:

"I was held, "he said, "for three and a half years a prisoner in Germany. I escaped death miraculously on many occasions. I lost over fifty pounds of weight before I managed to get away from the Boche several months ago. When I got back to unoccupied France, I joined the Free French Underground, and my units participated in the fighting to free Paris before the entry of your armies.

"Conditions in the German prisons were horrible. The blacks were at all times kept separate from the whites. We ate only one meal, and that a vile, watery soup. We were permitted to scramble for crumbs left by other prisoners, though we were sometimes shot even for this.

"The majority died. The rest escaped or became very ill.

"There were a million Senegalese troops in France in June 1940. The Germans have killed them all—all but a handful. For France, the Boche were terrible. For the blacks, they were death itself."

Remember when Negroes in America said: "This is a white man's war!"

"Sam Castendet has a great story," Captain Desroc continued. "I will tell you since he cannot speak English.

"He was taken prioner by the Germans in June, 1940, just after the fall of Paris. The Germans took him to the frontier of Luxembourg, where he was to change trains for Berlin. Castendet managed to get away and walked 600 killometers (about 400 miles) back to Paris in nine days. During the entire occupation, he eluded the Gestapo and lived here by his wits.

"The first thing the Germans did in Paris was to declare Jazz music forbidden. Most of the blacks here are musical. This ended their means of livelihood. They were to starve. Many of them did."

All this was two days ago. I have now left Paris, flying back to my permanent station in one of the great Army transport C-47's.

But I know that two decades from now I will remember as clearly as at this instant the story of Captain Desroc and Sam Castendet.

Just as this paragraph is written, a ragged, tattered formation of German prisoners is passing in the street below the headquarters here.

Out of the window, not more than 20 feet away, Falling along, ridiculously old men, boys not more than fifteen, all of them haggard, drawn, unkempt,—the caricature of an army.

Here, then, the supermen at the end of their road, defeated, cowed, stumbling blindly, a legion of the merable.

But can they be forgiven and set loose the morning after victory?

I don't think I will forgive them quickly.

Capt. Bertrand Desroc won't, I know.

Neither will Sam Castendet nor the ghosts of a million murdered Senegalese in France.

Will you forgive them?

DREAMS

From the dawn of ancient times down to the present day, people have had mental visions in their slumber, and, have tried to fathom their correct meanings.

Frequently they are of great importance; for in the Bible there are many examples of the benefits that came from the right understanding of dreams.

So it is not stange that you often hear people talking about their visions. Dreams have been studied by Astrologers and Scientists for thousands of years, and much that has been learned has been preserved in books of knowledge. Their meanings and influence upon the lives of individuals are oftimes astonishing. Prof. Herman has made a life-study of the significance of dreams. Let his free opinions along with your 1945 Horoscope guide your footsteps in the coming year.

O. J. Dear Prof. Herman: I read your column every week and enjoy it very much. Although I am quite young, I find yours answers to many people quite helpful and interesting. Perhaps you will say that I should not be so upset over this matter, but do you think I will see him again?

Ans. According to your Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet, you are destined to have many friends in your life. You will see this young man again but others will mean much more to you than he does.

M. F. P. What should I do?

Ans. It appears to me that a Special Delivery letter was placed on your dresser, and before you came home, someone evidently took it. I suggest you contact everyone in the house for information they can give you. It may be retured to you, if you hold the landlord responsible, as he signed for it and it is a penitentiary offense to open or tamper with other people's mail.

G. B. Will I ever be happy again?

Ans. Your Zodical sign indicates your finding happiness and true love in the near future. Don't let your associations in the past interfere with your future plans for success for the friend you had, had no bearing on your future.

W. A. D. Will I have any luck soon?

Ans. It seems to me that your luck has already showed signs of improvement and I feel that if you concentrate upon your future possibilities and strive to suceed, you will do so.

E. W. I am a constant reader of your column, I also use your products as you have recommended. All I can say, is that your products speak for themselves, and have done a wonderful job for me. Thanks again for all the help you have given me. Yours truly.

E. W. Does this friend of mine, really care for me, or the other girl?

Ans. A careful analysis of your question indicates the fact that your friend likes many girl friends. He is the type that never concentrates his attention on just one girl. He does care for you, but don't take his attitude too seriously.

Mrs. M. B. B. Is my husband having an afair with another woman?

Ans. I do not vision your husband as being untrue to you. But a thorough understanding is necessary in order to resume your former happy marital state. Perhaps I can help you in this respect, write in for a private reply at your earliest convenience.

M. E. C. What became of my watch?

Ans. Probing into the matter I find that you lost your watch, while out visiting one evening. It slipper from your wrist as the band was not tight enough. I am sorry, but I do not vision your getting it back.

R. L. B. What course of study should I folow?

Ans. You are very ambitious and will go far in your particular field of endeavor. Your course of study is in the business group and you will find that any kind of business work such as typing or stenographic will prove quite profitable to you.

TIPS ON RATIONING

Don't apply for "B", "C" or other supplemental gasoline unless you have received your "A" Book. Your application can not be processed.

Do mail in the mileage ration record with all gasoline applications. The tire inspection record is no longer used.

Do sign your application and have it signed by your employer.

Don't expect to receive your gasoline book in less than a week from the time you apply. If it is an "A" Book give it ten days before checking at the Board.

Do take care of your food books. Every book you lose is found and used by someone to get twice his share of the available food. More than three hundred people a month, in this area alone, are eating twice as many steaks as you are through carelessness with ration books.

Don't apply for shoes unless you are badly in need of them. There is a real shortage of leather. A new shoe stamp will be valid for use on Nov. 1st. Try to hold out till then.

Don't apply for rations of any kind before moving. The Post office will not forward any O.P.A. mail. Wait till you have moved and then apply at the Board nearest your new address.

If you will all head these "Dos" and "Don'ts," you will help your reationing Board serve you more efficiently.

The Board will be open until 6:30 Monday nights for your convenience commencing October 23.

War Price and Rationing Board 82.5.40.

Given the necessary manpower, legislation, and funds, Los Angeles could wipe out the present smoke problem with less difficulty than that experienced by eastern cities, Dr. George M. Uhl, City Health Officer, reported to the board of health commissioners.

A FAIR QUESTION

HOW MUCH FURNITURE WILL $6.50 BUY?

Well, see here, just suppose you should put $6.50 in a fire insurance policy, and that too, this policy is good for $1,000 in real money; if you should have a fire and also it would run in full force for three long years. If you have a fire in that time, you would collect $1,000. And too, if you should pay $13.00 to me, you then could collect $2,000—in good hard cash—money to replace the furniture, draperies, floor coverings and other household good—all brand new and still be out of debt. This is wisely placing your war money. Buy this insurance and buy War Bonds.

NEGRO AMERICANS RALLY TO WIN

Victory, Peace, Jobs

PETTIS PERRY

● THE END OF THE WAR IS NEAR ●

The Nazis, who plotted to make the entire world their slave market, are near the end of their rope. The gallows they built for mankind are being shattered as the people of Europe are rising, liberated by the Anglo-American armies pounding the Nazi beasts in the West while the Red Armies deliver smashing blows in the East—together sealing the doom of Hitlerism in Europe.

JAMES W. FORD

● Negroes Are Determined to Win Full Equality Within American Nation ●

This is the greatest war of all history; greatest in size and greatest for the future of mankind. All advances in human liberty are at stake. And colored Americans are proud of the part our men and women play in this war for freedom. They are at their posts. They know that a victory for fascism would shackle all people of the world. Nobody would be excluded. They know that fascism must be stamped out, lock, stock and barrel. That is the only way to win peace, security, prosperity and freedom for everybody, everywhere. We know it's that kind of a war. And therefore our sons on the battlefields are writing, in blood, a glorious page in world history—in the history of the Negro people. Their fathers and mothers, brothers and sisters on the home front have allowed nothing to stand in the way of turning out everything needed to win the war.

We are proud of the record. We are proud that our people have been so powerful a part of our country's demcoratic strength. We stand shoulder to shoulder with labor and progressive America: together, these three parts of our nation constitute the foundation of our country's war effort. And since this is our war, a war for human freedom, the Negroes are determined to win full equality within the American nation. To keep our country safe and sound we have seen through all efforts of the American friends of Hitler to make use of our grievances — to separate the Negro people from their part in the greatest war of independence our country has ever fought.

The American friends of Hitler are few, but powerful. They showed their strength in Congress. They showed it in industry and in political life generally. They fought, and are fighting bitterly, to prevent the complete destruction of the barriers against discrimination. They connived to keep the Negro people from winning their full rights. We saw their dirty work in the poll-tax fight. We saw them strive to keep our people in a position of inferiority. Not only are they the enemies of the Negro, they are the enemies of all who want full democracy. And that, in the first place, means labor—all labor, black and white.

But these enemies did not have easy sailing. Labor, the democratic people of this country, led by President Roosevelt, fought back. They knew that injury to the Negro people meant injury to the entire nation—to labor, to the people, to the war.

—ELECTION CRUCIAL FOR NEGRO PEOPLE—

That is why the Presidential elections are of such great importance to the Negro people. They will determine our lives for generations to come. The issues are: victory in the war, greater democracy and security at home, a lasting and enduring peace. That is why our enemies try to confuse the colored citizens whose vote is of paramount importance this November. They want to separate us from President Roosevelt whose leadership has meant so much for the destiny of the American Negro. His enemies argue that Roosevelt is responsible for the war! They clamor that he is selling out the Negro people to the poll-taxers. They say he dumped Vice President Wallace. They use every possible lie to win the colored citizens away from their support of President Roosevelt. But they will fail.

— The Negroes' Stake in the November 7th Elections —

NEGRO GAINS IN ROOSEVELT ERA

These enemies of ours knew that the Negro people made gains, especially in the last ten years. Gains unsurpassed in our history. Gains written deep in our hearts. We saw these gains operate in Philadelphia when a small gang of fascist-minded men, defeatists and political supporters of reaction tried to stir up anti-Negro feelings. They failed. Why? Because the Administration and organized labor smashed them. President Roosevelt and organized labor were determined that Negroes shall have equal rights to jobs.

And consider this: The Supreme Court decision upheld the right to vote in the Texas primaries; full membership for Negro workers in the Street Carmen's Union in Los Angeles were recognized. These are A. No. 1 victories for colored citizens. And this: The War Department's "no segregation" order in Army camps is putting an end to the most insulting and outrageous Jim Crow policy in the Army. And the Army's action reducing sentence against five Negro soldiers charged with mutiny is further proof that the Administation is determined that discrimination must end. And the President has served notice that the FEPC will be extended to cover all phases of civil rights to Negroes. The FEPC was set up by the President. Its full name is the President's Fair Employment Practices Committee. Remember that when others try to take credit for its existence.

Yes, the Negro people have a great stake in these elections. Realizing that, they will throw the full weight of their democratic influence into the campaign. This is their great opportunity. More, it is their great responsibility because President Roosevelt and labor and progressive America have waged a good fight on issues of life-and-death importance to the Negro people. And the Negro must know his friends whose work, whose unity, spells freedom for everyone. Therefore, every Negro eligible must cast his or her vote at the polls in November. Every Negro — Negroes in industry and in the unions, Negroes in the unions, Negroes in the clergy, in the professional classes — all, must recognize their reponsibility to the people, to themselves, to their sons on the battlefields. They have a big job in the fight to maintain President Roosevelt at the helm.

We who make this appeal make it on the record of the Communist movement during the past quarter century. The Communists were among the vanguard who raised and clarified the issue of Negro rights, who mobilized increasingly large sections of the white people, now centered in the labor and progressive forces behind President Roosevelt, to fight valiantly for the full equality of the Negro people in America.

We are confident that the Negro people, as in all previous critical moments of our Nation's history, will make their voice heard on the side of progress in these elections.

Alliance: Labor, Administration Negro People

Add up the gains Negroes have made during the Roosevelt Administration. Consider them. What do they show? This: they were won because of the alliance with labor and with the leadership of President Roosevelt. These gains show changes that point the way to a bright future: they are the foundation for greater advances because labor and the people around Roosevelt are determined to stamp out the Nazi concept of slavery — abroad, at home. Thus, colored Americans, together with the Negro people of Africa and the world over, will be lifted to prosperity and happiness by the cooperation between our nation, Great Britain and the Soviet Union, united in war and united for a lasting peace.

Yes, the Negro people have decided: they will not surrender any of their gains when the last shell is fired. They want equality and jobs in peacetime with the rest of mankind. And they don't intend to give up their friends and policies that helped them open the road to equality and freedom.

WHO IS AGAINST NEGRO RIGHTS?

Let's examine these lies a moment. Who fought to keep the poll tax? Who battled to keep Jim Crow and discrimination? Who wants to keep Negroes from jobs? Who seeks to stir up strikes and sabotage the war? Why was Wallace defeated at Chicago?

LOOK OVER IN THOMAS E. DEWEY'S CORNER. There you'll find the men who want to beat labor and defeat Roosevelt's policies in November. There stand the men who believe in Nazi racist theories: McCormick of the Chicago Tribune; Patterson of the New York Daily News; William Randolph Hearst; the Negro-haters and the anti-Semites; the reactionary Republican line-up in Congress. All these have strong allies inside the Democratic Party—the poll-taxers and labor-haters—the enemies of Roosevelt's policies. These latter are the ones responsible for the defeat of the Vice-President for renomination.

Negroes rightly hold Mr. Wallace in deep esteem: he has proved himself to be a true friend. One can therefore assume this friend of the Negro people would ask them to vote for the candidate who best represents the interests of the Negro people. Isn't that right? Well, Mr. Wallace is NOT campaigning for Dewey. He is stumping the country for Roosevelt.

Let us look a little further. Who is Dewey's chief braintruster? Remember Herbert Hoover? The Great Engineer who gave us the Hoovervilles, gave us hunger and unemployment and police-clubs when we demanded bread and jobs. Remember how the Negro people fared under Hoover? Well, 1944's Dewey is 1929's Hoover. They are cut of the same mold, represent the same interests. Remember that. All clear-thinking people are working for the nation's unity behind the Commander-in-Chief and his re-election. That is the way to defeat the enemies of the Negro people and of the nation — whether those enemies carry a Republican or a Democratic label.

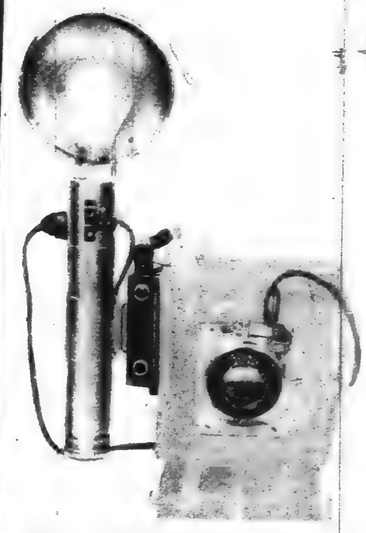
By CALVIN JACKSON

I have been blessed with enough intestinal fortitude to recognize most of the ills of this touchy topic and of telling the world in general about them. Let us look at the buying power of John Q. Public first and classify the same. As far as the interests of the American Negro are concerned, the motion picture corporations are faced with one tremendous obstacle; namely, the South. To say that the South is opposed to the proper presentation of the Negro on the screen is a gross understatement. It has become a technical cancer. Let us look at a few of the "choice" roles of negroes typifying anything other than porters, maids, etc.,

There is the case of Eddie Anderson who played the part of the elevator operator in "In This Our Life." He was typified as a student of law. That's fine. Now we have Rex Ingran as a French colonial in "Sahara." Very good. Ben Carter chalked up onemore for 'our team' in "Crash Dive" with a disregard for dialect. Lena Horne's presentations have always been gratifying. BUT, supposing these four people had been presented in the way their minds dictate and their hearts inwardly feel? It would revoltionize the whole industry. There would be stories on top of stories of material at hand. What a relief it would be to see a negro doctor, lawyer, concert artist, nurse, line foreman or business man, etc., flash on the screen with a well-written, non-dialect part. At least fifteen millions of people would be infinitely more happy and would feel that they, too, have a definité part in the scheme of things. It would also help them spiritually to know that others, (the South to be more expicit) were being raised out of their pitiable and, yes, damaging ignorance by this powerful medium of propaganda.

As in the case of the emlrionic musician, there would be a zealous attitude taken by the youngsters of our race who are interested in the theatre at large. They would study privately and with stock companies as others have done and we would see as we HAVE seen in other fields (aeronautics, architecture, science, medicine, law) a decided increase in culture and a definite decline in delinquency.



These questions not only apply to the acting in the motion picture industry and otherwise, but to the technical departments as well. There are two Negroes at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer who are in technical positions that require more than ordinary mental facility. They are Ralph Vaughan and Lois Evans. Lois is the studio chiropadist so you can imagine what her qualifications must be else she would not be working for the largest studio in the world. In the case of Ralph Vaughan we find that this man possesses all the insight and qualities of an art director. He has been an architect for fifteen years and is a wonderful illustrator to boot. The mere fact that this man is a Negro cheats him of having executive responsibilities and also cheats him of going one more step up the ladder by becoming a sketch artist. He has been at the studio for over two years and is still a set designer.

We have been soothed and petted long enough concerning these things. Look around in your own field. Do not accept the froth of the beer. Accept only the beer itself in your own mind. Get to the kernel, the nut of each situation and proceed from there.

Good Hunting!

IN THE FACE of the facts as to what has happended to Negroes under the Roosevelt administration it is an enigma to me how three leading Negro newspapers, e.g., "The Pittsburgh Courier," "The Amsterdam News," and "The Afro-American" can lend their support to candidate Dewey.

First, let's take a look at Dewey's record: The petite New York Governor demonstrated his attitude toward the race question, and all minorities, in the 1944 legislative session in his own New York state. Mr. Dewey was in full control of the 1944 session, with every committee and the majority in both houses under his thumb. However, he trampled, killed, and destroyed all legislation that would have furthered the cause of democracy by preventing discrimination against Negroes and all minorities.

In that session a bill was introduced to destroy discrimination in industry, in semi-public housing, in schools, together with one to teach pupils in New York schools about the contributions made for the progress of America by all minorities that make up the country, so as to promote racial unity as well as a resolution clear cut in its denunciation of anti-Semitism, the side partner of Jim-Crow. The bill to prevent discrimination in the schools was aimed at the 1943 Hillburn School episode when the existence of Jim-Crow in many New York schools was revealed.

It appears that this bill was passed in the Assembly before it came to the attention of Governor Dewey in the Senate, over which he has complete control. Here it met its death along with the other measures already mentioned.

Now, I ask these newspapers and the Negro leaders who are yelling from

N. Y. Councilman Quill Calls For Reelection of Roosevelt

Delegates at UFW Convention, 30% Negro, Rise In Ovation

Over 200 delegates, 30% of whom were Negroes, at the Third Constitutional Convention of the United Federal Workers of America, C. I. O., rose to their feet in applause when Michael Quill, New York City Councilman and President of the Transport Workers Union, called for the reelection of President Franklin Roosevelt in the November 7 elections. Federal workers are bound by the Hatch Act and had not previously had an opportunity to show their support for the President's reelection.

Arthur Flemming, Commissioner of the United States Civil Service Commission, in an address to the Convention on Tuesday indicated that V-E day would bring wide-spread layoffs in the government service.

Arthur Huff Fauset, addressing the convention on Wednesday morning as a representative of the National Negro Congress, called upon the delegates to adopt a position which would allow Negroes, women, and returning veterans to remain in the service in the same proportion as they are now. Mr. Fauset indicated that if labor failed to find a method of protecting the job gains made by these groups since the war started, serious harm would be done to national unity, the unity of the labor movement, and the ideals for which this war is being fought.

Shortly after Mr. Fauset's

Rise In Divorce Filings Here Is Serious Says Judge Mosk

"Los Angeles has now supplanted Reno as the divorce capital of the world," Judge Stanley Mosk, judge of the Superior Court, stated in an address before a woman's club this week. Judge Mosk, now completing his sixth year of public service, his second on the Superior Court, is a candidate for re-election.

"Our Superior Court had 27,154 divorce, separate maintenance and annulment suits filed this past year," the distinguished jurist stated. "The figure becomes alarming when one realizes there were only 34,028 marriage licenses issued here during the same period."

The most serious phase of the problem, Judge Mosk stated, is the many children involved. In those divorce cases, the custody of 18,911 children was before the court. Since one of the major factors in juvenile delinquency is the broken home, we may consider we have 18,911 potential delinquents, he said.

"While the war conditions aggravate the problem," the pudge reported, "I am not at all certain the end of the war will see an end of the problem, for we had a forty percent increase at the close of the first world war."

Judge Mosk warned that a similar increase on top of our present high rate would result in "serious consequences to our traditional American stable home and family life."

ON ELECTION DAY VOTE EARLY

Go to the polls early and cast your vote.

Avoid any argument with disgruntled voters.

There is enough fight going on in the world without adding to it.

Your job is to help establish peace.

THEY MAKE HISTORY—For the first time since Reconstruction two Negroes, Democrats, will sit in the United States Congress next year. The two Congressmen who are certain of victory on November 7 are, left to right, Adam Powell of New York and William L. Dawson of Chicago. Congressman Dawson, who has served one term in the Congress, is also assistant chairman of the Democratic National Committee and the first Negro to hold such a high office in either major political party.

Pfc. George L. Turner, 995 E. 53 st., Los Angeles, California, is due to arrive in the United States soon on furlough from the European Theater of Operations where he served 20 months with the Army Quartermaster Corps.

Dewey Gets One Vote Out of 90 In Eagle Poll

Ninety "California Eagle" readers were not too busy with other war-time duties to return the California Eagle poll, published last week. And of these 90 only one single ballot was marked choosing Dewey for president. Although this is just a mere suggestion of the results Tuesday, November 7, we feel that it is indicative of the turn of events in reelecting President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Helen Gahagan Douglas Leads In 14th Congressional District

Reports from all sections of the 14th District this week showed Helen Gahagan Douglas, Democrat, leading in the race for the congressional seat vacated by Rep. Tom Ford.

Her campaign workers predicted her election by an overwhelming margin for two reasons — her two-to-one triumph in the primaries last May and the fact that support for her candidacy has been increasing steadily throughout the heavily Democratic district.

Much of this new support has come from the 62nd assembly district, where the voters have responded enthusiastically to her campaign on behalf of President Roosevelt's foreign policy,

Negro Army Air Service Group Performs Under Fire

The fine record being achieved by the first all-Negro Army Air Force service group to go overseas is being anxiously watched by the 882nd Army Air Forces Specialized Depot of the Air Technical Service Command, huge depot located in the Los Angeles area which ships supplies to overseas groups, and by members of the Negro service units now stationed at the San Bernardino Air Service Command.

The overseas group told about in this story, was only a few miles behind the Eighth Army front lines during the entire North African campaign. At present the group is established on an airbase which was under fire only last week, repairing and servicing bombers and fighters of the Fifteenth Air Force which are unable to make the trip to the home airbases.

The airbase is an oasis for the crews of the combat planes. At the base gasoline and oil is

May Prosecute White Owner of Hotel On Manslaughter Charges

By BERNICE COOK

Winifred Ayers, white proprietor of the Chetwood Hotel, 411 East 4th Street, may be prosecuted on a manslaughter charge in the death of Roger Stanley Holmes, infant son of Pvt. and Mrs. Roland Lee Holmes, who resided in her hotel. The young mother, Laura Mae Holmes, up until the birth of her baby six weeks ago, was employed as a maid in the hotel, occupying the room provided for the maid.

On October 12, Mrs. Ayers, the proprietor, served Mrs. Holmes with a "Notice to Quit" effective from October 17 to October 25, and demanded that she vacate the room, as she had engaged another maid. Mrs. Holmes readily consented to get out as soon as she could find other quarters, but in the meantime, offered to pay rent on the room she then occupied, which Mrs. Ayers refused to accept. On Sunday, October 22, however, three days before the notice to quit had expired, while Mrs. Holmes, her three year old daughter, Sherian, and infant son, Roger

NAACP Asks Navy to Conduct Fall Brook Investigation

The local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has asked the Navy Department to investigate the alleged discrimination which exists at the Naval Ammunition Depot at Fall Brook, Calif.

Complaints have come to the NAACP office from numerous sources concerning the segregation and general discrimination at the base. Negro seamen with specialized training, such as graduates of the shore patrol school and members of a band, are assigned to loading ammunition, while white seamen are placed in supervisory positions. Eating and recreational facilities are segregated. The justifiably low morale of the men at the base make it mandatory that every effort be made to eliminate such practices.

Copies of the letter sent to the Navy Department in Washington, D. C., were sent to the national office of the NAACP in New York City and to the Washington Bureau.

KRKD Will Beam Election Tally

Nation-wide and California election results will be broadcast continuously by KRKD over 1150 kilocycles from 6 p.m. to past midnight on November 7, it was announced yesterday.

Because of the tremendous number of people who wish to hear the broadcast in person, KRKD has arranged to originate the program from the Philharmonic Auditorium. Doors will open promptly at 6:30 p.m., and all seats will be free to the public.

MRS. F. D. R. TO TALK TO HARLEM KIDS

New York (C) . . . Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt is to chat social problems with Harlem kids aged 9 to 11 at Public School 194 Wednesday. The children will tell her about obstacles confronting families which are migrating from the South here and are seeing the Big City for the first time.

Kilpatrick Sees Democratic Win

A strong Democratic victory in the 55th Assembly District was predicted this week by Assemblyman Vernon Kilpatrick, in announcing that the registration since the primary election showed great Democratic sentiment, with almost a two to one lead over the Republican Party. The present registration is Democratic, 33,337 as against 17,953 Republican, which is an increase of approximately seven thousand Democrats as against an increase of slightly over four thousand Republicans. The Assemblyman declares that this tendency is likely to show throughout the County. Kilpatrick predicts a victory for Roosevelt, Truman, Downey, Douglas, and the fourth term for the incumbent Assemblyman by strong margins.

Time To Vote Is No Violation

Employers will not be violating the wage stabilization program if they allow workers time to vote and make no deduction from their pay, it was announced today by Thomas Fair Neblett, chairman of the Tenth Regional War Labor Board.

Neblett received notification from the National War Labor Board that a resolution had been passed by that body which provides that "employers who grant their employes time off on election day in order to vote without deductions from their pay will not be considered to have granted wage or salary increases in violation of the wage stabilization program."

VETS OF THE NAVY—Great Lakes, Ill. (PTNS).—Close to ninety years Naval service is represented by these Chief Petty Officers. John Henry "Dick" Turpin, Chief Gunner's Mate USN (Retired), Bremerton, Wash., has thirty-six years to his credit. Chief Machinist's Mate Miller Ross, Lexington, Ky., and Chief Machinist's Mate Percy Simmons, Plainfield, New Jersey (center) have each served over twenty-four years as their six "hash marks" indicate. On the right is the "youngster" of the group Chief Specialist (T) Noble F. Payton, Washington, D. C., who has been in the service two years. Chief Turpin in his thirty-six years of service became well-known as a deep sea diver. This picture was made on his visit last week to the U. S. Naval Training Center here.

the housetops for a change of administration, "What's your story? Is it a bigger dose of discrimination you crave or what? I will let you name it."

Governor Dewey, at the start of his campaign, in spite of these facts, demanded that the race question not become a campaign issue. Governor Dewey's campaign promoters have based their campaign speeches on lies, because if they were to tell th truth, it would react against their candidate. However, chief among them is the last-minute attempt to connect Senaor Harry S. Truman, candidate for vice-president, with the Ku Klux Klan.

It appears that the Truman Ku Klux Klan story was manufactured in the same Hearst propaganda factory from whence originated the Hal Styles lux episode. Let's take a look at the Truman record and compare it with that of the man who seeks to head the nation, Governor Thomas E. Dewey:

The position taken by Senator Harry S. Truman on every piece of legislation relating to the Negro people is a standing contradiction of the muck-raking lies which are being hurled at him by desperate Republican smearmongers.

The record of Senator Truman in the United States Senate is a liberal, progressive record in keeping with the liberal policies of the Roosevelt Administration.

In 1938 Senator Truman voted for cloture in the anti-lynching bill debate.

In 1939 Senator Truman voted for the Civil Liberties Bill.

In 1942 Senator Truman voted for cloture in the Anti-Poll Tax Bill debate.

He voted for the Wagner Act, for Social Security, for the Agricultural Adjustment Act which extended aid to Negro Sharecroppers, for the Soldier vote bill, for the Wagner-Steagall Low Cost Bill and for Farm Parity Payments. All of these measures benefited the Negro people and broadened the base of our Demoeracy.

In a speech in Chicago on July 14, 1940, Senator Truman stated: "We must not forget that every community owes the Negro a fair deal in regard to public utilities, lights and sewers, street improvment and water mains. We owe the Negro legal equality and a fair chance in the world for several reasons, not the least of them because he is a human being and a natural born American. Because his political power is yet weak, he cannot be denied his rights. Never must we forget that if we sink the Negro to the depths of hopeless degradation, and make no provision for his comfort in housing or any other necessity of life, the law of compensation will take effect and the whites too will go down with him . . . The Negro wants, to be helped, not crushed. He wants opportunities to better himself, not relief. He wants just wages, not alms. He wants stability, security and friendliness. He and friendliness. He knows that the Roosevelt administration has been his salvation in these days of turmoil, strife, and depression."

One of the reasons offered by Negro followers of Dewey for their support has been, "Should Roosevelt not live out the term, Truman would become president. Compare the records and dcide to which of the two, Dewey or Truman, you would entrust the destiny of your nation in this time of war and th making of the peace.

The reelection of President Roosevelt is not a matter for political bartering or bargaining. We, the American people and all the peoples of the world are at the crossroads of history in the making, Franklin D. Roosevelt has not only served the American nation as president, he is the collosal figure in the allied quintet.

As a nation our hope and faith in a lasting peace rests in the hearts and minds of Roosevelt, Cchurchill, Stalin, and Chiang Kai Shek. Black Americacans under the Roosevelt presidential regime have had their first taste of freedom. For this freedom they are now fighting on the battlefronts of Europe. This fight will not be discontinued until a lasting victory is assured to the world. This victory must include an extension of this new found freedom for the Negro in America.

SEAMAN 2/C—Paul George, seamon second class, assigned to the 10th U. S. Naval Construction Battalion, has been in the service one year and five months. He is presently on duty somewhere in the Hawaiian Islands. Paul, who is 20, was living with his mother, Mrs. Mary George, at 1300 E. 92nd St. He also has a brother, Issac George, who is 32, and in the service, being stationed in Demming, New Mexico. Isaac, who is a corporal, has been in the army one year.

speech the Convention's Resolutions Committee reported out a resolution calling for application of the proportional layoff plan during the period of layoffs and until full employment becomes a reality. The debate around this resolution was the first of its kind held in the American trade union movement, and was conducted on an unusually high level at all times. The resolution called for a change in present civil service layoff procedure which at this time would place an unequal burden of unemployment upon Negroes and women. All Negro delegates and large numbers of white delegates spoke in favor of the resolution. This group was led by Thomas Richardson, chairman of the Union's Inter-Racial Unity Committee; John Harmon, of the Union's New York region; and Oliver Palmer, of the Union's large cafeteria local in Washington.

Opposition to the proposal was led by Howard Zeigenfuss and William Mollenhaur of the Philadelphia Navy Yard local. After serious and statesmanlike discussion from the delegates, Richardson introduced a substitute motion which took full cognizance of the situation and instructed the Union's international officers to work with other democratic forces to bring about a fair and equitable system of layoffs during cutbacks. Zeigenfuss urged unanimous adoption of the substitute resolution, and the entire Convention did so by rising to its feet in acclamation.

In the past the Union has been administered by the C. I. O. through appointed officers. At this convention, it became an international and immediately set another history-making precedent by electing as its first President New England-born Eleanor Nelson, who becomes the first woman to head an international union in American history. Thomas Richardson, who led the fight for the adoption of the proportional layoff plan, was unanimously elected the Second Executive Vice-President of the international union, thus becoming one of the few Negroes to achieve a position in top leadership in the labor movement. Other officers elected were Lester Tempest, First Executive Vice-President, and Arthur Stein, Secretary-Treasurer.

Other speakers who appeared before the Convention included Congressman Robert Ramspeck of Georgia, head of the House Civil Service Committee; Joseph Curran, President of the Greater New York Industrial Union Council and of the National Maritime Union; Allan Haywood, Vice-President and Director of Organization of the C.I.O.; and Newbold Morris, President of the New York City Council.

The Convention received messages from President Roosevelt, from Philip Murray, and from Sidney Hillman.

Among resolutions passed were those calling for solution of the problems of working mothers, collective bargaining in the government service, elimination of certain sections of the Hatch Act, and a full reconversion program calling for transfers in force instead of reductions in force, severance pay, retraining of war workers, and a 30-hour week after the war.

YOUR CONSCIENCE

Between this and the election there is nothing but your conscience. The vast avalanche of propaganda which moved with sudden swiftness as the Republican candidate realized that he was licked on the issues has been cleared away, from here on in, you'll have to think for yourself. It's either Dewey or Roosevelt. What it means to you to have either of the two candidates elected is something that you again will have to decide. You know what President Roosevelt has done. Governor Dewey has promised to do the same things better because he feels he is better qualified. The whole issue turns on that point. The CIO refuses to accept anything except a guarantee that the progress made by the people, all of the people, will not be retarded. Since this is the last time that this column will appear before election, it presumes to predict that Roosevelt will be elected overwhelmingly, carrying California in his stride.

John M. Lee

AN IMPORTANT JOB

What remains to be done is to send to Congress and the Senate representatives who will support his program. Of equal importance is the necessity to elect Senator Sheridan Downey, Helen Gahagan Douglas and Hal Styles. At this point in the game we cannot afford a separation of interests. There is possibly a degree to which the office of one candidate might seem to be more important than that of another, and in fact, that may be true, but because the fate of the next century will be hanging in the balance on November 7, every progressive candidate who is pledged to serve the interests of the people must be considered with equal importance.

POLITICAL DISHONESTY

The opponent of Helen Gahagan Douglas is an estimable gentleman, but he is not being politically honest when he seeks the votes of the Negroes by promising that if he is elected, he will take a Negro secretary back to Washington with him. It is not the symbolic or token employment of a single Negro that is the great question to be solved in the next period. What a Congressman who will serve America in the greatest time in her history must be prepared to do, is to work for a full and equal opportunity for all of the people.

This hope can only be realized through the success of the program which President Roosevelt has been carrying forward. Helen Douglas is pledged to support that program, and she has shown by her public record that she will carry out that pledge. If that were not the case, her opponent would be more deserving of the support of the Negro voter than he has proven himself to be thus far.

STYLES WILL WIN

In the 15th Congressional district, Hal Styles' opponent has sought to defeat him with the help of a nasty smear attack. Styles has succeeded in earning the enmity of the Hearst press and all of the reactionary elements that are opposed to the President. The reaction of the voters indicates that Styles will win going away. His record of years of public service without regard to race, creed or color, is the thundering answer to the attacks on his character. He will support the President, the people will support him.

DOWNEY'S RECORD

Senator Downey has a fine record of correct voting on every measure that was for the benefit of the people. He will be needed in the Senate to fight the people's battles in the post war period. Sanity and security demand that he be sent back with an overwhelming vote of confidence from those he has served so well.

The fate of America is in the hands of the people; the fate of the people will be determined by the way they vote on November 7.

The Blood Bank reports a drop in appointments, and this can very easily become a threat to the lives of many of our soldiers. They are not quitting because victory is near, we should not quit until victory is won. Make an appointment today and give a pint to save a life.

Dewey Appointee Supports FDR

NEW YORK—Noah C. A. Walter, Dewey-appointed member of the New York State Industrial Commission, is campaigning for the re-election of Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Walter spoke Sunday afternoon in Asbury Park, New Jersey, in support of the President and again on Wednesday night in Springfield, Massachusetts.

"As a member of the American Labor Party and a representative of the CIO," Walter declared, "I am supporting President Roosevelt because I believe that the gains made by labor and by the Negro during the past 12 years can best be safeguarded by continuing Roosevelt in office. At the time of my appointment it was made clear that I expected to support the candidates of my party."

National Interest Excited By Victory Against the Poll Tax

NEW YORK, N. Y.—The recent victory in the first suit against the poll tax in the United States District Court at Roanoke, Va., has aroused nation-wide interest in the other and more important case, affecting 51 Congressmen in the eight poll tax states, which was argued before the federal court at Richmond on October 20.

The first action, Jones v. Settle, attacked the constitutionality of the State law requiring all persons reaching 21 in any year to pay a poll tax for the next year in order to register for the purpose of voting.

Such law has been decided to violate the State Constitution. As a result, 42,924 young people in Virginia coming of age January 2 and November 7 will be able to register and vote without payment of a poll tax. And the same rule will apply to all reaching 21 in subsequent years.

The second action, Saunders v. Wilkins, is based on the second section of the 14th Amendment to the Federal Constitution which recognizes only two reasons for abridging suffrage-rebellion and crime.

The penalty imposed on states abridging suffrage for any other reason is a proportionate reduction of its members in the Federal House of Representatives.

To test the constitutionality of the poll tax under the 14th Amendment, H. L. Saunders petitioned the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Virgina, Ralph E. Wilkins, to certify Saunders as a candidate for Congress representing the whole State of Virginia.

The poll tax does abridge suffrage, and if the Re-apportionment Act of Congress of 1941 allotting 9 Congressmen to Virginia instead of 4 is decided by the Court to be unconstitutional, then there will be no legal Congressional Districts in Virginia; all of its Congressmen are illegally elected; only four can be elected and all must be candidates to represent the state as a whole.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth denied Saunders' petition and Saunders has sued Wilkins for $20,000 damages (a Congressman's salary for one term).

If the poll tax is held to be constitutional, Wilkins is justified in his refusal to certify Saunders; but if the poll tax is held to be unconstitutional, Wilkins will be subject to damages.

Triumph for Saunders would reduce the number of 51 Congressmen in the eight poll tax states to a total of twenty-one. All would then find themselves without jobs and special elections would have to be held for twenty-one candidates-at-large.

The Sponsor of both suits is PARENTS & WIVES OF FIGHTING AMERICANS Inc. with National Headquarters at 130 West 42nd Street, New York City.

U. S. Senator Joseph F. Guffey is financing the costs and expenses incident to the suits. Senator Guffey, by an initial contribution of $1000, also made possible the incorporation of PARENTS AND WIVES OF FIGHTING AMERICANS and the setting up of it as a going concern.

Leading Citizens Endorse Judge Stanley Mosk for Re-Election

Freedom, justice, equality for all. That is what everyone expects in our courts—no matter what his race, color, or station in life. All people in our community must have the same rights.

Judge Stanley Mosk, judge of our Superior Court, is a fine judge who sincerely believes in the equality of all people under the law. He refused to join the American Bar Association until that organization acted on his protest and admitted colored lawyers to membership. In this and many other ways he has proved his ability, tolerance and understanding.

That is why all leading citizens of the county of Los Angeles, and the outstanding people of our community, are supporting Judge Stanley Mosk for re-election to the Superior Court. Tell your friends, too, to be sure to vote for Judge Stanley Mosk on November 7th.—Citizens' Committee to Retain Judge Stanley Mosk.

available for the plane, food and hot coffee for the crew members. But what is more important is that battle-damaged planes need not attempt to limp home, risking a possible crash somewhere in Italy, possibly behind enemy lines.

Commanded by well-trained officers, a few of whom are white, but the majority of whom are Negro, the men are ready and willing to tackle any job that comes in. They're proud of being "right in the middle of the fight," proud that the combat boys come to them for help. In front of one of their administrative tents is a sign reading "Service for Victory." Their Commanding Officer is Lt. Colonel W. H. Hill of Dallas, Texas.

"Jerry tries a little demolition even now," remarks M/Sgt. Frank A. Erby of Dayton, Ohio. "Once or twice he has sent over shells. One of them landed in front of the engineering tents and blew them all over the place," and he indicated a jaggle hole about four feet deep. Sergeant Erby is technical inspector of the outfit and was a master aircraft mechanic at the Fairfield, Ohio, Air Depot.

"It's a quiet war in these parts," says Cpl. Ravenell Cannon of New York City, who spends part of his time cleaning aircraft engines in the shadow of a twisted mass of steel girders that once were a hanger. By "quiet" he means that you can't hear the guns whamming away up in the north. Daytime is always noisy with the roar of airplane engines, truck convoys and tanks. As often as not, the night quiet is broken by the ever-moving Eighth Army truck convoys or ack ack over the hill probing for an occasional lone and cautious representative of the Luftwaffe.

Quiet or not, the men lose sight of the war. All day long, dust coated British ambulances and ambulances of the American Field Service with the British forces purr up the dusty roads to discharge their loads of patients, bandaged men alongside waiting American C-47 air evcation planes. When the dust lifts, as it sometimes does, fighter aircraft can be seen waiting for the order to take-off on another combat mission.

RACE HAS PROGRESSED

New York... (Calvin's News Service) ... "Freedom Read" 's author, Howard Fast, said that the Negro has made more progress in the last four years than in the previous forty on Bennet Cerf's radio program 'Books are Bullets.' Drawing a parallel between the Civil War perior and today, fast claims that both wars are similar in that they are both wars of national liberation against slavery and for progress. In both cases, he said too, they were by great leaders, Lincoln and Roosevelt.

Paul Robeson has long been the symbol of unity for CIO workers. He has inspired them in their support of President Roosevelt's stand against all discrimination in industry and government. Here he is shown in the midst of a group of shipyard workers who united together, Negro and white, to produce the ships that gave this nation a navy that is greater than the combined navies of all of the rest of the world powers combined. The unity that made this achievement possible has been built by the CIO with the help and encouragement of President Roosevelt. These CIO workers will vote for the re-election of President Roosevelt and progressive officials so that fairness in employment will continue.

Executive Order No. 8802

". . . by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes, I do hereby re-affirm the policy of the United States that there shall be no discrimination in the employment of workers in defense industries or government because of race, creed, color or national origin."

JUNE 25, 1941

THE ABOVE two young ladies are benefactors of Executive Order No. 8802, handed down by President Roosevelt in 1941. They are not alone... more than a million and a half Negro workers have entered industries formerly barred to them since Pearl Harbor, and the President's Executive Order lowered the bars. Above are shown two skilled die-casting machine operators at the Western Die Casting Co. in Oakland, Calif. Left to right are: Camille Lince, Patience Wheatley, Jack Child, union official, and C. C. Vogelsang, president of Western Die Casting.

AUGUSTUS F. HAWKINS, California's fighting assemblyman from the 62nd Assembly District, who was re-elected in the primaries to serve his sixth consecutive term in the State Legislature by an overwhelming victory which saw him take both the Democratic and Republican nominations. "My election in the primaries," says Hawkins, "demonstrates that both Republicans and Democrats can unite around a sound program without regard to party affiliation. We must unite again around the program and policies of Franklin D. Roosevelt and re-elect him as our President, along with a slate of Congressmen who will support his policies."

Unity of all people for full employment and security in the post war period is the aim of the Executive Board of the State, County and Municipal Workers of the CIO. Meeting recently, this CIO local rededicated itself to the purpose of achieving full economic equality for all workers without regard to race, creed and color, and to work for the re-election of President Roosevelt and progressive, people's representatives who will support his administration. Regular Fellow, Helen Gahagan Douglas, sat in on the meeting and listened to the program of the local which has enthusiastically endorsed her as the Congressional candidate to be elected in the Fourteenth District. Candidate Douglas pledged herself to work for the best interest of all of the people when she is elected.

VOTE NO ON PROPOSITION NO. 12

(SPONSORED BY THE CALIFORNIA C. I. O. COUNCIL)

Fillmore and Pollard Hit Number 12

(Editor's Note: Following is a statement against Proposition No. 12 by leading citizens.)

The passage of Proposition No. 12 will not aid the employer nor his workers. But it will ferment friction and unnecessary unrest among many stable employees. It will be a weapon in the hands of unscrupulous employers.

After making sacrifices such as Organized Labor has, as well as having had to struggle for all of its gains, which are admittedly fair, are we as registered voters going to allow these benefits to be lost by unwise legislation?

As members of Organized Labor, as citizens, as christians, and as individuals interested in social progress, we urge all registered voters—Democrats and Republicans—to vote NO on Proposition No. 12 when you go to the polls on November 7th.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM E. POLLARD,
WRIGHT FILLMORE.

establishment of a permanent FEPC, abolition of the poll tax and full use of west coast industry in the post-war period.

Mrs. Douglas, wife of screen star Melvyn Douglas, who is now in the army in the China-Burma-India theater of war, has attended many meetings—ranging from small house meetings to large gatherings—in the 62nd assembly district.

She has found the voters, she reports, particularly responsive to her contention that President Roosevelt is the man best qualified to represent the United States in the waging of the war and the peace.

Mrs. Douglas, the Daily News has pointed out, has become a nationally-recognized leader of those who subscribe to this view.

Her leadership in this field also is attracting support from thoughtful Republican voters, although Mrs. Douglas makes no effort to conceal the fact that she is campaigning as a Democrat.

Marshall Stimson, lifelong Republican and civic leader in the district, announced his support for Mrs. Douglas on that basis.

"I shall vote for Mrs. Douglas," he said, "because she has demonstrated that she has the talent and the ability to be a strong force for lasting peace, the most important issue in this campaign."

Although she has declined to stoop to the political trick of offering special favors to special groups—Mrs. Douglas believes all Americans should be considered as Americans, not as specified and isolated groups—the Democratic nominee has won a long list of endorsements throughout the district.

And she is particularly proud to have the endorsement of Mary McLeod Bethune, noted Negro educator and leader in Washington, D. C.

"It will be a pleasure to have you seated here in Washington helping to make our laws," wrote the noted educator after recalling that it was Mrs. Douglas who introduced her to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Augustus F. Hawkins, assemblyman from the 62nd, is confident of the election of Mrs. Douglas.

"There can be no doubt about the 14th district," he says. "We will send Helen Gahagan Douglas to Congress."

Mrs. Fay Allen, former member of the board of education, urges the election of Mrs. Douglas with these words:

"Mrs. Douglas has the courage and the awareness of the problems of the people which will be sorely needed in the post-war period. She has demonstrated time and again her belief in the right of equality of opportunity for all people without regard to race, creed or color."

Others who have endorsed Mrs. Douglas include Loren Miller, also a Democratic candidate for Congress in the May primaries; the Rev. Clayton D. Russell, the Rev. Leroy Evans, John Dial, Dr. H. Claude Hudson, Mrs. Mary A. Troy, Charlotta Bass, Supervisor John Anson Ford, Councilman John Baumgartner and Councilman Parley P. Christensen, the Daily News and retiring Congressman Tom Ford.

She also has been endorsed by the American Federation of Labor, the Congress of Industrial Organizations and the Railroad Brotherhoods.

Mrs. Douglas, experienced in government through her years as Democratic national committeewoman from California, will be remembered by many for her voluntary and effective work in behalf of the NYA, the WPA and the migratory farm workers during the days when the nation was recovering from the Hoover depression.

Plenty Lots Now Available For Sale in Watts Vicinity

Mr. I. Schulman of the Western Housing Company, 1568 East 103rd street, southwest corner of 103rd and Compton avenue, announced this week that there are plenty of lots in Watts for sale for cash or on reasonable terms. All taxes, bonds and assessments on this property is paid.

If you are contemplating living in the quietness of suburban Los Angeles, why not pick the finest part of the city, in other words the Watts area, for future building. Many new homes have been built in Watts and 95% were constructed on lots that the Western Housing Company sold.

See our half-page ad elsewhere in this issue, which lists many lots, now available. This is probably the last time you will have a choice to pick from. Look them over and then call Mr. I. Schulman at LU. 9593.

Diphtheria Cases Show Increase

Seven new cases of diptheria reported during the weekend brought Los Angeles' steadily rising outbreak to 268 since January 1, Dr. George M. Uhl, city health officer, disclosed today.

The death toll still stands at 21, Dr. Uhl said.

The health officer continued his plea that parents have children between the ages of 6 months and 10 years immunized against the disease.

Stanley, were visiting with an aunt, Alice Rogers, at the home of Mrs. Rogers' employer, 1726 Kelton Street, Westwood, the proprietor, Winifred Ayers, hired two men to come in and move all the family's belongings out of their room, and into another room of the hotel, which, according to all health standards, was totally unfit for occupancy.

According to Mrs. Holmes' story, which is corroborated by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Young and D. L. Davis, occupants of the same hotel, the room into which Mrs. Holmes' belongings were moved and literally strewn around the room and over the floor, had been rented, the previous night, to transits. The same soiled sheets were on the bed, and the same dirty towels which had been used by the previous occupants were still in the room. In addition to this, the washbowl, in one corner of the room, was stopped up, and water had run all over the floor and seeped under the rug; so much so that it was necessary for Mrs. Holmes to take a mop and attempt to dry up some of the dampness, in order that she and her babies might be able to stay the night. Mrs. Holmes also states that for several weeks prior to this, the room into which she and her children were moved, had been occupied by a sick woman, in the last stages of tuberculosis; and that the room had undergone no fumigation process of any kind, since said occupancy. Into this condition, she and her three year-old daughter and infant son, were forced to go, because they had no other place to stay. Mrs. Holmes, however, had the foresight to call in the police to view the surroundings into which she had been thrown, and they are able to bear witness to the same.

At about 5:30 a.m., Tuesday, October 24, Mrs. Holmes' baby was taken suddenly ill, and at 6:30 a.m., was dead. Dr. Seymour Kaufman, who attended Mrs. Holmes during her confinement, was called. Unable to come at the time, he sent his assistant, Dr. Caplan, who, upon examination of the dead child, said that it appeared to be a case of pneumonia, and recommended a coroner's inquest. The baby had been under the care of Dr. Kaufman and up until the time of its sudden death, was known to be in good health.

A coroner's inquest, held later in the day, that same Tuesday, rendered its verdict that six weeks' old Roger Stanley Holmes had died of bronchial pneumonia, due to exposure.

In the moving process, certain personal belongings of Mrs. Holmes, including a wrist watch, one suit and overcoat of her husband's, and $880 in cash, were stolen, but Mrs. Ayers denies having any knowledge of same, and refused to take any responsibility in the matter. D. L. Davis, however, told Mrs. Holmes that he had seen one of the movers fumbling with the lock on her trunk.

At the present time, Mrs. Holmes and young daughter are staying with a sister-in-law at 1477 East 48th Place. Her things still remain in the fatal room at the Chetwood Hotel.

The infant's father, Pvt. Roland Lee Holmes, stationed at Camp Rucker, Alabama, has been in service for ten months. He was given permission, by his commanding officer, to attend the funeral of his infant son, which was held from Angelus Funeral Home, Tuesday, October 31, but failed to arrive in time.

The occupants of the hotel are very much incensed over the inhuman treatment received by the young Negro mother and her babies, who were without any protection, whatsoever, due to the fact that her husband is now in the United States Army.

The case has been turned over to Attorney H. Leonard Richardson who will, immediately, institute proceedings on Mrs. Holmes' behalf.

He urged that churches, service clubs and veterans groups interest themselves in the problem.

Judge Stanley Mosk is an overwhelming favorite to be reelected at the polls, for he has made a splendid progressive humane record in office.

As the pace of the war increases, the need for heavy artillery ammunition, rockets and explosives of all types mounts almost day by day with a consequent need for workers in the producing plants, Paul V. McNutt, chairman of the War Manpower Commission, said this week.

Protect Your Right to Work

Every person has the right to work. Every person has always had the right to work providing he is hired. The Bill of Rights and the Constitution of the State of California have already granted this. We acknowledge the right to work for every employable person, but we do not acknowledge the right of anyone to force people to work for starvation wages. A substantial segment of our population has never had a standard of living worth bragging about. That is why we have unions. That is why we have organized.

Approximately four out of every five persons who receive incomes in the United States are workers. If everyone is employed, we know we will have the means for raising our standard of living. Full employment means well-paid workers and well-paid workers are surely in the interest of good business. With the increasing industrialization of America, and with an increasing proportion of our people working, we must continue the harmonius relations existing between employers and employees.

1. More Negroes are working in war plants alongside white workers and at equal pay.
2. Proposition No. 12 will deny them this right.
3. Proposition No. 12 will make you liable to legal punishment if you hold a meeting to protest these conditions.
4. If you are a worker, union, non-union, white-collar or overall or overall worker, Vote NO on Proposition No. 12.

CITIZEN'S COMMITTEE AGAINST PROPOSITION No. 12

Los Angeles 11, California

DON'T BE MISLED! VOTE "NO"

Statewide Industrial Strife, Destruction of California's War Effort, and jeopardizing of her Peace and Prosperity, abrogation of the constitutional rights of Employers and Employees, and the creation of class legislation would result if Proposition No. 12 on the November ballot were adopted. This Proposition is condemned by the Alameda County Branch of the NAACP, and the San Francisco Branch of the NAACP. As a Patriotic duty we join all others in opposing this destructive measure and urge you to VOTE NO on PROPOSITION No. 12.

Relief Council Looks Ahead

The Economic Relief Council started years ago in making a demonstration on a small scale.

Their first efforts consisted in raising flowers, placing them in the churches, giving them to sick folks, shut-ins, wherever they felt they might brighten some place or some life.

The members of the council raised hogs, produced butter and eggs, and engaged in other occupations intended to produce food for markets and for home consumption.

They are not very much encouraged in their efforts by those in authority. Driven from pillar to post, they nevertheless refused to give up, and they won the right to continue to exist and to grow.

This same Economic Council can now render us and the U. S. government invaluable assistance in post-war planning. In fact they have already laid plans for what to do when this war is ended. With proper encouragement they will be able to supply us with fresh vegetables, eggs, butter, etc., through the newly established Victory Markets.

Negro PAC Group Calls for FDR Re-Election

NEW YORK.—Negro members of the National Citizens Political Action Committee joined this week in a statement urging voters "to return to office the greatest champion of the common man whom America has produced since Abraham Lincoln."

They termed the 1944 election "a choice between going forward to freedom with Franklin D. Roosevelt or back to political and economic slavery with Thomas E. Dewey and the reactionary, states-rights forces he represents." The PAC members called for Roosevelt's reelection so that he may "finish the job" of Negro emancipation.

Rally for Styles At Music Town

A very successful Roosevelt-Styles rally was held last Sunday afternoon at music town. Clarence Muse and John Lee alternated as chairmen, and both stressed the importance of the Negro people, both republicans and Democrats, voting for Roosevelt, Truman, Downey, and Styles on Nov. 7, in order to continue the progress that the Negro people have made under President Roosevelt's leadership, and in insure the just fruits of our march toward freedom.

Hal Styles, congressional candidate for the 15th congressional district, was the key speaker, and stressed the importance of Roosevelt's re-election in order to guarantee international cooperation after the war, increased social progress, and equality of all people regardless of race, color, or creed. Styles emphasized also the necessity of electing a congress that will back Roosevelt, and not stymie him.

Other speakers included Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, Rev. J. Lyle Caston, Flenoid Cunningham, and Judge Mosk.

Sponsors of the Roosevelt-Styles rally included Rev. Clayton D. Russell, Leon Washington, Charlotta A. Bass, Rev. J. Lyle Caston, Faye Allen, Flenoid Cunnigham, Clarence Muse, Assemblyman Augustus Hawkins, Revels Cayton, and Lyda Wilson.

The rally was put on by the 63rd Assembly District Democratic Club, West Adams Democratic Club, Roosevelt Democratic Club, 20th Century Club, and the Democratic Citizens League.

Circulate Vicious Petition at Dewey Campaign Meeting

A shocking report of a recent Dewey-Bricker campaign meeting where a petition was circulated designed to restrict Negroes from occupying certain residential areas was given the members of the Home Owners' Protective Association at its regular meeting Friday in the California Eagle Building. The area in question was identified as that section between Van Ness and Vermont to Beverly Boulevard and Third Street, according to the speaker, who reported that 200 people were present at the meeting.

Similar organization throughout the city was curtailed by the Chamber of Commerce who, although agreeing with the idea, was doubtful as to the expediency of such a measure. The desire for Negro people to live in any area was pointed out at the Dewey-Bricker meeting as a "danger signal."

The Home Owners' Protective Association is constantly growing in membership and the aid of the various churches in the community is being enlisted in an effort to spread the aims and accomplishments of the organization.

WAGES are GROCERIES

DON'T ROB YOUR BREAD BASKET

Proposition No. 12, the so-called "Right To Work" amendment, will NOT guarantee the "Right To Work" but the "Right To Work" for low wages . . . It will reduce YOUR standard of living . . . It will disrupt collective bargaining and create disunity between management and labor . . . It will impede the war effort on the home front . . . It will deprive returning veterans of their right to return to their old jobs at decent wages and working conditions . . . Don't be fooled by this tricky amendment.

BRILLIANT AND ATTRACTIVE—Even among the numerous Los Angeles City School teachers are many beautiful girls. One of the most attractive and incidentally one of the most brilliant is Miss Verne Johnson at Twentieth Street School. Like most brilliant people she is continually searching for knowledge and is a graduate student at the University of Southern California. Miss Johnson is doing a top job at imparting her knowledge to her pupils. She is among the youngest teachers in our city system and is among those who will lower the average age range of teachers, found to be considerably high last. Besides meeting the standards of the Hollywood beauties Miss Johnson's fine character and personality is accompanied by several talents. We Angelenos have in herited much and so has the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority to which this young teacher belongs.

Eastside Chest Goal In Sight

Following the second over-all report luncheon last Tuesday noon, October 31, in the Biltmore bowl, attended by over 1200 volunteer workers from all sections of the 750 square miles of the Los Angeles Area War Chest, announcement was made that the Eastside War Chest appeal had reacehd 61 per cent of quota and the district is now in seventh place among the city residential campaigns.

Mrs. E. W. Rakestraw, Eastside chairman, annonuced that a total of $6,179 had been pledged to date, from 285 Eastside contributors, on behalf of our suffering Allies, our own armed forces and home front needs in health, child care and welfare of all.

The response had been gratifying, Mrs. Rakestraw says. With such continued enthusiastic cooperation we can put this ditrict over the top before the third report session, next Thursday, November 9. Every Eastside resident should have some part in this great civilian war effort.

Biscailuz for Proposition 3

Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz, of Los Angeles County, internationally popular peace officer, has endorsed Proposition No. 3 on the November Satte Ballot. Biscailuz said today:

"If we expect to retain men of high standards as Lieutenant Governor, State Controller, Secretary of State, State Superintetndent of Public Instruction, and State Treasurer, we cannot hope to do so by paying them salaries based on the standards of living in 1908 by the State Constitution, when California's population was 1,700,000.

Foiled for $450! The Villain (cuss him) snarls his displeasure as Helene McDonough, Los Angeles dramatic teacher, answers his jackpot question on "Stop That Villain," (MBS, Wed., 8:30 p.m., e.w.t.) and wins one of radio's highest awards, $450 in War Bonds. Miss McDonough also released nine contestants from the cage to which they had been assigned by the Villain when they missed earlier questions.

Victory Chapter Celebrates On It's Sixteenth Anniversary

The 16th Anniversary of Victory Chapter was celebrated Sunday afternoon at the Masonic Hall, 50th and Central, for the past officers and charter members. A delicious turkey dinner was served, and an interesting program was rendered.

Mrs. Bessie Prentice, the first matron of the chapter, was the first speaker on the program. Remarks were also made by Mrs. Charlotta Bass who told the gathering that the late J. B. Bass was the real daddy of the chapter, since it was he who organized the club which gave birth to Garrison Lodge, which started out as one of the largest in the state.

Rev. S. M. Beane, pastor of Hamilton Methodist Church, was lauded for the yeoman service he has rendered Victory Chapter, and the unselfish manner in which he has guided it through its troublesome period.

Democrats To Return

According to president of the California Committee of Real Democrats, the organization which played a prominent part in the defeat of ex-Governor Olson, came out in support of the Dewey-Bricker ticket.

"We assisted in putting an end to 'Olsonism' in our State," Elliott said, "but now we find that our job is only half completed.

"The same strange forces which had moved into California's administration are now endeavoring to take over the Democratic party.

"Once they are out of the party, true Democrats, those of us who revel in the glory of Wilson and Jefferson, will return to make our party the real party of the people," Elliott concluded.

THERE SHOULD BE NO CONTROVERSY WHERE NATIONAL SECURITY IS INVOLVED!

Proposition No. 12 on the November 7 ballot threatens the national security in California, second largest production center of war goods, because it would disrupt our industrial output.

A few selfish individuals who are perfectly willing to prosper by the sweat of soil—so long as it is the sweat of some other person's toil—are the sponsors of this un-American legislation.

Most shameful of all, it would betray every war veteran who rightfully expects fulfillment of the promise that he would be brought back to a job at DECENT wages.

Our war production will be sabotaged if Proposition No. 12 is not defeated, because this measure will destroy peace on the home front. This so-called "Right to Work" bill does not guarantee any "Right to Work" that does not already exist. It would, however, give you the "Right to Work" for LOWER wages. It would reduce standards of living for every working man and woman.

Below is a partial list of the hundreds of organizations and individuals who urge you to VOTE NO on Proposition No. 12.

The Gay Side

By Bernice Cook

The dreams that we dream all the days that we live,
Are a part of the stirring of a mighty brew;
We make our choice, and our stint we give,
As each day offers an old problem anew.

GALA PRE-HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Keen-O Club, one of the most fashionable of L. A.'s social organizations, held a Pre-Halloween Cocktail Party at the Alpha Bowling Social Club on Sunday afternoon to which 300 guests were bidden. The affair was lovely to the last detail, and the charming president, Mrs. Anna Lawrence, saw to it that everyone enjoyed himself. The 767th A.A.F. Band, from the Ontario Army Air Base, were special guests of the club and furnished music for the occasion. They were also in the city to make an appearance at the Avalon USO the same afternoon.

Although the Keen-O Club is primarily social, its progressive members have found the time and funds to contribute to many worthwhile civic ventures. They have recently made donations to the Outdoor Life and Health, and have cheered the veterans of World War II who are convalescing at Sawtelle.

Officers and members of the club include, Anna Lawrence, president; Lillie Smith, vice president; Dora Swan, secretary; Jewel Moore, corresponding secretary; Margretta Taylor, treasurer; Edythe Wilson, business manager; Marguerite Brazell, sergeant-at-arms; Thelma Trowell, reporter, Evelyn Brown, hostess; and Edna Trotter, Pearl Evans, Albertine Glover, Sadie Hartsfield, Lucille Morten and Maybelle Boswell.

REPUBLICANS HOLD OPEN HOUSE

The Los Angeles Inter-racial Republican Committee held a Dewey-Bricker open house at the home of Sidney P. Dones, in Hobart Boulevard, Sunday afternoon from 2:00 until 6:00, which hundreds of prominent Republicans and middle-of-the-road citizens attended. A sumptuous turkey dinner, with all the trimmings, was served, throughout the afternoon, augmented with delicious drinks of every description. William "Bill" Woods, campaign manager of the 63rd Assembly District presided over the program.

As a follow-up to the open house, on Monday night, over KMTR, a special radio program was presented with Supervisor Gordon McDonough, W. D. Campbell and Sidney P. Dones as principal speakers. George McClain was master of ceremonies. Special commendation is being extended Mrs. Theodosia Hamilton Washington, whose very fine twenty minute postwar drama, entitled "The Brown Family" was presented on this program. The drama was ably portrayed by Mrs. Jessie Coles Grayson, as the mother; Otto Johnson, as the Assistant District Attorney; and Butterfly McQueen, Bobby Johnson, Leon Clemons and Theo Washington.

Well, the big battle is on—we don't know who will be president, but may the best man win! And I need not remind you that I, for one, am voting for the "BEST MAN"

THE FIRST TIME WE SAW PARIS.

I don't know what those French girls have that we American girls don't have—but all the recent letters from our servicemen is full of raves about Paris, the beautiful city—and the gorgeous girls. Despite the war, Parisian women are still the best dressed and loveliest in the world—according to scores of American soldiers. Their beauty, doubtless, is enhanced even more by their extremely democratic attitudes, and we are proud to doff our hats to the girls of Paris for the wonderful way they have received our boys—and the reception they are giving them. And why shouldn't they? After all, our boys are giving their all for them—as well as for us.

ASIDE TO "G" FOR GLAMOUR GIRL, Gloria Samuels—the efficient secretary to Thurgood Marshall, Special Legal Counsel for the national office of the NAACP—so glad you enjoy reading "The Gay Side," and that you are interested enough to keep up with an old pal. My best regards to all the guys and gals in the national office there.

The column grows lengthy again, and so I must say "Adieu" until next week.

How glad we'll all be to say farewell to war! Yet, how proud we are that we're all doing our duty to preserve the sanctity and security of America's four freedoms.

The stars in this drawing symbolize what the employees of the Los Angeles Railway have done to uphold the traditions of their country. The 10 represents those who have made the supreme sacrifice. The 534 stands for those who are carrying rifles or performing other duties in the uniforms of the armed forces.

Those of us who are left behind, for the honor and glory of those who represent us on the battlefields, pledge that we will do everything in our power to give our patrons the best transportation conveniences possible under present conditions. When we can say farewell to war, we hope there will be a vast change for the better.

Teacher Group Supports No. 9

An an urgent appeal to parents of school children to rally to the support of Proposition 9, the Better Schools Act on the November ballot, Roy W. Cloud, secretary of the California Teachers Association, today warned that "a serious breakdown is inevitable in our elementary school system, if state support of the schools fails to keep pace with changing conditions."

PREPARING FOR AN ARRIVAL—Mr. and Mrs. George Stokes of 3130 Naomi Avenue were the recipients of many lovely gifts and expressions of friendship last Saturday evening at a baby shower. The evening was spent with dancing and cards as the forms of diversion. Those present were Mesdames Stokes, Veal, S. W. Parks, Woodard, Minnie Houston, Johnson, Brown and E. Bradley, and Messrs. Bancos, Harvey, A. Manuel, Stokes, Taylor, Aguinaldo, James Cleveland, David Anderson and Leon Brumfield.

Orchid club

The Orchids met at the home of Virginia White to complete plans for the Gala Matinee Dance at Joe Morris's Plantation Club on November 26th, and they are now busily selling tickets for what promises to be the outstanding event of the holiday season. Members of the various committees are working overtime to make the party an overwhelming success says, Mamie Anderson, committee chairman of the dance.

Proceeds from this merry making affair will go into a fund which is being created by tensome organizations to combat juvenile delinquency under the leadership of Miss Laura Slayton, and the first project on their agenda is to organize a league and club house for teen age girls. Any organization interested in being a part of this worthwhile movement, please call Miss Slayton at Adams 7735.

Western Aces To Give Party

The Western Aces Club makes its debut on Saturday at the Alpha Bowling Club in an evening of fun. A large group will attend with more than 50 guests from the armed services.

John Atkins is president. Mrs. Lucille Ivie, the chairman of the entertainment committee, returned Tuesday from San Francisco to check details of the party. There will be games, dancing and a buffet supper.

What's Doing—

In The Younger Set

Jessie Mae Brown

At 5:30 o'clock last Friday evening, Mrs. Inez Allen, new Girl Reserve secretary of the Woodlawn branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, officially met the G. R. advisors of the Branch. Arriving from New York, where great programs have been launched to curb delinquent problems, Mrs. Allen has good workable plans for aiding the youth of the community. Her program is highlighted by a Youth Canteen, an Art Work shop, and a Youth Forum. In order for this program to go into smooth running condition, many more leaders are needed. A plea is being made for voluntary leadership, especially from women of university and college caliber.

TOWN CHATTER

With practically every member of the Younger set holding a ticket to the Les Charmantes benefit affair, Friday night has the promising of all the hilarity and color of past cabarets held at the Plantation Club. From 9 o'clock until 2 in the early bright, 700 or more guests will do a bit of tripping to the mellow rhythm of Erskin Hawkins orchestra. The affair is being given in preparation for the clubs annual recital, which will be staged several months in the offing.

Definitely a grand affair was the costume Ball the Manual Arts Tri-Y held at Alpha Bowling Club last Friday night. Every costume imaginable was in evidence. Adella Goode was quite outstanding in a sparkling white dance dress complete with ballet slippers. Virginia Gittins featured a Carmen Miranda get up, and the satin Dutch Boy drapes put Phyllis Williams in the lime light. However, the timely stepping of the chorus girls to the tune of "Dig Those Blues," gave the affair that added bit of verve that made it a bit outstanding. Chorines included: Dorothy Williams, Phyllis Irvine, Gloria Crouch, Sally Jone Irvine, Gloria Crouch, Sally Jones, Becky Brown, Jackie Hackett, and Anita Brown.

WELL! WELL! WELL!

Reggie Armstrong, public Speaker number one of the Bruin campus is no longer among the book snoopers. He departed last week to take up training with Uncle Sam's fighting men . . . Evelyn Williams is back in L.A. from Berkeley, No Cal. University for her this semester. Hear that her true love, Andrew Ross has been in the city on furlough . . . When the choo choo puffs out round the first of December, Mrs. Clifton Russel, (Sis Taylor) will be Tuskegee bound in order to spend the holidays with her better half . . .

Sorry to hear that Annie Moody is ill. How about a speedy recovery kiddo . . . Lt. Jackie Robinson has been released from Uncle Sams Arms, and is homeward bound. Guess the football ace will pick up where he left off . . . Howard rGant made it by with the Beckford Brothers of Oakland, before departing for the Northern part of the State . . . Hear that the handsomely made uniform of the Waves will soon be worn by Maethilde Kenner, Cookie Cook and Roberta Scott . . .

While jotting new family additions in last weeks chatter, missed out on the Gert and J.T. Gipson expectant, family increase. Wonder if the addition will be a Jr. . . . A word or two more from Sam Graveley still on the road to success as he completes his training in New York . . . Also a few interesting lines from George Sturdivant S/Sgt. who is now stationed in Holland . . . Hear that LeRoy Beavers is also sporting a Sgt. rating . . . Paul Weaver, once man about the Bruin Campus, is ppines . . . Sbt. Don Barksdale, serving his country in the Phillippines . . . Sbt. Don Barksdale, basketball star, and quite the ladies man, is back in town, stationed indefinitely at a near by post, where he is doing special service, coaching basketball and track . . . By the way, Billy Benfield is now working for the government in the Income Tax Department . . . Blues singing Erlton French is at present a member of the Sr. Board out at L. A. High School . . . Hear that his warbling surpasses that of Big Joe Turner . . .

Have you taken note of Jean Brown's new black hat. My my . . . Hariette Patterson is all ready to take that step. Gloria Drake Walton had an "all white" shower for her last Sunday . . .

Andy Ross, James O'Neal, Bobby Lambert, Ballenger Kemp, Gloria Ford, and Connie Watson were in last week's benefit crowd enjoying the bright lights at the Play House on first and Los Angeles . . . The tickets are out for the AKA scholarship fund . . . Dame Rumor has it that Lt. Bill Milton is homeward bound from his missions across, to put out one or two of the blazing trails of love that he left behind. By the way, Aida Evans, the deb with the engagement ring has headed back for Texas. Wonder just which of the three glamour debs will become the Mrs. Milton. Your guess is as good as mine . . .

TILL NEXT WEEK

Mrs. Bass put aside her work, and went.

A delicious fried chicken dinner, with all of the trimmings was served on a table decorated in a Halloween motif.

Following the luncheon, prayers and tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Bass were observed, and Mrs. Bass returned to her work with a feeling of deep and warm appreciation.

WILLIAM D. CAMPBELL
Candidate for Congress in 14th District
YOUR FRIEND

—HELEN PUSSYFOOTS—

After Hal Styles, Political Action Committee candidate for Congress in the 15th District, had admitted that he had been the Kleagle and Exalted Cyclops of Ku Klax Klans in New York for several years, Campbell asked Mrs. Helen Gahagan Douglas this question:

"Since you are known to have entertained Klansman Styles in your palatial home in Hollywood and to have sponsored his candidacy for Congress in your district during the primary, I would like to know if you are going to continue to help him since his admission of former Klan membership?

"This is a question of vital interest to voters in my district, since many of us DISTRUST KLANSMEN—EVEN FORMER KLANSMEN. We do not believe a man can subscribe to the secret Klan oath and be a good American. What do you say, Mrs. Douglas?"

MRS. DOUGLAS KEPT SILENT. WHY?

Oh, we know Hal Styles explains he joined the Klan to expose it. But he stayed in four or more years, didn't he---and didn't quit it until it began to go broke?

These Papers Fan Flames of KKK

The Negro people will not be fooled by either the Los Angeles Times or the Examiner as to why these journals are fanning the flames of the Ku Klux Klan.

After Hal Styles had won in the spring primary election, made the ticket, and looked like a sure shot for the final, the Los Angeles Examiner must have gone to considerable expense to dig up something that had occurred in his past life—some twenty years before.

The Examiner learned, through much research and investigation, that when Hal Styles was still but a youth had joined the Ku Klux Klan. This was in a northern city where racial distinctions were not so pronounced as in the South, and where the Klan at that time was considered by young idealists such as Hal Styles as a medium through which we could clean up a corrupt government.

Then not satisfied with smearing the friend of all minority groups, Hal Styles, our opponents through the Los Angeles Times in its edition of October 28 insinuates that candidate for vice-president, Harry Truman, may also have Ku Klux leanings. Although Mr. Truman has vigorously denied this charge, the Times in a sly innuendo suggests "voters of the country will decide for themselves whether this charge of Klan membership is of vital moment."

We hope and believe the voters of the country WILL decide that these underhanded attacks form the basis of a native Fascism and vote against every candidate who hopes to profit thereby.

Walter White, secretary of the National N.A.A.C.P., wired Senator Truman directly when he learned the charges lodged against him.

Here is Senator Truman's ringing reply: "I am glad to answer your telegram. First, with respect to the race for Congress in the Fifteenth California district. The labor groups in that district and all other groups interested in a fair treatment of labor and fair treatment of all minorities, racial and economic, declared against the incumbent Congressman charging that his record is reactionary and opposed to labor and to minorities. Those groups threw their support behind Styles who won the nomination.

"I do not believe that these labor and liberal and minority elements would have supported a member of the Klan. The information we have received is that he ostensibly joined the Klan, but only for the purposes of exposing the Klan as a reporter for a New York newspaper and that his articles in it were published in one of the newspapers at that time. I am reluctant to believe partisan charges coming from the Republican quarter that a Democratic nominee is a Klansman.

"In view of my own experience in these closing days of the campaign I have been falsely accused of Klan membership by irresponsible persons, who actively support the Republican ticket, although the record shows that the Klan fought me and I fought the Klan. The Klan is repugnant to every policy and principle I have advocated and struggled for all my life."

Secretary White also asked Senator Truman regarding his views of "states rights," and quoted Governor Sparks of Alabama as saying, "I find him (Truman) safe on states rights and the right of the state to control qualification of its electors in the matter of race relations."

Replying to this, Senator Truman wired: "Neither my views nor my words are accurately reported in the quotation in your telegram. I am happy to be judged not only by what I say to you in this telegram but also by my lifelong public record.

"Whether anyone calls an issue one of state or national rights you can turn to the Congressional Record and see exactly how I voted and what I have supported. You will find that I have fought for fair treatment of every minority, every labor group, every interest that has been underprivileged. Especially I believe that on issues affecting fair treatment for Negroes there is no legislation which has not had my support. I supported FEPC. I voted for cloture on the anti-lynching bill. I voted for cloture on the anti-poll tax bill. I voted for the Murray-Kilgore bill, the soldier vote bill, the NYA, and every bill to give a fair deal to minorities, racial and economic, on all subjects, whether economic or political."

Does anyone need any more to decide who are our real friends in this election?

To add to Hal Styles' recommendation, have you heard him declare that touched by the faith we Negroes have shown in him, he feels he is especially called to be a leader for Negroes if elected to Congress?

What a friend we would have! A man who has helped thousands on his radio programs! Elect him next Tuesday. Send HAL STYLES TO CONGRESS, and as he himself declared passionately, "I won't let you down."

Is It Possible to Make Heaven Look Like Hell?

The criticisms leveled against President Roosevelt who as commander-in-chief of the U. S. army and navy, asked that General Joseph W. Stilwell be relieved of his command in the Far East at the request of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, is another evidence of the trivial matters which his opponents will seize upon to divide the forces which are supporting him and that have faith in him.

The public does not yet know the details of this transaction. They have been censored too severely. In any case we know General Stilwell is leaving China in a friendly atmosphere. Chiang Kai-Shek offered to decorate him with the highest order of the Chinese government, and before leaving that country he had a formal tea with the Generalissimo.

President Roosevelt's decisions have always been crystal clear in regard to every aspect of this war, in respect to labor, to racial relations, etc. It was President Roosevelt who planned the invasion of Europe and insisted upon having a second front, although he was opposed in this by Winston Churchill. We have President Roosevelt to thank for the shortening of this war, which might have been dragged on interminably without his determined efforts to end this war soon.

So in the case of General Stilwell we may rest assured that the decision of the President was reached only after careful thought, and that it is the very best under the circumstances. The continual harping of his political opponents upon every trivial matter, and making mountains out of mole-hills, leads us to wonder, however, if perhaps they could have taken lessons from Adolf Hitler.

Hitler, you know, is considered a master of propaganda. If you have read "Mein Kampf," you will notice one of his maxims is to select one of two things only, and keep pounding on them until the people begin to believe what is said. "By the skillful and continued use of propaganda," says Adolf, "you can make Heaven seem almost like hell."

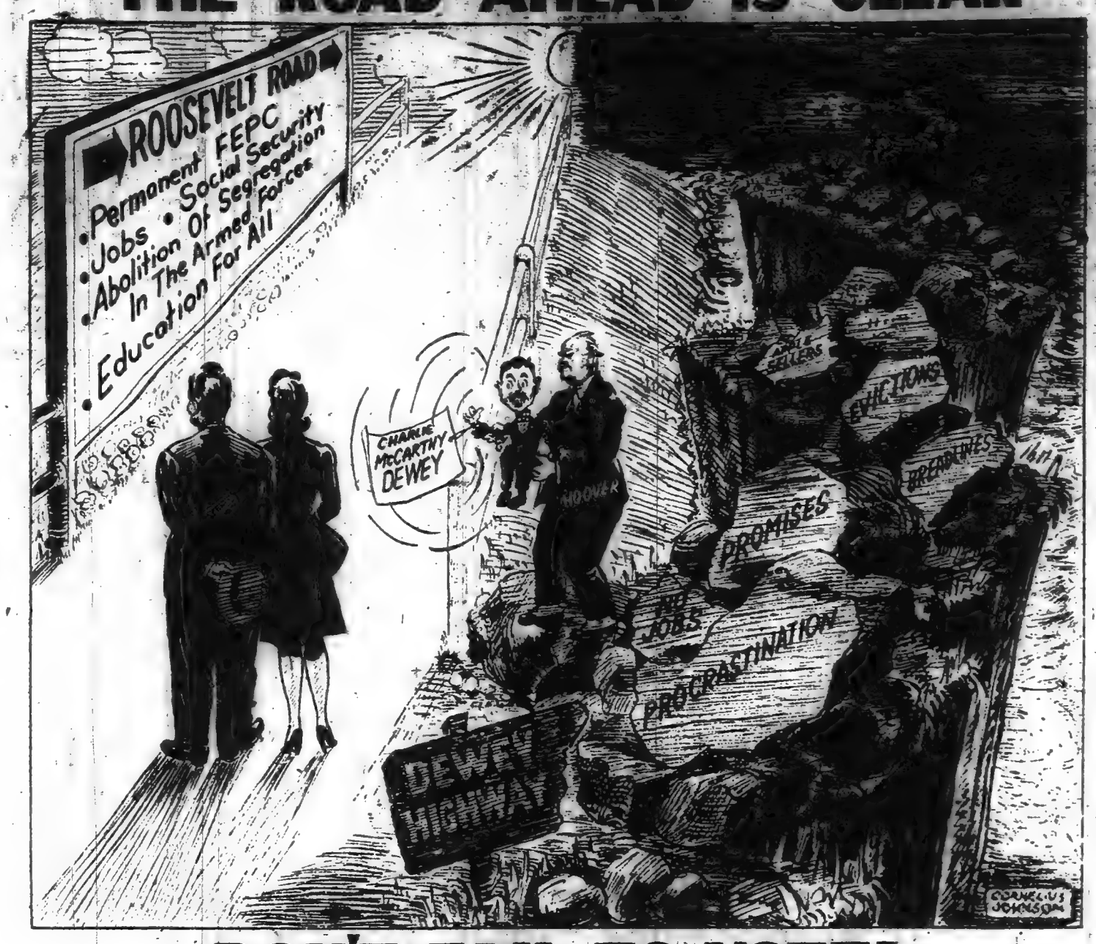
That other strategy of Hitler's—to tell a big lie rather than a small one because the people will be more liable to believe you—has already been exposed by the President himself. This other policy of hammering away at whatever will destroy the people's faith in their leader may well be also a lesson taken from Der Fuehrer's "Mein Kampf."

We Stand Fast on the People's Side

Editorially we are on the people's side.

Before we greet you again in these columns, the 1944 election will have come and passed. And the people of the United States will have decided not only who shall be their leader for the next four years, but also who shall make the laws of this nation.

We are not interested in gutter politics. In whatever way this election turns out, all of us will still be Americans. All of us will have to live together, and we hope it will be in peace.



Destiny gave us Franklin D. Roosevelt to organize our nation against Germany and Japan. We need God's man now more than ever to steer the ship of state through the fearfully troubled waters which may almost engulf us during the next four years.

The war has been a most important event in our national life, but the most important is the peace that must follow this war. Great Britain, Russia, China fought with us in time of war. If this union and friendship are to be permanent, we must establish the peace together.

In all of this President Roosevelt has been the outstanding leader, in experience, in statesmanship, in his grasp of world subjects. There is no one who can take his place.

Therefore go to the polls early on Tuesday and cast your ballot to place Franklin Delano Roosevelt, president of the United States, at the head of the peace table.

THE ROAD AHEAD IS CLEAR

DON'T FAIL TO VOTE!

CARL WINTER SPEAKS FOR C.P.A.

CARL WINTER, Commentator
Text of Radio Broadcast of October 24, 1944.

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. Last week was a week of many political rallies for Los Angeles. The Shrine Auditorium in our city was the scene of great meetings in which thousands of our citizens gathered to hear the issues of the current election campaign explained.

Senator Harry S. Truman, Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate, spoke there on Monday night; the Republican vice-Presidential candidate spoke on Wednesday night; Senator Chavez of New Mexico greeted a Mexican-American unity rally there on Thursday. And on Sunday evening, the Communist Political Association held a great meeting at the Shrine Auditorium where Robert Minor spoke to an enthusiastic audience of five thousand.

You have undoubtedly read accounts of the first three of these meetings, and have probably even read the texts of the main speeches which appeared in the press. But none of the local papers, which tell you what everyone also says about the Communists, have given you the opportunity of learning what the Communists themselves have to say on the issues of the war and America's future—the issues which are at the bottom of the whole election contest.

Because I believe that we ought to let the facts speak for themselves, and because you should have an opportunity of getting these facts at first hand, I have asked Mr. Minor to present at least a summary of his message to you, on this program. Mr. Minor, who is a National Vice-President of the Communist Political Association, was born in Texas of a family whose latest ancestors to arrive from Europe settled in this country over three hundred years ago. He is known internationally as a political analyst, journalist and champion of human rights.

I am happy to be able to present to you, the message of Robert Minor, which has not yet been reported to the people of this community, although it ranks with the most important speeches delivered at the Shrine or anywhere else in Los Angeles during this election campaign. Here is Mr. Minor's message.

"Fellow Americans: Many times, I have spoken to you as one of the leaders of the Communist Party. Today I speak to you as one of the 20,000,000 independent voters. For today there is no Communist Party in the United States.

We American Communists have come to the conclusion that at the present stage of our country's history it would be a mistake to ask the American people to divide along the lines of any one of the political parties, whether Communist or any other.

For this reason we have abolished the Communist Party.

We have formed a new organization—the Communist Political Association—which is not a party and does not engage in the customary partisan activities of a party. The new organization is for political education and for coordinating the efforts of Americans in support of the war, and in the post-war reconstruction.

We have adjusted our organizational form to the needs of our country in a profoundly changed world situation.

Three years ago, a would-be world conqueror, Hitler, together with his satelites, had nearly all the old world under his feet. The German Nazi plan was that all mankind must be split to its foundations by wars of extermination between nations, and that every nation must be split in civil wars between classes, precipitated for the purpose of aiding Hitler and the Japanese to conquer all the rest of the world.

But an enormous transformation came about. This world that was to be divided and conquered did not divide, but united to destroy the conqueror.

This unity is expressed in the Teheran treaty which our country has made with Russia and Great Britain.

Hitler believed that he could inflame the rivalries between the United States and England, and especially between the countries of capitalism and the country of socialism, so as to keep these nations apart until he could conquer them one by one.

If Hitler had been correct, then the history of this century would be mainly the history of Nazi slavery spread over most of the world. It would mean the downfall of the most powerful and wealthy capitalist states under the blows of the foreign conquerer and a form of slavery like that of ancient times.

Hitler thought that in the capitalist United States and England, the animosities between workers and employers would be so strong that it would be impossible for capital and labor to unite to defend democracy and national existence. He thought that great strikes would paralyze industry and prevent the equipment of our armies.

If Hitler had been right about this, then we could not have made successful war, and the United States, the British Commonwealth, China and all of Asia, and the Latin American republics, would have had to fall before the armies and navies of Nazi Germany and fuedal Japan.

In order to defeat Hitler's plan, it was necessary for the organized workers to come forward in no mistakable terms to join with all classes of people, including patriotic employers, and yes, including men at the heads of the greatest corporations and banks, who had always opposed labor, and to agree with them for the defense of our American homeland.

The labor movement has done this. Labor has given the country not merely pretty words about how much we love our country, but action in the factories, mines and workshops, railroads and ships at sea—and has raised our production to a higher point than any had even hoped for, and has kept on with uninterrupted production and delivery of war goods to our brothers and sons on the fighting front, in a way to win praise from our military commanders. The labor movement agreed with the nation, represented by the government, on a policy of no strikes, and is carrying out the agreements.

The labor movement has come forward almost as a single whole, into political action as a solid mass of thirteen and a half million trade union members together with millions of adult members of their families. The trade unions have come forward in non-partisan political action, not to divide the nation as class against class, but in response to the nation's need for unity of all men and women of all classes to defend our American homeland. The trade unions have become a powerful force in the unity of the nation, and have absolutely rejected all partisan politics, all class division in this time of danger.

We the Communists, felt that it was above all our duty to pronounce ourselves for national unity in support of the war, and to give the good sound reasons for it, and carry it through in action.

Some people thought that in doing this we abandoned Communist principles, which represent the highest ideals of mankind. On the contrary, when the contiued existence of a great democratic nation is in peril, it is exactly these principles which have led us to abandon the partisan form of organization and to call for the unity of all Americans of all classes regardless of party.

But it is not enough for labor and the Communists to be ready to give up partisanship.

As with labor, so also with capital. It was necessary for the most representative people of the capitalist class to be able to bridge over the gap of class hatred to form the national unity with labor. It was not at all certain that this could be done. Capitalists have not had a habit of loving trade unions. The leaders of the wealthy classes of France, for instance, surrendered their country largely because of their fear and prejudice against the labor movement of their country. The British upper classes, headed by Chamberlain, tried in the Munich treaty to give over the control of Europe to Hitler, out of fear and prejudice against labor at home and Socialist Russia abroad. The present Churchill government, on the contrary, expresses the will of Great Britain to defend itself. And in our country in the time of Harding, Coolidge and Hoover, it was the standard policy to oppose the organization of labor at home, and in foreign policy to refuse even to recognize Soviet Russia.

It is clear now that that policy would now be suicidal.

American and British capitalism are not committing suicide. The capitalist system of our country and of England are proving that they still possess enuogh of the old vitality of the times of Jefferson and Lincoln—the capacity to do what is necessary in order that these great states may survive.

There do exist some modern-minded leaders of the capitalist system—of "free enterprise"—who are capable of seeing that the labor movement is an essential part of the modern industrial life and cannot be destroyed. A very large part of the industrial leaders have conceded that is is necessary to find a way of living in the same country and in the same industries with powerful trade unions, and that in this crisis of life and death of our American way, national unity—mainly the unity of the decisive classes, labor and capital—is the price of the survival of the American Republic.

The presidency of Franklin D. Roosevelt came to represent the revived intelligence of the capitalist class that is ready also to do its part to preserve our country from death at the hands of the Hitler-Japanese savages.

An era of world peace and a vast expansion of the world market, with full employment and a rising standard of living, is being opened before the world for the first time in world history by the agreements signed by our country with Russia and England and China.

Victory in the war will be the

"FDR'S THE MAN"

I'y seen campaigns come and go
In peacetime and in stress,
But I've never seen such tactics used
As in this Dewey mess!
When FGDR took office
Our country was in plight
And to make our country better
He has given earnest fight.
Hoover had a bread-line
When FDR stepped in;
Dewey's a pal o' Hoover's
Do we want such a man again?
Dewey's for discrimination
Against the Negro race,
And the little man in business
Has no chance to keep apace.
FDR's a friend to Labor
And to the working man.
But the past had been for only
The moneyed and their clan . . .
Big Money's backing Dewey
So he offers, oh, just words
And in his play for high stakes
He'll play with moneyed "birds."
Take for instance "Post War Planning"
Does Dewey offer explanation?
No, because all he can think of
Is more FDR damnation!
Dewey's done a lot of boasting
In a skeptic sort of way
'Cause he wants to hide real issues
Until after election day.
Dewey prays that service men
Will forget his part in deception
That denies all men in uniform
Right to vote in an election.
In his years of past oration
Russia claimed no thought of his,
He ignored Lend-Lease completely.
Now he screams them both his "biz."

As I See It!

By Jeanette Cohen

For a long time now I have been under the impression that we in America, togther with the United Nations, are fighting a war against Fascism. I have also been under the illusion that in order to win this war against the Nazi-Tojo beasts who set out to enslave all humanity, we must be a United People. I am sure that you, too, have thought these very same things.

According to Hearst, we are wrong! In reading the Hearst press, one finds that it is not the most important thing to win the war. "The most important fight we have today is against the Communists!" What other idea could one get, when pages and pages of the Journal-American in New York—and its sister papers throughout the country—are devoted to damning the Communists and labelling every freedom-loving American who speaks out for Democracy.

These are the papers campaigning for Thomas E. Dewey, Governor of New York State and former District Attorney whose greatest accomplishment has been the jailing of a few gangsters. Today this little pip-squeak defiles the American voting ballot as a candidate for the office of President of these United States.

Never, as long as I can remember, has there been a candidate who resorted to the filthy politics of Tom Dewey. While the radio wires burn with news of the victories of the American Navy in the Pacific—the drive forward in Europe—smashing the Nazis in a vise that will spell their doom—the Hearstian-Dewey clique cry "We need a change." I would hate to think of where our Army and Navy would be if Dewey had been our Commander-in-Chief.

Today I was handed a leaflet asking me to "double the vote for Dewey" on the basis of the following points: "WOMEN! Are you tired of kicking in to Communist PAC? — Of continuous changes and unannounced cancellations of ration points?—Of a confusion of conflicting Government Agencies, which you are paying for? That's why it's time for a Change."

Are they kidding? If it is on this basis that "we need a change," let me answer those questions for Dewey. I am a member of the CIO and gave my dollar willingly, along with my full blessings to the Political Action Committee (PAC) to further its work to elect Franklin D. Roosevelt.

When I think of the millions of starved people in the Nazi dominated countries, I thank God that we have a man like Roosevelt who provided for the equal distribution of food to all Americans through the ration system.

As for the "conflicting Government Agencies," I can only say that if Thomas E. Dewey is elected, there will be no FEPC to fight against discrimination — there will be no OPA to regulate prices for your pocket and mine (Dewey, of course, has enough money to pay any price for anything — but with rationing the poor guy has to shell out those ration points if he wants a pound of butter)—there will be none of these agencies that were set up by the Roosevelt Administration to fight the war on the Home Front.

When I was in the South this past summer I was told by many Southerners, in no uncertain terms, that "they are not just voting FOR somebody in this election, they are voting AGAINST somebody." They are voting AGAINST Roosevelt because "he has done so much for the Colored Folk"—and they are voting FOR Dewey because they feel that with him in, they will be able to "get even with the Negroes."

Don't be confused by any Red-scare—remember that this is NO TIME FOR A CHANGE—we need Roosevelt for full Democracy for the Negro, the Jew and every other minority. WE NEED ROOSEVELT TO WIN THE WAR FOR ALL PEOPLES!

GO TO THE POLLS ON NOVEMBER 7th — KEEP ROOSEVELT IN THE WHITE HOUSE!

The Pulpit Voice

The PULPIT VOICE, the widely read and highly appreciated column by the Rev. Hamilton Boswell which appears on this page as a regular feature will not be submitted for the next two weeks, due to the pre-occupation of the Rev. Mr. Boswell who is preparing a matriculate at the University of California. At the expiration of that time, Rev. Boswell will resume his column in its usual position on this page.

Shall we progress with FDR
And vote Tom Dewey out?
Seems FDR's the best bet
For he knows what it's all about.
So when you go to poll your vote
Vote NO to Dewey's clan
Of Hearst and Hoover and their kind,
FOR IT'S CLEAR FDR'S THE MAN!

One Year Of Service For The Avalon USO

Sally Martin Group Sings at The Philharomnic This Sunday

The next Sunday afternoon Nov. 5, will be an important episode both in the home front war effort, and the season's entertainment fare is recognized by the many citizens of both races who plan hearing the famous Sallie Martin Singers at the Philharmonic Auditorium. According to Miss Lillian Doty, director of the Non-Nobis Goodwill workers, sponsors of the concert, the proceeds go toward the establishment of a sorely needed Foster Home for Children.

Such an institution will aid greatly in solving one of the communities most serious problems: that of child care to relieve the anxiety of parents employed at the war plants, and to make possible the acceptance of such employment by others. From an entertainment standpoint, no finer feast of melody has ever been offered California music lovers by these gifted artists whose fame has preceded them during their present national hour.

As an added treat, California's own noted mezzo-soprano, Everet Brewer Hudson will appear as guest soloist. She will render some of the finest numbers in her large repetoire which has earned her great popularity since her debut three years ago under the tutelage of her celebrated Italian teacher, Madam Adelena Formosa. The Sallie Martin Singers include, besides herself: Cora Brewer, Dorothy Simmons, Julia Smith, and Eleanor Thomas Moore.

Tickets will be on sale at the Philharmonic box-office.

State PTA For No. 9

Passage of the "Better Schools Act," Proposition 9 on the November 7 ballot, was predicted today by Mrs. John J. Garland, state president of the P.-T.A. who declared that "never before had any measure won the approval being accorded the move to solve the teacher shortage, provide equal educational opportunities, and to adjust the disproportionate burden of school costs now being borne by the local school district taxpayers.

Mortgage Burning At Calvary

Services at Calvary Baptist Church, 1031 E. 52nd Place were unusually good Sunday. A helpful and powerful sermon was delivered by Rev. Hayden. At the evening service the $1100.00 liquidated mortgage was burned, an interesting ceremony was enacted which beautifully brought out the great difficulties under which the church has labored and showed the leading of the hand of God. The grateful members and friends laid about $525.00 on the table as an expression of their thanks to God for the work that had been accomplished.

Come to Calvary Sunday, November 5th, and be lifted heavenward by a great choir and a great sermon by pastor Leath.

Wands Meet

The Betty Hill Chapter of the Wands held a meeting in the home of Cadet Della Sharp, with Captain Waites in charge. The various committees with many useful plans made plans for a Thanksgiving dinner for thirty servicemen and women.

Golden State Social Club

The Golden State Social Club wishes to thank all the clubs and the associattes who worked with them to make their popularity contest a grand success. Mrs. Erma Bailey was crowned as Miss Golden State. Mrs. Elizabeth Harris won the guest box of a lovely bedside water bottle. Club prizes were won by Bernice Warren, Celestine Scoby, and Louise Westbrooks. The guests of the evening were: Mrs. Estelle Taylor, Mrs. Gladys Dunlop, and Mrs. Lola Irwin.

The club met at the home of Mrs. Blanche Jones.

Olympia Council

The regular Olympia Council P.T.A. board meeting will be held Monday, Nov. 6, at 10:30 a.m. at Mann Jr. High School, 7001 So. St. Andrews Place. The presidents will meet for a conference with Mrs. C. E. Langfield, Olympia Council President, at 9:30 a.m. preceding the executive board meeting. Will all the local publicity chairmen please meet at 9:30 a.m. with Mrs. Harry Wilson, Council publicity chairman, at the same address?

The brilliant event was further distinguished by a revival of the fine art of conversation, which was based on current topics.

The first anniversary celebration of the Avalon USO, which was a tribute to the tireless and unselfish service of Director Ben Ellison, was observed last Sunday afternoon before one of the largest gatherings of servicemen ever assembled at the center.

Clarence Muse, outstanding stage, screen and radio star, and Noble Sissle and his band headed a program that was studded through with shining stars of the stage and screen. Otis Rene and Bud Scott performed brilliantly at the piano, and the Hottentots, a sensational dance combination, brought down thunderous applause with their unique style.

The Ontario Army Band, 80th Batallion appeared, in concert, the first time this renowned band has played in this area. They played a full repertoire of popular and classic music, which was warmly received.

Ever Brewer Hudson sang several selections and was called again and again for encores. A complete bill featuring dancers and other entertainment rounded out the program. Mrs. Bertha Dyer Woolford, who portrayed the mother in the film "The Negro Soldier," was enthusiastically received.

Charlotta A. Bass, editor-publisher of the California Eagle, was among the prominent guests of Director Ellison, who worked hard to make the celebration a success. Norman Houston introduced the Board of Directors of the Center.

Representatives of the Ben Bowie and the Hollywood Posts of the American Legion, as well as representatives of the Red Cross and the Veterans of Foreign Wars were present.

One of the most successful Centers in the county, the Avalon USO has grown in usefulness and purpose as the result of the ability and devotion of Director Ben Ellison. What he has accomplished in one year is a credit to the community.

Town and Gown Club Meeting

Miss Marie Stewart was the charming hostess to the Town and Gown Club Sunday, Oct. 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at her lovely apartment in North Hollywood. Business of importance was briefly discussed. At the close of the meeting birthday gifts were presented to Mrs. Lila Bly, popular member of the club. A delicious dinner was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Marion Banks. Send all communications to 3522 Maple Ave., Vereachl Lockhart, president, Mattie Tarvin, reporter.

In short, ladies and gentlemen, the denying of a license to one of the smartest and well-managed clubs on Our Side of Town is nothing but a shakedown. Let's investigate that, Captain Walters? . . . The Club Alabam really hit the jackpot with the current attraction, Ansel Hill and his all-white orchestra. Going into their third swingsational week, the band has proven a solid click with the nitelifers. And proof of their popularity is the fact that they're playing to capacity crowds nitely. It's been a long time since any band has hit the angel city with so much on the ball as the Ansel Hill group of swingsters. Definitely a swing organization, they dish out torrid tempos in a smooth manner that has all the hepsters in the audience stamping, whistling and shouting in approval.

ALL THIS, AND A GOOD SHOW, TOO!

Of course, Hill and his band isn't the only magnet that's drawing the guys and gals to the cozy avenue nitery. The current show is rated as "one of the best in town"! The quotes being from the pen of columnist J. T. Gipson. Marian Abernathy, introduced on the floor by the emcee as the "Sweetheart ofthe Club Alabam," really lives up to her billing all the way. The crowd loves her, and once she's on the floor she has a terrific time begging off. They love her low, sultry-styled chirping. The other 60 minutes of the entertainment hours are filled in by Rose Pearl and Yo-Yo. "Harlem's answer to Veloz and Yolanda," the Archie Savage dancers; Bobby Davis, and Cecil Gant, the piano-singing G-I who gets the credit (or blame; take your pick) for writing the Harlem hit tune, "I Wonder."

A shapely brownskin whose name this reviewer failed to catch, handles the intermission chores with snappy songs at the baby grand to the satisfaction of the cash customers on hand.

In case you're a stay-at-homer, the Ansel Hill band broadcasts nitely except Tuesdays over radio station KPAS, 12:45 to 1 a.m.

Rochester On KFI Saturday

Eddie (Rochester) Anderson, star of the Jack Benny show, and a ranking screen performer, will be featured on the Los Angeles Police Department't "Traffic Tribunal" radio show from 5:00 to 5:15 p.m. this Saturday afternoon.

The show will be broadcast over station KFI and is part of a continuing educational program being carried on by the Police Department.

Hollywood Stars In Person at Shepp's Playhouse November 28

By JT GIPSON, Theatrical Editor

Some of the brightest stars of stage, screen and radio will be on hand Tuesday evening, November 28th, to donate their talents in a mammoth benefit show sponsored by the Women's Ambulance and Defense Corps of America. The day before yesterday, two very lovely and charming young officers of the WADCA'S came into my office and asked my support and cooperation in press-agenting this affair. Because I thought it was a grand gesture, and not because they turned their charm on me, I agreed wholeheartedly to support their dance.

STARS OF STAGE, SCREEN AND RADIO

When I could take my eyes off the shapely hose the Officer's were wearing long enough to listen to their conversations, I learned that their organization, California's only all-Negro unit organized January 28th, 1941, at McKinley Junior High School, had contacted many stars of stage, screen and radio who had promised to be on hand for the evening of November 28th.

For the benefit of those two jerks in the second row who haven't been paying attention, we'll tell you a little about the Women's Ambulance and Defense Corps of America. It is a non-political, and non-profit voluntary organization that trains and educates women for wartime activities on the home front. These women were trained to handle casaulties that would come about during blackout periods etc. They were also trained in first aid.

NEGRO GIRLS NEEDED

"About two months ago," one of the cute Lieutenants whispered to me in a voice as soft as the underside of a butterfly's wing, "we visited the Birmingham Hospital in Van Nuys, California. There were four of us girls on hand to try to cheer and entertain more than one hundred and twenty-five Negro soldiers hospitalized there. How great it would be if there were more of our girls on hand to make the trips to the various hospitals and army camps with us."

I agreed with the Lieutenant. I also agreed that the show at Shepp's Playhouse, on the evening of Novmeber 28th, will go down in angel city nite life circles as one of the greatest yet.

The entire proceeds will go toward purchasing a station wagon to transport members to and from the various hospitals and army camps.

TO PLAY ORPHEUM—In person on the Orpheum Theatre stage, starting Tuesday, November 7th, will be Lionel Hampton, the world's greatest vibraharpist and drum star, pictured above. Hampton will be backed by his orchestra and another great stage show of variety acts.

Creon Thomas Combo is Angel City's New Swing Sensation

Most discussed musical combo in angel city nitelife circles here is a crew of stellar-swingsters appearing nightly at the Last Word cocktail lounge known as the Creon Thomas Gems of Jive. Hailing from San Diego, where they created somewhat of a musical swingsation there with their rhythm-rocking arrangements, the Thomas lads popped in port and upset the avenue with their sweet swing style of playing.

Paced by Altoist Don Hill, a fugitive from the Tiny Bradshaw saxophone section, the boys dish out the brand of rhythm that is heard only in the hottest halls of Harlem. Charge de affaires of the vocal department, is a tall, shapely brownskin gal named Josephine Smith. Don't know who gets the credit for "discovering" her, but she certainly is one of the best "finds" of the year. She sings in an easy-going seductive-styled manner that has all the guys reaching into their wallet for swooning salts. She's definitely got something on the ball.

Creon Thomas' piano stylings also come in for a nice swing beat when the boys begin to beat out their own particular brand of swing. And that brand is the kind we should have more of. The Creon Thomas combo brought a new kind of rhythm to the angel city.

And it's beginning to catch on.

Ever Brewer Hudson Fast Gaining Favor As Singer

Fast finding favor with lovers of good music is the golden-voiced Ever Brewer Hudson, who in several recent appearances has won unstinted praise from music critics.

On a recent program staged at Patriotic Hall on October 15, the mezzo-soprano was well applauded for her rendition of "Vissi D'Arte Vissi" by Puccini, and was forced to sing two numbers as encores. On October 22 Mrs. Hudson appeared at First Congregational Church, at Sixth and Hoover street, of which Rev. James W. Fifield, Jr., is pastor. An appreciative audience of approximately 2,000 persons heard her sing on the Sunday Evening Forum there and hearty applause greeted her every offering.

At 8 p. m. last Sunday, October 29, Mrs. Hudson appeared at the First Baptist Church in Whittier before another enthusiastic audience. Both the First Congregational Church and First Baptist Church of Whittier have asked her to sing return engagements.

Last Sunday Mrs. Hudson also sang at the Avalon USO, receiving a tremendous hand of applause from the assembled audience. She sang "My Hero" from the "Chocolate Soldier" by Strauss.

On November 5 at Philharmonic Mrs. Hudson will be heard on a big program which is expected to attract a packed house. Accompanist for the popular soprano is the gifted Miss Juanita Perry. The talented Ever Brewer Hudson modestly asserts that her success is mainly due to her teacher in voice, Mme. Adelina Dossena Formoso.

DEEP RIVER BOYS—Versatility is the keynote of the sensational group in the picture above. They're known as the Deep River Boys, and they'll make their first appearance to the coast when they pop in port with the Lucky Millinder band for a week's engagement at the Downtown Orpheum theatre.

Belasco Theatre To Fete "Desert Battalion" Thurs.

The several hundred girls comprising the "Desert Battalion" who will be guests of Mrs. Edward G. Robinson at the Belasco Thursday night, November 2, to relax from their strenuous work by seeing "Maid in the Ozarks," are among the hardest workers entertaining men of the Armed Forces, the wife of the famed motion picture star asserts. Mrs. Robinson is director and says the girls visit not only hospitals to entertain the men but go to far away Army camps to dance with men in the Armed Forces. They received the title "Desert Battalion" because of their many visits to entertain the service boys in desert camps.

Fowler Speaks At Hollywood Bowl

Twenty thousand persons wended their way to the Hollywood Bowl last Sunday afternoon to hear the proponents of Proposition No. 11 tell why a Yes vote should be given by the electorate.

Among the speakers was John W. Fowler, director of public relations for the L. A. Tribune.

Mr. Fowler followed Dr. Frances E. Townsend, the author of the measure, and Senator Brewster of Maine.

He was greeted with a spontaneous ovation when he arose to speak, and sat down amid a thunder of applause.

ROY ELDRIDGE TO TOOT TRUMPET IN ARTIE SHAW'S NEW ORCH

In a deal that will make him the highest paid "sideman" in an organized dance orchestra, Roy Eldridge, whose last trumpet tooting job was with the Gene Krupa band, has been signed to swing out on the feature solos with Artie Shaw's new band.

Looking like Mr. Broadway himself, the dapper Roy arrived in town Saturday last to begin rehearsals with the newly organized 17-piece band. Up to press time, Shaw hadn't decided as to his exact personnel. But one thing is certain, when the Artie Shaw band plays the first note on their first date, you'll see Roy Eldridge, one of the hottest of the present day crop of horn-tooters, sitting in the trumpet section. He has a contract signed, sealed and tucked away neatly in his inside coat pocket.

"I'm afraid to tell you the salary Shaw offered me," said Roy to your nosey little newsboy over a scotchandsoda the other day at the Downbeat, "because you'd probably think I was exaggerating."

He told me the salary Artie Shaw offered him, and as he suspected, I think he's exaggerating.

So before telling you, I'll wait until I see his first check.

See, that's why all our writings are marked with such accuracy. We just don't believe anybody.

We gotta see for ourself!

Last rites were held at Levy and Delaney Funeral Home, 2250 Seventh Avenue. Services were conducted by Father Shelton Hale, bishop of St. Phillip's Episcopal Church.

"Irish Eyes Are Smiling" Now at United Artists

Twentieth Century-Fox has applied its sure-fire musical formula once more with a huge success. In "Irish Eyes Are Smiling," now playing at the United Artist Theatre, 933 South Broadway, downtown Los Angeles, it has contrived a show that bulges with popular entertainment. None of the company's musicals has stirred a stronger sense of nostalgia than the current exhibit. It is in color. Dick Haymes and June Haver are starred and Monte Wooley is in the supporting cast.

It's the musical that will 'shamrock' the nation—"Irish Eyes Are Smiling" plus "Dangerous Journey"—don't miss them now at the United Artists Theatre, downtown Los Angeles.

Sammy Montgomery Clicks As Single

Sammy Montgomery, one of the better hoofers, left the Tip Tap and Toe team of tapsters to branch out on his own as a "single." After playing a record-breaking run of ten weeks at New York's famed Paramount Theatre with the Charlie Spivak band, the dapper Mister Montgomery bid adeu to his partners to try his luck alone. And so far, he's holding the ace cards.

His first job as a single, the Brown Streak of Rhythm, will open at a Las Vegas hotel for a two-week engagement starting Friday next. When Hollywood agents heard that the dancesational Sammy had branched out on his own, they all ran over each other for an intro.

On returning to town, he's set for a date at the Orpheum theatre here. Don't bet against him being a click.

You knew it when you saw his face!
He feared no man of any race
Or size or creed or wealth or learning.
A man, polite, kind, firm, discerning.
You loved to look at him. You saw
A foe of crime, a friend of law.
A mouth that spoke against oppression,
(That surest sign of retrogression in race or nation, creed or clan)
Who mistreats men because he can is not a man!
A face full, large, calm, poised, benign,
Etched with a something, true and fine.
He was a man! You loved him too.
I must repeat it, so will you.
He served his nation and his race,
He made the earth a better place,
Generous in build was he—but, lo!
His heart and soul were not less so.
And so we bow and take the cross
And look to heaven and mourn our loss.
He was a man! Bass was a man!

Men's Day At Bowen Methodist

This Sunday, November 5, at 11 a.m., the men of the Bowen Memorial Methodist Church, East 36th and Trinity streets, will observe Men's Day. Because this is the first observance in the short history of the church, an unusual worship service has been planned, bringing together some of the best talent in this area.

Scheduled to preach a stirring evangelistic message is the Reverend Harold Lindsay, pastor of the Watts Seventh Day Adventist Church. Elder Lindsay is a preacher of much ability, his preparation having equipped him for outstanding service in the Christian ministry. All who would witness the flame of truth bridging the gap between heaven and earth are warned not to fail to hear this dynamic young messenger of God. Rendering the choral selections will be the outstanding Soldiers Chorus from Minter Fields, Bakersfield, Calif. This group has won national acclaim for their brilliant successes in radio and concerts. Mr. George E. Bryant, local citizen and insurance agent, a baritone soloist, will be the guest soloist, accompanied by William Stevens. These and other personalities will comprise the gala observance of Men's Day at Bowen.

At 7 p.m. that evening, a special communion service will be held in the Bowen auditorium and all members, friends and special guests are invited to participate. The service will be very brief but worshipful and reverent.

At 8 p.m., after the communion service, the Men of the Church are featuring sound motion pictures. They are screening a first class religious film entitled "Who Is Thy Neighbor," along with this will be an animated cartoon and a late newsreel. All of you who have previously enjoyed the Bowen Sound Motion Picture presentations of current and religious events know of the caliber of these affairs. Chairman H. C. Graves, and the Bowen Men, have worked hard indeed to make this the greater of the two special days. They are sure that Bowen Church will be the one church where men will reign supreme. Women's Day is November 12. All are extended a warm invitation to be present at this service and to enjoy the all therein for personal edification and for the kingdom of God.

St. Paul Baptist Church Holds Inspiring Services

Sunday, October 29, was another great day at St. Paul's Baptist Church. At the morning services the associate pastor, Rev. John L. Branham, was the speaker. At the close of the inspiring message there were 19 accessions, including two for baptism.

The evening service was under the auspices of the Women's department of the Missionary Movement. Mrs. Pearl Smart, president of the Mission Movement, made her annual report, and brought echoes from the National Baptist Convention, held in Dallas, Texas, which she attended.

Pastor Williams, who was out of the city during the morning, was in the services in the evening and announced the preaching program for next Sunday, Nov. 5, as follows: Rev. H. B. Charles, who is to head the St. Paul "Social Service Bureau," will be the speaker at the 11 a. m. service, and that Pastor S. A. William will be speaking at the evening service in his last sermon prior to his departure on his "build-up" vacation which, according to the vote of the church, will be of an indefinite duration.

If you have no church home in Los Angeles, we are cordially inviting you to come with us and we will do the good. S. A. Williams, pastor; S. E. Buxton, reporter.

The Poor Man's Friend

by Christy Walsh

Director, Sports Activities—Dewey-Bricker Committee

CHRISTY WALSH

The field of Sport, more than any other factor in American life—the symbol of opportunity, fame and fortune. It provides endless inspiration and reward to the rookie—the man at the bottom.

Nowhere in all the lands of the earth, could a kid go from an orphan asylum to a salary of $80,000 per year, as an athlete. Babe Ruth did! Joe Louis, great credit to his race, climbed from poverty to wealth; Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney became reputed millionaires. All of them—and hundreds more—rising from obscurity and humble homes, to heights of success and security.

Does anyone think such opportunities exist in the world of totalitarian sport? Did you ever see one of those newsreels showing thousands of Russians or Germans, hopping and jumping in a carnival of mass-athletics? If and when a Schmeling does rise above his herded competitors, he immediately sails to America—to make his fortune.

That is the uncompromising difference between the happy-go-lucky kid on the American sandlot and the regimented youngster over there. Our youth is taught to THINK and DO THINGS for himself—AND BE REWARDED ACCORDINGLY! Whether he's in the pitcher's box, the boxing ring or once loose, from a football scrimmage—he is ON HIS OWN. And loves it! And when a Yank is in a fox-hole or a fighting plane—he is STRICTLY ON HIS OWN! That's why we are winning.

'OUR KENNY'

Tom Dewey and John Bricker started as poor boys. Alfred E. Smith, truck-driver's son, rose to affectionate fame. Henry Ford, Walter P. Chrysler, Chas. M. Schwab and hundreds more, came from poverty to wealth—through initiative, ambition and HARD WORK. The New Deal is depriving American youth of such expectancies.

The truck-driver must remain a truck-driver, always. The store clerk must never own his own little store. Pull everybody down to a common level. Regiment the population. Control people's lives and you control their votes. Tell the kid on the sandlot, there's no use trying to improve as a pitcher or a batter, because baseball players should not earn such big salaries.

In spite of this horrible effort to remove the rewards and opportunities that American kids have always aimed at—some people remark: "The New Deal is the poor man's friend." What a ghastly fallacy. There'll be no more Lou Gehrigs or Knute Rocknes, Al Smiths or Wendell Willkies rising from city streets to fame and fortune, if the stifling trend toward national-socialism isn't stamped out.

Sport in America is an everlasting reminder that PERSONAL effort and PERSONAL achievement, bring INCREASED WAGES and INDEPENDENCE to every industrious citizen, because Sport refutes regimentation and constantly proves that individual achievement pays dividends of happiness.

AMERICAN SPORT IS THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND.

Watson Jones Wins California Light-Heavy Title

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

DID YA KNOW?—Henry Armstrong left for Portland, Ore., Tuesday morning, where he fights Mike Belloise Saturday nite. Incidentally, Lanetta, Hank's little daughter, is ill at home on 55th street, and he hated leaving. He's very devoted to the kid. . . . In a couple of practice basketball games Monday, Washington High defeated Dorsey, 28-12, and Manual Arts topped L.A. High, 32-27. . . . At Ocean Park Arena Monday night, Tito Despaigne, 147, scored an eighth-round technical knockout over Chief Crazy Horse, 143. In the semi-final, little Art Aragon, 129, bowed to Bert White, 126, for his first defeat as a pro.

AN AMAZING REVELATION — This business of Luther "Slugger" White being said to have a glass eye by a San Francisco physician, who examined him before a scheduled fight with Willie Joyce, is amazing to say the least. The Slugger has been fighting around these parts for some time and passed numerous exams by the local athletic commission. Having attended various weigh-ins, I have noticed that the eyes of a fighter are, as a set rule, examined. How then did White get by around here with one eye over a couple of years? You tell me. How, if his eyes were examined, could a physician fail to notice that he was sporting a glass eye? You can answer that one, too. We merely raise these questions in the behalf of White. The fact that he has been fighting under such a handicap is a serious matter. He could have easily lost the sight of his other eye. Any way you take it the fact remains that it was a bad deal. This writer sincerely hopes that the local commission will in the future conduct more rigid examinations of fighters in Los Angeles. The fact that White is now barred from fighting in California is a good thing and again we are glad that his affliction was discovered before any further harm came to him. It is rather strange also that White was also licensed in New York, Maryland and Pennsylvania. That glass eye must be a marvel of perfection. Naturally the State Athletic Commission Monday issued a statement saying that there would be an immediate investigation. The Commission also stated that it had no previous knowledge of the Slugger's condition. However, this seems strange inasmuch as White had been examined numerous times for local bouts. We shall watch this investigation with extreme interest.

White Barred From Fighting Again in California Rings

SAN FRANCISCO—A bout scheduled for 10 rounds between Luther (Slugger) White of Baltimore, Md., and Willie Joyce of Gary, Ind., was canceled last Saturday after a medical examination allegedly disclosed that White has a glass eye. Monday the State Athletic Commission said that White would be barred from fighting in California and announced that the matter would be investigated.

Dr. A. E. Egerton, physician asked to make an examination of White by the State Athletic Commission, reported as follows:

"The patient has an artificial right eye. I would not advise that he be allowed to box because a blow over the left eye would be apt to cause a complete retinal detachment of the left eye and result in blindness."

Benny Ford, Disabled American Veterans Boxing Club promoter, said he had signed the match "in good faith" but would "rather take it on the chin" than that White was allowed to slate another.

"The strong part of this whole affair," Ford added, "is that White was allowed to box at least 10 times in Southern California. Either those pre-fight examinations were superficial and inadequate or the results were pigeonholed. The results of White's examination here indicate that the commission in Los Angeles owes the public an explanation."

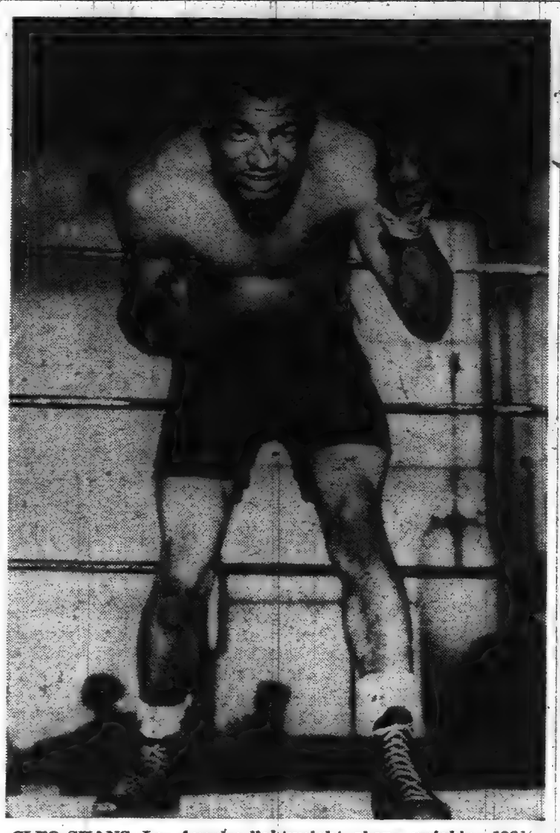
Scores Technical Kayo Over Tough Fitzy Fitzpatrick in First Stanza

Looking like a carbon copy of Joe Louis as he blasted his way through the heavyweight ranks in his climb to fame, Watson Jones, classy local light-heavy, won the title in that division Tuesday night at the Olympic Auditorium by pounding out a one-round technical knockout over Fitzy Fitzpatrick, West Virginia kayo artist, before a crowd both thrilled and stunned. The bout was scheduled for 15-rounds and Fitzpatrich had been installed a 2½ to 2 favorite which found the gambling fraternity taking a terrific beating.

Scaling 174 to 172 for Fitzpatrick, the local boy after a brief period of close infighting stepped backed as Fitzy uncovered his chin and let lose with three lightning lefts to his opponent's jaw. Fitzpatrick hit the canvas and took a count of eight. When he arose wobbly on his pins Jones threw a terrific punch to the chewer which slapped Fitzy on his back again. At this point Referee Mushy Callahan rushed over and raised Watson's hand in token of victory. The end came after 2m. 45s. of the first heat had elapsed. A belt emblatic of the championship was presented to Jones by Comedian Lou Costello after the battle.



Friends of Jones crowded into the ring after the bout terminated and hugged and patted the new light-heavyweight champion of the State of California in hysterical joy. Red Nibert formerly held the title but had failed to defend it within the required six months.

Plenty credit can be given to Benny Conyers, trainer of Jones, who sent his boy into the ring in splendid physical condition. A hard right cross by Fitzpatrick during the short battle was brushed off without any apparent effect by Watson.

In the six-round semi-final, Sonny Hill, 137, mounted a bicycle and back-pedaled madly around the ring during the entire bout in which he threw about four effective punches, allowing Arturo Baron, 138, to garner an easy decision.

In the top four, Al Williams, 160, nodded Jackie Cooper, 156, after a torrid battle. In two other fours, Allen Arnette, 169, decisioned Frankie Valdez, 166, and Pee Wee Swingler, 122, defeated Stanley Jamison, 125.

All-star six-round bouts will be staged at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday night, featuring stars of tomorrow. Included will be bouts between Arturo Baron, Julie Francom, Bill Reed, Bobby Jackson, Petie Wheatstraw and others. Election results will be given every 10 minutes during the progress of the show.

By Geo. A. Ramsey

A small crowd witnessed the closing of the fall season. The feature event was the Optimists' Handicap at one mile. The winner of this event was Steveston Bill. He ran the mile in 1:38 1-5, paying in the mutuels $26.40. Longshots scored four of them that hit the payoff line first paid over 12-to-1. The favorites and second choices scored in six events. The daily-double paid $98.60 while the quiniela was $17. This Sunday marks the opening of the winter season. The big feature event on the winter meeting is the $10,000 Added Caliente Handicap. Last year the event was won by Vain Grove. With Hollywood Park opening Wednesday, followed by Santa Anita, this big Caliente event will draw some of the best horses now racing. Although the crowd was small, Ringmaster E. L. Caress took quite a lacing as all the books pulled up loser. This Sunday Judge Joe Walter has arranged another fine card of 12 races. Sunday there will be the addition of many new jockeys, also some of the horses will be brought from Hollywood Park to take part in the better grade races Sunday. Generalissimo Eddie Nealis said that he hopes to have some of the best horses at Caliente available for the winter meet. All in all, it looks like Caliente is in for a bigger and better winter race meet than they have had in years. Well, folks, that's news from south of the border down Mexico way until next Sunday. Keep smiling and don't cash in your war bonds. Keep them and you will never be broke. . . . So-long, George.

LONDON.—A Canadian army Negro boxer, Danny Webb, scored the biggest upset of wartime boxing in England last Thursday night when he forced Jackie Paterson of Glasgow, world flyweight champion, to quit in the third round of a scheduled eight-round non-title bout.

Paterson threw in the sponge in the third after consulting with his seconds over a thumb injury sustained in the first round, but ringsiders agreed Webb had a big lead and earned a crack at the British Empire championship.

The Canadian weighed 126 to 123½ for the champion.

Ray (Sugar) Robinson Rings Up TKO in 9th Over Sgt. Lou Woods

CHICAGO—Bouncing back into the limelight, Ray (Sugar) Robinson, outstanding challenger for the world's welterweight title, scored a technical kayo over Sgt. Lou Woods of Detroit in the ninth round of a scheduled 10-rounder in the Chicago Stadium last Friday night before 10,622 fans who contributed $41,246 in receipts. The battle opened the indoor boxing season in Chicago.

The bout was hopelessly one-sided, with Robinson completely master. Woods, stationed at nearby Ft. Sheridan, was so busy defending himself from Robinson's two-fisted attack he had no opportunity to open up.

Robinson scaled 147½ pounds to 153½ for Woods.

Robinson, winning every round, was unable to floor the rugged Woods, but he forced him to take brutal punishment. He whaled away with left hooks and right crosses, making Woods retreat or hang on at close quarters.

In the fifth both suffered cuts over their left eyes and Robinson set out to end the fight. In the eighth he made Woods' knees buckle with a right to the chin and had him wobbly and unable to fight back soon after the start of the ninth at which time Referee Tommy Thomas called a halt.

Black Barons Beat and Tie Naval Team

The Birmingham Black Barons won 6-1 over the Naval Dry Dock team last Sunday in the first game of a doubleheader and tied the Naval nine in the nightcap at Gilmore Field before 3000 fans.

Schoolboy Howard was the winning pitcher in the first game but Ken Richardson slammed out a homer with two men on base to give the Naval team a tie in the second tilt.

JOHN THOMAS TKO's CUBAN

OAKLAND.—John Thomas, 139, Los Angeles protege of Bert Lewis and George Tolson, pounded out an eight-round technical kayo over Ramiro Almagro, 140, Cuba, in their scheduled ten-round main event bout here last Thursday night. Almagro was game but could not match clever sharp-shooting Thomas.

Thomas, sharpening up for a possible title bout with Juan Zurita this month, looked very good in disposing of his Cuban opponent in thorough fashion.

Jeff Gridders Tie Fremont '11'

Prep football in the Southern League last weekend found Jefferson High and Fremont playing a 6-6 tie, Manual Arts defeating Polytechnic 12-6, and Roosevelt beating Washington 7-0.

Mrs. Mollie Catherine H. Moore Of Pasadena Passed Saturday

Mrs. Mollie Catherine Hardena Moore, a resident of Pasadena for almost half a century, died at daybreak last Saturday. She was seventy-five, having been born in the little town of Abingdon, Va., on August 3, 1869. She was educated at Hampton Institute, Knoxville College, and the East Tennessee Industrial School Department of Nurse Training.

At an early age she became a teacher in the public schools of Bristol, Va., and Knoxville, Tenn. While teaching in Knoxville she met and married James C. Moore, a rising young professor who later became a nationally-prominent educator, lecturer and humanitarian.

Seven children, Elizabeth, Zephyr, Ruth, James, Titus, aul and Miriam Hardena, were born of this union. The son, Titus, and his father, Professor Moore, died in 1919. Mrs. Moore was proud of her three grandchildren, and her great-grandchild. Her warm spirit made her the fountain of love to her family and her friends.

During her long residence in Pasadena, the deceased was an active worker in every important civic, social and political movement. She was the organizer and a charter member of such organizations as the State Federation of Women's Clubs, the Harriet Tubman Club of Pasadena, and the Sojourner Truth Home of Los Angeles. She helped to organize the Pasadena USO for Negro soldiers. She was an ardent clubwoman, and was known for her unselfish attitude and her willingness to assume responsibility and to work in harmony with others.

The motto of her life, "Our Goal—a Life of Service," hangs in the auditorium of the Sojourner Truth Home. From early childhood, when she was converted, she served in the church, devoting her greatest interest to the Sunday School and the Missionary Societies. She was a member of the First AME Church of Pasadena, from which institution funeral service will be held, with the pastor, the Rev. Jonathan A. Dames, officiating, and the Revs. W. D. Carter, George R. Garner, J. M. Brown, S. M. Beane and L. G. Robinson, participating. Interment will be at Rosegate Cemetery.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

The Spiritual Five Quartette will appear in a musical program this Sunday at the Harmony Baptist Church, 327 East 42nd street, Nov. 5, at 5 p. m. A friendly welcome awaits you and all of your friends at this church. Rev. C. Allen Hemphill, pastor. Services as usual each Sunday.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace," Paul declares to the Romans in the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Adam and Fallen Man" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

A Bible citation from Genesis reads, "And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years: And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him." Paul says in Hebrews, "By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "If Enoch's perception had been confined to the evidence before his material senses, he could never have 'walked with God,' nor been guided into the demonstration of life eternal."

The EAGLE BIBLE QUESTION CORNER

Conducted by
The Sweet Chariot Hour
Bible Correspondence School
Address All Questions to
Eagle Question Corner
4075 S. Central Ave.,
Los Angeles, Calif.

The CALIFORNIA EAGLE offers all its readers the choice of two Free Correspondence Courses of study in the Bible, with no fees collected and no postage charges made. The new introductory Course of 20 lessons, divided into two sections of 10 lessons each, has been prepared especially to meet the needs of those beginning for the first time the systematic study of the Bible. Also there is the standard course of 30 lessons which many of our readers have taken or are taking. The only text book needed for either of these courses is the Holy Bible. A Certificate is issued upon completion of either of these courses. When you write be sure to state which course you desire. Address a card or letter to the California Eagle.

I have been a Christian for quite a number of years, but I do not enjoy a satisfying Christian experience. There seems to be something lacking in my life. Could you suggest some Bible verses that weld help me to obtain a more satisfactory experience?—B.M., Los Angeles.

It is so easy to drift into an experience such as you describe. The following suggestions have been found helpful in obtaining a satisfying Christian experience:

Trust is god—Jude 24, 25.

Keep your eyes on Jesus—Hebrew 12:2.

Surrender your will to God—Galatians 2:20.

Let God's Spirit Guide you—John 16:13.

Don't disobey your conscience—1 Timothy 1:19.

Pray much — 1 Thessalonians 5:17.

Study your Bible much—John 5:39.

Not only read, but heed, God's Word—Hebrews 2:1.

Work for others—James 1:27.

Abide in Christ—1 John 2:6.

Guard your associations — James 4:4.

Guard your conversation — Ephesians 4:29.

Guard against evil influence—1 John 2:15.

Attend church whenever possible—Hebrews 10:25.

Keep up the fight against sin—Colossians 3:8, 9.

Cultivate Christian graces (read these portions often; they will help you): Colossians 3:12-7; 1 Peters 3:8-18; 1 Thessalonians 5: 14-24; Philippians 4:4-0; 2 Peter 1:3-10; Romans 12.

Hold fast what you profess—Hebrews 4:14.

And remember this promise: "I can do allthings thruogh Christ which sterngtheneh me."—Philippians 4:13.

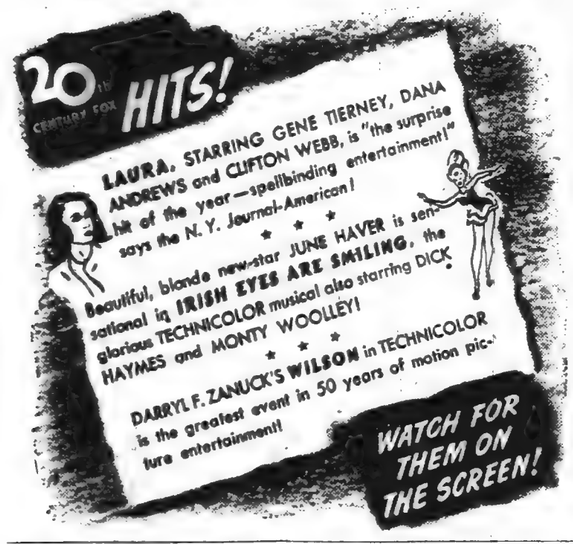
In Exodus the twelfth chapter and the 35th verse, the Israelites were told by the Lord to "bordow" jewels from the Egyptians. These Israelites knew that theye were not going to give them back. Wasn't that deception?—Mrs. J.S., Long Beach



The word "borrow" in this verse really has the meaning of "ask." In fact, it so translated in the Revised Version of the Bible. They were not loans on the part of the Egpytians. They were outright gifts. As a result of the terrible judgments on the land of Egypt, the Eqyptians were more than glad to make gifts. These gifts helped in the construction of the Tabernacle.

Wives of Interdenomniational Ministers In Race Conference

The Inter-Denominational Minister's Wives Council of Los Angeles, Calif., was hostessess to perhaps the most formidable gathering of racial groups ever assembled in that city. On last Wednesday, at the Church Federation Headquarters, 3330 West Adams, this unique assembly took place. There were more than a hundred of the wives of ministers of various denominations, aside from ministers and other guests. It was one among the few public meetings given annually by these ecclesiastical matrons.

Outstanding among the speakers was Rabbi David Cohen, of Temple B'nai Isreal in Pasadena. He thrilled his hearers with many illuminating facts concerning his people. He pointed out that the Jewish people represented a civilization and not a nation nor a race. Many people of different racial varieties were presented and spoke Among them were Princess Atola and Mrs. F. P. Frazier, both American Indians, or Amerindians as they called themselves.

Another was Mrs. Russell Grant, a Japanese girl in Pasadena. Mrs. Boley rerpesented the North American Caucasian and Mrs. Billamy Tonas, a native of Damascus, represented Syrians of the Near East. Mrs. Frances Thompson stood for the English Nordics and Mrs. Shaw, a radio arttist of rare talent, represented the American Negro. Aside from these were Chinese, Philipino, West Indian and Mexican representatives.

The spacious auditorium was filled to capacity with people of many racial indentities, all of whom proved to be Americans. After the program, refreshments were served in the elaborately decorated dining room, and a wholesome hour of fellowship enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Esther Isaacs was chairman of program committee and Mrs. Minnie L. Dames, the Council President, presided.
